- 1 • Stanford is 5-0 this season when forcing at least one turnover, and 0-4 when not forcing a turnover.
- 3 • Stanford football players have conducted interviews in three foreign languages this season—JJ Arcega-Whiteside (Spanish), Jesse Burkett (Japanese) and Osiris St. Brown (German). All other Stanford football interviews this year have been done in English.
- 4 • Stanford's four losses this season have come against the AP's current No. 3, No. 10, No. 20 and No. 26th-ranked teams in the nation (Notre Dame, Washington State, Washington, Utah). Those four teams have a combined record of 30-7 (.811) this season.
- 5 • One of the most disciplined teams in the nation, Stanford has the fifth-fewest penalty yards in the nation this year with just 37.00 per game—also the fewest in the Pac-12.
- 7 • Don't expect many points immediately after halftime. Stanford has allowed just one touchdown and never more than seven points in the third quarter this season. The Cardinal has only allowed 25 third-quarter points in its first nine games (2.78). The only touchdown allowed was vs. Washington State.
- 8 • Stanford has won eight in a row against Oregon State.
- 11 • Senior wide receiver JJ Arcega-Whiteside ranks second nationally -- and first among Pac-12 players -- with 11 receiving touchdowns. That's the second-most in a season in Stanford history and the most receiving touchdowns for a Cardinal in 38 years—Ken Margerum had 11 in 1980, while James Lofton set the school record with 14 in 1978.
- 13 • In addition to his 49 receptions and 754 receiving yards this season, Arcega-Whiteside has drawn 14 penalties this year—12 pass interference and two holding calls for 190 penalty yards (1.6 penalties/game and 21.1 penalty yards/game).
- 15 • Sophomore cornerback Paulson Adebore ranks second nationally with 15 pass breakups and fourth in the NCAA with 16 passes defended. He ranks atop the Pac-12 in both categories.
- 20 • Junior quarterback K.J. Costello ranks among the Top 25 nationally in completion percentage (18th), completions per game (19th), passing efficiency (22nd), passing touchdowns (17th), passing yards (13th), passing yards per game (17th) and yards per attempt (21st). He leads the Pac-12 in efficiency (153.1) and is second in the conference in passing yards (2,512) and yards per attempt (8.46).
- 37 • Sure-handed senior wide receiver Trenton Irwin has at least one reception in 37 consecutive games, a streak that ranks seventh nationally.
- 52 • With an Oct. 18 victory at Arizona State, head coach David Shaw earned his 52nd Pac-12 win, surpassing Washington's James Phelan (1930-41) for 15th-most conference victories. Shaw needed only 65 games to achieve 50 conference wins, tied for second-fastest in Pac-12 history (USC's Pete Carroll reached the 50-win mark through 60 league games).
- 90 • Stanford's 90 wins this decade rank fifth nationally and the most of any private school, ahead of TCU (79), USC (78) and Notre Dame (78).
- 253 • Senior inside linebacker Ryan Beecher was diagnosed with non-Hodgkin lymphoma on Dec. 21, 2017. His final chemotherapy session came on June 4, 2018, and he returned to action in Stanford's season opener against San Diego State on Aug. 31, 2018, a span of 253 days after his diagnosis.
- 2011 • Since Shaw's first season in 2011, Stanford's ...
  - 78 wins represent the winningest eight-year stretch in program history
  - 78 wins ranks sixth nationally
  - .754 winning pct. ranks sixth nationally
  - .860 road winning pct. ranks seventh nationally
  - .625 winning pct. vs. AP-ranked opponents ranks fifth nationally
  - .776 conference winning pct. is the best of any Pac-12 program
  - 52 conference wins are the most of any Pac-12 program
  - 23-7 (.767) record in November
- 3,617 • Senior running back Bryce Love ranks fourth nationally among active players with 3,617 yards rushing. This also ranks fourth on Stanford's career list.
- .900 • Junior kicker Jet Toner's .900 field goal percentage (9-of-10) ranks 10th in the nation and first among Pac-12 players.

Series streak: Stanford - W8

- Dating back to 1919, the 82-game series with Oregon State is Stanford's fifth-oldest rivalry.
- The Cardinal has won eight straight meetings and nine of the past 10.
- In the last seven matchups, Stanford has outscored Oregon State, 218-100.
- When No. 16 Stanford defeated No. 13 Oregon State in 2012, it marked the first meeting between the two as ranked opponents since 1956.

It Happened Against Oregon State

1940 - Frankie Albert boomed a 79-yard punt, which still ranks as the longest in school history.

1952 - Bill Rogers ran for a 96-yard touchdown in a 41-28 Stanford victory in Corvallis, the longest rush from scrimmage in school history.

