GRIZZLIES INCREASES INTENSITY, PULLS AWAY FROM CARROLL

MISSOULA, Mont. – The Montana men’s basketball team scored a season-high 86 points in a victory over Carroll College on Sunday evening. The victory improved the Grizzlies’ mark to 4-2 on the young season, including 2-0 at Dahlberg Arena.

Montana’s offense began the game strong, shooting 61 percent from the floor and scoring 46 points in the first half. Carroll’s offense, though, was even more efficient, shooting an impressive 76 percent, including a perfect 4-for-4 from three-point range.

The Grizzlies held a four-point lead at the intermission, but knew they had to increase their intensity on both sides of the ball.

“You talk about playing hard and playing smart, and I’m not sure they did that in the first half,” head coach Travis DeCuire said. “We had a come-to-Jesus moment in the locker room.”

The message was heard loud and clear, as Montana began the second half on a 12-6 run through the first 5 minutes of the second half to open up a double-digit lead. The Grizzlies would hold that margin for the majority of the second half, including by as many as 13 points.

More impressive, however, was the Grizzlies’ ability to limit Carroll to 37.5 percent shooting – less than half of Carroll’s first-half percentage. The Saints entered the game averaging more than 92 points per game.

Overall, Montana out-shot Carroll – shooting a season-high 56 percent – in addition to holding a large rebounding margin. The Grizzlies out-rebounded the Saints, 33-22, including 14-3 on the offensive glass. The 14 offensive boards resulted in 18 second-chance points. Montana’s defense also forced 20 Saint turnovers, leading to 24 points.

“Once our energy got up and our attention to detail got better, we gave ourselves a chance,” DeCuire said. “We worked hard for two days on our pace and our tempo. We weren’t able to sustain it, but for long stretches we did have it, and I thought that led to a high field-goal percentage.”

For the first time this season, Montana had five players in double figures for scoring. Junior Ahmaad Rorie reached 20 points for the third time this season, increasing his season scoring average. Michael Oguine had 15 points, while Bobby Moorehead and Sayeed Pridgett added 12 apiece.

Plenty of attention, though, was on junior Jamar Akoh, who posted his first double-double as a Grizzly, collecting 10 boards while adding 16 points on 7-of-8 shooting.

“He’s playing harder and he’s playing with pace,” DeCuire said, noting he struggled to get into a rhythm through the first couple games after redshirting a year ago. “He’s preparing differently and is being more aggressive, and his numbers are starting to show it.”

Montana shot 5-of-13 (38.5 percent) from three-point range, an improvement after a slow start to the season. Moorehead had two treys, including one to open the scoring in the second stanza. He had five points during Montana’s run to pull away early in the second half, also adding two assists, a block and a steal on the evening.

The Grizzlies will now turn their attention to Stanford – the first of three Pac-12 teams Montana will face over the next month. The Cardinal has lost to Big Sky members Eastern Washington and Portland State already this season, but will pose another big test for Montana.

“They’re big and they’ll be tough,” DeCuire said. “We need to play well in order to have a shot, and I expect us to play hard, play smart and play together.”

GRIZZLIES READY FOR STIFF TEST AT STANFORD

Montana head basketball coach Travis DeCuire knew the non-conference schedule he compiled would be challenging, and the next opponent in its way will be the Stanford Cardinal of the Pac-12. Earlier this month, the Grizzlies snapped a 14-game losing streak against Power-5 opponents and got a road win at Pitt – their first over a Power-5 school since 2010. Now, they're looking to do it again.

"We schedule these games to win them," DeCuire said. "We've shown the ability to hang with these types of teams, and Pitt was a big step in terms of actually winning the game. The next step will be to do it consistently, so we're looking forward to the challenge."

Stanford was picked to finish fifth in the preseason Pac-12 media poll, but has had a rough start to the year, including losses to Big Sky members Eastern Washington and Portland State. Still, though, DeCuire and his team know how much talent a team like Stanford will have – not to mention motivation to buck its current four-game losing skid.

"They're big, so our ability to out-rebound them will be challenged," DeCuire said. "They change defenses, so we're going to have to score against a long, lengthy zone, and try to find some ways to force some turnovers and create some tempo and some pace. They're going to be desperate for a win and we're going to have to be ready."

Stanford has four players averaging double figures for scoring, led by 2017 first-team All-Pac-12 forward Reid Travis – who is averaging 21.4 points per game on .509 shooting.

