BULLETIN DEADLINE:

Please submit bulletin items a minimum of one week in advance of publication to Keelin Johnson, Bulletin Editor, at keelinjohnson@stpatrickcolumbus.org.

Happy All Saints Day! It is a blessing when every five to six years, we get the opportunity to celebrate this great solemnity on a Sunday. Today, we celebrate the lives of all those men and women through the centuries who faithfully followed the Lord Jesus, and who now enjoy the eternal reward of heaven. If we stay faithful to the Lord, and follow His commands, we have the hope that one day, this too will be our feast day!

After C.C.D. this weekend, the children of the parish will gather for our Annual All Saints Party in Patrick Hall, sponsored by the Knights of Columbus. It is a great delight to see our boys and girls all dressed as their favorite saints! A special word of thanks goes out to the Knights for organizing this event. If you are a practicing Catholic man 18 years and older, I encourage you to join the Knights and help in their many service and charitable works. The next meeting will be this Tuesday, starting with the Rosary in the church at 6:30 p.m., with the business meeting at 7:00 p.m. in the Kolbe classroom.

Alongside The Solemnity of All Saints is Monday's Commemoration of All the Faithful Departed – All Souls' Day. It is a somber day, when we remember the dead, and pray for their souls, that they may be delivered from purgatory and enter the glory of heaven. On Monday, in addition to our regular Mass schedule, we will also have an evening Mass at 6:30 p.m. If you have lost a loved one over the past year, or even if your loved ones died years ago, I encourage you to come to this Mass, when we will pray in a special way for the dead. As a reminder, the faithful may obtain a plenary indulgence by visiting a Catholic cemetery between November 2nd and 9th.

This month of November gives us an opportunity to reflect upon the mystery of death, something which we will all face. As Catholics, we don't face death without hope. Though death is certain, Jesus offers the promise of eternal life with Him. Last Wednesday, Fr. Michael began our new adult catechesis series on death, and spoke about the art of dying well, that is, preparing to die as faithful Catholics. I encourage you to join us for the remaining sessions of this series. This Wednesday, I will speak about what happens after death: the Four Last Things (death, judgment, heaven, hell). To conclude the series on November 11th, I will be speaking along with a representative from Egan-Ryan Funeral Home on how to prepare for your Catholic funeral.

Over the summer, I wrote a bulletin article about the importance of having a Catholic funeral Mass, and making sure that your family knows your wishes. This was due to stories I've heard of late (usually from family and friends in other parishes) of Catholics forgoing a funeral Mass, electing to have no services at all or a "celebration of life." Just over the last week, I offered Masses for two longtime family friends who recently died in the Youngstown area, both of them Catholic, but who had no arrangements for a funeral Mass. It's heartbreaking! The least I could do is remember them at the altar if their families chose not to do so. As we remember the faithful departed this month, I renew this appeal to all of you: Make sure that you plan for a funeral Mass. Let your family know your last wishes! The offering of the holy sacrifice of the Mass for the faithful departed is powerful indeed, for through it, we entrust the soul to God's mercy, asking that Christ's eternal sacrifice may be of benefit to them, especially for the removal of any temporal punishment due to sin. If you know of a family member or friend who never had a funeral Mass (even if they weren't Catholic), I would encourage you to have a Mass offered for them in the near future.

God bless you,
Fr. Paul, O.P.

LITTLE FLOWER SHOWERS

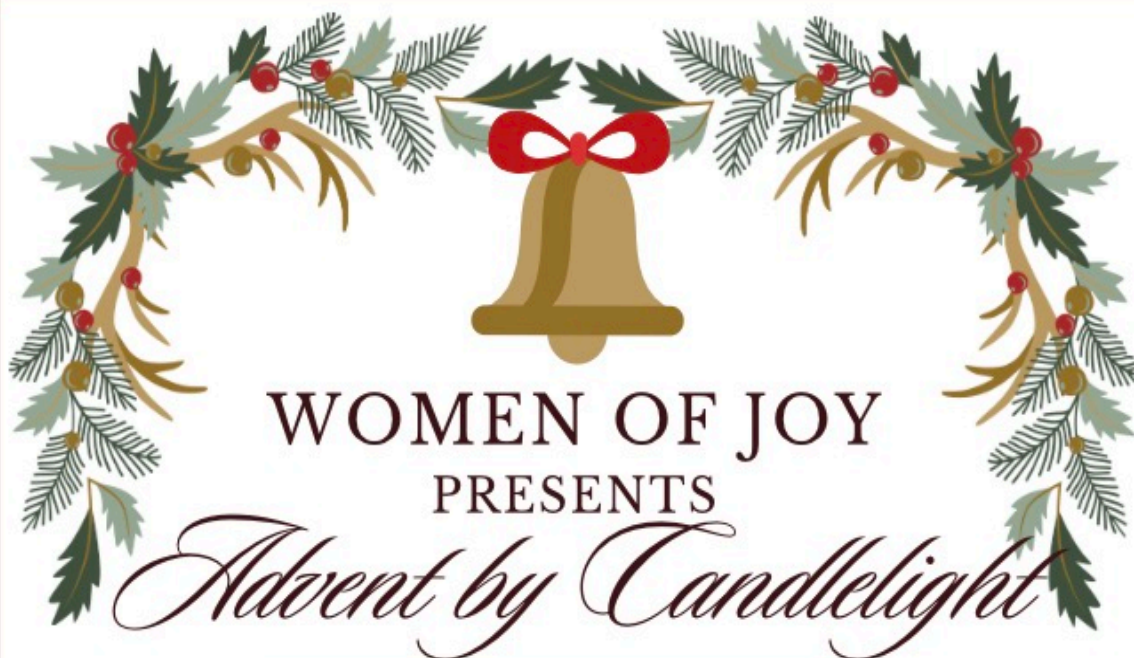

We are excited to invite you to join us for a Little Flower Shower on Saturday, November 14, 2026, from 2:30-4:30 p.m. in Aquinas Hall honoring Nyshia as she prepares to welcome her third son, who is due in January 2027.

Eight years after the birth of her second son, this little boy has come as a wonderful and unexpected blessing. Nyshia is a loving single mother to two boys, ages 12 and 8, and she is currently a full-time student at Hondros College, working toward becoming a Licensed Practical Nurse (LPN). She hopes to continue her education at Hondros in the near future and pursue her goal of becoming a Registered Nurse (RN). She is working hard to build a better future for herself and her children.

Nyshia is in need of many of the basic baby items and supplies necessary to care for a newborn. The Little Flower Shower is an opportunity for us to come together as a community to surround Nyshia and her baby with prayer, love, encouragement, and support. Through our generosity, we hope to help make this new chapter a little easier for her and remind her that she is not alone.

We hope everyone can join us. Please see the attached invitation for the time and place of the shower and Nyshia's Amazon gift registry. Thank you so much! We are also looking for someone who would be willing to head up the gift-wrapping sub-committee. If you enjoy helping with gifts registration and making the gifts look beautiful, this would be a wonderful way to serve. If you are interested, please call Wei Kozlowski at 614-439-3033.
