THE OPENING KICKOFF

- Stanford heads to Washington State for a showdown with the Cougars on Saturday afternoon. Both teams are 3-3 overall and 2-2 in Pac-12 play.
- Saturday already marks Stanford's fifth road game of the season. The Cardinal is the only Power Five program that will have played five games away from home in the season's first seven weeks. Only four others - Alabama, Indiana, Nebraska and Texas Tech - will have played four after Saturday. Nobody in the Pac-12 will have played more than three games away from home.
- Stanford is one of five programs (joined by Alabama, Arkansas, Georgia and Iowa) with multiple wins over Top-15 teams so far this season. The Cardinal defeated No. 14 USC on Sept. 11 and No. 3 Oregon on Oct. 2. Of that group, only Stanford (No. 3 Oregon), Georgia (No. 3 Clemson) and Iowa (No. 4 Penn State) have wins over Top-5 opponents.
- In its first six games of the season, Stanford has already played four ranked opponents. The Cardinal is 2-2 in those matchups.
- Stanford was one of three teams nationally scheduled to play six Top-25 opponents according to the AP Preseason Top 25.

- Bradford M. Freeman Director of Football David Shaw is in his 11th season. He owns 29 wins vs. Top-25 opponents, 17 wins over teams in the Top 15 and 11 Top-10 wins.
- Shaw's 93 career wins is the 10th-most among coaches in Pac-12 history while his 64 Pac-12 regular season wins is tied for sixth most.
- The win on Oct. 2 over No. 3 Oregon was Stanford's fifth victory over a Top-5 team under Shaw and its fourth win over a Top-3 team. The Cardinal has won four straight games over AP Top-3 teams, the longest active streak in the FBS.
- Stanford has defeated Oregon four times when the Ducks were ranked inside the Top 5, including three times under Shaw.
- Since the start of the 2010 season, Stanford is 54-14 (.794) at Stanford Stadium.
- Stanford is 34-0 when scoring 40-or-more points under Shaw and 82-19 when allowing fewer than 30 points.
- Stanford improved to 7-5 in overtime games in program history with its win over Oregon and has won three straight. The Cardinal is 4-0 all-time in OT against Oregon.

MEDIA POLICIES

Stanford University is constantly monitoring public health guidelines and adjusting its policies to reflect the latest guidance from the CDC, State of California and Santa Clara County. At this time, the Stanford Athletic Communications office is planning to welcome media back to Stanford Stadium with no capacity restrictions. Stanford Athletics understands the importance of assisting the media in providing coverage of the institution, its athletics programs, administrators, coaches and student-athletes. Our goal is to disseminate information as widely, uniformly and fairly as possible using normally accepted media standards. To this end, the best attempt will be made to fill reasonable requests by recognized media outlets, however, the Stanford Stadium pressbox and work spaces have limited seating and not all requests may be met for all games. Members of the media are encouraged to work with the Stanford Athletic Communications staff to assist in that endeavor. It is not permissible for media members to contact any athletics department administrator, associate, coach or student-athlete directly without working through the communications department.

CONTENT & WORKPLACE POLICIES

1. Video clips of in-game competition, live or otherwise, online or via social media networks are not permitted. Still photos may be shared online and across social platforms during the game.
2. Any non-editorial or commercial use of any picture, audio, film, tape, or digital image or drawing of the event is prohibited without prior, specific, written authorization from the host institution.
3. Internet usage in all media areas, including media work areas, stadium pressbox, digital work room and the field, is for work-related purposes only. Media members who do not follow the proper internet procedures may have their credentials and internet access revoked for the remainder of the event.
4. Media should respect the work environment of their colleagues by maintaining a quiet and professional atmosphere in all working media areas. The press box will close two hours after the conclusion of the game.

FIELD ACCESS & SIDELINE POLICY

Field access is limited to photographers, videographers and sideline reporters whose job function requires them to work from field level. Print media, and anyone working out of the press box, will only be permitted on the field for the final five minutes of games during the 2021 season. There is no pregame access and no interviews should be conducted on the field.

1. Photo credentials will be issued only to accredited media outlets prior to the game and photo identification must be provided.
2. Photographers and videographers must check in at media will call located at Gate 8 of the stadium. Those photographers and videographers who will work on the sidelines will be issued a photo vest. This photo vest must be worn at all times to gain access to the sidelines. Vests must be returned after the game at the on-field dropoff location situated next to the south endzone tunnel.
3. Only working photographers and videographers with professional-grade cameras will be allowed on the field. Those without proper equipment or not shooting the game will be escorted from the sidelines regardless of credential.
4. Working photographers and videographers are permitted to shoot in the designated area (between the two marked dotted lines outside the 20-yard lines and behind the end zone).
5. Photographers are encouraged to use the photo work areas, located on Level 3 of Stanford Stadium and the media room on Level 2 of the fieldhouse. Wireless internet is available. While security in this area is provided, Stanford University is not responsible for the loss of any items.
6. According to NCAA policies, the presence of any type of photographer and videographer in the bench area for all sports is strictly prohibited with the exception of one (1) institutional videographer in the football bench area. According to the NCAA Football Rules and Interpretations Manual (Rule 1, Section 2, Article 4b): "the team area shall be limited to squad members in uniform and a maximum of 40 other individuals directly involved in the game. The 40 individuals not in uniform shall wear special identification." (Rule 1, Section 2, Article 4e): "No media personnel, including journalists, radio and television personnel, or their equipment, shall be in the team area or coaching box, and no media personnel shall communicate in any way with persons in the team area or coaching box." Stanford Athletics prohibits photographers and videographers from stopping and shooting from behind the bench area or into the bench area.

GAME NOTES

THE MATCHUP

- Stanford and Washington State meet for the 71st time on Saturday, with the Cardinal owning a 40-29-1 record against the Cougars all-time.
- Stanford looks to snap a four-game losing streak to Washington State, who won the last matchup in Pullman, 49-22, in 2019.
- David Shaw is 5-4 against WSU, while Nick Rolovich makes his debut against Stanford. The two programs were set to meet at Stanford Stadium in 2020, but the game was canceled due to COVID-19 testing and contact tracing numbers at Washington State.

HEAD COACH DAVID SHAW

- Bradford M. Freeman Director of Football David Shaw '94 owns a career record of 93-39 (.705) overall and a mark of 64-27 (.703) against Pac-12 foes.
- Shaw's 93 wins are the most in school history, as he surpassed the legendary Pop Warner (71 wins) during the 2017 season.
- Shaw owns a 29-22 (.569) record against AP Top 25 programs. Of Shaw's 29 wins against ranked foes, 17 of them have come against Top-15 opponents and 11 of those have been against teams ranked in the Top 10. The Oct. 2 win over No. 3 Oregon marked Shaw's fifth Top-5 win and fourth Top-3 victory.
- Stanford has defeated multiple Top-15 opponents in five of Shaw's 11 seasons. In addition to this season, Stanford has defeated multiple Top-15 teams in 2012, 2013, 2015 and 2017 under Shaw.
- Stanford has defeated a Top-20 opponent on the road in eight of Shaw's 11 seasons.
- Shaw is one of seven active coaches in the country who is the winningest head coach at his current school. He is joined by North Carolina's Mack Brown, Northwestern's Pat Fitzgerald, Iowa's Kirk Ferentz, Navy's Ken Niumatalolo, Oklahoma State's Mike Gundy and TCU's Gary Patterson
- Shaw is the only four-time Pac-12 Coach of the Year in conference history (dating back to 1975).
- Shaw's 93 wins are currently the 10th-most in Pac-12 history and his 64 conference wins are tied for sixth-most in Pac-12 history.

