Walking Without, Journeying Within

An inter-spiritual exploration of Israel.

Tour the Holy Land with Rabbi Rami and Dr. Gordon Peerman

October 4–14, 2018

witte

Join us in this outer journey triggering an inner awakening of the perennial wisdom at the mystic heart of four faiths: Judaism, Christianity, Islam, and Baha'i.

As we explore historical and religious places holy to these four religions, we also immerse ourselves in their sacred texts, mystical teachings, and contemplative practices to recognize and reclaim the shared wisdom to which all humanity is heir. We will discover the core teachings of the Jewish kabbalists and Hasidim, walk in the footsteps of the historical Jesus and plumb the depths of the Cosmic Christ, open to the truth of Islam and Sufism, and engage with the universalist message of Baha'u'llah.

In Genesis 12 Abraham and Sarah are called to lech lecha: to leave home and journey to a place where they are to become a blessing to all the families of the earth. While the Bible portrays only their outer travels, lech (walk) lecha (toward your Self) speaks to an inner journey as well. Our tour honors both: being a journey of outer tourism and inner transformation.

Our outer travels, informed by our expert Israeli tour guide, will situate the places we visit in time; our inner journey, guided by Rabbi Rami and Rev. Gordon, will invite us to step out of time into the timeless and perennial wisdom toward which these holy places point.

We begin our journey before leaving home. With the help of Spirituality & Health magazine, Rami and Gordon will prepare a podcast on the inner dimension of our trip, and a booklet of readings, prayers, and rituals that we will use throughout our time in Israel. Both will be sent to you well in advance of our departure.

As we step into ancient and often still functioning sacred sites, Rami and Gordon will invite us to align with the inter-spiritual wisdom found in each.

OCTOBER 2018

Thursday, October 4

Departure from the U.S.

The day of departure has arrived. We’ll check in at our preferred departure city and travel overnight to Israel (pricing is based on departure from New York, with other departure cities available upon request). Our adventure is beginning! (D-in flight)

Friday, October 5

Arrive Tel Aviv, Haifa

We’ll touch down at Israel’s Ben Gurion Airport near Tel Aviv. Following customs formalities, we will meet our Israeli tour guide and board the waiting motorcoach for the drive to our hotel in Haifa. After checking in and a chance to freshen up, we’ll enjoy a welcome dinner and a night of well-deserved sleep. (B-in flight, D)

Baha'i World Center, Haifa

Caesarea Maritima

Saturday, October 6

Haifa, Nazareth

Our first full day in Israel will be spent exploring Haifa and Mt. Carmel. We'll then travel to Nazareth, where we'll check in at our hotel for dinner and a two-night stay. (B, D)

Stella Maris Monastery. This center of Carmelite spirituality is rooted in spiritual direction. We begin our inner walk by inviting Lady Wisdom (Chochma, Sophia, Hikma) to direct our spiritual unfolding over the coming days.

Baha'i World Center, Gardens, and Shrine of the Bab. Baha'i is an example of emerging spiritual universalism. We will delve into the core teachings of Baha'i and offer prayers of peace in the Shrine.

Sunday, October 7

Caesarea Maritima, Megiddo, Nazareth

We'll get an early start today, traveling to Caesarea Maritima and Megiddo. Upon return to Nazareth, we'll explore the Old City, including the Church of Annunciation and remains of the first-century home at the Sisters of Nazareth convent. (B, D)

Caesarea. This historically rich and important archeological site is also the port from which St. Paul (Rabbi Saul) departed on his first mission. We will spend some time liberating the radical Paul from the harmful teachings promoted in his name, and focus on the universal wisdom that makes him so valuable to us all.

Megiddo (Armageddon). The future site of the world's end, Megiddo invites us to explore the relationship between religion and violence, and the ever-present danger of religious tribalism advancing a zero-sum worldview that threatens the flourishing of human life.

Church of the Annunciation. Built on the site of Mary's home where the angel Gabriel appeared to her and announced that she would be the Mother of God, the Church of the Annunciation will provide us with the perfect setting to explore the Divine Feminine of whom Mary is but one archetypal incarnation.

Monday, October 8

Safed, Magdala, Sea of Galilee

Safed and Magdala await us today. Then we'll head to Tiberias, where we'll take a boat ride on the Sea of Galilee and view the "Ancient Boat" at the Yigal Alon Museum. Then we'll settle in at our hotel along the shores of the Sea of Galilee. (B, D)

Safed. After the expulsion of the Jews from Spain (1492), Safed slowly became the Kabbalistic capital of the Jewish world. We will explore the teachings of Rabbi Moshe Cordovero, one of the greatest kabbalists, as we sit in his academy founded in 1550.

Magdala. The hometown of Mary Magdalene is our "stage" for exploring the importance of Mary in the life and teaching of Jesus, and delve into the wisdom of her Gospel.