Montana's win on Sunday night wasn't perfect, but progress was shown. After allowing Carroll to shoot 76 percent from the floor in the first half, the Grizzlies limited the visitors to 37-percent shooting in the second half. Montana forced 20 turnovers for the second consecutive game, turning them into 24 points. The Grizzlies were also dominant on the glass, including 14 offensive rebounds and 18 second-chance points.

Montana had five players in double figures for scoring, putting up a season-most 86 points on a season-best 56-percent shooting.

The trip to the Bay will also be a trip home for a couple Grizzlies. Four Griz players hail from the Golden State, including freshman Timmy Falls (Dublin) and Sayeed Pridgett (Oakland).

DeCuire noted that games like these are all about how teams match up against each other, and an area that could lean in Montana's favor is turnovers. The Griz defense is one of the best in the nation at forcing turnovers, ranking 15th, with 19.2 turnovers forced per game, including 8.3 steals per game (50th) and a +5.2 turnover margin (22nd). Stanford, on the other hand, has a -3.7 turnover margin (321st) and is forcing just 12.25 (286th).

SCOUTING STANFORD

- Stanford enters Wednesday's contest with a 3-5 mark, losing four in a row after beginning the season 3-1.
- The Cardinal has posted wins over Cal Poly, Northeastern and Pacific. Stanford lost to a pair of top-10 teams in the prestigious PK80 tournament last week in Portland (Florida and North Carolina), but also lost to Big Sky member Portland State – the team's second loss this season to a Big Sky team (also Eastern Washington in Stanford).
- Stanford has one of the nation's top scorers in Reid Travis. The junior is averaging 21.4 points per game on .509 shooting, in addition to 7.3 rebounds per game. The 2017 first-team All-Pac-12 selection averaged 17.4 points and 8.9 rebounds per game as a sophomore.

- Stanford has three other players who average double figures for scoring, including Isaac White (team-most 18 three-pointers), Michael Humphrey (team-best 8.5 rebounds per game) and Robert Cartwright (team-most 11 steals).
- The Cardinal is one of the most veteran-laden teams in the country, returning four starters from last year's team. Entering the season, Stanford's returners combined for 493 total games played.
- Stanford was picked to finish fifth out of 12 teams in the 2017 Pac-12 Preseason Media Poll.
- The Cardinal is under the guidance of second-year head coach Jerod Haase. Stanford went 14-17 in his first season, including a 6-12 mark in Pac-12 play. Prior to his time at Stanford, he spent for seasons at UAB, helping the Blazers to back-to-back NCAA tournament appearances, including a first-round win over No. 3 seed Iowa State in 2015.

SERIES VS. THE CARDINAL

Montana is 2-3 all-time against Stanford, winning two of the three most-recent meetings.

The series between the two schools began in 1930-31, a Stanford win in California. The Cardinal earned another victory in 1988-89, this time in Missoula as part of the Preseason NIT. The two teams then met three times over a four-year period in the mid-2000s, with the Grizzlies winning twice. Montana earned a 70-68 win at Stanford in 2002-03 and a 19-point home victory in 2005-06. Stanford was victorious on its home court in 2004-05.

ALL-AROUND RORIE

Ahmaad Rorie played in all 40 minutes vs. UC Santa Barbara and ranks 11th nationally for minutes played per game. He also ranks highly, however, for points (18.80 per game) and steals (2.50 per game). In fact, Rorie is one of five NCAA Division I players to average at least 18.0 points per game and 2.50 steals per game. He joins Mikal Bridges (Villanova), Melvin Frazier (Tulane), Justin Turner (Bowling Green) and Thomas Wilder (Western Michigan).

CRASHING THE GLASS

Montana has out-rebounded its opponents in each of the last five games, which is particularly impressive considering two of the contests were road games against an ACC and Big Ten school. Well over one-third of Montana's rebounds have come from the offensive end (37.6 percent). That number was 28.6 percent a year ago.

On the season, Karl Nicholas has 12 offensive rebounds compared to five defensive. Michael Oguine, UM's leading rebounder, also has nearly as many offensive boards (16) as defensive (18). Over their last two games, the Grizzlies have out-rebounded their opponents 31-9 on the offensive glass.

FORGING TURNS

Montana has forced more turnovers than its opponents in five of six games, tying Penn State with 15 turnovers apiece in the other. The advantage has led to a +5.2 turnover margin (22nd in NCAA). The Grizzlies caused Whitworth to commit 24 turnovers (Nov. 10) and UC Santa Barbara – which entered the game ranked fifth nationally for fewest turnovers surrendered – to 21 (Nov. 21).

