

Once upon a time
there lived a girl called

Rapunzel

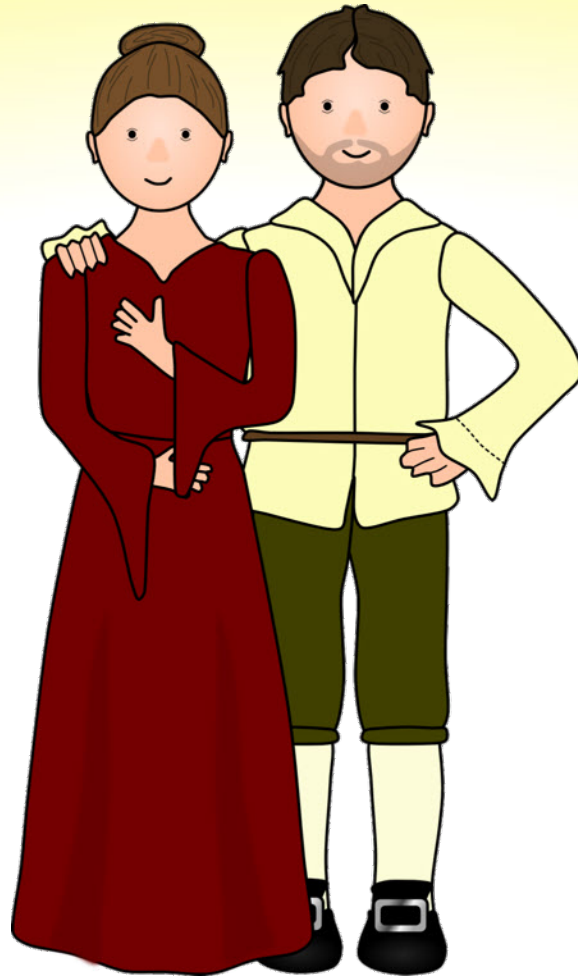

Rapunzel

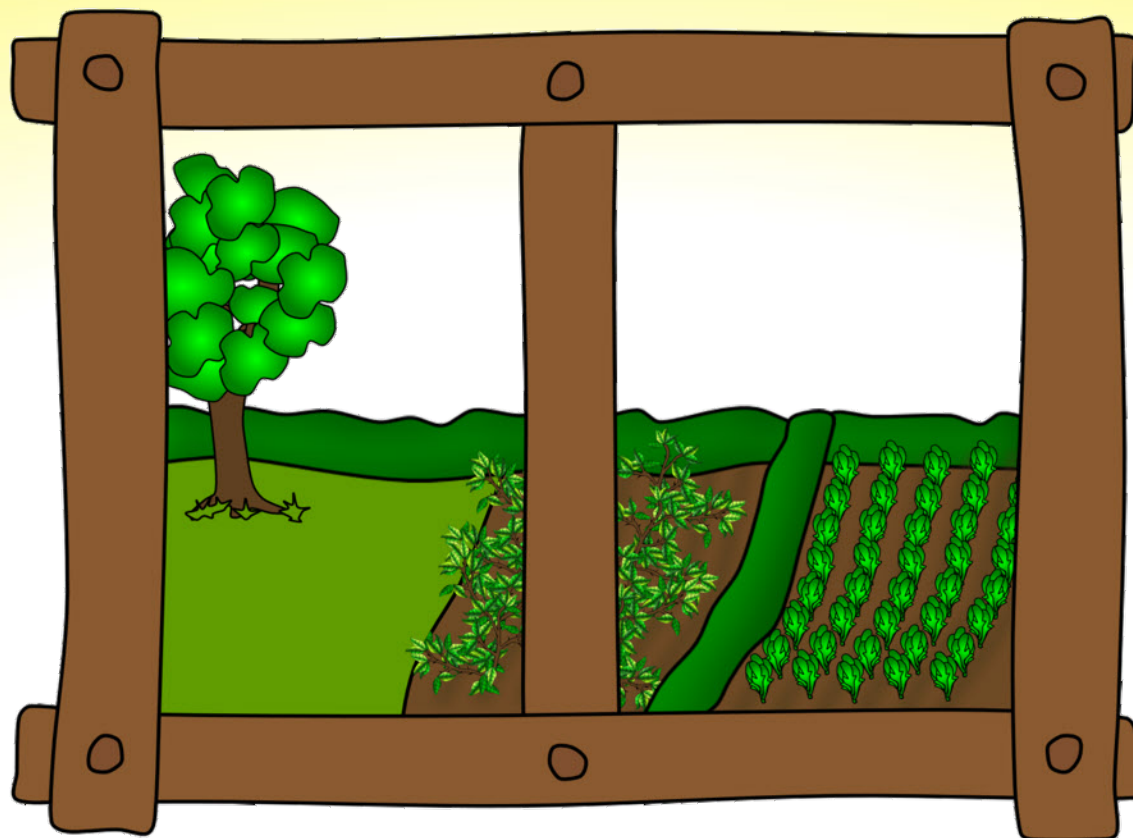

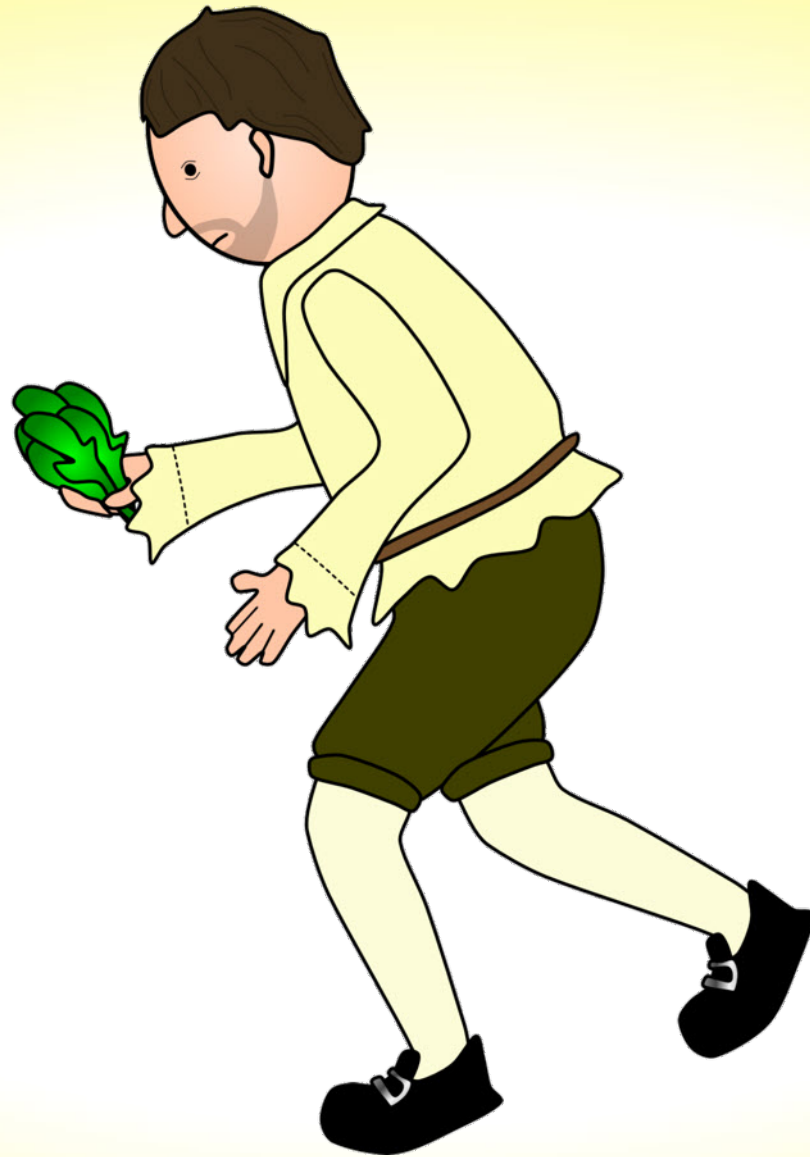

The couple wanted a child.

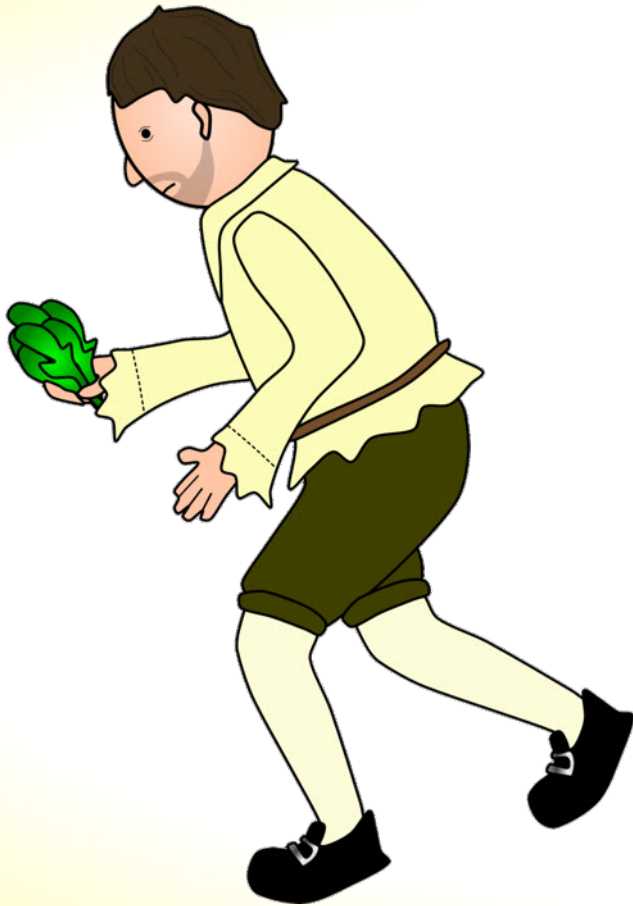

Finally, their wish came true.
