25 • It will be a top-25 matchup at Stanford Stadium when the 24th-ranked Cardinal faces No. 14 Washington State on Reunion Homecoming. The game kicks off at 4 p.m. and will be broadcast on Pac-12 Networks.

.857 • Shaw is 6-1 (.857) in Reunion Homecoming contests.

102 • In seven Reunion Homecoming games under Shaw, Stanford has outscored opponents by 102 points (266-124).

8 • Stanford has won eight of the past 11 matchups against Washington State.

63 • The most points scored by the Cardinal in the series came in 1970, when it romped the Cougars, 63-16.

7 • There have been seven shutouts in the series: five by Stanford and two by Washington State. The most recent was a 58-0 Cardinal win in 2008 at Stanford Stadium.

74 • During the 2017 meeting in Pullman, Washington, snow fell during a Cardinal game for the first time since a 1936 contest in New York City against Columbia. This year, the temperature at kickoff is expected to be 74 degrees under partly cloudy skies.

.767 • Head coach David Shaw is 23-7 (.767) in October.

2011 • Since Shaw's first season in 2011, Stanford's ...

- 78 wins represent the winningest stretch in program history
- 78 wins ranks sixth nationally
- .765 winning pct. ranks sixth nationally
- .860 road winning pct. ranks seventh nationally
- .625 winning pct. vs. AP-ranked opponents ranks fifth nationally
- .776 conference winning pct. is the best of any Pac-12 program
- 52 conference wins are the most of any Pac-12 program

90 • Stanford's 90 wins this decade rank fifth nationally and the most of any private school, ahead of TCU (78), USC (77) and Notre Dame (76).

52 • With an Oct. 18 victory at Arizona State, head coach David Shaw earned his 52nd Pac-12 win, passing Washington's James Phelan (1930-41) for 15th-most conference victories. Shaw needed only 65 games to achieve 50 conference wins, tied for second-fastest in Pac-12 history (USC's Pete Carroll reached the 50-win mark through 60 league games).

35 • Sure-handed senior wide receiver Trenton Irwin has at least one reception in 35 consecutive games, a streak that ranks eighth nationally.

2.3 • Sophomore cornerback Paulson Adebo ranks second nationally -- and first among Pac-12 players -- with 2.3 passes defended/game.

9 • Senior wide receiver JJ Arcega-Whiteside ranks third nationally -- and first among Pac-12 players -- with nine receiving touchdowns. Dating to the 2017 regular season finale against Notre Dame, Arcega-Whiteside has 13 receiving scores over the past 10 games.

13.54 • Junior quarterback K.J. Costello ranks 25th nationally -- and third among Pac-12 players -- with 13.54 yards/completion. Costello is third among Pac-12 quarterbacks with 8.73 yards/attempt.

3,475 • Senior running back Bryce Love ranks fourth nationally among active players with 3,475 yards rushing.

4,010 • Love ranks eighth nationally among active players with 4,010 all-purpose yards.

.889 • Junior kicker Jet Toner's .889 field goal percentage ranks second among Pac-12 players.

253 • Senior inside linebacker Ryan Beecher was diagnosed with non-Hodgkin lymphoma on Dec. 21, 2017. His final chemotherapy session came on June 4, 2018, and he returned to action in Stanford's season opener against San Diego State on Aug. 31, 2018, a span of 253 days after his diagnosis.

Largest Washington State victory: 40-6 (1958 at Washington State)
Series streak: Washington State – W2

1969 • Stanford's defense limited the Cougars to just 109 yards in total offense, the second lowest output ever by a Cardinal opponent.

1970 • Jim Plunkett connected with Randy Vataha on a 96-yard touchdown pass at the 10:12 mark of the second quarter, which at the time was the longest pass play in school history. Plunkett finished the day with 275 yards in total offense to become the NCAA's all-time career record holder for total offense.

1975 • Stanford rushed for 395 yards in a 54-14 victory over the Cougars in Pullman. The rushing performance ranked as the second best in school history.

