

Scottish History

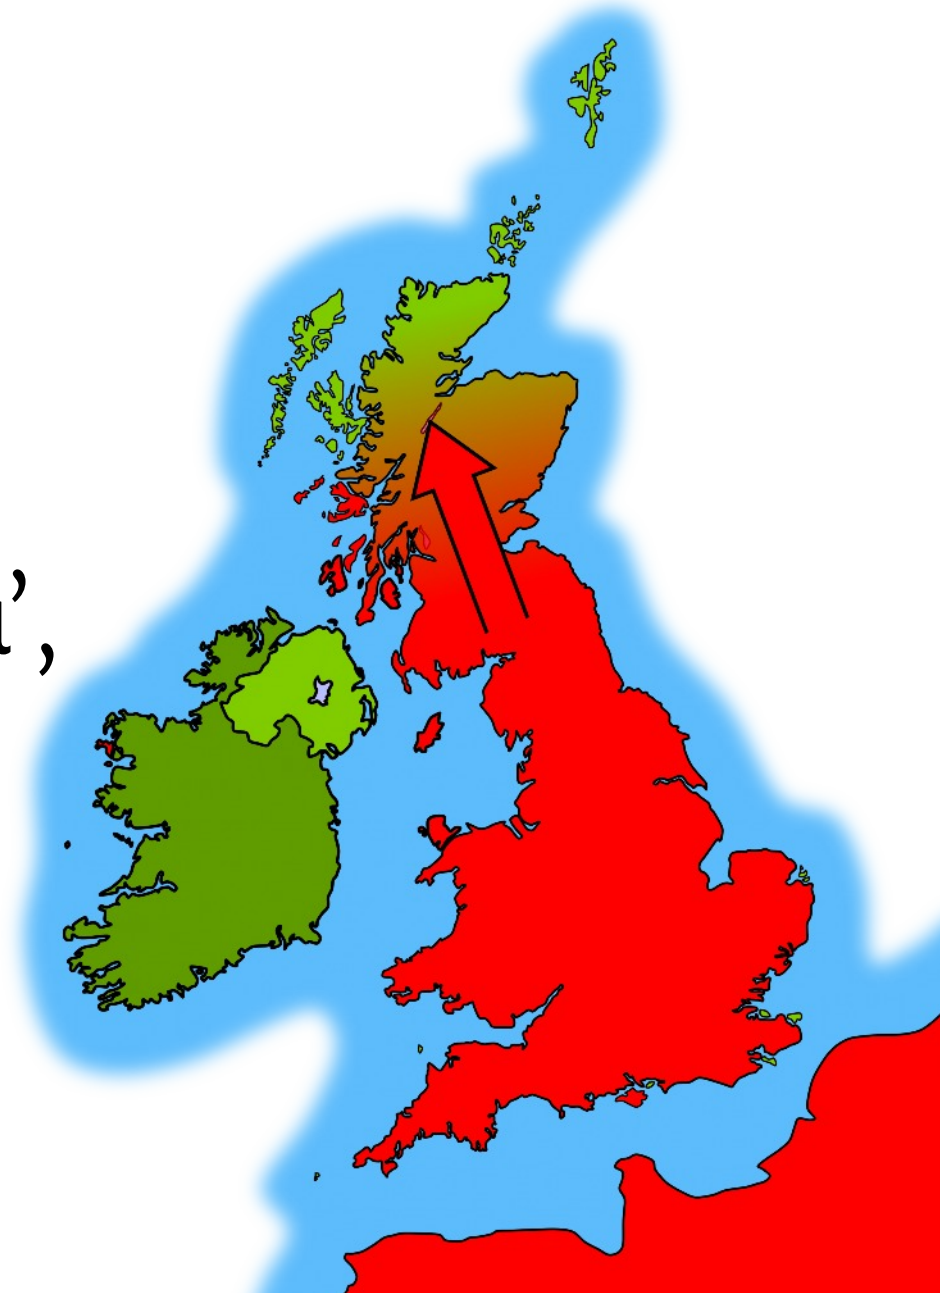

55BC

The Romans invade Britain.

80AD

Julius Agricola,
a Roman, invades
'Albion' or 'Caledonia',
the ancient names
for Scotland.

84

The Celtic tribes of Caledonia unite together under Calgacus to fight the Romans. But they are defeated.

121-129

Hadrian's Wall is built.

397

Saint Ninian
introduces Christianity to Scotland.

476

The Roman Empire collapses and the Romans leave Britain.