1963 - Craig Ritchey returned a punt 66 yards for a touchdown to account for Stanford's only score in a 10-7 loss to the Beavers in Corvallis.

1971 - One week after being upset, 24-23, by Washington State, Stanford rallied from a 24-3 second-quarter deficit and outlasted Oregon State, 31-24, in Corvallis.

1980 - John Elway tossed a school-record six touchdown passes in a 54-13 victory over the Beavers at Stanford Stadium. Ken Margerum was on the receiving end of four of those scoring strikes.

1981 - Stanford rushed for a (then) school-record 439 yards in a 63-9 victory over the Beavers in Corvallis. Darrin Nelson set a single-game school record by scoring five touchdowns against the Beavers, including an 80-yard touchdown run.

1982 - John Elway had another big game against the Beavers, completing 23-of-29 passes for 381 yards and five touchdowns in a 45-5 victory. The passing yardage was the third highest single-game total in Elway's illustrious career.

1991 - Steve Stenstrom hooked up with Glyn Milburn for a 92-yard touchdown pass at the 6:19 mark of the second quarter, marking the third-longest pass play in school history.

1993 - Steve Stenstrom completed 28-of-37 passes for 407 yards, the seventh-best passing performance in school history.

1998 - Todd Husak set single-game records for passing yardage (450) and total offense (447), but Stanford dropped a 30-23 decision to the Beavers at Stanford Stadium.

2003 - The Beavers held Stanford to just 133 yards in total offense, which is the third-lowest output in school history.

2008 - Toby Gerhart rushed for a (then) career-high 147 yards and two touchdowns to pace Stanford to 36- 28 win. Gerhart's rushing total was the 27th-best performance in school history and highest total recorded in a season-opener.

2010 - Stanford posted its third shutout of the season with a 38-0 victory over the Beavers as the Cardinal set a school record with its 11th victory of the season. Stepfan Taylor broke off a 62-yard touchdown run in the third period and Andrew Luck completed 21 of 30 passes for 305 yards and four scores to break John Elway's single-season touchdown passing record.

2011 - Andrew Luck threw three touchdown passes and the Cardinal churned out 300 yards rushing as Stanford extended its winning streak to 17 games with a 38-13 win in Corvallis.

2012 - Kevin Hogan threw for 254 yards and three touchdowns in his first collegiate start as No. 16 Stanford overcame four turnovers to rally past No. 13 Oregon State, 27-23. The win was the first of 10 straight under center for Hogan. Stepfan Taylor ran for 114 yards and a touchdown, eclipsing 1,000 yards rushing for the third straight season.

2013 - Tyler Gaffney ran for three touchdowns and the Cardinal held off Oregon State's fourth-quarter comeback bid in a 20-12 win. Stanford's defense came up big as it turned back Oregon State on downs four times inside the Cardinal 35. It also tallied eight sacks on Sean Mannion while holding the Beavers quarterback to less than 300 passing for the first time all season.

2014 - Kevin Hogan threw for two touchdowns and ran for another, Ty Montgomery returned a punt for a score and Stanford's sporadic offense busted out of its slump in a 38-14 rout of Oregon State. Hogan completed 18 of 28 passes for 277 yards. Stanford's running-back-by-committee approach racked up 151 yards rushing, including a 1-yard touchdown run by fullback Patrick Skov. Stanford improved to 10-0 following a loss under Shaw.

2016 - Christian McCaffrey rushed for 199 yards and a touchdown, Bryce Love scored on a 56-yard touchdown run and Stanford beat Oregon State, 26-15. Conrad Ukropina kicked four field goals, including a personal best-tying 52-yarder in the first half. Stanford piled up 365 yards rushing and controlled the ball for more than 39 minutes.

2017 - Without the presence of Bryce Love, the Cardinal struggled on a Thursday night in Corvallis, Oregon. However, Stanford pulled off the victory with 20 seconds left to play in the game. With 2:19 remaining in the game, the Cardinal went for it on 4th-and-10, trailing 14-9. Keller Chryst connected with Kaden Smith for a 25-yard gain to keep the drive alive. Eventually, Chryst threw a 3-yard fade and JJ Arcega-Whiteside came down with it for the prevailing touchdown in the last minute. Oregon State's last Hail Mary was picked off and the Cardinal escaped Corvallis with a very narrow win, 15-14.