1978 • Quarterback Steve Dils set Pac-10 single-game records for passing yards (430), total offense (438) and touchdown passes (5) in Stanford's 43-27 win over the Cougars in Pullman. Dils' performance overshadowed another Cardinal-record breaking performance by Darrin Nelson, who set the school's all-time career rushing record in just his 18th varsity game.

1980 • Darrin Nelson ran for 202 yards on 21 carries in a 48-34 win in Pullman. The rushing performance ranked as the fifth-best in school history. John Elway threw for 379 yards, including five touchdowns.

1986 • Brad Muster rushed for 190 yards on 37 carries in a 42-12 victory over the Cougars at Stanford Stadium. The rushing performance tied for the ninth-best single-game mark in school history and was the second-best rushing performance of Muster's career.

2008 • Toby Gerhart rushed for four first-half touchdowns to tie a single-game record as Stanford blanked the Cougars, 58-0, in a driving rainstorm at Stanford Stadium. The 58-point margin of victory was Stanford's second largest in the post-World War II Era.

2009 • Andrew Luck threw for 193 yards in his collegiate debut and Toby Gerhart ran for 121 yards as Stanford won its season opener in Pullman, 39-13. Chris Owusu returned a kickoff 85 yards for a touchdown in the third quarter, his first of three kickoff returns for scores during the 2009 season.

2010 • Stepfan Taylor rushed for a (then) career-high 143 yards and two touchdowns while Andrew Luck threw for 190 yards and three scores to lead the Cardinal to a 38-28 victory over the Cougars at Stanford Stadium.

2011 • Andrew Luck tossed four second-half touchdown passes to lead Stanford to a 44-14 triumph in Pullman. Ty Montgomery completed the Stanford scoring with a 96-yard kickoff return. It was the 14th straight win by the Cardinal, establishing a school record and extending the nation's longest winning streak.

2012 • Washington State rallied behind quarterback Jeff Tuel, who totaled 401 yards on an arm-weary 43-of-60 passing, with two touchdowns and one interception. But with the game tied 10-10 at halftime, Stanford's defense came up big as Ed Reynolds returned an interception 25 yards for a touchdown and the Cardinal tallied a school-record 10 sacks. Stanford shut down the Cougars' ground attack, which finished with minus-16 yards (third fewest allowed in Stanford history).

2013 • Stanford returned to Century Link Field for the first time since losing to Washington in 2012 and rolled over Washington State, 55-17. With the game tied at 3-3, Stanford posted 45 unanswered points before Washington State's Gabe Marks broke the streak, catching a fourth-quarter touchdown pass from Austin Apodaca. Stanford's Kevin Hogan had a career-day throwing for 286 yards and three touchdowns, including two to Devon Cajuste.

2014 • The defense came as advertised for Stanford, and so did the offense. Kevin Hogan threw for 284 yards and three touchdowns, and No. 25 Stanford slowed down Connor Halliday and the Air Raid offense in a 34-17 victory over Washington State at Stanford Stadium. Greg Taboada grabbed his first two career touchdowns and fellow tight end Eric Cotton had his first scoring catch. The Cougars had minus-26 yards rushing.

2015 • Washington State kicker Erik Powell missed wide right on a 43-yard field goal as time expired, allowing Stanford to escape with a 30-28 win on a day Powell tied Drew Dunning's 2003 school record with five makes despite rainy, windy conditions. Conrad Ukropina kicked a 19-yard field goal with 1:54 left to put Stanford ahead. Kevin Hogan ran for 112 yards and two touchdowns for Stanford to help keep the Cardinal undefeated in Pac-12 play. Hogan completed just 10 of 19 passes for 86 yards. But he ran 14 times, including a 59-yard touchdown run, and even out-rushed teammate Christian McCaffrey, who finished with 107 yards rushing to go over 1,000 for the season. Quenton Meeks had two picks, including a fourth-quarter grab that helped give Stanford a 27-22 lead in the opening seconds of the fourth.

2016 • Washington State's Luke Falk threw for 357 yards and four touchdowns and the Cougars' defensive line shut down Christian McCaffrey and the Cardinal offense in a 42-16 victory. Stanford had an eight-game winning streak against Washington State snapped, and lost for the first time in all-black uniforms, which have been worn for at least one game annually since 2010.

