19,248 • As the crow flies, Stanford will have traveled 19,248 miles before kicking off against Washington State on Nov. 4. The trip from Stanford's campus to Sydney's Allianz Stadium, where the Cardinal opened the season against Rice (Aug. 26), spanned 14,866 miles. A mere 642 round-trip miles separated Stanford Stadium from the Los Angeles Coliseum (at USC on Sept. 9), 858 from San Diego Stadium (at San Diego State on Sept. 16) and 1,198 from Rice-Eccles Stadium (at Utah on Oct. 7). Nearly 992 miles separated Stanford Stadium from Reser Stadium (at Oregon State on Oct. 26), and Washington State's Martin Stadium is 692 miles away from The Farm.

2,085 • Of the 44,073 applicants -- the largest application pool in school history -- for Stanford's class of 2021, only 2,085 were admitted. The admitted students came from all 50 states and 82 countries.

2016 • Washington State's Luke Falk threw for 357 yards and four touchdowns and the Cougars' defensive line shut down Christian McCaffrey and the Cardinal offense in a 42-16 victory. The Cougars held the Cardinal to 296 yards and did not allow an offensive score until the final play of the game. Stanford had an eight-game winning streak against Washington State snapped, and lost for the first time in all-black uniforms, which have been worn for at least one game annually since 2010. In an odd twist, Conrad Ukropina had two long field-goal tries bounce off the left upright -- both in the first half with the score fairly close.

2015 • Washington State kicker Erik Powell missed wide right on a 43-yard field goal as time expired, allowing Stanford to escape with a 30-28 win on a day Powell tied Drew Dunning's 2003 school record with five makes despite rainy, windy conditions. Conrad Ukropina kicked a 19-yard field goal with 1:54 left to put Stanford ahead. Kevin Hogan ran for 112 yards and two touchdowns for Stanford to help keep the Cardinal undefeated in Pac-12 play. Hogan completed just 10 of 19 passes for 86 yards. But he ran 14 times, including a 59-yard touchdown run, and even out-rushed teammate Christian McCaffrey, who finished with 107 yards rushing to surpass 1,000 for the season. Quenton Meeks had two interceptions, including a fourth-quarter grab that helped give Stanford a 27-22 lead in the opening seconds of the fourth quarter.

2014 • Kevin Hogan threw for 284 yards and three touchdowns, and No. 25 Stanford slowed down Connor Halliday and the Air Raid offense in a 34-17 victory over Washington State at Stanford Stadium. Greg Taboada grabbed two touchdowns and fellow tight end Eric Cotton (who currently plays defensive end for the Cardinal) had his first scoring catch. The Cougars had minus-26 yards rushing.

2012 • With the game tied 10-10 at halftime, Stanford's defense came up big as Ed Reynolds returned an interception 25 yards for a touchdown and the Cardinal tallied a school-record 10 sacks in the 24-17 win. Stanford shut down the Cougars' ground attack, which finished with minus-16 yards.

2009 • Andrew Luck threw for 193 yards in his collegiate debut and Toby Gerhart ran for 121 yards as Stanford won its season opener in Pullman, 39-13. Chris Owusu returned a kickoff 85 yards for a touchdown in the third quarter, his first of three kickoff returns for scores during the 2009 season.

2008 • Toby Gerhart rushed for four first-half touchdowns to tie a single-game record as Stanford blanked the Cougars, 58-0, in a driving rainstorm at Stanford Stadium. The 58-point margin of victory was Stanford's second largest in the post-World War II Era.

1992 • A ranked Stanford team (No. 15) last beat a ranked Washington State team (No. 21) in 1992, a 40-3 win at Stanford Stadium.

1978 • Quarterback Steve Dils set Pac-10 single-game records for passing yards (430), total offense (438) and touchdown passes (5) in Stanford's 43-27 win over the Cougars in Pullman. Dils' performance overshadowed another Cardinal-record breaking performance by Darrin Nelson, who set the school's all-time career rushing record in just his 18th varsity game.

1975 • Stanford rushed for 395 yards in a 54-14 victory over the Cougars in Pullman. At the time, the rushing performance was the second best in school history.

1970 • Jim Plunkett connected with Randy Vataha on a 96-yard touchdown pass at the 10:12 mark of the second quarter, which at the time was the longest pass play in school history. Plunkett finished the day with 275 yards in total offense to become the NCAA's all-time career record holder for total offense.

1936 • In a series that dates to 1936, Stanford leads, 40-26-1 (.604).