The woman was pregnant.

From her window, the woman could see a garden full of rapunzel lettuce. She longed to eat some of it.

The man stole some for his wife.

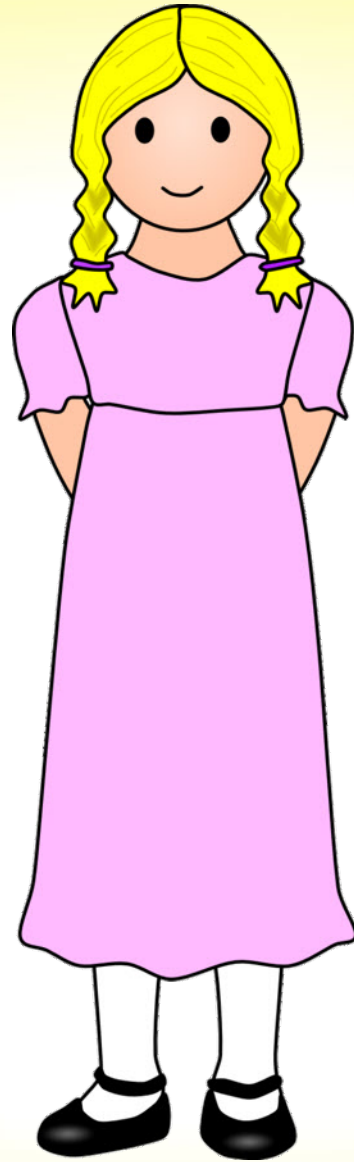

The witch caught him.

When the baby was born,
the witch took her away.
She called the child Rapunzel.