TEAM

- 1.92 • Stanford has 200 rushing touchdowns in David Shaw's 104 games as head coach, an average of 1.92/game.
- 3 • Three Cardinal -- Irwin (100), Arcega-Whiteside (103) and Kaden Smith (120) -- had 100 or more yards receiving against Utah (Oct. 6), a first for Stanford since Oct. 10, 1998 (vs. Oregon State).
- 5 • Stanford has started five different offensive line combinations in the first nine games this season. Four starters have missed at least one game this season, three have missed multiple games and one has missed the entire season (a combined 17 games missed).
- 7.0 • Senior Bryce Love currently holds the Stanford career record with 7.0 yards per carry. Christian McCaffrey is second at 6.21.
- 10 • Junior quarterback K.J. Costello's 10 touchdown passes through the season's first four games were second-most by any quarterback in the Shaw era (Andrew Luck had 11 in 2011, Kevin Hogan had eight in 2014).
- 32.4 • Stanford's 32.4 points/game in 2017 ranked eighth in program history. Stanford has averaged 30 or more points in four of head coach David Shaw's nine seasons.
- 32:17 • At 32:17, Stanford's average time of possession per game since 2011 ranks sixth nationally. The average millennial spends over 32 minutes a day on Instagram.
- 34 • Costello's 34 completions against Washington State were the sixth-most in a game in school history, and most since Steve Stenstrom had 37 at Notre Dame in 1994.
- 51 • Stanford has 51 rushing touchdowns in its past 27 games.
- 138 • Senior Trenton Irwin ranks 17th in the Stanford record book with 138 career receptions.
- 157 • Stanford has scored in 157 consecutive games, dating to Nov. 11, 2006.
- 300 • Costello has five 300-yard passing games this season. He is just the fifth Cardinal—and first since Andrew Luck in 2011—with five such games in a season, joining Luck, Steve Stenstrom, John Elway and Stanford radio analyst Todd Husak. His five career 300-yard passing games is fifth-most all-time in school history.
- 405 • Stanford's 405 rushing yards against UCLA in 2017 was the fourth-highest total in program history.
- 2,507 • Senior Cameron Scarlett and senior Bryce Love combined for 2,507 rushing yards in 2017, as the top rushing tandem in program history.
- 19,665 • Stanford has rushed for 19,665 yards since 2011, 20th-best nationally. That's over 13.7 trips across the Golden Gate Bridge.

KADEN SMITH

- 1 • Junior Kaden Smith ranks first in the nation among tight ends in receiving yards (601) and receiving yards per game (66.8). He is second in the country—first among Power 5 tight ends—with 44 receptions (only San Jose State's Josh Oliver has more receptions with 49).
- 8 • Smith has produced three games with 8+ receptions and 100+ yards this season (Utah, Washington State and Washington). The rest of the tight ends in the country have combined for five such games. He is the only tight end to do it more than once and has done it in back-to-back games. Smith is the first tight end to accomplish that feat three times in a season since Texas Tech's Jace Amaro in 2013 (Baker Mayfield and Davis Webb were the Red Raiders' quarterbacks).
- 80 • Smith has an 80 percent catch rate on deep passes of 20+ yards. His eight such deep catches also rank No. 1 among FBS tight ends.
- 100 • Smith is the first Stanford tight end with back-to-back 100-yard receiving games since Alex Smith did it in three straight games in 2004. Smith had 112 against Washington State and 107 against Washington. Smith is also the first Cardinal tight end since Zach Ertz with three 100-yard receiving games in a season. Smith's career-high 120 yards receiving against Utah (Oct. 6) were the most by a Stanford tight end since Ertz's 134 vs. Cal in 2012.
- 1000 • Smith is the fourth Cardinal tight end with 1,000 career receiving yards (1,015). He joins Coby Fleener (1,543), Zach Ertz (1,434) and Alex Smith (1,291).

JJ ARCEGA-WHITESIDE

- 6 • Senior JJ Arcega-Whiteside had six touchdown receptions over a two-game stretch from the 2017 bowl game to the 2018 opener (three vs. TCU, three vs. San Diego State). That tied Ken Margerum for the most receiving touchdowns in consecutive Stanford games, set in 1980 with quarterback John Elway on the delivering end (two at Washington State, four vs. Oregon State).
- 7 • With seven career 100-yard receiving games (three this season), Arcega-Whiteside ranks sixth in school history.
- 15 • Dating back to the 2017 regular season finale against Notre Dame, Arcega-Whiteside has 15 receiving scores over the past 12 games.
- 25 • Arcega-Whiteside's 25 career receiving scores ranks third on the program's all-time list—one behind Troy Walters (1996-99) for second place.
- 60.0 • Arcega-Whiteside ranks second in the nation among wide receivers with a 60.0 percent catch rate on deep passes (20+ yards).
- 226 • Arcega-Whiteside's 226 receiving yards against San Diego State were the third-most in program history. It was the fifth time a Cardinal receiver eclipsed 200 yards receiving.
- 2,000 • Arcega-Whiteside needs 86 yards to become the 14th Cardinal with 2,000 career receiving yards.