TOP 20 WINS ON THE ROAD

- Stanford has defeated at least one Top-20 opponent on the road in eight of the 11 seasons under head coach David Shaw. Stanford had only one Top-20 road win in the nine seasons prior to the start of Shaw's tenure in 2011 (at No. 2 USC on Oct. 6, 2007).

BLACK LEADERSHIP

- Stanford is one of four Power Five schools with a Black head football coach (David Shaw) and athletic director (Bernard Muir), joined by Arizona State, Maryland and Michigan State.
- Stanford is one of two FBS schools to have had three Black head football coaches, joined by Colorado. Shaw (11th season) was preceded by Dennis Green (1989-91) and Tyrone Willingham (1995-01) for a combined 21 seasons in the last 34. Colorado's three Black head coaches have combined for five seasons.
- David Shaw is the longest tenured Black head coach (11th season) at one school in FBS history.
- Shaw's 93 wins are the most by a Power Five Black head coach in NCAA history.
- Willie and David Shaw form the only father-son pairing of Black coaches who held coordinator roles at the same Power 5 school.
- Stanford hired the Pac-12's first and second Black coaches in Green (1989) and Willingham (1995). The third came eight years later (Karl Dorrell, UCLA, 2003).
- Athletic director Bernard Muir is the second-longest tenured black AD in the country behind Ohio State's Gene Smith. Last July, Muir was appointed to the executive committee of the Black AD Alliance, whose mission is to grow, develop and elevate Black athletics administrators at the Division I level while partnering with NCAA senior leadership and the Minority Opportunities Athletic Association.

MCKEE MAGIC

• David Shaw named QB Tanner McKee the starter prior to the victory at USC, and the sophomore has quickly taken control of the Cardinal offense.
• On the season, McKee is 116-of-183 (63.4%) for 1,449 yards and 12 touchdowns. His 12 touchdowns leads the Pac-12, while his passing yards are second. He is 3-2 in his first five starts with two victories over Top-15 opponents. Both losses are to ranked opponents.
• On Friday night at No. 22 Arizona State, McKee completed 27-of-45 passes for 356 yards. He set new career benchmarks in all three categories.
• Prior to his three interceptions at Arizona State, McKee had begun the season with 161 straight pass attempts without an interception. At the time, it was the most consecutive pass attempts without an interception to begin this season. In total, McKee began his career with 168 straight pass attempts without an interception.
• McKee was ranked as the No. 4 quarterback in the Class of 2018 by 247Sports. He served a two-year LDS mission in Brazil prior to enrolling at Stanford.
• McKee was ranked behind Trevor Lawrence (Clemson), Justin Fields (Georgia then Ohio State) and J.T. Daniels (USC then Georgia).
• With the victory over No. 3 Oregon on Oct. 2, McKee became the first freshman quarterback to defeat a Top-5 team since true freshman Bo Nix led No. 15 Auburn to a 48-45 victory over No. 5 Alabama on Nov. 30, 2019.
• McKee led Stanford to a road win at No. 14 USC in his first career start on Sept. 11, becoming the first Pac-12 QB since Tavita Pritchard in 2007 to defeat a ranked opponent on the road in his first career start.

LDS MISSIONS PRIOR TO STANFORD

• Stanford has six student-athletes who served two-year LDS missions prior to enrolling. In addition to McKee: junior ILB Levani Damuni (New Zealand), fifth-year FB Houston Heimuli (Indianapolis), junior ILB Spencer Jorgensen (Thailand), senior OLB Tangaloa Kaufusi (Taiwan) and fifth-year OLB Gabe Reid (American Samoa).

RED ZONE IMPROVEMENT

• Stanford significantly improved its red-zone scoring production from 2019 to 2020, and that trend has continued into 2021.
• In its three wins thus far, Stanford has reached the red zone five times each. In its three losses, the Cardinal has reached the red zone a total of four times combined.
• On the season, Stanford has scored 18-of-19 times in the red zone, with 15 of those being touchdowns.
• In 2020, Stanford converted 21-of-27 red zone trips into touchdowns, compared to just 16-of-34 trips during the 2019 season.

RED ZONE SCORING TRENDS

YEAR	PPG	RZ TD %	RZ SCORE %
2019	21.7	16-34 (47%)	30-34 (88%)
2020	29.3	21-27 (78%)	24-27 (89%)

THE IMPORTANCE OF A GOOD START

• A quick start is important for the Cardinal, as they are 3-0 this season when scoring first and leading at halftime, compared to 0-3 when the opponent scores first or leads at the half.
• Under Shaw, Stanford is 73-18 when scoring first and 80-7 when leading at halftime, compared to 20-21 when the opponent scores first and 9-28 when trailing at halftime.

HITTING THE CENTURY MARK

• Both TE Benjamin Yurosek (118) and WR Elijah Higgins (110) went over 100 receiving yards in Friday night's game at Arizona State.
• It was the first time since Nov. 16, 2019 (Michael Wilson, Connor Wedington) at Washington State that the Cardinal has had two, 100-yard receivers in the same game.
• Yurosek also became the first Cardinal tight end since Colby Parkinson on Nov. 10, 2018 vs. Oregon State to surpass the century mark.

THE RECEIVING THREATS

• Over the last three games, Higgins has totaled 18 catches for 275 yards and three touchdowns. He has a score in three straight games and four of the last five.
• Higgins has set career highs in catches each of the last three weeks, culminating with seven catches for 110 yards Friday night at Oregon State. He has two, 100-yard games in the last three weeks.
• Humphreys has 10 catches for 133 yards and a score in the last three games. He caught his first career touchdown pass in the overtime session against No. 3 Oregon, a reception that proved to be the game winner.
• Yurosek, who missed the UCLA game, has nine catches for 159 yards and a score in the last two weeks.
• On the season, 15 of Yurosek's 17 receptions have gone for first downs or touchdowns, including all six receptions against Arizona State (averaged 19.7 yards per reception).
• Prior to his injury, Tremayne had 20 receptions for 245 yards and five touchdowns.
• A senior who began his career as a walk-on, Tremayne earned a scholarship prior to the 2019 season. For his career 26 of his 37 catches have gone for touchdowns (8) or first downs (18).

THE STANFORD TREES

• Led by 6-foot-6 quarterback Tanner McKee, the Cardinal offense features height across the board.
• Stanford's three leading active receivers are Elijah Higgins (6-foot-3), John Humphreys (6-foot-5) and starting tight end Benjamin Yurosek (6-foot-5).
• Across the offensive line, four of Stanford's five starters are 6-foot-5 or taller.

GAME NOTES

FIRST TIME STARTERS

- So far in 2021, 16 Cardinal have made their first career starts.
- On the offensive side of the ball, RT Myles Hinton, WR John Humphreys, C Drake Nugent and TE Benjamin Yurosek started vs. K-State, while QB Tanner McKee and RB E.J. Smith started at USC. WR Bryce Farrell made his first career start at Vanderbilt and RB Nathaniel Peat made his first career start vs. UCLA. TE Bradley Archer started his first career game at Arizona State.
- On the defensive side of the ball, DE Ryan Johnson and DT Tobin Phillips started vs. K-State while DB Jimmy Wyrick started at nickelback at USC. Against UCLA, both FS Alaka'i Gilman and CB Jaden Slocum made their first career starts. ILB Jacob Mangum-Farrar and CB Nicolas Toomer started against Oregon.