In a win at Pitt (Nov. 13), Montana forced the Panthers into 19 turnovers, converting them into 30 points – an average of 1.58 points per turnover.

MONTANA BASKETBALL

STOUT DEFENSE

Montana is allowing its opponents to shoot at too high of a percentage, particularly from the three-point line. However, the Grizzlies are doing a good job of preventing teams from getting shots.

- 19.2 turnovers forced per game: 15th in NCAA
- +5.2 turnover margin: 22nd
- 8.3 steals per game: 50th
- 4.3 blocked shots per game: 87th

DYNAMIC DUO, PART I

Junior guards Michael Oguine and Ahmaad Rorie enter Wednesday's contest each averaging more than 16.0 points per game. The tandem is one of 24 across all of NCAA Division I with two players on the same team averaging that many points per game.

Both Oguine and Rorie have been in double figures scoring in all six games this season and rank among the nation's leaders for a variety of categories:

Ahmaad Rorie

- 37:30 minutes played per game (11th)
- 2.50 steals per game (29th)
- 97 field goal attempts (40th)
- 18.8 points per game (89th)
- 40 field goals made (94th)

Michael Oguine

- 35:50 minutes played per game (49th)
- 44 free-throw attempts (66th)

AKOH TAKING OVER

In 2015-16, Ahmaad Rorie had to redshirt after transferring from Oregon. During his first season suiting up for the Griz, he led the team in points, minutes and assists and was an all-conference pick. The Grizzlies are hoping the same will be true for Jamar Akoh, a transfer from Cal State Fullerton who has two years of eligibility remaining after redshirting last year.

Akoh was limited to just 28 total minutes over the first two games due to foul trouble, scoring four points. Over the past four games, however, Akoh has been able to adjust to the tempo and stay on the floor longer, averaging 11.25 points and 6.75 rebounds per game, including a double-double vs. Carroll (Nov. 26).

WELL CONDITIONED

Montana has three players who rank among the top three percent of the country for minutes played. Ahmaad Rorie is averaging 37:30 per game, including all 40 vs. UC Santa Barbara (Nov. 21). Fellow juniors Michael Oguine (35:50) and Bobby Moorehead (33:50) are also among the nation's leaders. In fact, Montana is one of 10 Division-I schools nationally to have three players average 33:50 per game or better (also: Arizona State, Duquesne, George Mason, Holy Cross, La Salle, Mt. St. Mary's, Ohio, Santa Clara and Toledo).

Twelve different Grizzlies played at Penn State (Nov. 15), but just six played more than 7 minutes. It was the same two nights prior at Pitt (Nov. 13), as Travis DeCuire used the same five players throughout the final 7:34 of the second half and all 5 minutes of overtime.

NICHOLAS FINDING HIS FORM

Travis DeCuire had high expectations for Karl Nicholas, but the freshman was limited early in the season due to foul trouble. Through his first three career games, Nicholas averaged just 7.7 minutes per game, picking up four fouls in each contest.

The Texas native had a breakout week in Malibu, Calif., however, playing 18 minutes vs. Oral Roberts (Nov. 20) and 28 minutes vs. UC Santa Barbara (Nov. 21). Nicholas averaged 10.5 points per game over the two contests, connecting on 10 of 15 shot attempts. Nicholas also added nine rebounds in the two games.

CLUTCH RORIE

Junior guard Ahmaad Rorie has scored in double figures in all six games this season, averaging 18.8 points per game. The point total is impressive, but more impressive is when he is scoring. Six of Rorie's 18 points at Pitt came in the overtime period, while two nights later at Penn State, he had four points, a steal and an assist during a 9-0 UM run to cut the Grizzlies' deficit to a single point, 51-50, midway through the second half.

The all-conference performer was on full display again vs. Oral Roberts (Nov. 20), scoring a team-high 18 points, in addition to six assists and three steals. Trailing 17-16 with 8 minutes to play in the first half, Montana closed the half on a 15-6 run. Rorie had nine points and two assists during that run, contributing to six of UM's eight made field goals. He was again clutch late, knocking down both free-throw attempts with 22 seconds to play to increase Montana's lead to two possessions.

Rorie was named to the Legends Classic Malibu Region All-Tournament team after playing 75 of 80 minutes and totaling 38 points, 12 assists, seven steals and six rebounds.