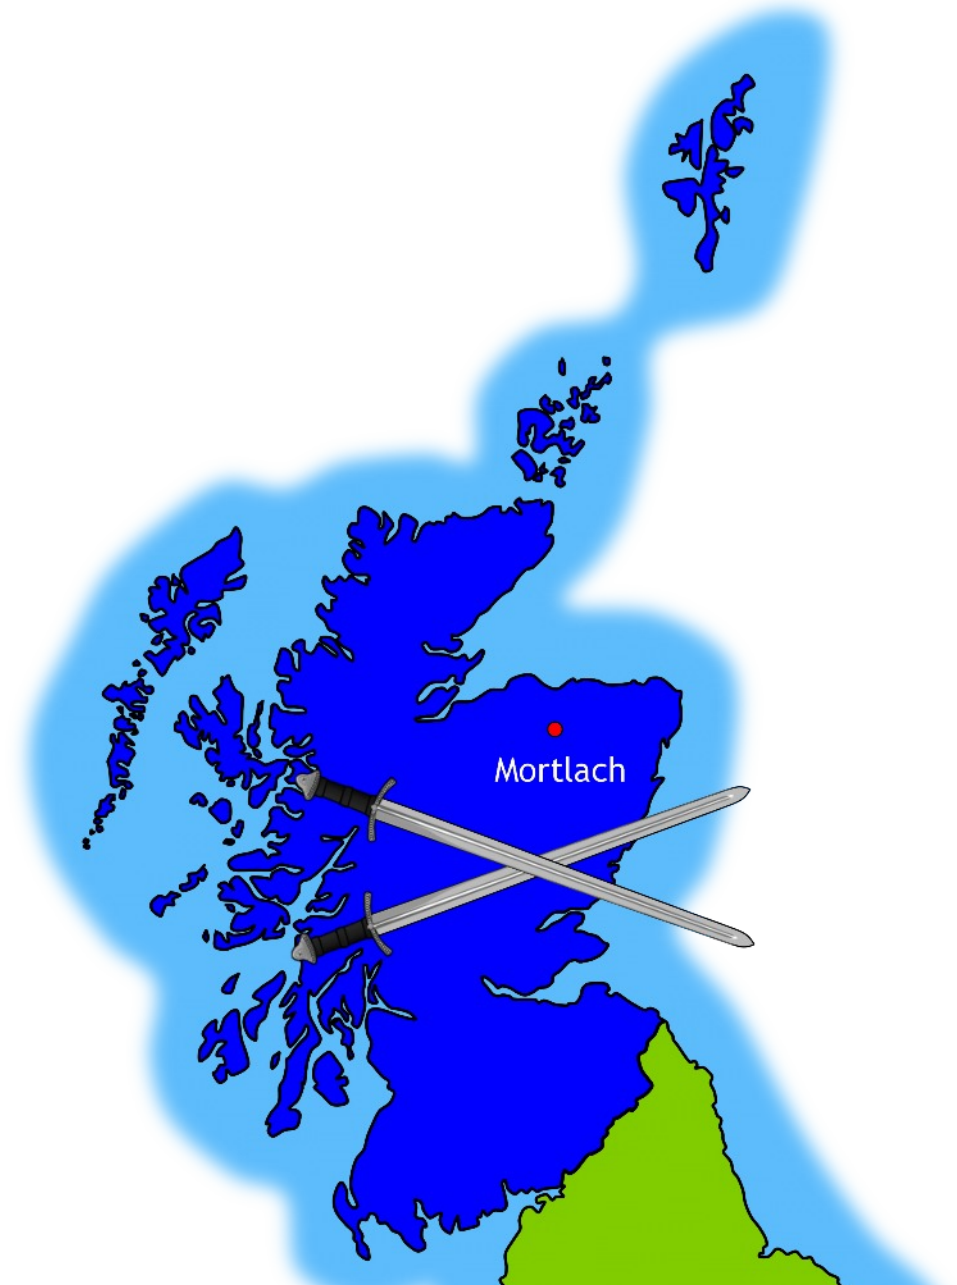

800s-900s

The Scandinavian Vikings raid Scotland.

1005

King Malcolm II rules Scotland and defeats the Vikings
at the battle of Mortlach.

1034

King Duncan I becomes the new Scottish King.

1040

Macbeth kills Duncan I and reigns as King of Scotland.

1249

Alexander III becomes King of Scotland.

1272

William Wallace
is born.