#TUNNELWORKERSUNION

- Stanford's starting offensive line features four juniors and a sophomore who have combined to make 68 career starts. The Cardinal was hard hit by injuries in 2019, which forced all five of this year's junior class onto the field as true freshmen.
- Under new offensive line coach Terry Heffernan, the Cardinal has broken in two new starters in 2021 with center Drake Nugent and right tackle Myles Hinton.
- The Cardinal started the same five in each of the season's first four games, and again at Arizona State, with Jake Hornbrook starting at right guard against Oregon for Branson Bragg. The offensive line by career starts: LT Walter Rouse (23), LG Barrett Miller (20), C Nugent (5), RG Branson Bragg (12) and RT Hinton (6). Jake Hornbrook has made seven career starts.
- The Cardinal offensive line, by major: Rouse (Biomechanical Engineering), Miller (Mechanical Engineering), Nugent/Hornbrook (Science, Technology and Society), Bragg (Mathematical and Computational Sciences) and Hinton (sophomore, planning to study Human Biology).

A WELCOME SIGHT AT LINEBACKER

- Stanford's linebackers were hit hard by injury in both 2019 and 2020, especially at inside linebacker.
- Senior ILB Jacob Mangum-Farrar made his season debut at USC on Sept. 11, returning from injury for the first time since 2019, when he suffered a season-ending setback at USC. He missed the entire 2020 season. Mangum-Farrar made his first career start on Oct. 2 against Oregon.
- Fellow senior ILB Ricky Miezan was also injured in that 2019 game at the Coliseum. He played in just one game in 2020, suffering a season-ending injury for the second straight season in the season opener at Oregon last season. Miezan has started five of six games so far this season.
- The eight LBs listed on the depth chart combined to play in only 58 games and make just 22 starts in 2019-20. Three of them (Tangaloa Kaufusi, Mangum-Farrar, Tristan Sinclair) missed the entire 2020 season.
- Three of Stanford's top four tacklers - Levani Damuni, Miezan and Gabe Reid - are linebackers.

KYU, KYU, I'M KYU

- Junior CB Kyu Blu Kelly has led a strong pass defense so far in 2021. The Las Vegas native has 31 tackles, nine passes defensed (two interceptions, seven breakups) and one QB hurry.
- Kelly's nine passes defensed (1.5 per game) is fifth-best nationally and tops in the Pac-12.
- Kelly was named Pac-12 Defensive Player of the Week following the win at USC, when he locked down the Pac-12's leading receiver, Drake London. In that game, Kelly had three pass breakups, an interception return for a touchdown, and held London to four catches on 10 targets.
- The pick six was Stanford's first since Nov. 4, 2017 and was extra special for Kelly, as it came in the Coliseum where his dad, Brian, played before embarking on an NFL career.
- In the season opener against K-State, Kelly kicked inside to cover the slot and had the highest-graded game of his career, according to Pro Football Focus. He played 29 snaps in the slot, with zero yards allowed. He was named to the PFF National Team of the Week for his efforts.
- Kelly's interceptions in back-to-back games to begin the season marked the first time a Cardinal has had interceptions in consecutive games since Paulson Adebo had three in a two-game stretch in 2019.

ROTATING SECONDARY

- Through six games, Stanford has started nine different players in the secondary.
- CB Kyu Blu Kelly and SS Kendall Williamson are the only two defensive backs to start all six games thus far.
- At free safety, Noah Williams has started four games while Alaka'i Gilman has two starts.
- At cornerback opposite Kelly, the Cardinal has started four different players in six games: Ethan Bonner, Zahran Manley (two), Jaden Slocum (two) and Nicolas Toomer.
- True freshman Jimmy Wyrick has started three games at nickelback.
- Gilman, Slocum, Toomer and Wyrick have all made their first career starts this season.
- Two starters - S Jonathan McGill and CB Salim Turner-Muhammad - have missed the entire season thus far.

EARLY ENROLLEES

- For the first time in program history, Stanford welcomed two early enrollees to The Farm for the beginning of the spring quarter in March.
- Quarterback Ari Patu and cornerback Jaden Slocum each joined the team in time for spring ball.
- On June 10, 2021, the Stanford Faculty Senate voted to implement a three-year pilot program that would allow certain student-athletes to enroll at Stanford as early as winter quarter before their freshman year. Early enrollment would be limited to no more than 15 students per year, and each student-athlete must be academically qualified and have already graduated from their respective high school.

BOOKER BACK FOR MORE

- Senior captain Thomas Booker opted to return for his final year at Stanford as he pursues a double major in economics and communication.
- Booker is Stanford's nominee for the William V. Campbell Trophy and one of 30 candidates for the Senior CLASS Award, alongside QB Isaiah Sanders.
- For his career he now has 131 career tackles, 19 TFL, 10 sacks, seven passes defended, two fumble recoveries, one forced fumble and two blocked kicks.
- Booker was named a CoSIDA first team Academic All-American in 2020, in addition to garnering All-Pac-12 first team honors at the special teams spot and second team for his play on the defensive line.
- In 2020, Booker played a key role in founding CardinalBLCK (Brilliance, Leadership, Community and Knowledge), designed to provide a safe space for Black student-athletes to connect, share, and foster a meaningful community that will support them long after their undergraduate experience is over. Fueled by the power of its collective voices, CardinalBLCK strives to empower Black student-athletes to use their influence in positive ways.

THE CAPTAINS

STANFORD SONS OF NFL PLAYERS

- Stanford has 12 players whose fathers played in the NFL.

GLANCING AT THE STATISTICAL RANKINGS

- Stanford ranks second in the conference and 14th nationally in kick return average (29.89).
- The Cardinal passing offense is ranked third in the conference (254.2) while its passing defense (188.3) is ranked fourth in the conference and 25th nationally.
- Averaging 14.44 yards per punt return, the Cardinal ranks third in the Pac-12 and 18th nationally.
- Stanford's red zone offense (94.7%) is ranked 12th nationally.
- The Cardinal ranks in the Top 20 nationally with only five turnovers lost so far this season.
- Kyu Blu Kelly's nine passes defended (1.5 per game) are ranked fifth nationally.
- Tanner McKee ranks first in the Pac-12 in passing touchdowns and second in passing yards.
- Casey Filkins is sixth nationally in punt return average.

THE HOME OF CHAMPIONS

- Stanford is one of six programs with at least one national championship in football, baseball and men's basketball and the only school with at least one in football, baseball, men's and women's basketball.
- Stanford completed a sweep of the Capital One Cup during the 2020-21 campaign, matching its dual victory achievement from 2017-18 and remaining the only school to capture both titles in the same season.
- Prior to its second-place finish in 2020-21, Stanford won 25 straight Division I Learfield Sports Directors' Cup, the award presented to the most successful intercollegiate athletic department in the nation.
- Stanford has won at least one NCAA team title in each of the past 45 academic years (dating back to the 1976-77 campaign), representing the longest streak in NCAA history.