- 1 • Stanford has at least one sack in 89 of its past 97 games.
- 2 • Two of the top pass-breakup performances by a Cardinal defense under head coach David Shaw have been registered in the 2018 season's first three games. Stanford had 11 against USC on Sept. 8, the most by any team under Shaw, and 10 against UC Davis, tying for second under Shaw.
- 2 • Stanford has allowed only two kickoff returns (27 yarder vs. San Diego State, 12-yarder at Notre Dame) on the season. Stanford has not surrendered a kickoff return of 30 yards or more in its past 24 games, dating to a 2016 contest at Oregon.
- 3 • Stanford held USC to three points during a Sept. 8 win. The Cardinal surrendered fewer than the three points against USC only four times previously: 16-0 victory in 1905 (first meeting between the programs), 16-0 win in 1934, 3-0 triumph in 1935, and a 13-0 blanking in 1941. USC had not been held to three points or fewer since Nov. 1, 1997, when the Trojans were blanked, 27-0, at Washington.
- 5 • Fifth-year senior inside linebacker Bobby Okereke has five or more tackles in 20 of the past 22 games.
- 16 • Sophomore Paulson Adebo ranks fourth nationally with 16 passes defended (second nationally with 15 passes broken up). In the past 10 years, no defensive back has more passes defended in a season than Houston's William Jackson III, who had 28 in 2015.
- 16 • Fifth-year cornerback Alijah Holder was targeted a whopping 16 times against UC Davis (Sept. 15), yet allowed only a long reception of 14 yards.
- 21 • Toner's 21 field goals made in 2017 were the second-most in program history. Only three returning kickers had more field goals than Toner last season.
- 39 • Senior Cameron Scarlett returned a school-record 39 kickoffs in 2017, and ranked first nationally with 12 kickoff returns of 30 or more yards. He is sixth all-time at Stanford with 1,470 career kick return yards.
- 43.7 • Senior Jake Bailey's 43.7 career punting average ranks first in program history. Bailey posted the second-best punting season in school history last year, averaging 45.4 yards/punt. He led the Pac-12 and ranked seventh nationally.
- 46 • The Cardinal is 46-6 (.885) under head coach David Shaw when winning the turnover battle.
- 94 • Okereke's 94 tackles last season were tops among Cardinal returners, and the most by any returning player since 2008.
- 100 • Stanford has allowed 100 or fewer rushing yards 46 times under head coach David Shaw (40-6 in such contests).
- 109 • The Cardinal has at least one tackle for loss in each of its past 109 contests.
- 117 • Toner's 117 points in 2017 ranked fifth on Stanford's single-season scoring list.
- 167:38 • Stanford went 167:38 without allowing an offensive touchdown during the season's first three games (first quarter of the season opener against San Diego State and the final play of the season's third game against UC Davis).
- 200 • Stanford has allowed 200 or more rushing yards only 16 times in 104 games under head coach David Shaw.
- 249 • Stanford made a school record 249 consecutive extra-point attempts between Oct. 26, 2013 - Nov. 3, 2018. During the streak: Colin Riccitelli - 2-2, Jet Toner - 79-79, Conrad Ukropina - 108-108, Jordan Williamson - 60-60.
- 312 • Stanford leads the nation with 312 sacks since 2011.
- 1.000 • Toner's perfect 1.000 extra-point pct. in 2017 was the 13th in program history. Toner is one of three Cardinal ever with a 1.000 career extra-point pct.

PROGRAM

- 1 • Stanford has defeated at least one top-20 opponent on the road in seven of eight seasons under head coach David Shaw. Stanford had only one top-20 road win in the nine seasons prior to the start of Shaw's tenure in 2011 (at No. 2 USC on Oct. 6, 2007).
- 2 • Former Cardinal John Elway (Denver Broncos) and John Lynch (San Francisco 49ers) are NFL general managers. The other two schools with two NFL general managers? Connecticut and John Carroll.
- 5 • Five Cardinal have completed work for their undergraduate degree: fifth-year senior Alameen Murphy, fifth-year senior Bobby Okereke, fifth-year senior Alijah Holder, fifth-year senior Isaiah Brandt-Sims and fifth-year senior Brandon Fanaika.
- 13 • Shaw is one of 13 African-American FBS head coaches.
- 17 • Stanford overcame a 17-point deficit to post a 38-31 overtime win at Oregon (Sept. 22). It was the second-largest comeback win for the Cardinal since 1996 (trailed 21-0 in a 35-21 win at USC in 1999). Stanford has overcame a double-digit deficit in a winning effort 20 times since 1996, and six times under head coach David Shaw.
- 17 • Stanford requires students to declare a major before their junior year. Among the team's upperclassmen, 17 majors are represented. Majors are: aeronautics and astronautics, communication, computer science, economics, history, human biology, international relations, Japanese, mechanical engineering, media studies, management science and engineering, political science, product design, psychology, sociology, symbolic systems, and science, technology and society.
- 22 • Shaw is one of 22 head coaches currently coaching at their alma mater.
- 29 • Stanford's 29 fourth- and fifth-year seniors are the most of any Pac-12 program.
- 30 • Stanford's 2018 roster includes student-athletes from 30 different states and one foreign country.
- 30 • The Stanford Concussion and Brain Performance Center is at the forefront of concussion and traumatic brain injury research, and is incorporating state of the art eye-tracking tests -- EYE-SYNC -- in all of its studies. The EYE-SYNC test is administered with customized eye tracking technology, called Dynamic Visual Synchronization Goggles. The eye tracking test lasts 30 seconds, and the results show the ability to focus -- a key problem after a concussion.