Mount of Beatitudes

Qumran

Tuesday, October 9

Mount of Beatitudes, Bet Shean, Jericho

Our day begins at the Mount of Beatitudes. Leaving Galilee, we will stop at Bet Shean, the largest archaeological site in the Holy Land. Then drive down the Jordan River Valley to Jericho. (B, D)

Mount of Beatitudes. The Beatitudes are the core teachings of Jesus. Gathering at the place where he delivered them, we shall take a deep dive into the inner meaning of these timeless and challenging teachings.

Wednesday, October 10

Masada, Ein Gedi, Qumran, Jerusalem

Today we'll tour the Dead Sea area, stopping at the north end of the Dead Sea and traveling to Masada, whose summit we'll reach by cable car. We'll also visit Ein Gedi, an oasis in the wilderness where David hid from Saul, and Qumran. Our day concludes by taking time to float in the Dead Sea, and we'll then head to Jerusalem. (B, D)

Qumran. The home of the Dead Sea Scroll community is our setting for exploring the message of the Essenes and the importance of the Scrolls.

Jerusalem. Jerusalem is the outer destination of our inner journey. While this City of Wholeness and Peace (Yeru-Shalem) rarely lives up to its promise, it is the promise that shall be our focus. We will spend the evening in contemplative conversation and prayer preparing ourselves for a three-day dive into this most amazing city.

Thursday, October 11

Jerusalem

Our day begins with a visit to Yad Vashem, followed by a visit to the Israel Museum. Here we'll see a model of first-century Israel and Shrine of the Book, which tells the story of the Dead Sea Scrolls. We'll then visit the Great Synagogue with its façade based on the Second Temple and breathtaking sanctuary; Machane Yehudah (the Central Market); and Meah Shearim—one of Jerusalem's oldest neighborhoods. We'll also have a chance to do some shopping on Ben Yehudah Street. (B, D)

Yad Vashem. This memorial to the murder of six million Jews during the Holocaust invites us to own the shadow side of humankind.

Church of the Nativity

Western Wall

Friday, October 12

Bethlehem, Jerusalem

We'll take an excursion to Bethlehem. Upon return to Jerusalem, we'll have some time to explore the Old City and shop the Cardo before it closes. This was Jerusalem's main street in ancient times and it is now a vibrant shopping area, known for artwork and specialty goods. We then plan to experience the welcoming of Shabbat at the Western Wall, followed by a Shabbat service at the hotel led by Rabbi Rami and Dr. Peerman. (B, D)

Church of the Nativity. Built over the birthplace of Jesus, the Church of the Nativity offers us an opportunity to birth the inner Christ and reclaim the wisdom Jesus taught.

Tomb of Rachel. Associated with fertility, the Tomb of Rachel is a place of prayer for all who wish to give birth to new ways of being that promote universal justice and compassion. It is here that the kabbalistic practice of the red thread originated, and we will use our visit to give and receive the red thread of blessing knotted with the seven knots of remembrance, and worn on the left wrist.

Umar Mosque. Named after Umar ibn al-Khattab (581–644), the second Caliph of Islam, the Umar Mosque is the perfect place to explore the perennial wisdom of Islam.

Welcoming the Sabbath Bride. Rami and Gordon will introduce us to the Queen of Heaven and the Sacred Feminine embodied in the mystery of Shabbat.

Saturday, October 13

Jerusalem, Ben Gurion Airport

We will spend the day in the Old City of Jerusalem, opening to the inner meaning of the spiritual suffering as we walk the Via Dolorosa, and crucifixion and resurrection at both The Church of the Holy Sepulchre and Garden Tomb, and offering private prayers and setting of spiritual intentions at the Western Wall. Our inner journey ends with a healing circle before we board our bus and drive to Ben Gurion Airport, where we'll check in for our overnight flight. (B, D)

Sunday, October 14

Return

Our journey concludes in the U.S. (meal in-flight)

A note from Rami and Gordon:

While we have a lot planned for this trip, facts on the ground will determine just how much we can accomplish. Our hope is to add a visit to the Dome of the Rock on the Temple Mount, but politics may make this impossible. Our concern is to honor the sites we visit and the religions that hold them sacred, and we will adapt our offerings so as not to disrespect either. In addition, if time and energy permit, we will begin each morning with meditation, and end each evening with spiritual "debriefings" and meditation.

TERMS AND CONDITIONS

The cost of your tour includes:

Air transportation roundtrip from New York to Tel Aviv with any regularly scheduled air carrier, based on a nonrefundable/nonchangeable fare, which requires a minimum of 10 passengers traveling round trip together. Other departure cities are available upon request. Please advise us of your preferred departure city and you will be contacted with options. The identity of the carrier, which may include the carrier's code-share partner, will be assigned and disclosed in your final documents. Tickets are issued 45 days prior to departure. All current airlines taxes, security fees and fuel surcharges are included. Note that these items cannot be guaranteed until tickets are issued.