LELAND STANFORD JUNIOR UNIVERSITY

- Stanford was established in 1885 and opened in 1891.
- Stanford's faculty includes two Presidential Medal of Freedom winners and four Pulitzer Prize winners. Stanford faculty have won the Nobel Prize 34 times since the university's founding and the Stanford community includes 19 Nobel laureates.
- Stanford students have consisted of 127 Rhodes Scholars, 96 Marshall Award winners and 68 Truman Scholars.
- The top five undergraduate majors at Stanford include: computer science, engineering, human biology, management science and engineering, and mechanical engineering.
- Stanford's 8,180-acre campus is large enough to contain 96 Disneyland.
- The Stanford campus features roughly 43,000 trees, 25 fountains and over 800 different species of plants.
- The 700-acre Stanford Research Park, created in 1951, is home to over 150 companies.

STANFORD IN THE NFL

- Stanford had five players drafted in 2021 and five more signed as undrafted free agents. Multiple Cardinal have been taken in 12 consecutive drafts.
- Stanford has had 42 players selected in the NFL Draft since 2012, the most in the Pac-12.
- Stanford had the 15th-most alumni on NFL Kickoff Weekend active rosters, the second-most from the Pac-12 Conference.
- Stanford's eight tight ends drafted since 2010 are the most in the nation. (Dray, Fleener, Ertz, Toilolo, Hooper, Schultz, Smith, Parkinson). The Cardinal has had the most tight ends on NFL Kickoff Weekend active rosters for 10 straight years.
- Stanford's 16 quarterbacks drafted in the Modern Era (since 1967) rank second in the nation. [behind USC 19, tied with Ohio State] Stanford's 24 quarterbacks drafted all-time rank second in the nation. [behind USC 25]
- Stanford is one of six schools all-time to produce at least four No. 1 overall NFL Draft picks (Auburn, Georgia, Notre Dame, Oklahoma, USC). The Cardinal is the only school to have four quarterbacks taken with the No. 1 overall pick (Garrett, Plunkett, Elway, Luck).

100 YEARS OF STANFORD STADIUM

Built in 1921, Stanford Stadium celebrates its 100th year in 2021. It is the eighth-oldest FBS facility. The stadium was rebuilt prior to 2006 for the current configuration seen today. It has a capacity of 50,424, a considerable difference from the 85,000 that existed in what was previously the largest privately owned college football facility in the U.S.

The home of Jim and John, and where Bill Walsh started a West Coast revolution. Where Luck and McCaffrey led a new era of Cardinal legends to chant C-House. Nestled miles from the foothills and in a grove of eucalyptus and oak trees, Stanford Stadium has assumed a place as one of the most beautiful and fan-friendly football facilities in the country. The Cardinal is 54-14 (.794) inside Stanford Stadium since the start of the 2010 season.

• Stanford Stadium has hosted events such as Herbert Hoover's (former Stanford football student manager) 1928 acceptance speech upon being named the Republican presidential candidate. During the Cold War, track coach Payton Jordan brought the USA-USSR dual meet to Stanford in 1962 in "the greatest track meet of all time." The stadium hosted the 1985 Super Bowl between the San Francisco 49ers and Miami Dolphins. The 1994 World Cup, including a July 4 showdown between the U.S. and Brazil, and the 1999 Women's World Cup semifinal between the U.S. and Brazil took place at Stanford Stadium.

The 2021 season marks David Shaw's 11th as Stanford's Bradford M. Freeman Director of Football.

A 1995 Stanford graduate who is the fifth alum to hold the position of head football coach, Shaw is the 34th head coach in Stanford history, and the winningest coach in program history.

Shaw enters the 2021 season with an 90-36 (.714) career record, including 62-25 (.713) in Pac-12 play. He has led the Cardinal to three Pac-12 titles and a pair of Rose Bowl wins in three trips to The Granddaddy of Them All.

Under Shaw, Stanford's 90 victories since 2011 marks the winningest stretch in program history. Stanford has won at least 11 games four times under Shaw, and has appeared in a bowl game eight times.

Shaw, who oversaw the final nine years of the 2010s, was instrumental in Stanford's most successful decade in school history. The Cardinal totaled 98 wins, 42 NFL Draft picks, 28 wins vs. AP Top 25 teams, 24 AP All-Americans, nine Academic All-Americans, five unanimous All-Americans and had a 93.5 average graduation success rate. Each of those categories either led the Pac-12 or was second, while also in the Top 10 nationally.

Shaw was named recipient of the Dodd Trophy following the 2017 season. It was Stanford's third all-time national coach of the year award, following Chuck Taylor (1951) and Clark Shaughnessy (1940) winning the AFCA Coach of the Year Award. The Dodd Trophy, college football's most coveted coaching award, honors the head football coach whose program embodies the award's three pillars of scholarship, leadership and integrity, while also having success on the playing field throughout the season.

The 2017 Pac-12 Coach of the Year's involvement reaches far beyond the football field. In the classroom, his student-athletes maintain a high level of academic excellence, including six Academic All-Americans in his first 10 seasons.

Stanford's 2020 season was unlike any in program history, as Shaw guided the Cardinal to four straight wins to finish the season, en route to a 4-2 overall record. Playing a six-game, conference-only schedule due to the COVID-19 global pandemic, Stanford was forced to spend its final 19 days away from campus due to county restrictions.

The Cardinal began its winning streak with a one-point, Big Game win at Cal. Stanford went on to defeat Washington, Oregon State and UCLA on the road to end the year, capping off the UCLA win with a 14-point, fourth-quarter comeback and a double-overtime victory.

Shaw was named to the Uplifting Athletes' Rare Disease Champion Team in 2020. In 2018, Shaw was a bone marrow donor for his brother, Eric, who is now cancer free after battling a rare disease for over seven years.

The Cardinal also saw five players drafted and five more sign undrafted free agent contracts during the 2021 NFL Draft. Walker Little (2nd Round, Jacksonville), Paulson Adebayo (3rd Round, New Orleans), Davis Mills (3rd Round, Houston), Drew Dalman (4th Round, Atlanta) and Simi Fehoko (5th Round, Dallas) were all selected, the fifth time in eight years at least five Cardinal have been drafted in a single draft.

In 2019, Stanford endured many injuries to starters and key players throughout the season. The Cardinal played 21 true freshmen, including 12 who used a year of eligibility by playing in more than four games, and eight who combined for 43 starts throughout the season. The Cardinal started three true freshmen on the offensive line for half the year, while four true freshmen started at least one game along the offensive line.

Off the field, Stanford student-athletes continued to shine. The Cardinal had a league-best 33 named to the Pac-12 Honor Roll, which honors any student-athlete who boasts at least a 3.3 cumulative grade-point average, excluding freshmen. In addition, two Cardinal earned recognition for arguably the biggest off-field accolades in college football. Fifth-year OLB Casey Toohill was named one of 12 finalist for the William V. Campbell Trophy and a member of the NFF Scholar-Athlete Class, while junior WR Connor Wedington was a member of the AFCA Allstate Good Works Team, given to 11 FBS players who stand out both on the field and in the community.

Five Cardinal were selected in the 2019 NFL Draft, highlighted by JJ Arcega-Whiteside's second round selection to the Philadelphia Eagles. Inside linebacker Bobby Okereke was selected in the third round by the Indianapolis Colts, running back Bryce Love in the fourth round by the Washington Football Team, punter Jake Bailey in the fifth round by the New England Patriots and tight end Kaden Smith in the sixth round by the San Francisco 49ers. Seven other Cardinal were given NFL opportunities following the draft, including five who signed as undrafted free agents.