BUCKING THE TREND

Penn State entered its Nov. 15 contest vs. Montana ranked seventh nationally, averaging 13.0 steals per game. The Grizzlies protected the ball, however, limiting the Nittany Lions to just three steals. A week later vs. UC Santa Barbara, Montana was going up against a Gauchos squad that ranked fifth nationally, turning the ball over just 8.0 times per game. The Griz defense was active and stingy, forcing UCSB into 21 turnovers – nearly three times its season average.

OGUINE RECOGNIZED BY COLLEGE SPORTS MADNESS

Junior guard Michael Oguine was the College Sports Madness Big Sky Player of the Week for games played Nov. 13-19. Oguine scored a career-most 29 points in a signature victory at Pitt (Nov. 13) and then two days later at Penn State (Nov. 15), totaled 15 points and grabbed seven boards in a narrow loss to the Nittany Lions.

Oguine has scored in double figures in all six games and is the team leader for rebounding, despite standing at just 6-2. Oguine ranks second on the team with 19 assists, to go along with five steals and three blocked shots.

A SIGNATURE VICTORY

After coming close, but not close enough, multiple times against Power-5 teams, Montana finally got over the hump and knocked off Pitt on Nov. 13 in Pittsburgh. The win snapped Montana's 14-game losing streak against Power-5 schools and was the school's first since 2010. It marked Montana's first over a team currently in the ACC since 1966.

Montana led for nearly 24 minutes against Pitt, including by as many as seven points. Below are key stats that led the Grizzlies to their signature victory:

- Montana forced Pitt into 19 turnovers, turning them into 30 points. Two of the turnovers were offensive charges, one taken by Karl Nicholas and another by Fabijan Krslovic. Krslovic finished with a team-most nine rebounds, two blocked shots and two steals.
- Montana out-rebounded Pitt, 39-38, including 14-12 on the offensive glass.
- Montana overcame foul trouble – three players finished the game with four fouls – and a slow start at the free-throw line. The Grizzlies began the game just 4-for-11 from the charity stripe before finishing 12-of-14 down the stretch – including 10 makes in a row at one point – to put the game out of reach.
- The Grizzlies held the lead for 23:46, compared to 14:07 for the Panthers.
- After trailing by a game-most seven points, 28-21, with under 5 minutes to play in the first half, Montana closed the half on a 16-7 run to head into the intermission leading by two, 37-35.
- The Grizzlies started the game 0-for-7 from three-point range before Ahmaad Rorie hit back-to-back threes late in the first half. Bobby Moorehead followed with two more, giving the Grizzlies 12 consecutive points off of three-pointers and a 33-32 advantage.

- Trailing by four, 69-65, with under 3 minutes to play, Montana went on an 8-2 run over the next 2 minutes to take a 73-71 advantage. Oguine scored all eight points for the Griz.
- After alternating baskets to begin overtime, Montana scored to take a 79-77 lead and then held Pitt without a made field goal over its final three attempts.

PARTIAL ARRIVAL

Montana's win at Pitt (Nov. 13) was huge for the program. The Grizzlies knocked off an ACC team that has played in 13 of the last 16 NCAA tournaments, on its home court no less. Pitt entered the contest with a 135-5 all-time mark in non-conference games at the Petersen Events Center and had never lost a home opener in the building.

The victory, however, will mean little if the team doesn't use it as a springboard into the rest of the season, particularly in March.

"We want to win these games in November so we can win these games in March," Travis DeCuire said afterward, noting that he schedules games like these in order to prepare his team for Big Sky Conference action and, hopefully, the postseason.

BIG-GAMER OGUINE

Junior guard Michael Oguine scored a career-high 29 points in Montana's win at Pitt (Nov. 13), but more impressive than the 29 points or team-most five assists was the fact that Oguine took over when it mattered most.

He scored 16 of his points in the final 8:32 of regulation, including Montana's final 10 points overall. Trailing 67-63 with 4:32 to play, Oguine outscored Pitt's entire team, 10-4, to give Montana a two-point lead in the final minute of regulation.

"Mike's one of those guys where when he's mad he's better," Travis DeCuire said. "If he thinks it's time to put everybody on his back, he's going to get it done. He carried us when we needed him to."

100 AND COUNTING

Nov. 13 was a special night for the Montana basketball program, but for two Grizzlies in particular.

