Players on Roy Williams' 400th Win as Carolina's Head Coach

"I never take it for granted that he's my head coach. He's the reason why I came here, because I believed in him and I believed that he could make me into the player that I wanted to be ... he just takes guys and, no matter where they come from or what caliber player they are, he just has that knack to make them into a great player."

- Joel Berry II

"To see him jump up the way that he did (when I made my first 3FG) was huge for me. It shows how much I mean to him, and to see me succeed, how much it means to him. That's just how he is. He just wants to see all of us succeed in the long run. And I think that's the biggest thing. He's instilled so many life lessons in us, everyday. It's not just basketball."

- Kenny Williams

- This is the first meeting since the 2002 Preseason NIT championship game at Madison Square Garden in New York. Carolina had four players score in double figures (including current director of operations Sean May). The Tar Heels led 37-17 in the first half and by nine