In 2018, Shaw led Stanford to its 10th straight bowl game, extending the longest active streak in the Pac-12. The Cardinal defeated Pitt in the 2018 Sun Bowl for their fifth bowl game victory in eight seasons under Shaw. Quarterback K.J. Costello finished with the second-most passing yards and third-most touchdowns in a season in school history, while wideout JJ Arcega-Whiteside tied a 41-year-old school record with 14 receiving touchdowns.

A season prior, Stanford did most of its damage on the ground as its 5.9 rushing yards/attempt ranked first in program history, and its 2,833 rushing yards ranked fourth. Running back Bryce Love set the school's single-season (2,118) and single-game (301) rushing records while being named the 2017 Doak Walker Award winner. Love, also the Lombardi Award winner and Heisman Trophy runner-up, set Stanford's career records for yards/rush (7.76) and consecutive 100-yard rushing games (9). The unanimous All-American combined with Cameron Scarlett to form the top rushing tandem in program history.

Love was the Pac-12 Offensive Player of the Year and winner of the Touchdown Club of Columbus Jim Brown Award. He ranked first among Power 5 conference running backs in over a dozen categories, including FBS records for 50-yard rushes (13), consecutive games with a 30-yard rush (13) and consecutive games with a 50-yard rush (11).

Four Cardinal student-athletes were selected in the 2018 NFL Draft -- Justin Reid (third), Harrison Phillips (third), Dalton Schultz (fourth) and Peter Kalambayi (sixth).

Shaw led the Cardinal to the 2016 Sun Bowl where the 25-23 win over the Tar Heels marked the fourth bowl victory for Shaw, the most in program history, to cap a 10-3 season in which the Cardinal ranked 12th in the final AP and USA Today polls. The Cardinal also won at least 10 games for the fifth time in six seasons under Shaw. From 1891-2010, the program recorded four 10-win seasons.

Even more, the program posted a graduation success rate of 99 percent for the third consecutive year, a total that led all FBS institutions and ranked 11 points higher than the next Pac-12 school. Stanford joined Clemson, Duke, Northwestern and Wisconsin as the only FBS football teams to earn APR Public Recognition Awards from the NCAA in each of the previous four years.

Stanford in 2016 ranked eighth nationally in defensive touchdowns (4), 12th in winning percentage (.769), 17th in time of possession (32:46), 22nd in team sacks (2.85), 18th in scoring defense (20.4) and 25th in team passing efficiency defense (117.8). All-America running back Christian McCaffrey ranked first in all-purpose yards per game (211.6), fourth in rushing yards (145.7) and 20th in rushing yards per carry (6.34). Conrad Ukropina ranked fifth in field goals per game (1.83). Dallas Lloyd ranked 13th in total interceptions (5) and 18th in interceptions per game (0.4). Jake Bailey ranked 24th in punting (43.5).

The Cardinal set single-season school records for top rushing tandem (2,386 -- McCaffrey and Bryce Love), and, at the time, the individual single-game school record for rushing yards (284 -- McCaffrey at Cal).

Stanford had two top-10 NFL Draft picks for only the fifth time, following the 2016 season. Solomon Thomas was the third overall pick by the San Francisco 49ers, and was the highest drafted defensive player in program history. Thomas also won the Pac-

HEAD COACH DAVID SHAW

12's Morris Trophy, given to the league's top lineman. McCaffrey, the CoSIDA Academic All-American of the Year, was selected by the Carolina Panthers with the eighth overall pick. He was Stanford's highest running back draft pick since 1982.

Following the 2015 season, Stanford became the only school ever ranked in the top four by U.S. News and World Report (4th) and the Associated Press (3rd) in the same year.

Stanford was 12-2 overall and 8-1 in Pac-12 play in 2015, going on to win the Pac-12 and Rose Bowl crowns and improving Shaw's postseason record to 6-2. The Cardinal topped five ranked opponents, including top-10 foes in No. 6 USC, No. 4 Notre Dame and No. 6 Iowa. Stanford was one of four teams in 2015 to record five or more wins over AP Top 25 opponents and one of four teams with three or more wins over AP top-10 foes.

McCaffrey was named AP Player of the Year and won the Paul Hornung Award and Johnny "Jet" Rodgers Award. McCaffrey, also a Heisman Trophy finalist, set the NCAA record for all-purpose yards (3,864) and earned Academic All-America honors. McCaffrey earned consensus All-America first team nods and Outland Trophy winner Joshua Garnett received unanimous All-America distinction. Blake Martinez and Austin Hooper were named All-America third-teamers. Fifteen Cardinal were lauded with All-Pac-12 honors and 22 received All-Pac-12 academic distinction.

McCaffrey posted the top four FBS individual all-purpose single-game performances in 2015 and his 461 all-purpose yards vs. USC in the Pac-12 Championship Game was fifth-most in FBS history. He owned three of the top five 100-yard receiving and rushing games by an FBS player and became the only FBS player ever with 200 rushing, 100 receiving and 100 kickoff return yards vs. USC.

For the third time in five seasons, Shaw was named Pac-12 Coach of the Year and McCaffrey earned Pac-12 Offensive Player of the Year honors. Shaw was the AFCA Regional Coach of the Year and a finalist for the Eddie Robinson Coach of the Year Award and Paul "Bear" Bryant Coach of the Year.

Shaw is the quickest to earn three Pac-12 Coach of the Year honors.

Stanford received an NCAA GSR of 99 percent for the second consecutive year in 2015, a total that led all FBS and FCS institutions.

Shaw was instrumental in the maturation of Hogan during his Cardinal career. Hogan appeared in more than 50 contests and posted a school-best 36-10 record as a starter. He ranked first in career total offense (10,634), second in completion percentage (.659) and passing efficiency (154.6), and third in passing yards (9,385) and passing touchdowns (75). His 171.0 passing efficiency clip in 2015 was the best single-season mark ever by a Cardinal signal caller. Hogan also set school records for career rushing yards (1,249) and touchdowns (15) by a quarterback.

Stanford's West Coast offense led the nation with 13 consecutive games scoring at least 30 points. Stanford amassed a school-record 3,131 rushing yards on 610 attempts in 2015, the most ever by a Cardinal program. The offensive unit's 529 points ranked second-most in a season and its 33 rushing touchdowns, 223.7 rushing yards/game, 30 passing touchdowns, 37.8 points/game and 6,097 total yards of offense ranked third.

He notched 30 wins in his first 35 games, which was the third-fastest among active coaches, and was one of only three coaches to guide his team to BCS bowls in his first three years as a head coach.

Shaw won 40 games in his first 52 outings at Stanford, tying with Pop Warner for the fastest to 40 wins by any Cardinal head coach.

With a win in the 2014 Foster Farms Bowl, Shaw became the first Stanford head coach with at least eight wins in each of his first four seasons.

Stanford won eight games in 2014 and closed the season on a three-game winning streak. The Cardinal scored at least 30 points in seven of 13 games.

While facing six nationally ranked opponents in 2014, including four on the road, the Cardinal defensive unit helped Stanford rank second nationally in scoring defense (16.4 points/game), third in total defense (282.4 yards/game), seventh in rushing defense (104.5 yards/game) and eighth in passing defense (177.9 yards/game). The Cardinal joined Penn State and Clemson as the only three teams to finish in the top-10 nationally in all four categories. The team was also among the best nationally in getting to the quarterback, ranking sixth with 46 sacks. Stanford also led the nation in punt return average and strong safety Jordan Richards garnered the 2014 National Football Foundation's Scholar-Athlete Award.