Fabijan Krslovic played in his 100th consecutive game. The senior from Australia has played in every UM game since the start of the 2014-15 season (now 104, including 87 starts). Additionally, the game against Pitt was Travis DeCuire's 100th game as head coach. The former Griz player was 59-41 following the signature victory, the fifth-best mark through 100 games out of Montana's 25 head coaches. DeCuire has led Montana to a 2014-15 regular-season conference title and back-to-back appearances in the Big Sky Conference tournament championship game (2015 and 2016).

STARTING STRONG

Montana's wins over Whitworth (Nov. 10) and Pitt (Nov. 13) gave the Grizzlies their first 2-0 start to a season since the 2009-10 squad began the year with three consecutive wins. That team finished with a 22-10 record, winning a Big Sky championship and advancing to the NCAA tournament.

WORKING OVERTIME

Montana won its first overtime game in nearly two years on Nov. 13, defeating Pitt, 83-78. Prior to that, Montana's last overtime victory was a double-overtime win at Northern Arizona on Dec. 31, 2015. The Grizzlies lost both overtime contests in 2016-17.

MONTANA BASKETBALL

GOING SMALL

One of the expected strengths to Montana's roster this year is its height compared to a year ago. The Grizzlies have three players listed at 6-8 or taller compared to just one a year ago (not including UM's three players 6-8 or taller who are sitting out for the season).

However, several times this season Travis DeCuire has gone with a smaller lineup. The smaller unit allowed Montana to go on a second-half run in its season opener vs. Whitworth (Nov. 10) and has allowed the team to spread the ball better and quicker.

HOME-OPENING SUCCESS

With Montana's win over Whitworth (Nov. 10), the Grizzlies improved to 15-3 in home openers since the turn of the century.

DEBUTING

Montana's season opener vs. Whitworth (Nov. 10) marked collegiate and UM debuts for several Grizzlies. Junior Jamar Akoh, a transfer from Cal State Fullerton, earned the start. Also seeing consistent time were freshmen Timmy Falls and Karl Nicholas. In the final minute of the game, Travis DeCuire inserted Admir Besovic, Niko Bevens and Lars Espe.

HOME SWEET HOME

Montana has won more than 80 percent of its contests in Dahlberg Arena over the past decade, going 106-25 (.809) since the start of the 2008-09 season. All-time, the Grizzlies boast one of the best home-court advantages, going 680-240 (.739) in their home arena.

DEFENSE WINS CHAMPIONSHPS

The offense had been clicking, but the defense needed work. That was Travis DeCuire's assessment through the first month of practices and scrimmages, leading up to Montana's exhibition contest vs. Saskatchewan (Nov. 6).

DeCuire saw his team's ability to get stops, as Montana held Saskatchewan to 26-percent shooting in an 85-44 exhibition victory at Dahlberg Arena. Leading by just two, 25-23, with under 8 minutes to play in the first half, Montana went on a 36-4 run over the next 14 minutes – extending across both periods – and did not allow a field goal during that span. The Huskies were 0-for-18 from the floor with 11 turnovers during that stretch. On the evening, Montana forced 12 steals and blocked a dozen shots.

ANDERSON SIGNED

Montana signed Mack Anderson to a National Letter of Intent on Nov. 8. The Bozeman native selected Montana over offers from Montana State and Air Force, and after visiting Boise State and Denver.

Anderson averaged nearly two blocks per game during the 2017 state tournament, helping Bozeman High School to a runner-up finish at the Montana Class 2A state tournament. After mostly talking with NAIA schools, Anderson burst onto the scene over the summer while playing for Montana Elite.

"I like his athleticism and agility," Travis DeCuire said. "Not very often do you get a 6-8 athlete who can run and jump and ball a little bit. We're excited about what he presents in the future."

LOOKING AHEAD

Montana returns to Missoula to host Cal State Northridge on Sunday. That game will be followed by a third trip to the state of California in as many weeks, playing UCLA (Dec. 6) before flying east to Georgia State (Dec. 9).

PRESEASON NOTES

RETURNING TALENT

The Grizzlies have the pieces to contend this season, returning three of their four consistent starters from 2016-17, in addition to a pair of guards – Sayeed Pridgett and Bobby Moorehead – who each started about one-third of last year's contests.

In total, Montana returns the majority of its production in all aspects of the game, bringing back its top two scorers, and four of its top five. On the other end of the floor, Montana had six players with 90 or more rebounds a year ago; five of them are back on the court.

NEW GUYS COMING IN

While Montana returns the majority of its production from a year ago, the team also turned over roughly half of its roster, with several newcomers expected to slide in and fill roles immediately. The Grizzlies signed six freshmen, in addition to sophomore JUCO transfer Niko Bevens.

