2022-23 NOTABLES

Season Snapshot

Stanford produced a third-place NCAA finish in 2023 for the second straight season, representing its 10th top-three finish at the NCAA Championships since 2008, a stretch that includes three consecutive national championships from 2017-19. The Cardinal totaled 333 overall points at NCAA Championships, with individual national champions Claire Curzan (200 backstroke) and Taylor Ruck (200 freestyle) among 14 All-Americans. Stanford also repeated as Pac-12 champions, claiming the hardware for the sixth time in seven seasons.

NCAA Consistency

Stanford extended its streak as the only program in the nation to have finished in the top-10 at NCAA Championships every season. The Cardinal has won 11 NCAA titles and 12 national championships overall.

Claire Curzan won the 200-yard backstroke, setting a pool record with a time of 1:47.64. Taylor Ruck claimed the 200-yard freestyle, clocking in at 1:42.36. Curzan was a seven-time All-American in her debut season while Ruck finished as a five-time All-American, bringing her career total to 19 All-America honors.

The Cardinal boasted 14 All-American swimmers in 2023, an increase from 12 in 2022. Torri Huske matched Curzan as a seven-time All-American.

Pac-12 Dominance

Putting the finishing touches on a dominant conference meet, Stanford repeated as Pac-12 champions in 2023 and claimed the hardware for the sixth time in seven seasons.

The Cardinal totaled 1725.5 points, its most since scoring 1,775 in 2019 while producing the second-largest margin of victory at the conference championships in the last 27 years. Stanford, which captured its 25th conference title in program history, handily distanced itself from runner-up USC (1267.5) and third-place California (1260.5).

Named Pac-12 Swimmer of the Meet for the second consecutive season, Torri Huske came away with seven individual titles, winning the 50-yard freestyle, 100-yard freestyle and 100-yard butterfly in addition to participating on four winning relay teams.

Claire Curzan closed out an impressive week in her conference meet debut, producing a meet record of 1:47.43 in the 200-yard backstroke on the way to winning five titles overall.

Aurora Roghair captured her first career Pac-12 title at 16:02.28 in the 1,650-yard freestyle.

One month later, Stanford also swept the conference awards, with Huske as Pac-12 Swimmer of the Year, Curzan as Pac-12 Freshman of the Year and Paul A. Violich Director of Women's Swimming Greg Meehan as the Pac-12 Coach of the Year.

Academic All-Americans

Among Stanford's 36 CSC Academic All-Americans in the 2022-23 campaign were first-time honorees Allie Raab, Taylor Ruck and Morgan Tankersley.

It's the first time women's swimming and diving has featured its own category, having previously been part of the At-Large program. Raab and Tankersley were named to the first team while Ruck was tabbed a second-team pick.

To be eligible, student-athletes must carry a 3.50 cumulative GPA or higher and be at least a sophomore academically a significant contributor.

All three were also named CSCAA Scholar All-Americans.

Ruck's NCAA Postgraduate Scholarship

A member of Stanford's 2019 NCAA title team and four-time Olympic medalist, Ruck is also a four-time NCAA individual champion, 19-time All-American and eight-time Pac-12 champion.

Ruck completed her collegiate career while majoring in human biology and co-terming in Earth systems. Ruck's work toward a master's of science could open potential careers in areas such as marine ecology, sustainability, and biogeochemistry, with close attention to examining threats to the longevity and adaptability of life on Earth.