ATHLETICS

- 6 • Stanford is one of six programs with at least one national championship in football, baseball and men's basketball. It is the only school with at least one national championship in football, baseball, men's basketball and women's basketball.
- 7 • Stanford is one of seven schools to earn Division I Academic Progress Rate (APR) Public Recognition Award each of the past four seasons.
- 24 • Stanford won the 2017-18 Division I Learfield Sports Directors' Cup, extending its streak to 24 years of capturing the award presented to the most successful intercollegiate athletic department in the nation.
- 42 • Stanford, which sponsors 36 varsity sports, has won at least one NCAA team title in each of the past 42 academic years, representing the longest streak in NCAA history.
- 117 • The Cardinal leads the NCAA with 117 team titles.
- 142 • Stanford claimed five national team championships during the last academic year, increasing its overall total to 142, including 117 NCAA titles.

UNIVERSITY

- 1.1 • Stanford's inner campus includes about 1.1 million square feet of shrubs, 143,000 linear feet of groundcovers, 43,000 trees, 25 fountains and more than 800 different species of plants.
- 2 • Stanford's faculty includes two Presidential Medal of Freedom winners.
- 4 • Stanford's faculty includes four Pulitzer Prize winners.
- 5 • The top five undergraduate majors at Stanford include: computer science, engineering, human biology, management science and engineering, and mechanical engineering.
- 17 • The Stanford community includes 17 Nobel laureates.
- 24.8 • As of 2017, Stanford's endowment eclipsed 24.8 billion.
- 31 • Stanford faculty have won the Nobel Prize 31 times since the university's founding.
- 96 • Stanford's 8,180-acre campus is large enough to contain 96 Disneylands.
- 97 • About 97 percent of all eligible undergraduates live in campus housing.
- 150 • The 700-acre Stanford Research Park, created in 1951, is home to over 150 companies.
- 625 • There are more than 625 registered student organizations at Stanford.
- 700 • There are about 700 buildings on Stanford's campus that incorporate approximately 15.4 million square feet.
- 2,040 • Of the 47,450 applicants -- the largest application pool in school history -- for Stanford's class of 2022, only 2,040 were admitted. The admitted students came from all 50 states and 63 countries.
- 13,000 • There are an estimated 13,000 bikes at Stanford daily.

The JJ and Costello Show

STANFORD, Calif. - Stanford knew defenses were going to do whatever it takes to slow down Bryce Love after his record-setting 2017 season.

Being able to take advantage of that with the deep passing game will be key to the Cardinal's success this year.

JJ Arcega-Whiteside did just that, getting loose for three long touchdown catches from K.J. Costello to overcome a slow night by Love and No. 13 Stanford opened the season with a 31-10 victory over San Diego State.

Love was held to 29 yards on 18 carries as the Aztecs focused their defense on stopping the man who led all Power 5 backs with 2,118 yards rushing last season on the way to a Heisman Trophy runner-up finish.

After a slow start, the Cardinal made San Diego State pay for that decision. Costello connected with Arcega-Whiteside on a 38-yard score in the second quarter and then on plays from 19 and 80 yards in the third quarter as the Aztecs defensive backs struggled to contend with Stanford's big receiver. Arcega-Whiteside finished with six catches for 226 yards.

Costello added a 19-yard touchdown pass to Colby Parkinson in the fourth quarter to break open what had been a close game for more than a half. Costello finished 21 for 31 for 332 yards and four touchdowns.

The game turned following an odd sequence late in the first half. Noble Hall intercepted a deflected pass for San Diego State but then lost the ball when Stanford receiver Trenton Irwin raced back and knocked it loose before recovering the fumble.