- Admir Besovic – Originally from Bosnia and Herzegovina, has spent the past two seasons at the Virginia Episcopal School in Lynchburg, where he averaged 11.2 points and 6.8 rebounds last year as a team captain.
- Niko Bevens – As a freshman at North Idaho College, led the Cardinals to an NWAC Eastern Conference championship by making 50 percent of his three-point attempts.
- Lars Espe – 2016-17 Young Player of the Year in the BLNO, Norway's premier professional basketball league.
- Timmy Falls – 2016-17 East Bay Athletic League MVP.
- Peter Jones – Played in 26 games as a senior at O'Dea High School, averaging 4.8 points per game.
- Kelby Kramer – No. 2 prep prospect from the state of Wyoming, being named to USA Today's All-USA Wyoming Boys Basketball Team
- Karl Nicholas – As the 17th-best prep prospect from the state of Texas, was named the 2016-17 Texas District 22-6A MVP.

DYNAMIC DUO, PART II

Montana boasts one of the top duos in the Big Sky with junior guards Ahmaad Rorie and Michael Oguine. The two combined to score well over one-third of the team's points a year ago, also ranking No. 1 and 2 for minutes played.

A transfer from Oregon, Rorie made a name for himself during his first season in the league, earning second-team All-Big Sky honors. He started all 31 contest, and led the Grizzlies in minutes (32.5 per game), points (17.6), assists (97), field goals made (192), three-pointers (63) and free-throw percent-age (.833). His 1.2 assist-to-turnover ratio helped Montana have the 12th-fewest turnovers in Division I in 2016-17.

After recording the second-most points ever for a Montana freshman, Oguine followed up his debut season with an even better sophomore campaign. He averaged 11.9 points per game – including 13.3 during conference play – and shot .481 from the floor. He ranked second on the team for points, re-bounds (6.0 per game) and steals (37), and earned third-team all-conference honors.

Both players have been named to various publications' preseason all-conference teams, with Rorie being one of six players selected to the official preseason All-Big Sky team voted on by the league's coaches.

FABULOUS SENIOR

Montana's lone senior is Australian Fabijan Krslovic, who entered the season having played in 100 consecutive games – starting 83. Krslovic was Montana's top rebounder in 2016-17, with more than one-third of his boards coming on the offensive glass. He also led Montana with 15 steals and 20 blocked shots and was one of just three Big Sky players to rank in the top 15 in the conference for both categories.

Krslovic will admit he's not the most athletic player on the court, but he's consistent and is the glue of the team, according to the coaching staff. After being forced to be more of a center last year because of Montana's lack of height, he will now transition into a more natural role as a 6-8 forward.

ADDED HEIGHT

A year ago, Fabijan Krslovic (6-8) was the Grizzlies' tallest player, which forced him to play a different role as Montana's only true post player. This year, he is one of five players at 6-8 or taller. It was a conscious effort by DeCuire, looking to add more height and depth to his team's roster.

Admir Besovic (7-0) and Kelby Kramer (6-10) are still raw as true freshmen, adjusting to the quicker style of play in the college game, but both can play a true center position. Kramer is more of a shot-blocker and rebounder, while Besovic has the ability to clog the lane and make it tough for opposing offenses to penetrate to the rim.

Montana believes it has a solid low-presence combination of Krslovic and transfer Jamar Akoh, and also has 6-8 Karl Nicholas, who can be an athletic force on both ends of the court.

MORE RETURNING TALENT

In addition to Montana's senior and pair of all-conference guards, the team returns three other players, including Sayeed Pridgett and Bobby Moorehead.

As a true freshman, Pridgett earned 11 starts and ranked ninth in the Big Sky with a .524 field-goal percentage. He was also the team's third-best rebounder (3.9 per game) and ranked fourth on the team for points (8.1 per game) and assists (4.4). In his second collegiate season, Moorehead started 10 games and averaged 2.8 rebounds per game while adding 3.9 points, 10 total steals and nine blocked shots. Sophomore guard Trever Spoja is also back. The Billings native saw action in eight contests as a redshirt freshman, totaling 10 points on 3-of-7 shooting.

STARTING THEM YOUNG

Montana is one of 11 NCAA Division I schools nationally to have at least nine newcomers and just one senior.

Kentucky leads the nation with 12 newcomers and zero seniors, while Auburn has a dozen newcomers and one senior. Tennessee, Toledo and Wofford each have 10 newcomers and one senior, while Montana, Bowling Green, Holy Cross, Kansas State, Louisiana Tech and Oklahoma have nine new players and one expected graduate.

