

STANFORD FOOTBALL

#13/15 OREGON DUCKS 45 (4-1, 2-0)
STANFORD CARDINAL 27 (1-3, 0-3)
AUTZEN STADIUM (52,218) • OCT. 1, 2022

TEAM

- Aeneas DiCosmo made his first career start; Jack Leyrer and C.J. Hawkins made their first career appearances
- The third quarter sack by Tobin Phillips and Jaxson Moi was Oregon's first sack surrendered of the season
- Saturday marked Stanford's third straight game against a Top-20 opponent, the first time the Cardinal have faced such a stretch in the regular season since 2012
- Through five weeks of the college football season, Stanford is one of just three Power Five teams (Arizona State, Florida) to have faced three Top-25 teams.
- Saturday marked David Shaw's 12th matchup with Oregon, and the ninth when the Ducks have been ranked

INDIVIDUAL

K JOSHUA KARTY

- 2-for-2 with makes from 23 and 53 yards
- First FG attempt of the season with 7:37 left in 2nd quarter
- 53-yard make in 4th quarter was tied for ninth-longest field goal in school history, and the longest since Nate Whitaker made a 54-yarder in 2009

RB CASEY FILKINS

- 19 carries for 80 yards and three catches for 59 yards and a touchdown
- First career receiving touchdown (42 yards)
- Third straight game with 100+ yards from scrimmage

WR ELIJAH HIGGINS

- First touchdown catch of season
- Finished with six catches for 44 yards

ILB TRISTAN SINCLAIR

- First career interception