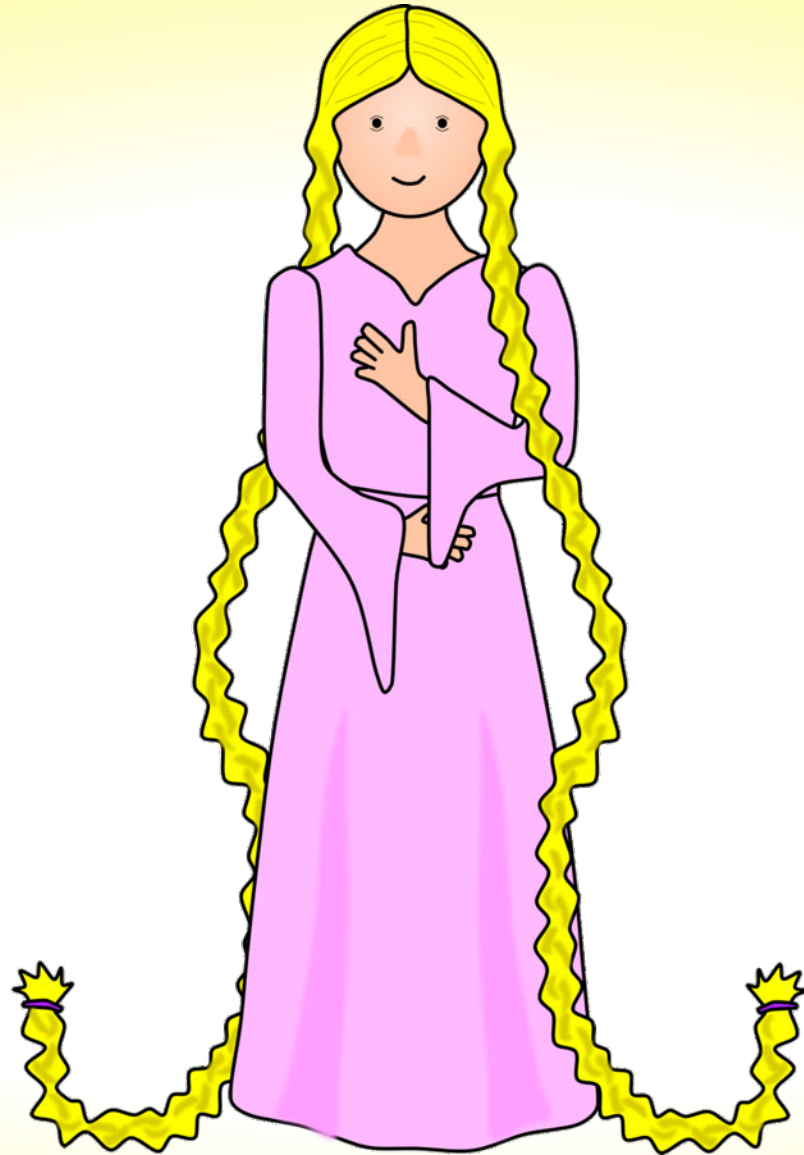

Rapunzel grew to be beautiful.

