BULLETIN DEADLINE:

Please submit bulletin items a minimum of one week in advance of publication to Keelin Johnson, Bulletin Editor, at keelinjohnson@stpatrickcolumbus.org.

It's been a week of pilgrimages. On Thursday, Fr. Cornelius traveled to St. Louis for the Beatification of Blessed Fulton Sheen. He'll give you a full report in next week's bulletin article! On Saturday, I flew down to Washington, D.C. for the day for the Dominican Rosary Pilgrimage. I hadn't been there since the first pilgrimage in 2023, when I was still the Promoter of the Holy Rosary, and it is marvelous to see how this pilgrimage has grown. Now on Sunday afternoon, I will be traveling to Europe, for making a pilgrimage in the footsteps of St. Paul.

This pilgrimage is extra special for me, as I follow the path of my own patron saint, whom I have grown to love over the years in my journey of faith. My parents named me Paul after the saint himself; it wasn't in honor of a family member (in fact, my grandfather was and my father is named Peter – so instead of being Peter III, I was named for his partner in sharing the Gospel!). When I entered the Dominican Order, I decided to keep the name Paul (instead of choosing a religious name), since I saw St. Paul as a great witness and model for preaching. He wrote most of the New Testament, traveled extensively in preaching the Gospel, and was not afraid to share the Word, even when that led to his eventual martyrdom. While I have visited his tomb at the Basilica of St. Paul Outside the Walls on four previous pilgrimages to Rome, the venture to Greece, seeing the places where he preached, will be uplifting and inspiring. Be assured of my prayers for you during the pilgrimage, and you can still leave your prayer intentions in the notebook at the Welcome Center in the Gallery (as I won't be leaving for the airport until after the Noon Mass on Sunday).

Today, we celebrate the Installation of New Altar Boys at the 9:00 a.m. Mass – 14 new acolytes and 14 new head servers! In total, our Altar Boy Program has 82 boys this year, the largest it has been in my five years here. Because of the pilgrimage, we had to move this year's trainings to September, which was a little adjustment, but the trainings went smoothly (especially with the new arrangement of the sanctuary). On the first day of training with our new acolytes, the trainings went remarkably well – the boys picked up things rather quickly. I wondered why such a difference. Then it dawned on me – they're all confirmed now! Previously, new acolytes beginning in fifth grade were still a couple years off from Confirmation, but with the lowered age, they came to training already confirmed. Perhaps we can say it was the grace of the sacrament which made them so focused and ready to learn! I would like to express my appreciation to our Altar Boy Deans for giving of their time to help me with the trainings, both for the new Acolytes and new Head Servers, as well as the Refresher Courses for returning altar boys. Thank you to Deans Peter Melliore, Max Sellers, Thomas Casey, Henry Platek, Gabriel Dzikowski, and Joseph Noblet.

While I look forward to my upcoming pilgrimage in the footsteps of St. Paul, I'll miss one important part of our parish year: Rosary Sunday. Next weekend, blessed roses will be distributed by the friars after all Masses, and following the Noon Mass, we will have our Rosary Procession. This too is a pilgrimage – not to St. Louis, or Washington, or Rome and Greece, but a pilgrimage in our own neighborhood, and we witness the life of Christ, recalled in Our Lady's Rosary. I encourage all of you to join in this year's procession!

God bless you,
Fr. Paul, O.P.

Knights of Columbus®

KNIGHTS OF COLUMBUS COUNCIL 11207 WINTER COAT DRIVE

The Knights of Columbus St. Patrick Council 11207 Winter Coat Drive will be held the weekends of October 3-4, 2026, and October 10-11, 2026. Items collected will be donated to the Holy Family outreach ministry on West Broad Street here in Columbus. This ministry currently serves between 1,200-1,500 folks a week, at least a third of whom are homeless. Gently used and clean, or new, men's and women's winter coats, hats, gloves, mittens, and scarves would be greatly appreciated. There is also a need for basic adult cotton socks. The Knights are grateful for the support of parishioners in this outreach to those who need these necessities. On both weekends there will be a collection bin in the hallway near Aquinas Hall and the Lost and Found table.

Any questions? Please contact Scott Briley at 614-519-9626.

CHORUS ANGELORUM

St. Patrick's Director of Music, Kathleen Tully, will be taking over leadership of the Chorus Angelorum for the 2026-2027 school year. This opportunity is open to children ages 8-17. If you have sons interested in choir but are worried about conflicts with the serving schedule, they are welcome to do both. Serving can take precedence over choir as needed.

Beginning October 11, choir rehearsal will be held Sunday mornings from 8:00 to 8:50 a.m. Full schedules, along with other details, will be sent out to all registered families on October 5.

If you would like your child to join Chorus Angelorum, please contact Kathleen Tully at kathleen@stpatrickcolumbus.org or by phone at 614-224-9522, ext. 1152. Please include your child's name and age.

The Brian Muha Foundation memorializes Brian Muha, a graduate of St. Charles Preparatory School and student at Franciscan University, who was killed in a random act of violence at the age of 19, twenty-six years ago.

The foundation honors his kind and charitable spirit by helping others who are in need. The Run the Race Club (RTR) was started by Brian's mother, Rachel Muha, and the foundation. RTR offers a safe and loving atmosphere on Columbus' West Side (The Hilltop) where children can go to play, learn and study. RTR provides education, clothing, food, furniture, toys and more to families in our community, at no cost. The Muha Foundation is able to help others continue to 'Run the Race' through its generous donors and fundraising events such as the annual 'Night of Champions'.