DORSEY TO MISS SEASON

The Grizzlies will be without junior forward Donaven Dorsey this season. Dorsey, who redshirted in 2016-17 after transferring from the University of Washington, suffered a pair of hip injuries that require separate surgeries. The first was performed on Oct. 23. He played in 55 games over two seasons with the Huskies, earning eight starts. He totaled 166 points and 77 rebounds.

PICKED TO FINISH 3RD

Montana has high expectations for itself, and those who follow Big Sky basketball feel similar. In the preseason polls, Montana was picked to finish third by both the coaches and media. The Grizzlies were slotted to finish behind Idaho and Weber State in both polls (complete listing on Page 8).

Travis DeCuire said being picked to finish in the upper echelon is a sign of respect, but he and his team have their own set of goals, especially after winning a regular-season championship in 2015 and playing in the conference tournament title game in both 2015 and 2016.

TOUGH SCHEDULE

A year ago, Travis DeCuire believed he compiled the most-challenging schedule in program history, facing an all-Division-I slate. This year, it may be even tougher. The Grizzlies open the season with 13 non-conference games, five of which are against Power-5 teams. The team's first road trip is at Pitt (ACC) and Penn State (Big Ten) – part of the prestigious Legends Classic. The tournament will continue the following week in Malibu, Calif., as Montana takes on Oral Roberts and either UC Santa Barbara or host Pepperdine.

The Grizzlies will get their air miles several weeks later, traveling to Georgia State, in addition to three contests against Pac-12 foes – Stanford, UCLA and Washington. The Bruins are ranked in the AP pre-season top-25 poll.

In Missoula, Montana will host Cal State Northridge, Carroll, UC Irvine, UC Riverside and Whitworth. The 18-game league schedule will begin Dec. 28 and include home-and-home contests against Montana State, North Dakota, Northern Arizona, Northern Colorado, Portland State, Sacramento State and Southern Utah. Montana will also will travel to Eastern Washington and Idaho, and will host Idaho State and Weber State to close the regular season.

The Big Sky Conference tournament will be held in Reno, Nev., for the final year before moving to Boise, Idaho, next spring.

TEAM BONDING IN COSTA RICA

The Grizzlies got a head start to the basketball season, taking a foreign tour to Costa Rica in early August. The NCAA allows for teams to participate in such trips once every four years. The trip was beneficial in several facets. In addition to key bonding time – being in a foreign country with your teammates and being able to partake in several activities, including pool time and a zip line through a jungle – and service initiatives – the team spent a day at an orphanage, playing sports with the children and reading to them – the team also competed in a pair of scrimmages and was allotted 10 practices in Missoula leading up to the trip.

The tour allowed for Travis DeCuire to introduce concepts to his team – particularly the newcomers – much earlier than he usually would, and noted that the team was ahead of where they normally were early in fall camp.

SECURING THE BALL

Montana averaged just 10.8 turnovers per game a year ago, the 12th-fewest in all of NCAA Division I basketball.

PROUD HISTORY

Travis DeCuire is well aware of Montana's proud history, and has experienced it firsthand. During the 1990s, Montana won the Big Sky Conference and played in the NCAA tournament three times in a seven-year period, including DeCuire's sophomore campaign. The two-time All-Big Sky selection still holds Montana's record for career assists.

Since Montana's first conference championship in 1975, no Big Sky team has won more conference titles (10) than Montana. Additionally, the Grizzlies have won nine tournament titles and have nine runner-up finishes – including three championships and three runner-up finishes in the past eight seasons. In the league's history, Montana has won more games than any Big Sky school except for Weber State.

DECUIRE REACHES MILESTONE

Midway through last season, DeCuire's third in Missoula, the Grizzlies defeated Northern Colorado to earn the head coach his 50th victory. He is the second-fastest Griz coach to reach that milestone (84 games). The fastest to 50 was Blaine Taylor, DeCuire's head coach when he played for the Griz.

TRAVIS DECUIRE

Head Coach | Fourth Season | Montana, 1994

In his first two seasons as the University of Montana's 27th men's head basketball coach, Travis DeCuire accomplished something no other coach in UM history had: he posted two 20-win seasons in his first two seasons.

Now entering the fourth season at his alma mater, DeCuire is once again poised to put the Grizzlies back on the road to a 20-win campaign.