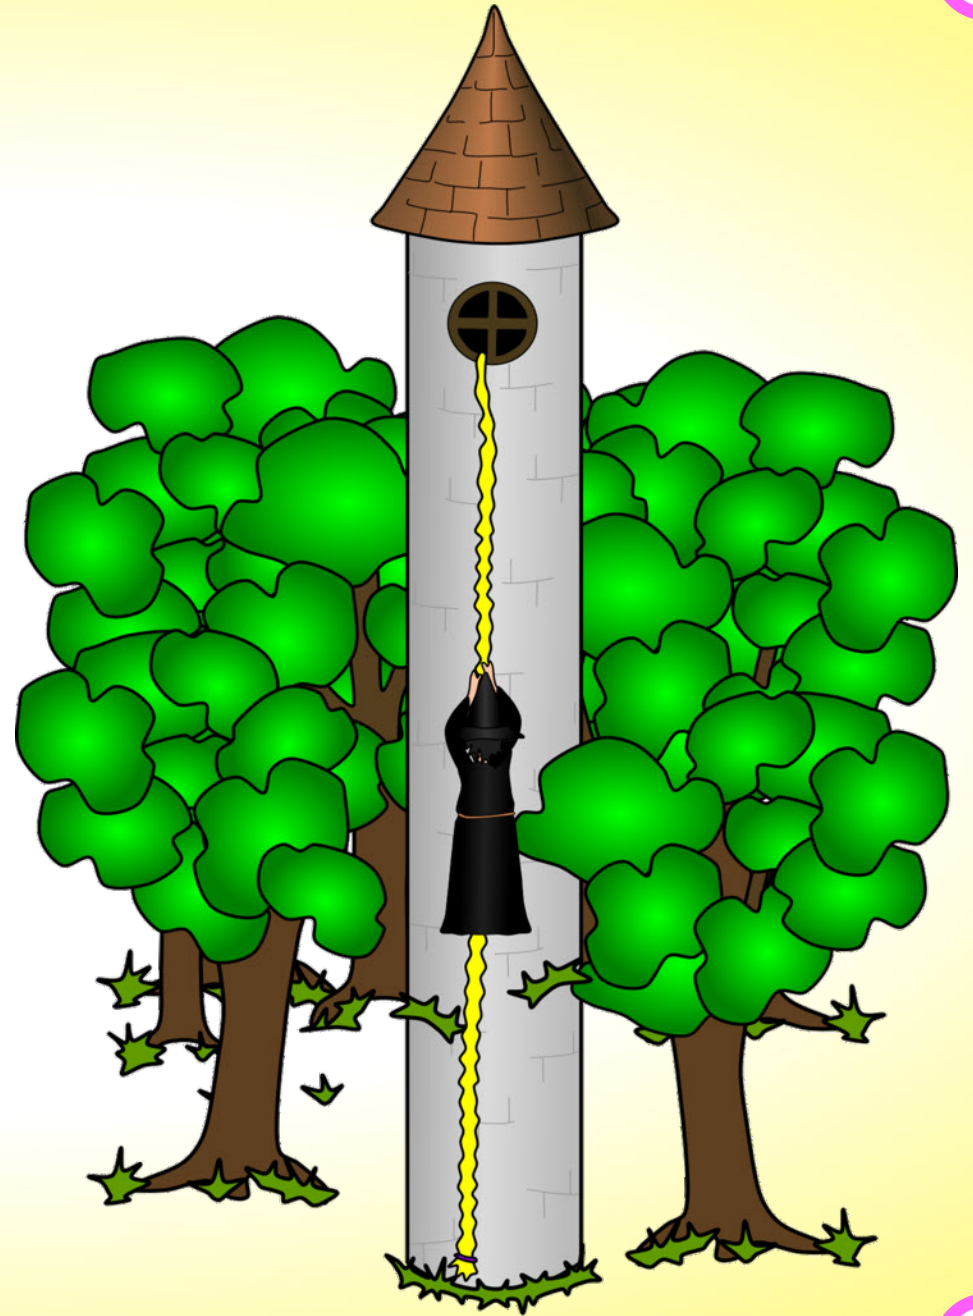

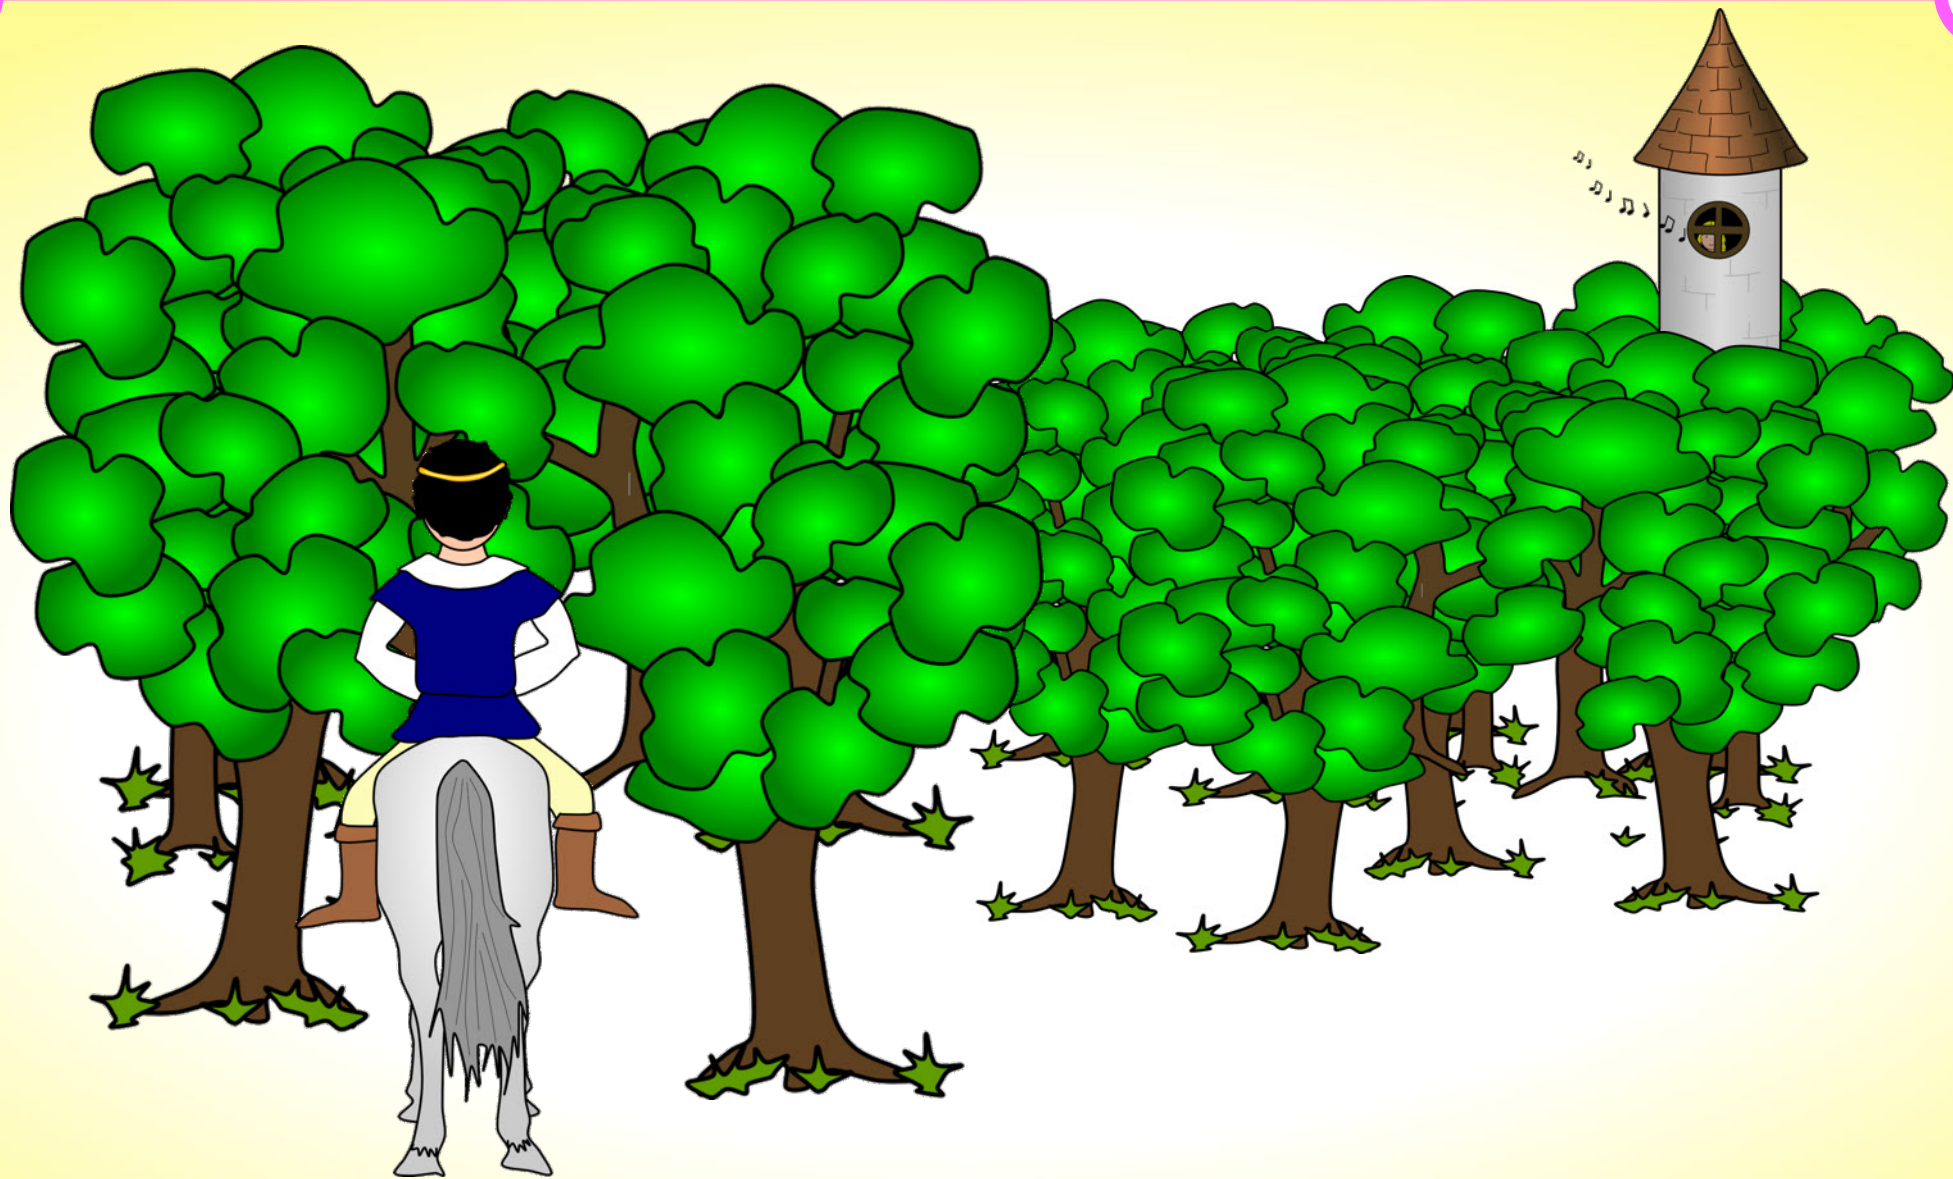

The witch shut her in a tall tower,
deep in the forest.

Rapunzel's hair grew very long.

When she visited,
the witch climbed Rapunzel's hair.