2017 • Luke Falk led No. 25 Washington State on a 94-yard drive in the fourth quarter that produced the winning points in a 24-21 victory over No. 18 Stanford. Snow started to fall heavily at the end of the first quarter, hampering both offenses. Stanford hadn't played in snow since a 1936 game against Columbia in New York. Bryce Love, slowed by an ankle injury, was held to 69 yards. Love ran 52 yards for a touchdown on Stanford's first play of the second quarter. Bobby Okereke returned an interception 52 yards for a touchdown that gave Stanford a 21-17 lead, but Falk responded by leading the Cougars 94 yards, culminating in an 11-yard touchdown pass to Jamire Calvin, for a 24-21 lead with 6:56 left in the game.

- 96 • Stanford's offense returned over 96 pct. of its total scoring from 2017 (435 of 453 points).
- 19,468 • Stanford has rushed for 19,468 yards since 2011, 20th-best nationally. That's over 13.7 trips across the Golden Gate Bridge.
- 155 • Stanford has scored in 155 consecutive games, dating to Nov. 11, 2006.
- 19 • Stanford has won 19 of its past 22 games when scoring first. Stanford has won six of the past eight regular season games when its opponent scored first.
- 200 • Stanford has rushed for 200 or more yards in nine of its past 28 games (9-0 in those games).
- 74 • Stanford has recorded at least one rushing touchdown 74 times in its past 83 games. Stanford has won 35 of its past 43 games when recording at least one rushing touchdown.
- 49 • Stanford has 49 rushing touchdowns in its past 25 games.
- 1.94 • Stanford has 198 rushing touchdowns in David Shaw's 102 games as head coach, an average of 1.94/game.
- 32:17 • At 32:17, Stanford's average time of possession per game since 2011 ranks sixth nationally. The average millennial spends over 32 minutes a day on Instagram.
- 1,400 • Senior wide receivers Trenton Irwin (1,416) and JJ Arcega-Whiteside (1,792) each have over 1,400 career receiving yards.
- 3 • Three Cardinal -- Irwin (100), Arcega-Whiteside (103) and Kaden Smith (120) -- had 100 or more yards receiving against Utah (Oct. 6), a first for Stanford since Oct. 10, 1998 (vs. Oregon State).
- 120 • Junior Kaden Smith's career-high 120 yards receiving against Utah (Oct. 6) were the most by a Stanford tight end since Zach Ertz's 134 vs. Cal in 2012.
- 17.1 • With 17.1 yards/reception, Arcega-Whiteside ranks sixth among Pac-12 players.
- 6 • Arcega-Whiteside had six touchdown receptions over a two-game stretch from the 2017 bowl game to the 2018 opener (three vs. TCU, three vs. San Diego State). That tied Ken Margerum for the most receiving touchdowns in consecutive Stanford games, set in 1980 with quarterback John Elway on the delivering end (two at Washington State, four vs. Oregon State).
- 226 • Arcega-Whiteside's 226 receiving yards against San Diego State were the third-most in program history. It was the fifth time a Cardinal receiver eclipsed 200 yards receiving.
- 2 • Arcega-Whiteside has at least two catches in 19 straight games.
- 17 • Arcega-Whiteside ranks 17th in Stanford history with 1,792 career receiving yards, recently surpassing Gene Washington (1,785 from 1966-68) and Mark Harris (1,783 from 1993-95).
- 9 • Arcega-Whiteside's nine receiving touchdowns in 2017 were the most since Ty Montgomery's 10 in 2013. With 23 career receiving scores, Arcega-Whiteside is fourth on the program's all-time list.
- 48.8 • Arcega-Whiteside's 48.4 pct. catch rate on deep passes (20+ yards) was the third-highest nationally among wide receivers in 2017.
- 10 • Junior quarterback K.J. Costello's 10 touchdown passes were second-most by any quarterback in the Shaw era through the season's first four games (Andrew Luck had 11 in 2011, Kevin Hogan had eight in 2014).
- 2,833 • Stanford's 2,833 rushing yards in 2017 ranked fourth in program history.
- 5.902 • Stanford's 5.902 rushing yards/attempt in 2017 ranked first in program history.
- 32.4 • Stanford's 32.4 points/game in 2017 ranked eighth in program history.
- 30 • Stanford has averaged 30 or more points in four of head coach David Shaw's eight seasons.
- 58 • Stanford's 58 points scored against UCLA in 2017 was the 19th-highest output in program history.
- 405 • Stanford's 405 rushing yards against UCLA in 2017 was the fourth-highest total in program history.
- 656 • Stanford's 656 total yards against Rice in 2017 were the seventh-most in program history.
- 2,507 • Senior Cameron Scarlett and senior Bryce Love combined for 2,507 rushing yards in 2017, as the top rushing tandem in program history returns for the 2018 campaign.