1,387 • Junior running back Bryce Love (1,387) is one of five Cardinal ever with over 1,300 yards rushing in a season (Toby Gerhart, Stepfan Taylor, Tyler Gaffney and Christian McCaffrey). Love's 1,387 rushing yards rank first nationally.

1,088 • Through the season's first five games, junior running back Bryce Love's 1,088 rushing yards were the fourth-most by any player in FBS history -- Garrett Wolfe (1,181 in 2006), Marcus Allen (1,136 in 1981), Byron Hanspard (1,112 in 1996).

787 • Through the season's first four games, junior running back Bryce Love had 787 yards rushing. In the past 20 years, only LSU's Leonard Fournette (864) and Northern Illinois' Garrett Wolfe (828) had more.

760 • Junior running back Bryce Love's 14 longest runs in 2017 total 760 yards. Only 27 players nationally -- including Love -- have more than 760 yards rushing on the season.

721 • Junior running back Bryce Love has 721 rushing yards after contact, according to Pro Football Focus. That figure ranks third nationally.

680 • Stanford's 680 tackles for loss this decade ranks sixth nationally.

656 • Stanford's 656 total yards against Rice in the season opener were the seventh-most in program history, and best total since 1999 (672 vs. No. 18 UCLA).

625 • There are more than 625 registered student organizations at Stanford.

564 • Junior running back Bryce Love gained 564 yards rushing in consecutive wins over UCLA (Sept. 23) and Arizona State (Sept. 30), third-most over a two-game stretch in Pac-12 history.

500 • Stanford has gained more than 500 yards of total offense seven times in its past 12 games.

405 • Stanford's 405 rushing yards against UCLA (Sept. 23) were the fourth-most in program history. Stanford was the first team to rush for over 400 yards against UCLA since USC did so in 2005. Junior running back Bryce Love had 263 against UCLA in 2017, and USC running back Reggie Bush had 260 in 2005.

400 • Stanford has held opponents to fewer than 400 yards of total offense in 42 of its past 45 games.

301 • Junior running back Bryce Love's 301 yards rushing against Arizona State (Sept. 30) were the most by any Cardinal, eclipsing Christian McCaffrey's school-record 284 at Cal in 2016. Love broke 12 tackles and notched 175 yards after contact against the Sun Devils.

276 • Stanford leads the nation with 276 sacks since 2011.

250 • Junior running back Bryce Love and USC's Reggie Bush are the only Pac-12 players with 250 or more rushing yards in consecutive games. Stanford had one 250-yard rusher in the program's first 1,256 games.

202 • Stanford has made 202 consecutive extra-point attempts, the third-longest streak in the nation (Texas A&M - 231, Auburn - 203). The streak dates to Stanford's matchup at Oregon State on Oct. 26, 2013.

200.86 • Junior running back Bryce Love ranks first among Pac-12 players -- and second nationally -- with 200.86 all-purpose yards/game.

200 • Stanford has rushed for 200 or more yards in nine of its past 14 games (9-0 in those games).

200 • Stanford has allowed 200 or more rushing yards only 14 times under head coach David Shaw.

199 • Before a second-quarter interception at San Diego State (Sept. 16), Stanford had 199 consecutive pass attempts without an interception. Senior quarterback Keller Chryst had 170 straight attempts without a pick.

198.1 • Junior running back Bryce Love ranks first nationally with 198.1 rushing yards/game. Oklahoma State's Barry Sanders (238.9), USC's Marcus Allen (212.9), Cornell's Ed Marinaro (209.0) and Iowa State's Troy Davis (198.6) are the NCAA leaders for single-season rushing yards/game.

191.1 • Junior running back Bryce Love's 191.1 elusive rating ranks first nationally, according to Pro Football Focus. Second place? Wisconsin's Jonathan Taylor at 156.0.

171.2 • Stanford has averaged 171.2 rushing yards/game with 12 rushing touchdowns during its five-game winning streak.

142 • Stanford has scored in 142 consecutive games, dating to Nov. 11, 2006.

137 • Stanford claimed five national team championships during the past academic year, increasing its overall total to 137, including 113 NCAA titles. Recent NCAA crowns came in men's soccer, women's volleyball, women's swimming and diving, and women's water polo.

134 • Stanford held USC (Sept. 9) without a single punt or kickoff return yard, a first for the Cardinal special teams units in 134 games, dating to the 2006 regular season finale against Cal. Stanford special teams coordinator Pete Alamar was the Golden Bears' special teams coordinator for that 2006 affair.