A prince heard Rapunzel singing.

The prince climbed Rapunzel's hair.

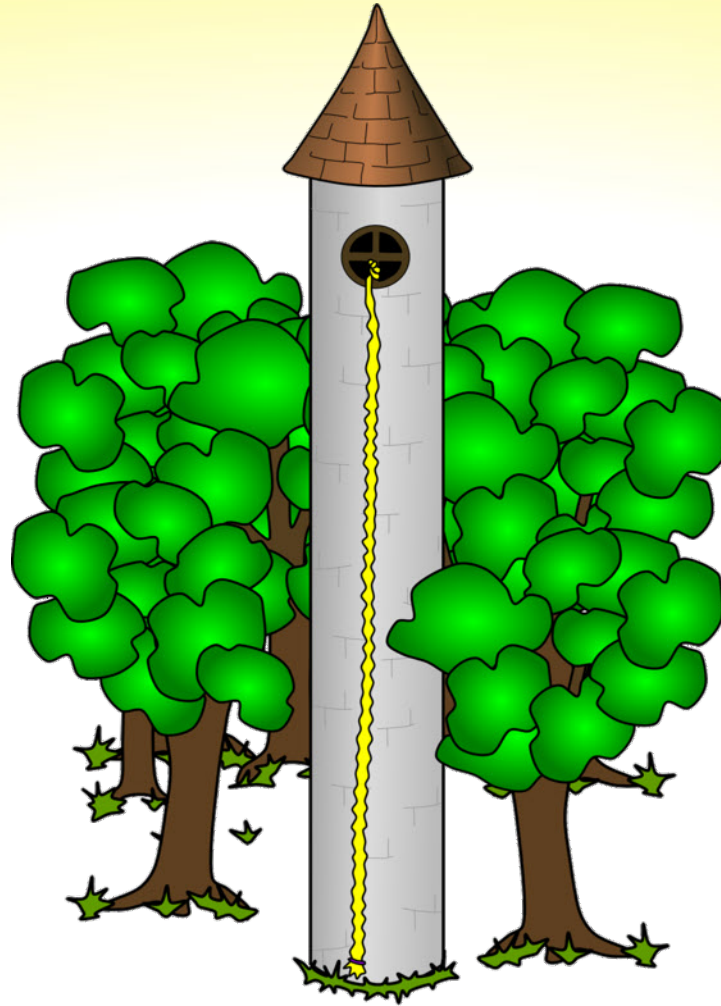

The prince and Rapunzel met.

The witch found out and cut off Rapunzel's long hair.

Then she sent Rapunzel
to a far away land.

