

STANFORD FOOTBALL

#18/24 WASHINGTON HUSKIES 40 (4-0, 1-0)
STANFORD CARDINAL 22 (1-2, 0-2)

HUSKY STADIUM (65,438) • SEPT. 24, 2022

TEAM

- The all-time series now stands in Washington's favor at 45-44-4, with the Huskies owning a 24-20-3 record in Seattle
- David Shaw is 7-5 against UW and 5-2 when the Huskies are ranked
- The Cardinal converted a two-point conversion (McKee to Tremayne), the first two-point conversion since 12/12/20 at Oregon State
- Stanford is 9-36 when trailing at halftime under Shaw
- The Cardinal is 11-27 when allowing 30+ points under Shaw
- Forced UW into two first half punts, the Huskies' first two first-half punts of the season
- Casey Filkins made his first career start

INDIVIDUAL

WR MICHAEL WILSON

- Career-high 176 receiving yards (previous 114, 11/6/19 at Washington State)
- Second career 100-yard game
- First 100-yard receiver for Stanford in 2022
- Second two-TD game in three contests (also second career)
- Career-long 78-yard reception in fourth quarter for a touchdown

RB CASEY FILKINS

- First career start
- Set career highs with 20 carries and 100 yards rushing
- Second 100-yard rusher of the season for Cardinal

QB TANNER MCKEE

- 17-of-26 for 286 yards and three touchdowns
- Sacked eight times

OL BARRETT MILLER

- Made 27th career start (first at right tackle) in place of injured Myles Hinton

WR JOHN HUMPHREYS

- First TD catch of season (17 yards)

ILB RICKY MIEZAN

- Five tackles with two tackles for loss