

Jesus meets Zacchaeus

Zacchaeus

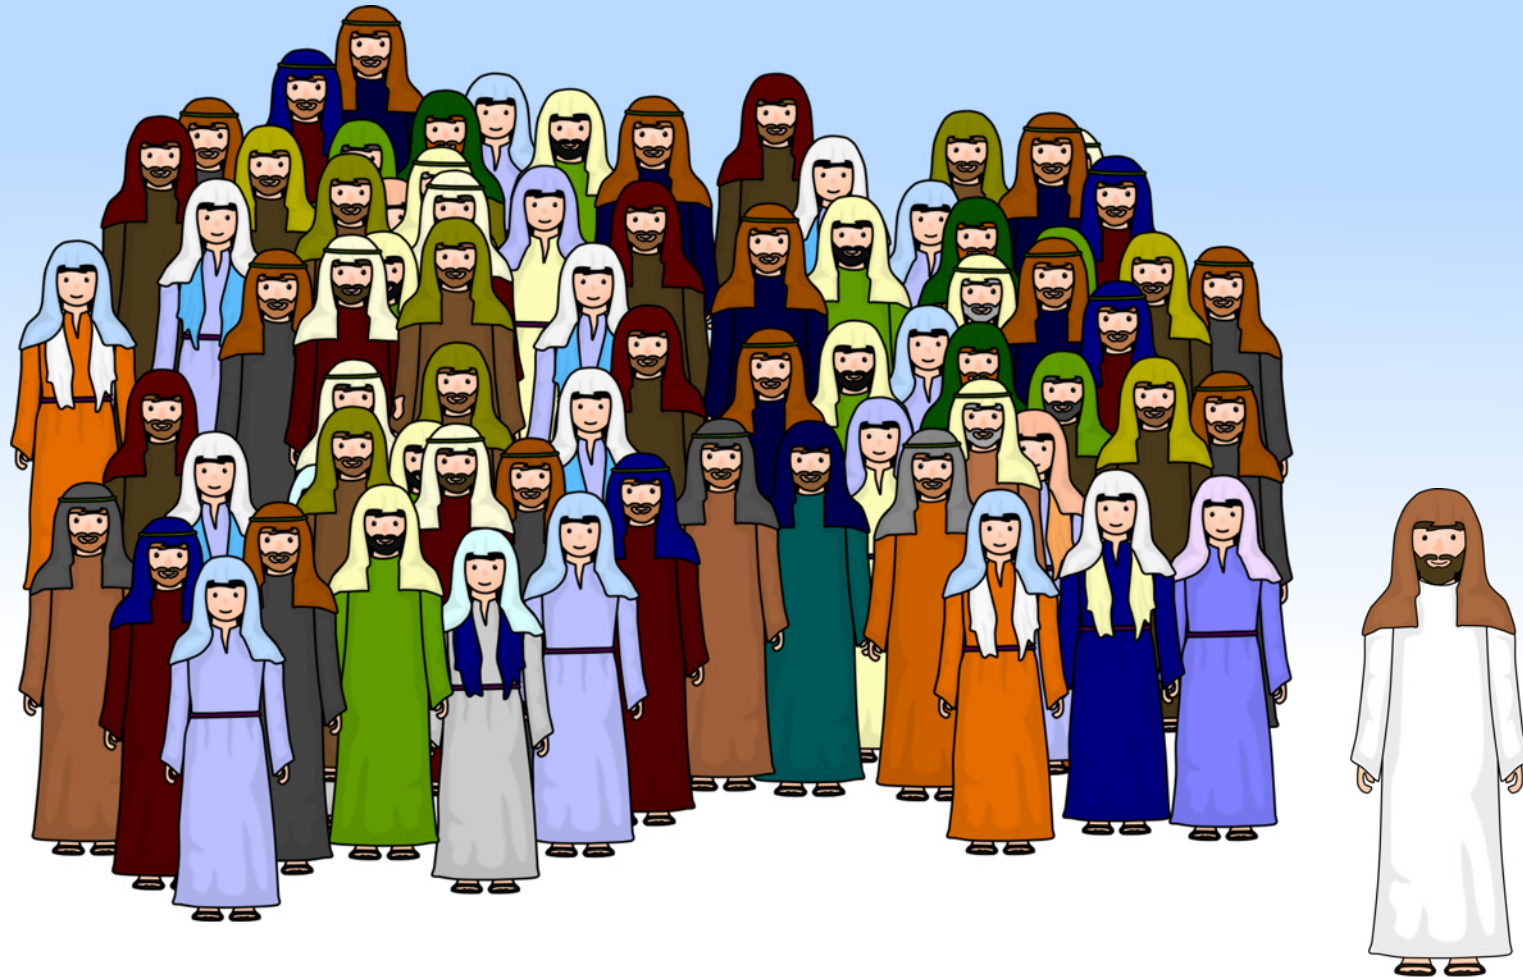

Jesus

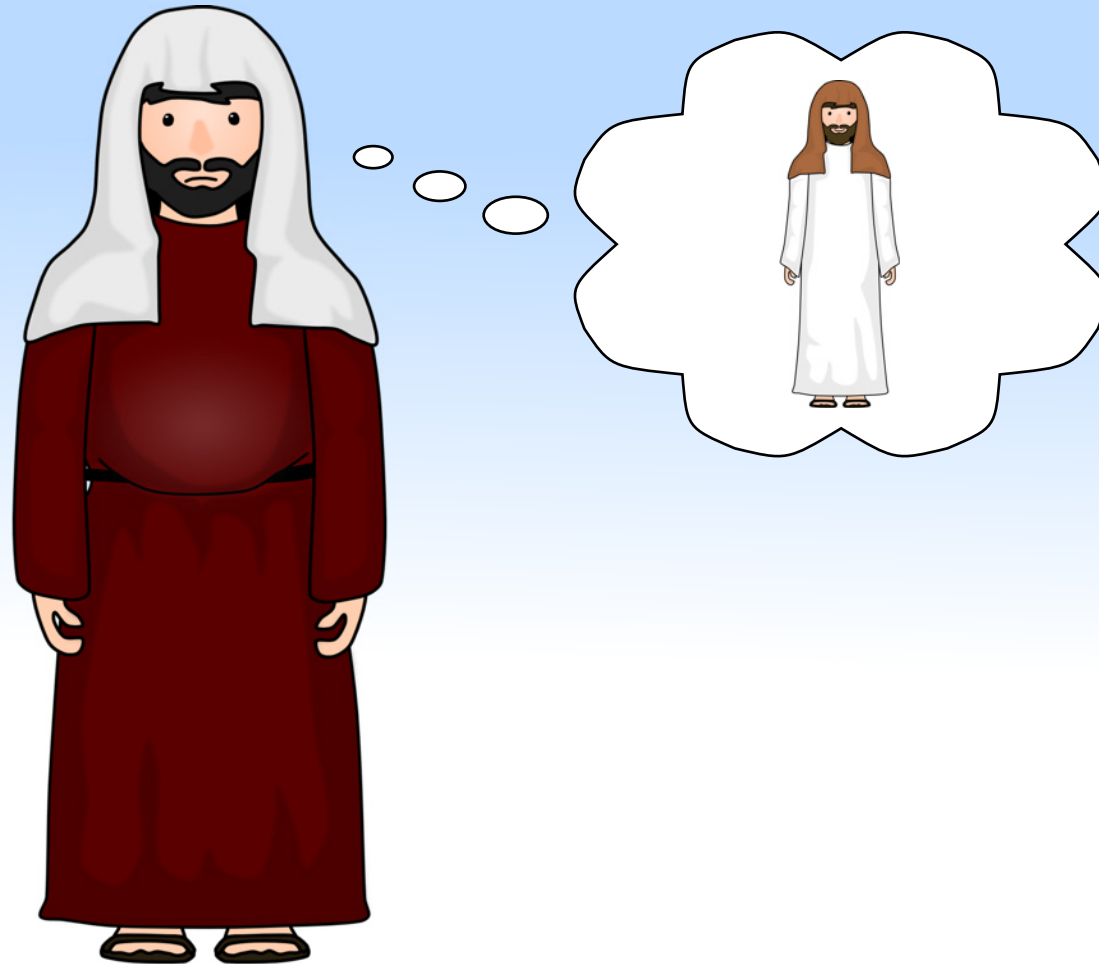

Zacchaeus was a tax collector.

People didn't like him.
He wasn't a very happy man.

One day, Jesus was passing with a huge crowd following him.

Jesus was famous for his miracles.
Zacchaeus really wanted to meet him.

But he was small and couldn't see past all the people.

So he ran ahead
and climbed a sycamore tree.

Jesus stopped right by his tree.