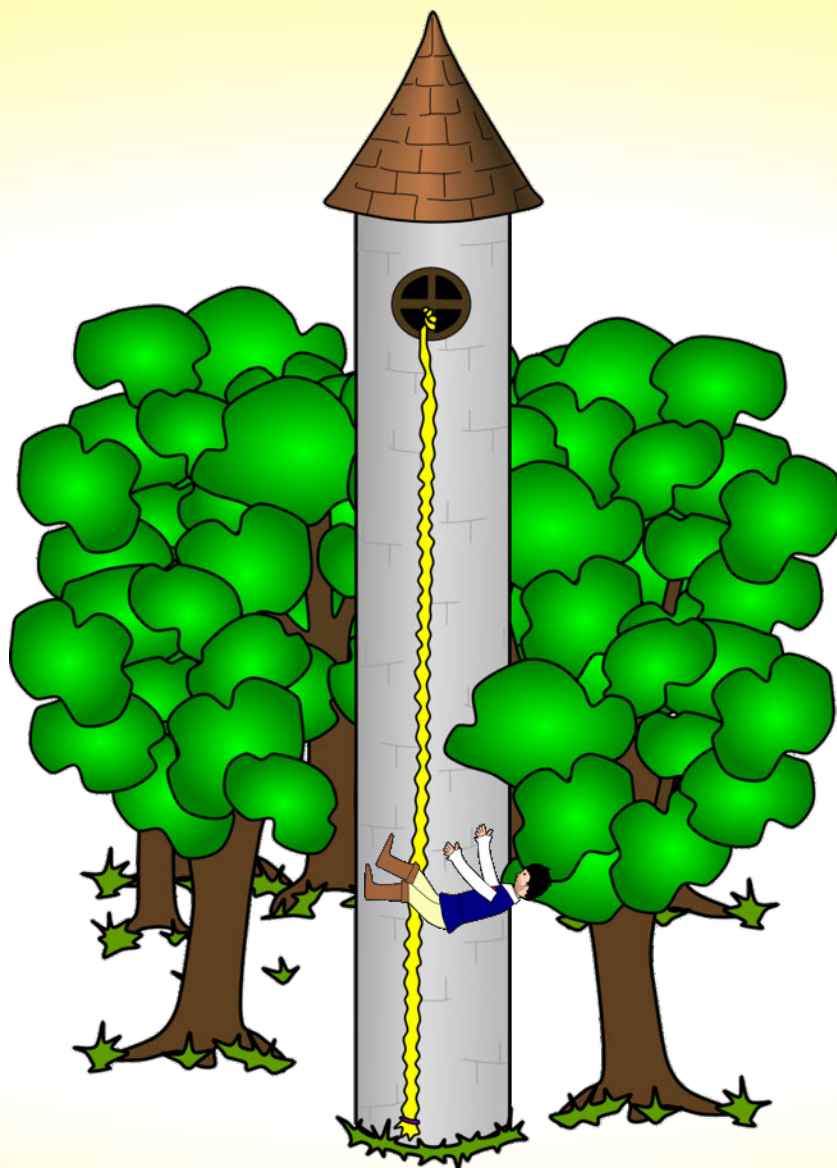

She tied Rapunzel's hair to the window to trick the prince.

The prince climbed the knotted hair.