123 • Stanford opened its 123rd season with a nonconference game against Rice on Aug. 26 in Sydney, Australia.

120.9 • Junior running back Bryce Love is averaging 120.9 yards in the first half of the season's first seven games, a figure that would rank 12th nationally.

113 • The Cardinal and UCLA share the NCAA lead with 113 team titles.

100.38 • Junior running back Cameron Scarlett (100.38) is 11th among Pac-12 players in all-purpose yards/game.

- 100 • Stanford has rushed for at least 100 yards in 65 of its past 72 games. Stanford's win at Oregon State (Oct. 26) was its first since 2012 when rushing for fewer than 100 yards.
- 100 • Stanford has had an individual 100-yard rusher in 26 of its past 33 games. It did not have a 100-yard rusher in the 15 games prior.
- 100 • Junior running back Bryce Love has gained at least 100 yards rushing five times this season ... in the first quarter.
- 99 • Stanford received a graduation success rate of 99 percent from the NCAA for the third consecutive year in 2016, a total that paced all FBS institutions and ranked 11 points higher than the next Pac-12 school (UCLA - 88 percent).
- 97 • Nearly 97 percent of Stanford undergraduates live on campus, and there are an estimated 13,000 bikes at Stanford daily.
- 96 • Stanford's 8,180-acre campus is large enough to contain 96 Disneylands.
- 87 • Junior running back Bryce Love is the fastest Stanford running back to gain 1,000 yards rushing in a season (fifth game, 87 carries). Previous Stanford record holder Christian McCaffrey gained his 1,000th rushing yard in the eighth game of 2015 (163rd carry).
- 81 • Stanford's 82 wins this decade are the most of any private school, ahead of TCU (71), USC (69), Notre Dame (66), Baylor (64) and Navy (64).
- 80 • Stanford's 80 wins against FBS opponents this decade ranks second nationally. Only Alabama (87) has more.
- 70 • Head coach David Shaw has 70 career wins, one shy of matching the school record set by Glenn "Pop" Warner (71 from 1924-32).
- 62 • Stanford has recorded at least one rushing touchdown 62 times in its past 70 games. Stanford has won 28 of its past 31 games when recording at least one rushing touchdown.
- 61 • Junior running back Bryce Love has had a rush of at least 53 yards in each game this season: 62 vs. Rice, 75 vs. USC, 53 vs. San Diego State, 69 vs. UCLA, 61 vs. Arizona State, 68 vs. Utah and 67 vs. Oregon.
- 60 • Stanford ranks sixth nationally with seven plays from scrimmage covering 60 or more yards.
- 60 • Senior defensive tackle Harrison Phillips has a team-high 60 tackles, including seven for loss.
- 56 • If junior running back Bryce Love was his own team, his 1,387 rushing yards would rank 56th of 129 FBS programs.
- 55 • The 55-point margin of victory in Stanford's 62-7 season-opening win over Rice was the second-largest since 1949, and largest since a 58-0 win against Washington State in 2008.
- 50.6 • Junior running back Bryce Love is averaging 50.6 yards/scoring play during his career: 93-yard catch, 47-yard run, 48-yard run, 7-yard run, 56-yard run, 50-yard run, 49-yard catch, 10-yard run, 75-yard run, 51-yard run, 53-yard run, 69-yard run, 61-yard run, 43-yard run, 59-yard run, 68-yard run, 5-yard run, 67-yard run.
- 50 • Stanford ranks third nationally with 12 plays from scrimmage covering 50 or more yards.
- 50 • Dating to 2016, junior running back Bryce Love has recorded a rush of 50 or more yards in nine straight games, the only player to do so in the past 20 years. Love has nine rushes of 50 or more yards in seven games this season. By comparison, Alabama's Mark Ingram had two such rushes in 14 games in 2009, and Derrick Henry had five such rushes in 15 games in 2015 for the Crimson Tide. The FBS record: 10, set by Wisconsin's Melvin Gordon in 14 games.
- 49 • Stanford's 62 points scored against Rice were the most in an opener in 49 years (62-20 win over San Jose State in 1968) and the most in any game since 2013 (63-13 win over Cal).
- 47 • Stanford's 47 regular-season conference wins are second-most nationally since 2011 behind Alabama (48).
- 45 • Stanford has won 45 consecutive games when leading after three quarters, dating to Oct. 13, 2012 -- an overtime loss at Notre Dame.