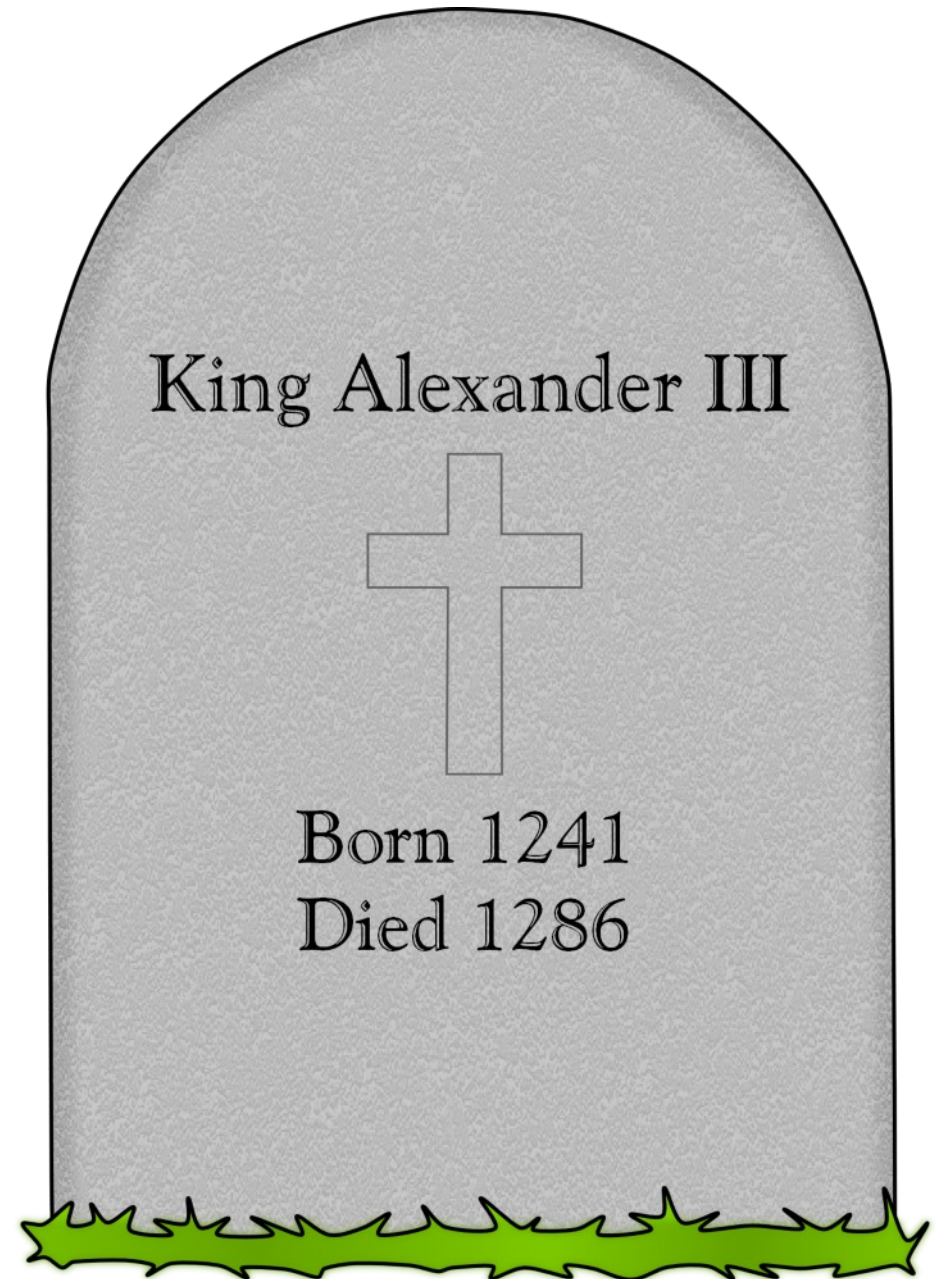

1274

Robert the Bruce
is born.

1286

King Alexander III
dies.

1292

John Balliol, an English Baron is crowned King of Scotland
at Scone.

1297

William Wallace
leads the Scottish war of Independence.

1298

The Scottish are defeated by Edward I of England (known as Edward Longshanks) at the Battle of Falkirk.

1305

William Wallace is executed in London.

1306

Robert the Bruce
is crowned King.

1314

The Battle of Bannockburn.
Robert the Bruce
defeats the English and gains Scottish independence.

1371

Robert II, the first
Stewart King, takes the Scottish throne.

1513

The Battle of Flodden Field.
James IV is killed
in battle.

1559

John Knox brings reformation in Scotland with his sermon at Perth.

1561

Mary Queen of Scots
returns to Scotland
from France.