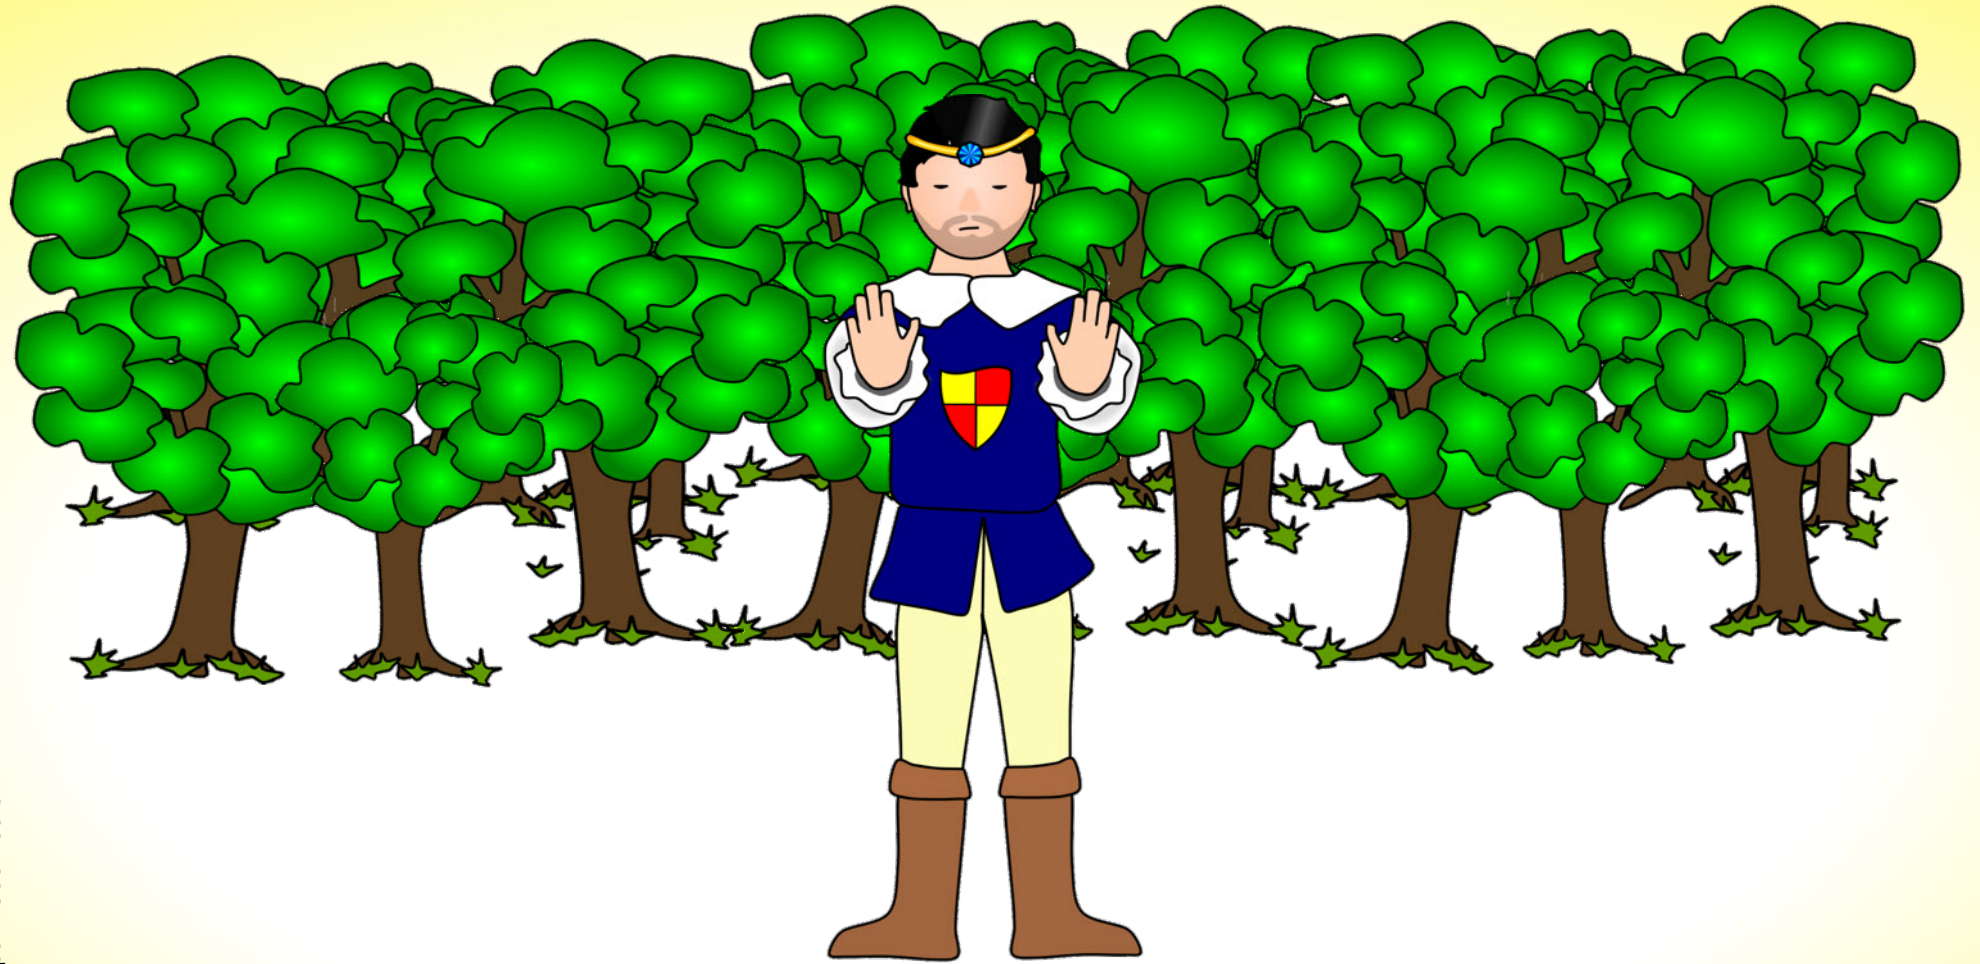

“You’ll never see her again!”
the witch screamed.

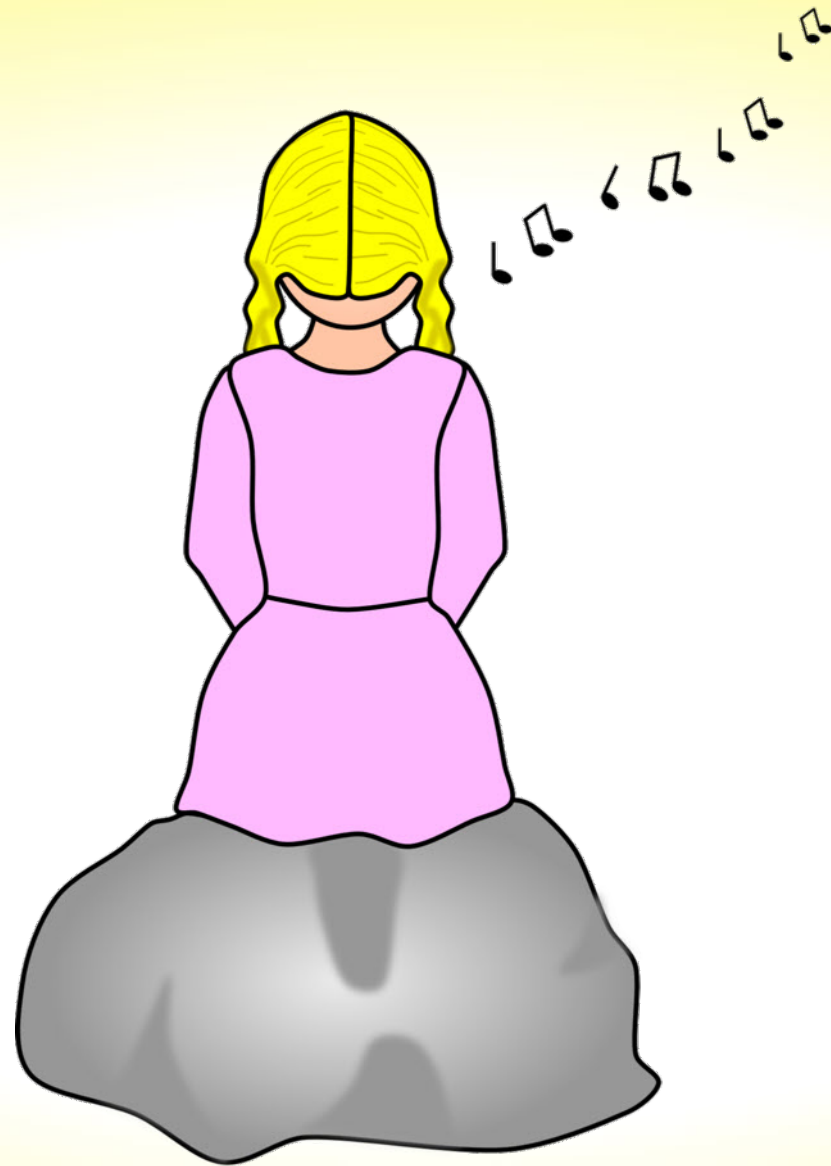

The prince jumped from the window...