Three plays later, Costello found Arcega-Whiteside deep for his first touchdown that gave Stanford a 9-7 lead at the half.

The Aztecs had scored first behind talented back Juwan Washington, who had runs of 22, 10 and 40 yards on a 92-yard drive that ended with his 4-yard score.

Stanford finally got on the board midway through the second quarter when Jake Bailey's 63-yard punt went out of bounds at the 1 and Bobby Okereke sacked Christian Chapman in the end zone.

STANFORD, Calif. - With Bryce Love and the key parts of Stanford's offense back, the Cardinal figured to be dynamic on that side of the ball.

Two games into the season, the defense showed that it is capable of leading the way, as well.

Joey Alfieri and crew helped harass talented freshman quarterback JT Daniels into four sacks and three turnovers and the 10th-ranked Cardinal held No. 17 Southern California to its fewest points in more than two decades in a 17-3 victory.

Stanford has allowed just 13 points so far this season and has not given up a touchdown in the past seven quarters against San Diego State and USC.

That kind of performance means the Cardinal haven't had to rely on big plays from Love to win. Love did bounce back from a 29-yard performance in the opener by rushing for 136 yards and a touchdown.

His 28-yard run sparked the opening drive that ended with his 6-yard score. He added a 59-yard run in the third quarter to set up a field goal.

The defense did the rest, holding USC to its fewest points since being shut out by Washington in 1997.

Stanford took control of the game late in the second quarter with a strip sack on fourth down against Daniels that set up K.J. Costello's 9-yard touchdown pass to Colby Parkinson that gave Stanford a 14-0 lead.

Daniels made an impressive debut last week for the Trojans when he threw for 282 yards and a touchdown against UNLV. But duplicating that against Stanford proved far more difficult with the Cardinal using blitzes to pressure Daniels.

Daniels went 16 for 34 for 215 yards with interceptions by Malik Antoine on his final two passes of the night. He was forced to leave the game for one possession in the first half with a bruised hand after a hard hit by Alfieri.

It was another big play by Alfieri that proved crucial late in the first half. Helton went for it on fourth-and-2 from the Cardinal 40, but Alfieri came free on a blitz and knocked the ball loose for Bobby Okereke to recover at the Stanford 49.

The Cardinal drove down field to score on Costello's touchdown pass with 34 seconds left in the half.

Stanford Tops Aggies

STANFORD, Calif. - Stanford made it through its season-opening three-game homestand unscathed. But with the schedule about to get much tougher, the Cardinal know they will need to be much better the next few weeks to remain perfect.

K.J. Costello overcame a rough start to throw two touchdown passes to JJ Arcega-Whiteside and No. 9 Stanford beat FCS-level UC Davis 30-10.

The game kicked off at the unusually early time of 11:01 a.m. local time in front of a sparse crowd at Stanford Stadium. The Cardinal even played without star running Bryce Love, who got the week off to heal some minor ailments.

After Stanford punted on the opening drive, Costello threw an interception to Nas Anesi deep in his own territory to set up an early UC Davis field goal.

Then one play after Costello's fumble that was returned for a TD was changed to an incomplete pass on replay, he sailed a pass that was intercepted by Isaiah Thomas.

UC Davis was unable to capitalize on that turnover, failing to convert a fourth-and-6 from the Cardinal 37. Stanford then took control by scoring on its next three drives, including TD passes of 9 and 88 yards from Costello to Arcega-Whiteside.

The defense did the rest against a UC Davis team that averaged 49 points per game and more than 500 yards of offense in season-opening wins over San Jose State and San Diego.

Stanford Rallies for Win Over No. 20 Oregon

EUGENE, Ore. - K.J. Costello threw for 327 yards and three touchdowns, the last a 23-yarder to Colby Parkinson in overtime, and No. 7 Stanford rallied for a 38-31 victory over No. 20 Oregon.

After Costello's touchdown pass to Parkinson, Stanford's Alameen Murphy intercepted Oregon quarterback Justin Herbert's pass in the end zone for the victory.

Bryce Love returned after sitting out last week against UC Davis to rest minor injuries. He ran for 89 yards and a touchdown as Stanford remained undefeated.

Love's 22-yard scoring run late in the third quarter cut Oregon's lead to 24-21, but Cyrus Habibi-Likio scored on a 1-yard run for the Ducks with 4:39 left.

In the frenzied final minutes of regulation, Stanford answered with Costello's 15-yard touchdown pass to JJ Arcega-Whiteside to narrow it again before Sean Barton recovered CJ Verdell's fumble on the Stanford 40 with 51 seconds left.

Costello passed for a pair of first downs on the ensuing drive and Jet Toner hit a 32-yard field to tie it and send the game into overtime.