In 2013, Shaw led Stanford to a second straight Pac-12 title and the program's 14th trip to the Rose Bowl. Stanford became the only team to earn four consecutive BCS bowl bids during the Bowl Championship Series era.

After leading the team to a landmark 2013 regular season, Shaw received AFCA Regional Coach of the Year honors and was named a finalist for the Eddie Robinson Award and Paul "Bear" Bryant Coach of the Year.

Under Shaw's tutelage in 2013, Stanford was one of 13 FBS football schools and the only Pac-12 football program to earn a Division I Academic Progress Rate Public Recognition Award for posting multi-year APR scores in the top 10 percent of all squads.

Stanford defeated five nationally-ranked opponents at home in 2013 while winning 11 games despite playing the fifth-toughest schedule nationally in the Sagarin ratings. Stanford was among just three schools (Alabama and Oregon) with 10 or more wins in each season from 2010-13.

Stanford finished the 2013 campaign ranked fifth in the BCS standings, the fourth straight top 10 BCS ranking for the Cardinal. The team ranked sixth in the final 2012 BCS standings, following back-to-back No. 4 rankings at the end of the 2010 and 2011 seasons.

The 2013 team ranked among the nation's best in kickoff return average (1st), rushing defense (3rd), tackles for loss allowed (4th), sacks (7th), scoring defense (10th), kickoff coverage (10th), total defense (14th), sacks allowed (16th), red zone offense (16th), passing efficiency (17th) and red zone defense (19th).

Stanford had six players receive All-Pac-12 first-team honors with 19 all-conference selections in 2013. There were also eight different national awards that listed Stanford players as semifinalists and finalists. There were 25 players chosen to the Pac-12 All-Academic team and four were placed on the Capital One Academic All-District list, including Jordan Richards who was a second team All-America selection.

For the fifth straight year, Stanford had three or more players selected in the NFL Draft when Trent Murphy (second round - Washington), Cameron Fleming (fourth round - New England), David Yankey (fifth round - Minnesota), Ed Reynolds (fifth round - Philadelphia), Tyler Gaffney (sixth round - Carolina) and Ben Gardner (seventh round - Dallas) signed professional contracts after the 2013 season. The six draft picks in 2014 matched a program-best.

Shaw guided the Cardinal to a 12-2 record in 2012 and its first Pac-12 championship in 13 years. The campaign culminated with Stanford's first Rose Bowl victory in over 40 years, a 20-14 win over Wisconsin in 2013.

Shaw was named the 2012 Pac-12 Conference Coach of the Year, becoming the second to earn the honor outright in consecutive seasons since the award's inception in 1975. Stanford became the first school to defeat programs ranked No. 1 (Oregon) and 2 (USC) in the AP poll during the regular season and the Cardinal closed its season with five straight wins over as many ranked opponents.

Stanford's historic defensive output in 2012 broke the single-season sacks record (57) and led the Pac-12 in scoring defense (17.21), total defense (336.21), rushing defense (97.0), sacks (4.07) and tackles for loss (9.00). The Cardinal ranked first nationally in sacks, second in tackles for loss, fifth in rushing defense and 11th in scoring defense.

Stanford became the first program to win both the AFCA Academic Achievement Award and a BCS bowl game in the same season.

Three Stanford players were selected in the 2013 draft -- Zach Ertz (second round - Philadelphia), Levine Toilolo (fourth round - Atlanta) and Steffan Taylor (fifth round - Arizona). Taylor, a Doak Walker Award semifinalist, set the Stanford record with 4,300 rushing yards and Ertz led Stanford pass catchers and all FBS tight ends in receiving yards (898) and total receptions (69), both school records for a tight end. Ertz was a John Mackey Award finalist and the seventh unanimous All-American in program history.

Stanford was one of five schools to have four or more players selected to the 2012 AP All-America teams, with Ertz earning the honor along with David Yankey (second team), Trent Murphy (third team) and Ed Reynolds (third team). Yankey was a consensus All-American.

In Shaw's first season as head coach, the 2011 edition of the Cardinal posted an 11-2 record and made its second consecutive BCS appearance, falling to Oklahoma State in the Fiesta Bowl. Shaw became just the ninth major college head coach in history to post 11 or more wins in his first season, and the first since Chris Peterson (13-0) of Boise State and Bret Bielema (12-1) of Wisconsin in 2006.

Shaw was named the 2011 Pac-12 Coach of the Year, becoming just the third in Stanford history to earn the award, following Bill Walsh (1977) and Tyrone Willingham

(1995, 1999). He was named AFCA Regional Coach of the Year and a Paul "Bear" Bryant Coach of the Year finalist.

The Cardinal was ranked in the top 10 of both major polls for all 16 weeks of the season, peaking at No. 3 in the AP poll and No. 2 in the USA Today Coaches poll on Nov. 6.

Behind 2011 Heisman Trophy finalist Andrew Luck, Stanford averaged 43.2 points/game and established a school-record with 561 points. Stanford's 11 victories in 2011 came by an average of 27.4 points.

Stanford's 2011 defense was ranked first or second in the Pac-12 in six categories, including rushing defense (1st - 84.4), third-down conversion defense (1st - 31.1), scoring defense (2nd - 21.9), total defense (2nd - 337.6), sacks/game (2nd - 3.00) and opponent first downs (2nd - 17.5).

Luck was named Walter Camp Football Foundation National Player of the Year along with receiving the Maxwell Award as the nation's top player. He finished second in the balloting for the Heisman Trophy and was the Pac-12's Offensive Player of the Year for a second straight season.

Right guard David DeCastro was a unanimous All-America selection; left tackle Jonathan Martin landed spots on the Walter Camp and AFCA All-America squads; tight end Coby Fleener and outside linebacker Chase Thomas were named All-Americans by Sporting News.

In all, 21 players earned All-Pac-12 honors in 2011, including six first-teamers. Twelve earned Pac-12 All-Academic honors, including first-team selections Luck and Brent Etiz. Luck was also named the Capital One Academic All-American of the Year by the College Sports Information Directors of America.

Prior to his appointment as head coach, Shaw served as Stanford's offensive coordinator for four seasons, playing an instrumental role in the resurgence of the Cardinal program which established school scoring records in 2009 and 2010 before setting another scoring mark in his first year as head coach.

During Shaw's tenure as offensive coordinator, the Cardinal scored 40 or more points in 11 games from 2007-10.

Stanford's balanced offense amassed a school-record 6,142 yards during the 2010 season, averaging 213.8 on the ground and 258.7 yards through the air.

In addition, Shaw's play calling in the red zone helped Stanford convert on a national-best 88.6 percent of its scoring opportunities inside the 20-yard line.

Prior to Stanford, Shaw served as the wide receivers and passing game coordinator at the University of San Diego during the 2006 season, winning the Division I-AA Mid-Major national title and the Pioneer League championship with the nation's top offense. Shaw's coaching resume also includes nine years of NFL experience with the Philadelphia Eagles (1997), Oakland Raiders (1998-2001) and Baltimore Ravens (2002-05).