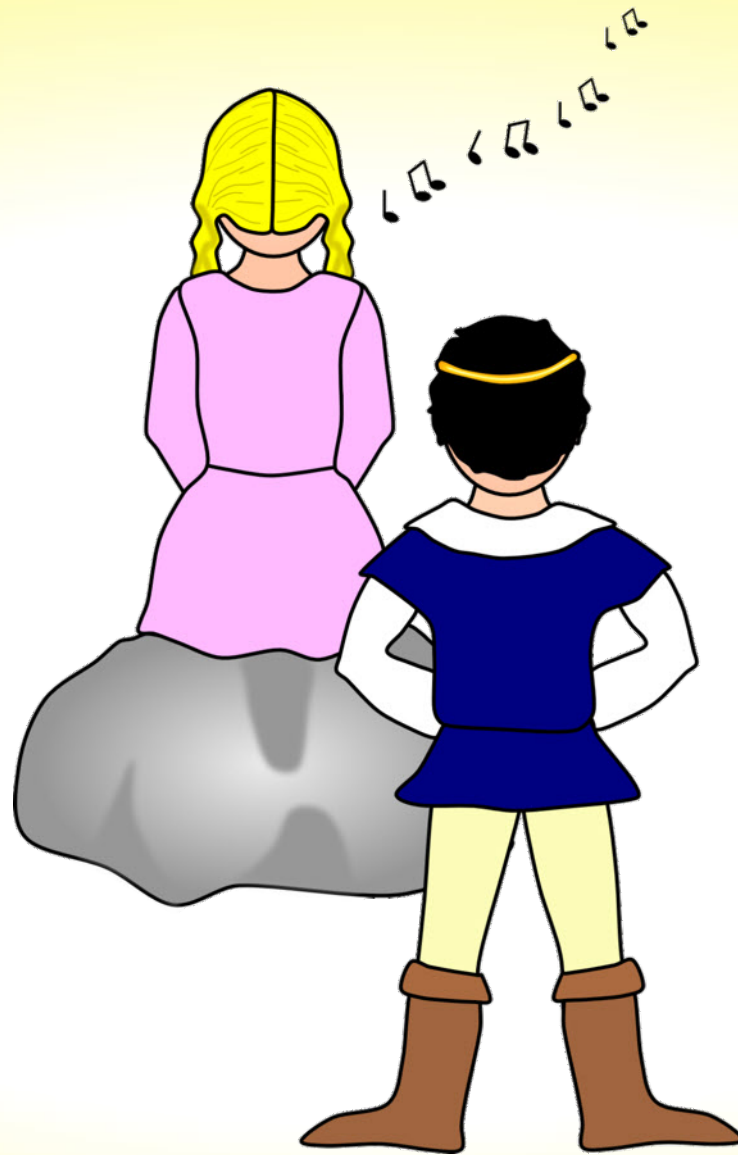

...and landed in a thorn bush.
The thorns blinded him.

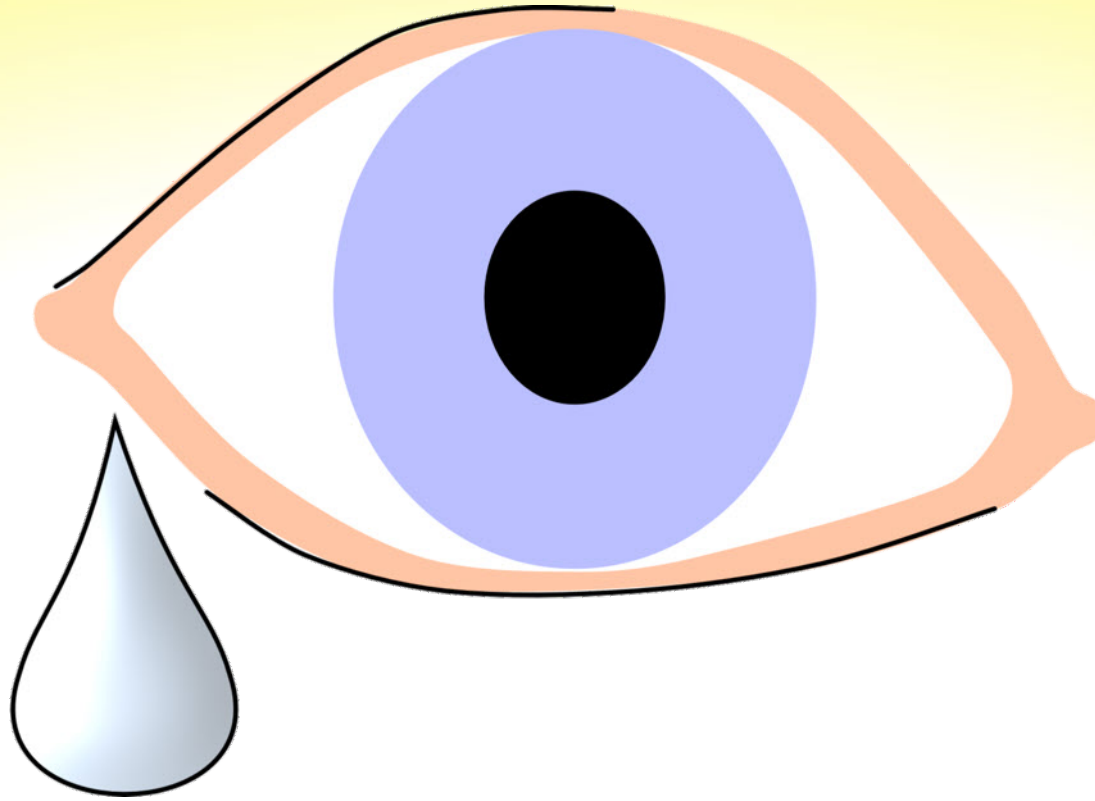

He wandered through the forest
for months.

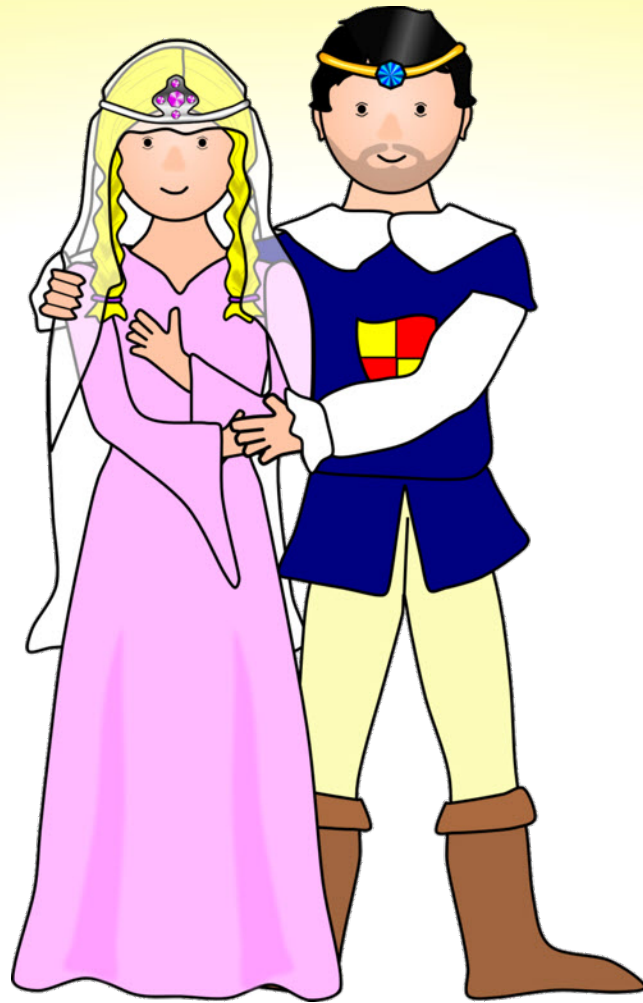

One day he heard someone singing.

He had found Rapunzel!

Rapunzel wept tears of joy.
Her tears fell into the prince's eyes and suddenly he could see again!

They got married and lived happily ever after.