Herbert threw for 346 yards and a touchdown while receiver Dillon Mitchell caught 14 passes for 239 yards in Oregon's first real challenge of the season after nonconference wins over Bowling Green, Portland State and San Jose State.

Oregon came out with a collective tenacity that it hadn't really shown this season. The Ducks' first series was capped by Tony Brooks-James' 7-yard touchdown run. Herbert got Oregon downfield with a 53-yard pass to Mitchell.

The Ducks went up 14-0 on Herbert's 7-yard pass to Jacob Breeland to open the second quarter.

Arcega-Whiteside scored on a 13-yard pass from Costello for his sixth touchdown reception of the season. He was tied at third nationally for touchdown catches going into the game.

Oregon answered on the next drive with Verdell's 48-yard scoring run to go up 21-7. The Ducks added a 38-yard field goal from Adam Stack and ran off the field for halftime celebrating the dominant performance by dancing and waving towels.

The momentum shifted late in the third quarter when Stanford's Joey Alfieri scooped up a fumble and ran 80 yards for the touchdown to narrow the gap to 24-14.

The Cardinal touchdown came just after Oregon had a touchdown overturned.

Love's touchdown closed the quarter before the frenetic final five minutes.

Irish Defeats Cardinal

NOTRE DAME, Ind. - No. 7 Stanford suffered its first loss of the season, falling on the road to No. 8 Notre Dame 38-17.

The Cardinal, which was beaten by the Irish for the first time since 2014, was also seeking its third victory over a ranked opponent this season, having already defeated No. 17/12 USC and No. 20/19 Oregon.

Saturday's contest also marked the first time in the series that both teams were carrying a top-10 AP ranking.

Notre Dame and Stanford traded touchdowns before the Irish eventually seized control, scoring 39 seconds before halftime to take a 21-14 lead into the break.

Bryce Love's 39-yard scamper to the end zone opened the scoring for Stanford, knotting the game at 7-7 late in the first quarter. Love finished with 73 yards on 17 carries despite leaving due to injury early in the fourth quarter.

K.J. Costello completed 15 of 27 passes for 174 yards, including a 4-yard strike to JJ Arcega-Whiteside for Stanford's second score of the game. It was the eighth touchdown catch of the year and 22nd career for Arcega-Whiteside, who now ranks fourth in school history in that category.

Arcega-Whiteside and Trenton Irwin caught five passes apiece.

Jet Toner matched his career high with a 46-yard field goal at the 2:16 mark of the third quarter, keeping the Cardinal within striking distance at 24-17. Toner improved to 7-10 on field goals over 40 yards for his career.

Utes Down Cardinal

STANFORD, Calif. - Jaylon Johnson returned an interception 100 yards for a touchdown and Zack Moss ran for two scores to lead Utah to a 40-21 victory over No. 14 Stanford.

Moss ran for 160 yards and the Utes intercepted K.J. Costello on back-to-back first-half drives in the red zone to snap an 11-game home winning streak for the Cardina, which suffered its first home loss since a 10-5 setback to Colorado on Oct. 22, 2016.

Johnson intercepted the first at the goal line and raced down the sideline for the third 100-yard interception return in school history and first since Harold Lusk did it in 1994 against Colorado State.

The Cardinal, which was playing without Bryce Love due to an injury, fell behind 24-7 at halftime with a 2-yard run from Trevor Speights accounting for its only first-half score.

Cameron Scarlett's 1-yard run with 5:02 remaining in the third quarter trimmed Utah's lead to 27-14.

K.J. Costello, who completed 26 of 41 passes for 381 yards, threw a 26-yard touchdown pass to Michael Wilson with 1:44 remaining in the third quarter, keeping Stanford within striking distance at 27-21 before Utah closed the game with 13 unanswered points.

The Cardinal totaled 381 receiving yards, with Kaden Smith (8-120), JJ Arcega-Whiteside (8-103) and Trenton Irwin (7-100) all reaching the century mark. Saturday's contest marked the first time three players totaled 100 receiving yards since Oct. 10, 1998 against Oregon State, when Troy Walters (159), Dave Davis (151) and DeRonnie Pitts (124) accomplished the feat.

TEMPE, Ariz. - K.J. Costello threw for 231 yards and a touchdown, and Stanford remained in the thick of the Pac-12 North Division race with a 20-13 win over Arizona State.

Stanford needed a half to get its offense fully rolling off a bye week, held to a pair of field goals in the first half. The Cardinal put together a pair of impressive drives in the third quarter and had a 16-minute advantage in time of possession to tie No. 14 Washington atop the Pac-12 North.