Shaw's last coaching job in the NFL with Baltimore included a stint as the quarterbacks and wide receivers coach from 2002-04 before working solely with the wide receivers in 2005. His tenure included an AFC North title in 2003. Derrick Mason set a franchise record with 86 receptions for 1,073 yards under Shaw's tutelage in 2005. Mark Clayton set a franchise rookie record for receptions in 2005 when he caught 44 balls for 471 yards. After three seasons of quality control with the Oakland Raiders from 1998-2000, Shaw moved into the role of quarterbacks coach in 2001 as the Raiders won a second straight AFC West title. Quarterback Rich Gannon made the Pro Bowl for the second straight season and was the game's MVP. Shaw began his NFL coaching career as the quality control coach with the Philadelphia Eagles in 1997. He launched his coaching career at Western Washington, where he coached outside linebackers in 1995 and the tight ends in 1996.

A four-year letterwinner at Stanford from 1991-94 as a receiver, Shaw was a member of Stanford's 1991 Aloha Bowl team coached by Dennis Green that finished the season 8-4 and was the third-highest scoring team in school history at the time. He was also on the Cardinal team that went 10-3 and won the 1993 Blockbuster Bowl under Bill Walsh. Shaw finished his Stanford career with 57 catches for 664 yards and five touchdowns. He also competed in a varsity track meet and a varsity basketball game before graduating in 1995 with a bachelor's degree in sociology.

Shaw's father, Willie, had two coaching stints at Stanford (1974-76, 1989-91) during his 33-year coaching career, which also included time with the Detroit Lions, Kansas City Chiefs, Minnesota Vikings, New Orleans Saints, Oakland Raiders, San Diego Chargers and St. Louis Rams. Stanford announced in 2013 that its defensive coordinator position had been endowed by a gift from an anonymous donor, named in honor of Willie Shaw.

Shaw is Chair of the NCAA Football rules committee and is on the Board of Trustees for the AFCA. He is also on the NCAA Football Competition Committee and represents the Pac-12 on the AFCA Ethics Committee. He was previously on USA Football's Football Advisory Committee and a member of the NCAA Commission on Combat Campus Sexual Violence. In addition to his work with that commission, Shaw has been a leading advocate of the Set The Expectation program, aimed at working to end the culture of sexual assault and domestic violence among college and high school athletes. Stanford players became the first university in the country to sign the Set The Expectation student pledge, stating they would use their platforms to speak out against sexual assault and violence against women.

Born in San Diego, Shaw and his wife, Kori, are the parents of three children -- Keegan, Carter and Gavin.

Cardinal Falls in Opener

ARLINGTON, Texas (AP) -- Kansas State sixth-year quarterback Skylar Thompson ran for two touchdowns, bullying into the end zone for the first one after missing most of last season with a shoulder injury, and the Wildcats opened the season with a 24-7 win over Stanford on Saturday.

Deuce Vaughn sprinted 59 yards for a touchdown and finished with 124 yards rushing on 13 carries for the Wildcats, who finished last season with a five-game losing streak.

Stanford was down 24-0 before Tanner McKee's 14-yard touchdown pass to Brycen Tremayne with 3:16 left on its last offensive snap. The Cardinal, who last year won the last four games of their pandemic-shortened 4-2 season, have played 177 games since last being shut out.

Thompson, who later had a 13-yard TD run, opened the scoring when he put his left shoulder down and knocked cornerback Kyu Blu Kelly to the ground on a 6-yard TD run in the first quarter.

On the possession before the first TD, Kelly had an impressive interception in the end zone, leaping and reaching back over Phillip Brooks and then managing to get one foot down inbounds. But Stanford went three-and-out, setting up the two-play TD drive, Thompson finding a wide-open Brooks for a 56-yard pass to the 6.

Trees Topple No. 14 Troy

LOS ANGELES (AP) - Tanner McKee passed for two touchdowns and rushed for another score in his first collegiate start, and Stanford rebounded from a season-opening loss with a 42-28 upset victory over No. 14 Southern California on Saturday night.

Nathaniel Peat had an 87-yard touchdown run while racking up a career-high 115 yards, and Kyu Blu Kelly returned an interception 31 yards for a touchdown in a surprising rout for the Cardinal (1-1, 1-0 Pac-12). Led by McKee, Stanford's offense came back superbly a 24-7 loss to Kansas State last week.

McKee went 16 of 23 for 234 yards while seizing his chance to start. McKee hit Elijah Higgins and Brycen Tremayne for TDs as Stanford rolled to a 29-point lead in the fourth quarter of its ninth victory over USC in the California rivals' last 14 meetings.

Kedon Slovis passed for 223 yards, and Keaontay Ingram and Darwin Barlow rushed for TDs as the Trojans' (1-1, 0-1) nine-game regular season winning streak ended in tonight's win for Stanford.

Stanford's defense limited star Trojans receiver Drake London to four catches for 68 yards and a touchdown with 5:54 to play.

The 100th meeting between the Pac-12's two California private schools resumed a rivalry that was interrupted last season for the first time since 1945 by the coronavirus pandemic.

Peat put the Cardinal ahead early with his long sprint down the Cardinal sideline for the fifth-longest TD run in Stanford history. The speedy big-play tailback and kick returner nearly topped his previous career-high of 93 yards rushing on that play alone.

USC evened it early in the second quarter with a 15-play, 95-yard drive capped by Ingram's 2-yard TD surge, but McKee put the Cardinal back ahead with a 3-yard TD pass to Higgins on fourth down only after Stanford decided to go for it after USC lined up in the neutral zone on a successful field goal.

Kelly picked off Slovis' pass when it deflected off London's hands, and the cornerback eluded Slovis near the goal line to score his first career touchdown. The rout was on when McKee scored on a 1-yard keeper late in the third quarter.

Stanford's road trip to start the season continues when the Cardinal travels to Vanderbilt next Saturday, Sept. 18.

Nashville Heat

NASHVILLE, Tenn. (AP) -- Tanner McKee ran for a touchdown and threw for two more as Stanford beat Vanderbilt 41-23 Saturday night in the first meeting between the two programs.

Stanford (2-1) finally can head home on a two-game winning streak after playing the first three games on the road, the only Power Five program this season to even play its first two straight games away from home.

Stanford took control scoring 13 points in the final 1:53 of the second quarter. Joshua Karty kicked a 46-yard field goal, then Jimmy Wyrick picked off a Ken Seals pass for the first interception of his career. That set up McKee's second TD pass of the half, a 5-yarder to Brycen Tremayne with 40 seconds left.

The Cardinal defense forced the first three-and-out by Vandy. Casey Filkins returned the punt 48 yards to the Vandy 22, and an illegal formation penalty on the Commodores moved the ball to the 17. Karty came out for the easy 35-yarder for a 27-14 halftime lead. Those were the first field goals of the sophomore kicker's career.

Stanford made it 20 straight after forcing Vanderbilt three-and-out again to open the third quarter. McKee capped a 55-yard drive with a 5-yard TD pass to Jay Symonds for a 34-14 lead.

McKee finished with 218 yards passing in the second straight start of his career. The sophomore completed at least one pass to nine different receivers. Nathaniel Peat and E.J. Smith ran for a TD apiece.

The Cardinal had a 422-398 edge in total offense as Vanderbilt scored a TD on the final play of the game.

After a seven-game road trip that spans back to the 2020 season, Stanford finally returns home next Saturday to host UCLA on at Stanford Stadium.