- 107 • The Cardinal has at least one tackle for loss in each of its past 107 contests.
- 308 • Stanford leads the nation with 308 sacks since 2011.
- 30 • Stanford has allowed fewer than 30 points 69 times in its past 80 games.
- 200 • Stanford has allowed 200 or more rushing yards only 16 times under head coach David Shaw.
- 100 • Stanford has allowed 100 or fewer rushing yards 45 times under head coach David Shaw (40-5 in such contests).
- 121.0 • Stanford has allowed only 121.0 rushing yards/game since 2011, a figure that ranks fourth nationally.
- 353.1 • Stanford has allowed only 353.1 scrimmage yards/game since 2011, a figure that ranks 18th nationally.
- 15 • Stanford has forced at least one turnover in 16 of the past 17 games (the Cardinal is 46-6 under head coach David Shaw when winning the turnover battle). Stanford is 4-0 this season when forcing at least one turnover.
- 1 • Stanford's defense has at least one takeaway in 33 of the past 39 games (25 forced fumbles, 40 interceptions).
- 1 • Stanford has at least one sack in 87 of its past 95 games.
- 167:38 • Stanford went 167:38 without allowing an offensive touchdown during the season's first three games (first quarter of the season opener against San Diego State and the final play of the season's third game against UC Davis).
- 3 • Stanford held USC to three points during a Sept. 8 win. The Cardinal surrendered fewer than the three points against USC only four times previously: 16-0 victory in 1905 (first meeting between the programs), 16-0 win in 1934, 3-0 triumph in 1935, and a 13-0 blanking in 1941. USC had not been held to three points or fewer since Nov. 1, 1997, when the Trojans were blanked, 27-0, at Washington.
- 2 • Two of the top pass-breakup performances by a Cardinal defense under head coach David Shaw were registered in the 2018 season's first three games. Stanford had 11 against USC on Sept. 8, the most by any team under Shaw, and 10 against UC Davis, tying for second under Shaw.
- 15 • Sophomore Paulson Adebo ranks third nationally with 16 passes defended (first nationally with 15 passes broken up). In the past 10 years, no defensive back has more passes defended in a season than Houston's William Jackson III, who had 28 in 2015.
- 5 • Fifth-year senior inside linebacker Bobby Okereke has five or more tackles in 18 of the past 20 games.
- 94 • Okereke's 94 tackles last season were tops among Cardinal returners, and the most by any returning player since 2008.
- 16 • Fifth-year cornerback Alijah Holder was targeted a whopping 16 times against UC Davis (Sept. 15), yet allowed only a long reception of 14 yards.
- 243 • Stanford has made 243 consecutive extra-point attempts, the second-longest streak in the nation (Auburn is first with 251). The streak dates to Stanford's matchup at Oregon State on Oct. 26, 2013. During the streak: junior kicker Jet Toner – 70-70, Conrad Ukropina – 108-108, Jordan Williamson – 60-60.
- 117 • Toner's 117 points in 2017 ranked fifth on Stanford's single-season scoring list.
- 21 • Toner's 21 field goals made in 2017 were the second-most in program history. Only three returning kickers had more field goals than Toner last season.
- 1.000 • Toner's perfect 1.000 extra-point pct. in 2017 was the 13th in program history. Toner is one of three Cardinal ever with a 1.000 career extra-point pct.
- 43.8 • Senior Jake Bailey's 43.8 career punting average ranks first in program history. Bailey posted the second-best punting season in school history last year, averaging 45.4 yards/punt. He led the Pac-12 and ranked seventh nationally.
- 39 • Senior Cameron Scarlett returned a school-record 39 kickoffs in 2017, and ranked first nationally with 12 kickoff returns of 30 or more yards.
- 2 • Stanford has allowed only two kickoff returns (27 yarder vs. San Diego State, 12-yarder at Notre Dame) on the season.
- 20 • Over the past five years, Stanford and Kansas State are the only two Power 5 teams to have 20 pct. of their kickoffs result in field position past their own 35-yard line.
- 30 • Stanford has not surrendered a kickoff return of 30 yards or more in its past 22 games, dating to a 2016 contest at Oregon. In seven of 14 games last season, Stanford did not surrender a single kickoff return yard.

