NO. 9 OREGON DUCKS 42 (5-0, 2-0 PAC-12) STANFORD CARDINAL 6 (1-4, 0-3 PAC-12) STANFORD STADIUM (32,160) • SEPT. 30, 2023

TEAM

- Saturday's defeat against Oregon is the second in a row for the Ducks against the Cardinal, and the second largest win in the history of the rivalry for Oregon.
- The Cardinal fall to 1-4 through five games for the second consecutive season.
- Stanford's defense held Oregon without a first down in the first quarter. Only one time in the last 11 years has the Oregon offense failed to get a first down in a quarter (third quarter of the 2020 Rose Bowl vs. Wisconsin).
- The six yards of total offense allowed by the Stanford defense in the first quarter is the fewest for Oregon in a quarter since that third quarter of the 2020 Rose Bowl.
- It took Oregon until 9:28 remaining in the second quarter before recording a first down. The Ducks went three-and-out on its first two drives of the game.
- Stanford executed its longest drive of the season in terms of plays and time of possession on the opening drive of the game. The Cardinal scored on its opening driving using a 15-play drive that took the first 7:42 off the clock in the opening quarter.
- The Cardinal held onto the ball for 35:36 on Saturday afternoon, the most time of possession it has had in a game since its win at Notre Dame on Oct. 15, 2022.
- Stanford ran the ball 46 times on Saturday, a new season-high for the Cardinal offense.
- A trio of Cardinal made their first collegiate starts: Justin Lamson, Tiger Bachmeier, and Fisher Anderson.