Card Falls to #24 UCLA in Home Opener

STANFORD, Calif. (AP) -- Playing its first home game since Nov. 2020, Stanford's comeback fell short in a 35-24 loss to No. 24 UCLA on Saturday night at Stanford Stadium.

Stanford (2-2, 1-1 Pac-12) had played its last seven games away from home because of COVID-19 protocols last season and a tough opening schedule. The Cardinal managed to win six of those games but came up short against the Bruins (3-1, 1-0 Pac-12).

UCLA broke out to a 14-0 lead and then, after letting Stanford battle back to tie it, got the biggest play of the game when Thompson-Robinson found Kyle Phillips open deep over the middle for a 75-yard TD on the next play from scrimmage.

The Bruins sealed the win when Thompson-Robinson threw a 5-yard TD pass to Phillips after briefly leaving the game with an injury.

Stanford started the game with five straight three-and-outs and trailed 14-0 on short TD runs by Thompson-Robinson and Zach Charbonnet before the offense even got going.

McKee then started to find some open receivers downfield as the Cardinal worked its way back into the game. Brycen Tremayne made a toe-tapping 19-yard TD grab to get Stanford on the board in the second quarter.

Then, after the Bruins went back up by 14 on Thompson-Robinson's second TD run late in the first half, McKee connected on a 56-yard TD pass to Elijah Higgins in the third quarter and a 52-yarder to Bryce Farrell early in the fourth to tie the game at 21.

But Thompson-Robinson answered on the next play and UCLA held on for the win.

Stanford faces No. 3 Oregon on Saturday at Stanford Stadium.

Cardinal Clips No. 3 Oregon in OT

STANFORD, Calif. (AP) -- Tanner McKee threw a TD pass on an untimed down at the end of regulation to tie the game and another on the opening possession of overtime to lead Stanford to a 31-24 victory over No. 3 Oregon on Saturday.

McKee came back after leaving for a play on the final drive of regulation with an injury to tie it on a 2-yard pass to Elijah Higgins after a holding penalty by Oregon (4-1, 1-1 Pac-12) in the end zone extended the game one play.

McKee then gave the Cardinal (3-2, 2-1) the lead with a 14-yarder to John Humphreys in overtime. Stanford then forced Anthony Brown to throw an incomplete pass on fourth-and-8 to seal its fourth win against an Oregon team ranked in the top 10 since 2009.

The Ducks were appeared poised for their first 5-0 start in eight years when they rallied from 10 points down at halftime to take a 24-17 lead early in the fourth quarter on Brown's second TD run of the game.

But then McKee delivered the big plays late and the Cardinal capitalized on three Oregon penalties on the game-tying 87-yard drive in the final 1:59 of regulation.

McKee left the game for one play on the drive after being hit by Kayvon Thibodeaux on a play ruled targeting. Oregon was then called for another roughing the passer penalty and the holding penalty in the end zone on what appeared to be the final play.

The Cardinal got the untimed down and McKee delivered with the pass to Higgins. Stanford opted for the extra point and the game went to OT.

Stanford returns to play on a short week, traveling to Arizona State on Friday night.

Stanford Falls to No. 22 Arizona State in Tempe

TEMPE, Ariz. (AP) -- The Cardinal dropped a Pac-12 Friday night showdown against No. 22 Arizona State, 28-10, at Sun Devil Stadium.

The Sun Devils (5-0, 3-0 Pac-12) racked up 255 yards and three touchdowns on the ground. Jayden Daniels provided the balance, throwing for 175 yards and running for 76 more, including a 51-yard touchdown.

Stanford (3-3, 2-2) had trouble stopping Arizona State's run game, falling behind early, limited to 9 yards rushing on 20 carries.

Tanner McKee threw for 356 yards and a touchdown, but had his first three interceptions of the season. Pierce scored in the third quarter after Jack Jones stepped in front of a receiver for an interception and lateraled just before hitting the ground.

Elijah Higgins tallied 110 yards on seven catches with a touchdown, while sophomore tight end Benjamin Yurosek added 118 yards of his own on six catches.

Both teams were coming off big wins.

Stanford took down Oregon 31-24 by sending the game to overtime with a touchdown on an untimed final play of regulation.

Arizona State picked up one of its biggest wins under coach Herm Edwards, knocking off then-No. 20 UCLA 42-23.

Daniels scrambled through a hole up the middle, ran away from two Stanford defenders who collided and raced off for a 51-yard touchdown run on Arizona State's opening drive.

Raachad White scored on a 5-yard run, one play after leaping a defender for a 29-yard gain. The Sun Devils pulled off consecutive trick plays covering 54 yards, the second Elijah Badger's 22-yard TD run on a reverse to lead 21-7 at halftime.

Arizona State's offense stagnated in the second half, but the defense came up with the big plays when it needed.

Stanford had some early success on offense and scored when McKee hit Elijah Higgins on a 6-yard corner fade. The Cardinal stalled after that and McKee threw his first interception of the season on a pass that caromed off two players' hands in the closing seconds of the first half.

The interception-lateral TD put Arizona State up 28-10 in the third quarter and Jordan Clark came up with Arizona State's third interception when McKee threw behind a receiver.

Stanford remains on the road next week to play at Washington State on Saturday, Oct. 16

Cougars Best Cardinal

PULLMAN, Wash. (AP) -- Anthony Gordon threw for 520 yards and five touchdowns as Washington State beat Stanford 49-22 on Saturday.

Easop Winston Jr. caught a pair of touchdown passes for Washington State (5-5, 2-5 Pac-12), which has a four-game winning streak against the Cardinal. Max Borghi rushed for 111 yards and scored a pair of touchdowns.

Gordon set a team record by throwing for 39 touchdown passes this season.

Davis Mills, starting in place of injured K.J. Costello, threw for a single-season team record of 504 yards for Stanford (4-6, 3-5), eclipsing the previous mark of 450 set by Todd Husak in 1998. Mills completed 33 of 50 passes and three went for touchdowns.

In the opening series, Winston caught a short pass from Gordon, the nation's leading passer, and turned it into a 29-yard touchdown reception. After a Stanford punt, Washington State drove 96 yards, with Gordon hitting Tay Martin for a 16-yard touchdown pass and a 13-0 lead.

Washington State drove 97 yards for its third touchdown. Gordon fired a 15-yard scoring pass to Winston, who split three defenders in the end zone and made a diving catch. Mazza's kick failed and the Cougars led 19-0.

Gordon was intercepted at the Stanford goal line on the next series by freshman safety Jonathan McGill. Davis drove the Cardinal 99 yards, culminating in a 23-yard touchdown pass to sophomore wide receiver Michael Wilson that cut WSU's lead to 19-14.

In the third quarter, Stanford pulled closer on a 10-yard touchdown pass from Mills to Fehoko, and fifth-year senior running back Cameron Scarlett converted a 2-point conversion to bring the Cardinal within 25-22.

But the Cougars blew the game open, scoring three touchdowns and a field goal in the final 18 minutes.

Cardinal receivers had a big day. Wilson caught five passes for 114 yards; junior wide receiver Connor Wedington caught eight for 119; Fehoko caught three for 92; and junior tight end Colby Parkinson caught five for 80.

Playing from behind the entire way, Stanford was forced to throw most of the contest and finished with six yards rushing on 10 attempts.

The Cardinal plays host to Cal in the 122nd Big Game on Saturday at 1 p.m.