Secure flight information. The requirement to collect date of birth, gender, and full name are federally mandated by the Transportation Security Administration's (TSA) Secure Flight Program. While disclosure of this information is voluntary, if it is not provided, participants may be denied boarding. For TSA's policy and more information, visit <http://www.tsa.gov> and search on Secure Flight. Witte Travel & Tours (Witte) takes all reasonable steps to safeguard the privacy of all information collected from its clients.

Frequent flyer points are not guaranteed in connection with group airfares. Some airlines may limit group airfare credits to 25% to 50% of the frequent flyer points that apply to individuals while others do not offer any credits for group airfares.

Hazardous Materials. Federal law forbids the carriage of hazardous materials aboard aircraft in your luggage or on your person. A violation can result in five years' imprisonment and penalties of $250,000 or more (49 U.S.C. 5124). Hazardous materials include explosives, compressed gases, flammable liquids and solids, oxidizers, poisons, corrosives and radioactive materials. For more information, examples and special exceptions, visit: <http://www.tsa.gov/traveler-information/prohibited-items>.

Land transportation. A deluxe air-conditioned motorcoach is used for transfers, excursions, and travel between cities. Because motorcoach travel is restricted in many cities, sightseeing is often done on foot. There is no restroom on the motorcoach, but frequent stops will be made.

Accommodations based on two persons sharing a room with private facilities. Most hotels we use range from moderate first-class to standard first-class. When hotels in these categories are not available, top-quality superior tourist-class properties are selected. The supplement for single accommodations is $770. If you register alone but want a roommate, we will do our best to assign one. If a single room must be assigned to any member of the group for any reason, even if it is at the last minute or while on tour, we will need to charge the single supplement. Changes in rooming arrangements requested by the participant 45 or fewer days prior to departure may result in additional charges.

Meals. Breakfast daily and dinners as indicated in the itinerary. Dinners do not include beverages.

Tour personnel. An English-speaking Israeli tour guide will accompany the group from arrival in Israel until departure.

Sightseeing and admission fees in accordance with the itinerary.

Tipping and taxes are included for all services, including the tip for the tour guide and motorcoach driver.

The tour cost does not include passports, airline luggage fees if charged, portage of luggage, optional travel protection plan including luggage and trip cancellation coverage, optional excursions, independent meals, and any other items not mentioned as included.

Luggage allowance. You may take one suitcase with a maximum size of 62 linear inches (height plus width plus depth) and weight of 50 lbs. You may also carry a purse, a camera and one piece of hand luggage with a maximum size of 45 linear inches and weight of 15 lbs. These size and weight restrictions conform to most airlines' requirements. Hand luggage does not fit in the overhead bins on the motorcoach. There may be room for it in the storage compartment under the coach or by an empty seat on board. If not, it will need to be placed on the floor in front of your feet. Portage of luggage is not provided. Participants will be responsible for carrying their own luggage throughout the tour. If you are physically unable to carry your luggage, ask your tour personnel to arrange for assistance.

Insecticide Disclosure. Some countries require that aircraft be treated with insecticides prior to flight or while occupied. For a list of the countries with insecticide requirements, go to <http://airconsumer.dot.gov/spray.htm>.

Optional travel protection. Witte recommends that you purchase a travel protection plan. For your convenience, Witte Travel offers a travel protection plan designed by Travelex Insurance Services. This travel protection can be purchased at any time prior to making the final payment for your tour. The pre-existing medical conditions exclusion will be waived if you purchase the protection plan within 15 days of the initial trip deposit, provided you are medically fit to travel at the time of purchase and full trip cost is insured. The plan cost for the travel protection plan that applies to your tour will be noted in your brochure and on the registration form. It may be necessary to increase the trip cost insured on the travel protection plan if you purchase additional services and/or upgrade any arrangements. This could increase the plan cost of the travel protection plan. The plan cost for this travel protection plan is non-refundable after a 15-day review period.

If your passport is due to expire earlier, you will need to obtain a new one. If you do not have a passport or need a new one, apply as soon as possible. If you plan to visit other countries on your own, contact Witte for any special requirements. All non-U.S. citizens should contact Witte for their special requirements. Minor children traveling internationally without both parents are encouraged to carry a notarized note signed by both parents stating that they have permission to travel without one or both of them. Although this is not a requirement, it will save time if questions arise while clearing customs.

Tour cost. The tour cost is based on a group of 20 passengers and current tariffs for air and land arrangements.

Please note that these travel arrangements are subject to possible price increases due to additional charges imposed by a supplier or government. You may be charged additional sums by Witte to offset increased fees, fuel surcharges, taxes, fluctuations in foreign exchange markets, and/or smaller group size. Before passing on an increase, Witte will use its best efforts to minimize the amount. If it is necessary to increase the tour cost, participants will be advised at final billing and provided with a summary of the contributing factors. Your signature below indicates consent to any post-purchase price increases.