DeCuire (pronounced: dee-CURE) was formally introduced as the Grizzlies' head basketball coach in June 2014, at a press conference at UM's Adams Center after the initial announcement from UM's Director of Athletics Kent Haslam in May of that year.

In his first season at the helm of a program with a rich history of success, DeCuire's Griz started the year picked to finish eighth in the conference. Led by future European professional Jordan Gregory, UM would go on to defy expectations and win the Big Sky regular-season championship and advance to the National Invitational Tournament (NIT) before finishing the season 20-13 (14-4 BSC).

At the time, he became only the second coach in UM history to notch 20 victories in his first season at the helm – a feat also accomplished by Blaine Taylor in 1991-92 (27-4).

In DeCuire's second year, he followed up with another 20-win season and another trip to the Big Sky championship game, this time led by future European professional Martin Breunig. DeCuire's Grizzlies would once again advance to the postseason, competing in the first round of the CBI tournament against Nevada, finishing with a 21-12 (14-4 BSC) record.

Paced by 10 underclassmen and just two seniors who played significant time, the Grizzlies went 16-16 (11-7 BSC) in 2016-17, earning a first-round bye in the Big Sky tournament. During the season, DeCuire became the second-fastest UM head coach to reach 50 wins (doing so in 84 contests). He coached a pair of UM sophomores – both returning in 2017-18 – to All-Big Sky Conference recognition.

The 2016-17 season was also the second consecutive year in which the Grizzlies have posted a team grade-point average above 3.0, earning NABC Team Academic Excellence recognition both seasons.

Prior to returning to his alma mater as head coach, DeCuire spent six seasons (2008-09 through 2013-14) on the University of California coaching staff – including the final four as associate head coach. Regarded as one of the top tutors in the game, DeCuire helped former Montana mentor Mike Montgomery – a member of the National Collegiate Basketball Hall of Fame – transform Cal into one of the winningest programs in the Pac-12 during his time in Berkeley. The Bears reached the postseason all six years he was on the staff, including the NCAA tournament four times. The Golden Bears boasted 130 wins in his six seasons – the best six-year stretch in school history – winning the 2010 Pac-10 championship. He coached numerous all-conference selections, including conference players of the year Jerome Randle (2010) and Jorge Gutierrez (2012).

DeCuire he spent five seasons (2003-04 through 2007-08) as an assistant coach at Old Dominion, under former Griz head coach and player Blaine Taylor. There, he helped the Monarchs to a combined record of 117-53. The mark included 94 wins during his final four seasons – the most in school history over a four-year stretch. ODU reached the postseason each of those four seasons and advanced to the NCAA tournament in both 2005 and 2007 – winning a school-record 28 contests in 2005. Additionally, the Monarchs reached the NIT semifinals in 2006 and the quarterfinals of the College Basketball Invitational in 2008.

DeCuire, from Seattle, Wash., also has head coaching experience from stints at Sammamish High School and Green River Community College in Washington. At GRCC, DeCuire took over a last-place program and guided it to a conference championship and its first 20-win season in more than 20 years, earning league coach-of-the-year honors in 2003 – his second season. At Sammamish High School in Bellevue, DeCuire led his team to a pair of conference titles, a state tournament appearance and three consecutive trips to the district tournament.

As a point guard for Montana from 1992-94 DeCuire was named All-Big Sky Conference as a junior and senior. He set a school record in just three seasons with 435 career assists. He also established UM's single-season mark with 199 assists as a senior in 1993-94, when he was ranked 12th in the nation, averaging 7.1 assists a game. He was the recipient of the Grizzlies' Carl Dragstedt Award (MVP) as a junior and senior, and received the John Eheart Award (Outstanding Defensive Player) following his senior year.

As a freshman at Chaminade-Hawaii, he was a starter and team MVP in 1990. He then transferred to Montana and redshirted in 1991. DeCuire attended Mercer Island High School (Wash.), where he was a three-year starter and all-state, team MVP, and a McDonald's All-America honorable mention pick as a senior.

He has a strong commitment to community service and founded and acted as president of the Fastbreak Basketball Association – an organization that assists in teaching life lessons and building self-esteem through basketball to more than 500 students in the Seattle-Tacoma area. Additionally, he has extensive experience in counseling at the Echo Glen Children's Center in Snoqualmie, Wash., from 1996-98, and with the Ryther Children's Center in North Seattle, from 1995-97.

DeCuire graduated from Montana in 1994 with a degree in business marketing. He and his wife, Sabrina, have two daughters – Brianna (24) and Tamia (5).
