

A graphic with a light blue background and a dark blue border. In the center, the words "Science" and "Groups" are written in a large, white, rounded font with a thick black outline. A magnifying glass with a black handle and a light blue lens is positioned over the text, with the lens centered over the word "Science". On the left and right sides, there are two glass beakers with cork stoppers, each containing a yellowish-green liquid. The entire graphic is set against a white background.