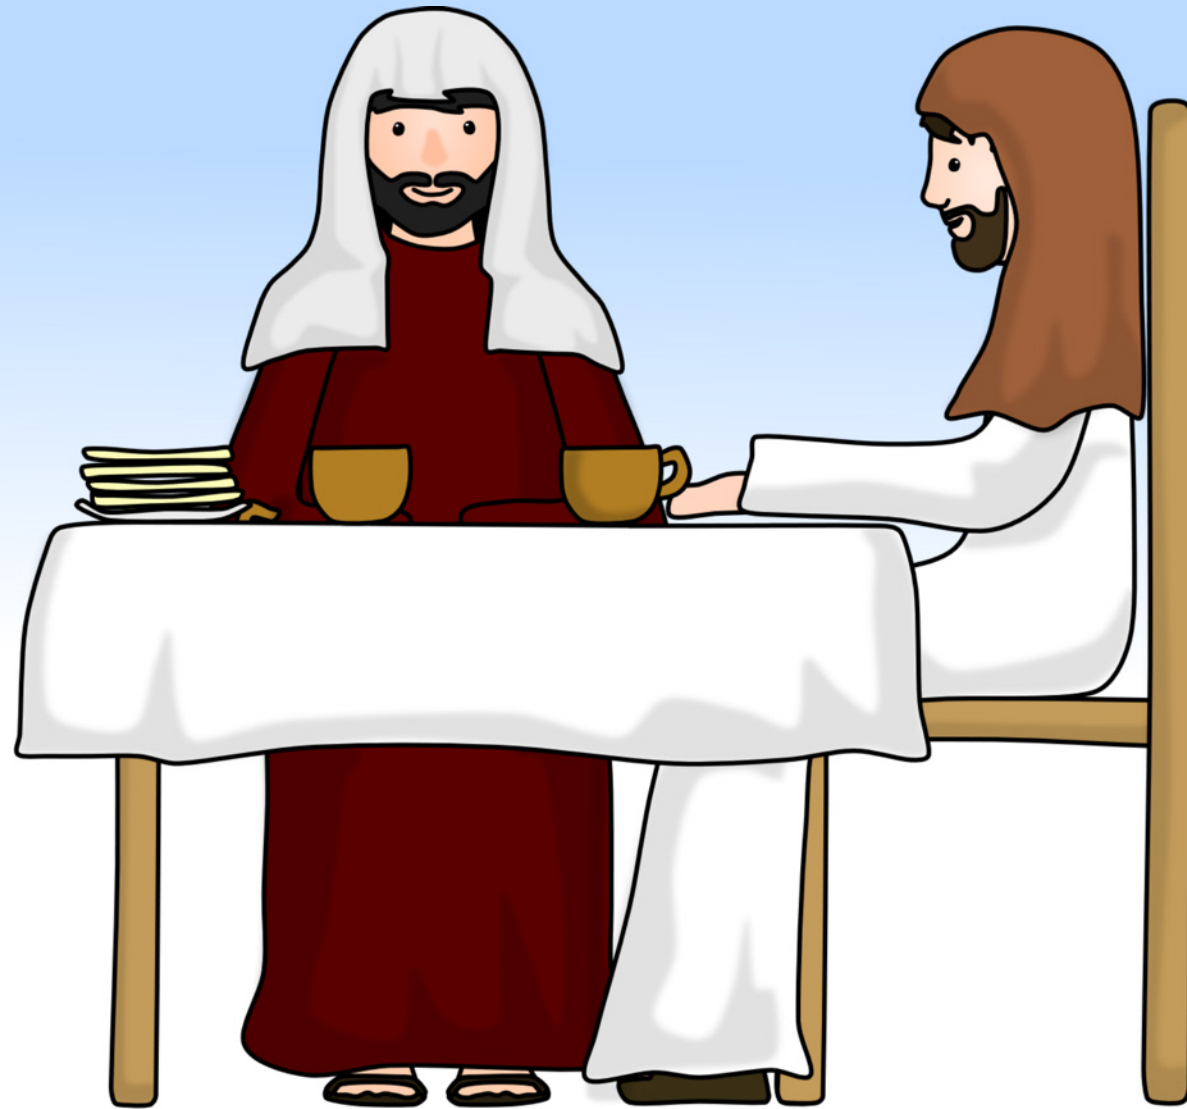

Jesus saw Zacchaeus and called out his name. Then he said, “I must eat at your house today!”

Zacchaeus was so amazed and happy!
He came down from the tree as quickly
as he could.

The crowd were cross.
They despised tax collectors like Zacchaeus.

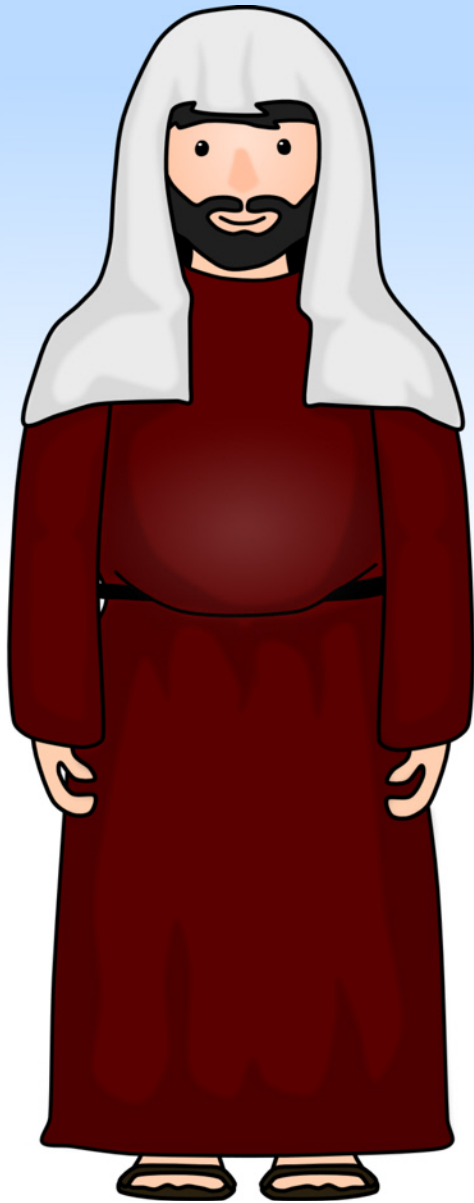

Jesus ate at Zacchaeus' house.

Jesus brought a new life to Zacchaeus and he became a different person.

“Lord, I give half my possessions to the poor.
And if I have ever stolen from anyone
I will give them back four times as much!”