Arizona State was held to a field goal in the first half before Manny Wilkins scrambled for a 10-yard touchdown run in the fourth quarter to pull the Sun Devils within 20-13.

Arizona State got the ball back at its own 16-yard line with 2:20 left, but couldn't get off a final play from Stanford's 20 after a short gain.

Wilkins threw for 353 yards, but the Sun Devils turned it over three times, including one on a failed trick play, to lose for the fourth time in five games.

Arizona State had a good drive going late in the first half, but failed on a trick play when receiver N'Keal Harry's pass off a reverse was intercepted at Stanford's 11.

The Cardinal appeared to have a touchdown when Cameron Scarlett turned a screen pass into a 59-yard score, but it was called back on a holding penalty.

Jet Toner hit his second field goal of the half, from 31 yards, on the final play of the half to put Stanford up 6-3.

Arizona State opened the second half with Brandon Ruiz's second field goal.

Stanford opened by dominating the Sun Devils on a pair of long scoring drives to take control.

Costello hit JJ Arcega-Whiteside on a 28-yard touchdown pass on the first drive, and Scarlett scored on a 1-yard dive to put the Cardinal up 20-6.

Cardinal Drops Shootout

STANFORD, Calif. - Gardner Minshew completed his first 19 passes of the second half and drove No. 14 Washington State to a 42-yard field goal by Blake Mazza with 19 seconds remaining to put the Cougars in sole possession of first place in the Pac-12 North with a 41-38 victory over No. 24 Stanford.

Minshew completed 40 of 50 passes for 438 yards and three touchdowns to lead the Cougars to their third straight win over the Cardinal.

K.J. Costello kept Stanford within striking distance, throwing a 25-yard touchdown pass to JJ Arcega-Whiteside to even the game at 38-38 with 1:25 remaining. Costello finished with 323 passing yards and four touchdowns, becoming the first Cardinal quarterback to record multiple four-touchdown games in a season since Andrew Luck in 2011.

Minshew engineered the winning drive in the final 1:25 with the big play coming on a 35-yard pass to Jamire Calvin on third-and-2 from the 33. Minshew completed one more pass to move the ball to the 25 and after two incomplete passes, Mazza made his kick to win it.

With No. 15 Washington losing at California, the Cougars head into the final month of the season alone in first place in the conference and remain the only one-loss team in the Pac-12.

Arcega-Whiteside continued his torrid play, hauling in a career-high 10 receptions for 111 yards and two touchdowns. Arcega-Whiteside, who moved into 17th place in school history with 1,792 career receiving yards, is the first Cardinal player with 11 touchdown catches in a season since 1980.

Kaden Smith hauled in nine catches for 112 yards while Trenton Irwin totaled 80 yards on eight receptions, representing his third straight game with at least seven catches.

Stanford built a 28-14 lead with 1:04 remaining before halftime, as Costello found Houston Heimuli from one yard out. Washington State quickly answered with a 23-yard field goal as time expired, closing the gap to 28-17.

Jet Toner's 40-yard field goal at the 6:16 mark of the third quarter extended the Cardinal's lead to 31-24 before the Cougars responded with a pair of touchdowns to open the fourth.

Comeback Falls Short

SEATTLE - K.J. Costello, Kaden Smith and Bryce Love jolted the Stanford offense in the second half, but a furious Cardinal comeback fell short against Washington, 27-23.

The Huskies built a 21-0 lead thanks to a 2-yard touchdown run by quarterback Jake Browning, an 11-yard touchdown pass from Browning to Drew Sample and Gaskin's 6-yard run early in the second quarter. But the Huskies offense was unable to find the end zone the rest of the way, making for a nervy second half after Stanford's Costello got hot.

Costello threw a 14-yard touchdown to Kaden Smith and Bryce Love ran for a 5-yard touchdown late in the third quarter to pull Stanford within 24-14. Collin Riccitelli hit a 21-yard field goal with nine minutes remaining after Washington's defense held inside the 10 to pull the Cardinal within 24-17.

Washington answered with one more drive and Peyton Henry hit a 38-yard field goal with 5:09 left and gave the Huskies a 10-point lead, but Costello made the final minutes uncomfortable hitting Trenton Irwin for a 33-yard touchdown with 3:24 left. Stanford missed the extra point and the Huskies lead was 27-23.

Washington was only able to run 79 seconds off the clock before punting and Stanford took possession at its 15 with 2:05 left. Costello hit five passes to get to the Washington 34 with 10 seconds left. He missed an end zone throw for Irwin and on the last play Costello was intercepted by Taylor Rapp at the goal line.

Costello was 29 of 43 for 347 yards with two touchdowns. Love rushed 18 times for 71 yards and a score. Smith finished with eight catches for 107 yards and a touchdown.