- 1 • Stanford has defeated at least one top-20 opponent on the road in seven of eight seasons under head coach David Shaw. Stanford had only one top-20 road win in the nine seasons prior to the start of Shaw's tenure in 2011 (at No. 2 USC on Oct. 6, 2007).
- 13 • Shaw is one of 13 African-American FBS head coaches.
- 22 • Shaw is one of 22 head coaches currently coaching at their alma mater.
- 17 • Stanford overcame a 17-point deficit to post a 38-31 overtime win at Oregon (Sept. 22). It was the second-largest comeback win for the Cardinal since 1996 (trailed 21-0 in a 35-21 win at USC in 1999). Stanford has overcame a double-digit deficit in a winning effort 20 times since 1996, and six times under head coach David Shaw.
- 5 • Five Cardinal have completed work for their undergraduate degree: fifth-year senior Alameen Murphy, fifth-year senior Bobby Okereke, fifth-year senior Alijah Holder, fifth-year senior Isaiah Brandt-Sims and fifth-year senior Brandon Fanaika.
- 30 • Stanford's 2018 roster includes student-athletes from 30 different states and one foreign country.
- 29 • Stanford's 29 fourth- and fifth-year seniors are the most of any Pac-12 program.
- 7 • Stanford is one of seven schools to earn Division I Academic Progress Rate (APR) Public Recognition Award each of the past four seasons.
- 2 • Former Cardinal John Elway (Denver Broncos) and John Lynch (San Francisco 49ers) are NFL general managers. The other two schools with two NFL general managers? Connecticut and John Carroll.
- 42 • Stanford, which sponsors 36 varsity sports, has won at least one NCAA team title in each of the past 42 academic years, representing the longest streak in NCAA history.
- 142 • Stanford claimed five national team championships during the last academic year, increasing its overall total to 142, including 117 NCAA titles.
- 117 • The Cardinal leads the NCAA with 117 team titles.
- 24 • Stanford won the 2017-18 Division I Learfield Sports Directors' Cup, extending its streak to 24 years of capturing the award presented to the most successful intercollegiate athletic department in the nation.
- 6 • Stanford is one of six programs with at least one national championship in football, baseball and men's basketball. It is the only program with at least one national championship in football, baseball, men's basketball and women's basketball.
- 30 • The Stanford Concussion and Brain Performance Center is at the forefront of concussion and traumatic brain injury research, and is incorporating state of the art eye-tracking tests -- EYE-SYNC -- in all of its studies. The EYE-SYNC test is administered with customized eye tracking technology, called Dynamic Visual Synchronization Goggles. The eye tracking test lasts 30 seconds, and the results show the ability to focus -- a key problem after a concussion.
- 17 • Stanford requires students to declare a major before their junior year. Among the team's upperclassmen, 17 majors are represented. Majors are: aeronautics and astronautics, communication, computer science, economics, history, human biology, international relations, Japanese, mechanical engineering, media studies, management science and engineering, political science, product design, psychology, sociology, symbolic systems, and science, technology and society.
- 2,040 • Of the 47,450 applicants -- the largest application pool in school history -- for Stanford's class of 2022, only 2,040 were admitted. The admitted students came from all 50 states and 63 countries.