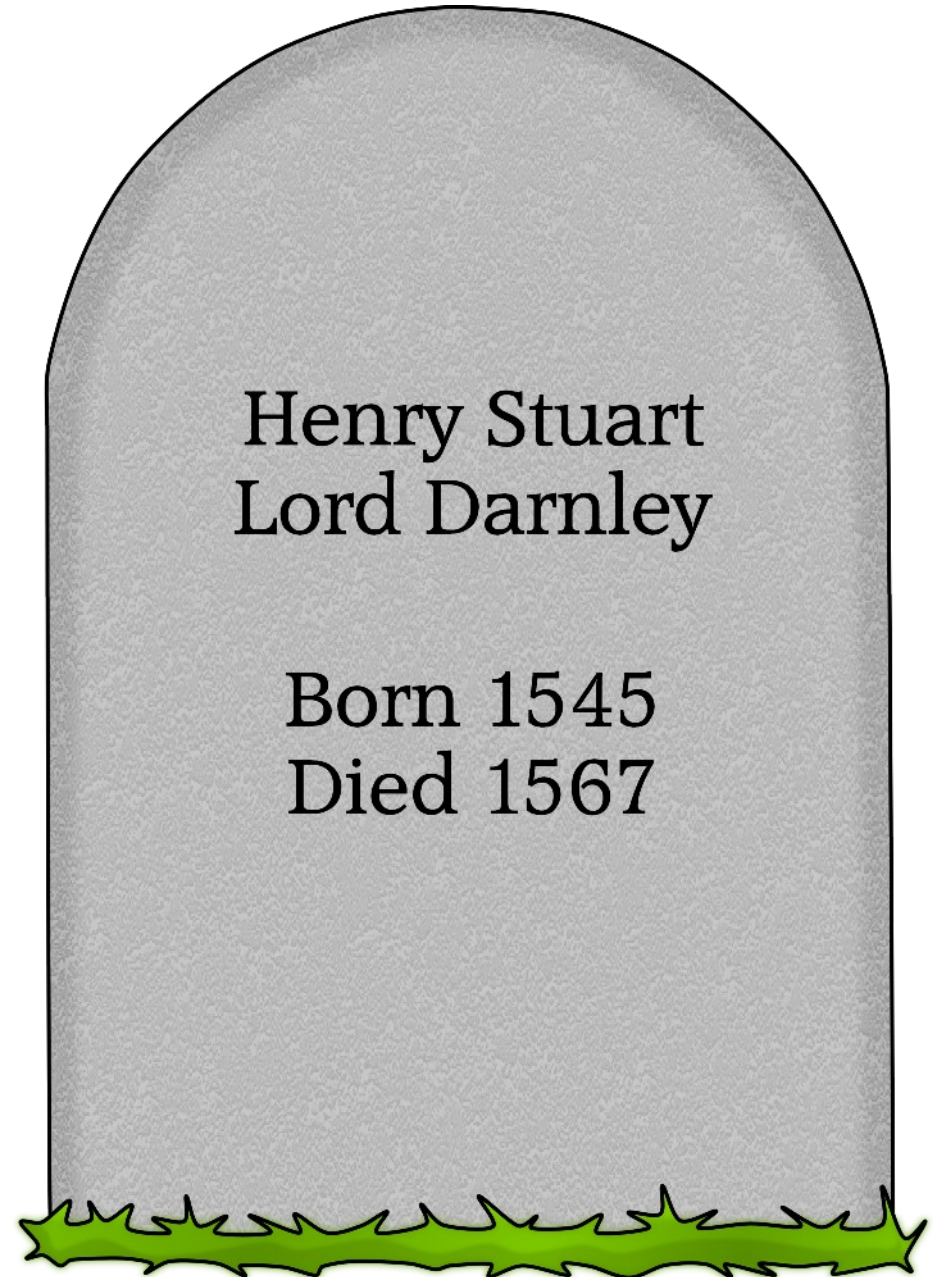

1565

Mary Queen of Scots marries
Henry, Lord
Darnley.

1567

Henry Darnley is murdered.
Queen Mary
marries Bothwell.

1568

Mary Queen of Scots flees to England and is put in prison by Elizabeth I.

Her baby son becomes King of Scotland.

1587

Mary Queen of Scots
is executed at Fotheringhay Castle.

1603

James VI of Scotland becomes James I of England when Queen Elizabeth I dies.

This brings about the Union of the Crowns.

1692

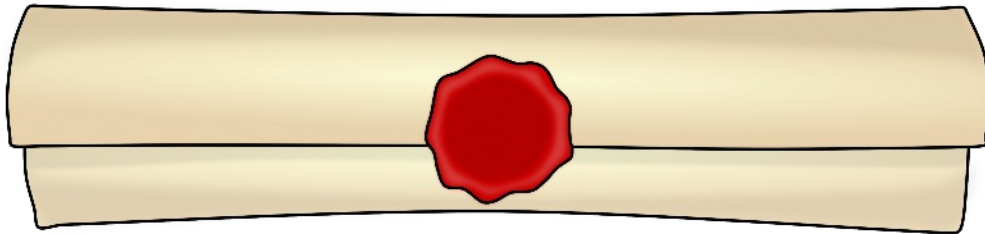

The Massacre of Glencoe.

The Campbells murder the MacDonald clan.

1707

The Act of Union is passed and Scotland is united with England to form
Great Britain.

1745

'Bonnie Prince Charlie' (Prince Charles Edward Stuart) returns to Scotland to claim the British throne.

1746

Battle of Culloden
where the Jacobite Scots defeated and Bonnie Prince Charlie
flees to France.

