- The award, created by the Bobby Bragan Youth Foundation, was open to nominations from all Division I baseball programs in the country.
- The BBNCSA is based on performance at the plate, academics and personal integrity.
- Graham hit .331 with 64 runs scored, 13 doubles, a triple and a Pac-12-best 22 home runs while driving in a team-high 79 runs a year ago ... Graham hit safely in all but 12 of his 64 games played and collected an RBI in 40 of the 64 games while posting 24 multi-hit games and a team-best 22 multi-RBI contests.
- This year's watch list consists of 51 players representing 19 conferences around the country, including all five power conferences.
- The BBNCSA originally started out in 2017 as an honor going to the top college hitter in Texas ... in 2019, the BBNCSA became a regional award covering Division I programs in Texas, Arkansas, Louisiana, New Mexico and Oklahoma ... the BBNCSA became a national award in 2020; however, no winner was announced due to the Covid-19 virus which cut the 2020 college baseball season short.
- The winner of the BBNCSA will be announced in June and honored at a gala in the fall at the Fort Worth Club ... Texas Tech's Hunter Hargrove won the initial BBNCSA in 2017 ... Dallas Baptist's Devin Granberg took home the honor in 2018 with Texas Tech's Josh Jung winning the award in 2019 ... Connor Norby from East Carolina University won the BBNCSA in 2021, while last year's winner was Ivan Melendez from the University of Texas.
- Six players from the Pac-12 are on the watch list, including Graham, Drew Cowley (Oregon), Chase Davis (Arizona), Jacob McKeon (Washington State), Tanner Smith (Oregon) and Jacob Walsh (Oregon)

BASEBALL COACHING ENDOWMENT CELEBRATES KATHY WOLFF

- Thanks to a gift from an anonymous donor family, an endowed assistant coach position pays tribute to Kathy Wolff - a longtime administrative associate for more than two decades to Stanford's baseball and women's volleyball programs.
- Thomas Eager was named the inaugural Kathy Wolff Assistant Baseball Coach prior to the start of the 2022 season.
- Often considered the "heart and soul" of the baseball program, Wolff was hired as an administrative assistant in the marketing department in 1985 ... the native of Palo Alto began working with the baseball program in 1987, later adding administrative duties with the women's volleyball program.
- Wolff, who saw the Cardinal win two national championships during her first two seasons with the program, helped coordinate 11 trips to the College World Series in Omaha ... the beloved member of the Stanford Baseball family was busy coordinating another College World Series trip when she passed away on June 11, 2008 ... the Cardinal honored Wolff that year by wearing "KW" patches on its sleeves throughout the College World Series run.
- In addition to helping the program recruit and retain the best coaching staff, the endowed assistant coaching position recognizes the influence that Wolff still has on the athletics department today ... Stanford's Department of Athletics, Physical Education and Recreation (DAPER) annually recognizes a staff member with the Kathy Wolff Award for best exemplifying her spirit—a passion for Stanford and an ongoing desire to help and support his/her colleagues ... in the week leading up to baseball season every year, the athletics department celebrates Cake Week—a time when staff members are encouraged to continue Wolff's tradition of bringing in baked goods to enjoy together.

NO PLACE LIKE HOME

- Often considered one of the most beautiful college baseball facilities in the country, Klein Field at Sunken Diamond is the home to Stanford baseball.
- The "Sunken Diamond" name comes from the excavation to provide fill for the earthen berm within which Stanford Stadium was built in 1921, leaving a large, sunken field.
- The fixed seating capacity of Klein Field at Sunken Diamond is 2,113 ... with the addition of disabled seating and general admission lawn seating, the total capacity of the facility is 4,000.
- The original dimensions were 360 feet to left field, 350 to right, and 500 feet to center ... in 1978, a new seven-foot high fence was installed, bringing the dimensions to the current 335 to both left and right field, and 400 to center ... the outfield fence was increased to 10 feet in 1995.

THE 2022 SEASON

- Stanford went 47-18 overall and 21-9 in the Pac-12 en route to an appearance in the 2022 College World Series – the second in as many years (18th overall).
- The Cardinal also claimed the Pac-12 regular season title for the second time with David Esquer at the helm (2018) and won the inaugural Pac-12 tournament championship.
- Stanford hosted a regional for the 20th time in program history and won a bracket featuring No. 13 Texas State, No. 20 UC Santa Barbara and Binghamton to advance to the super regionals ... defeated Connecticut in the super regional round and is now 12-3 in super regional games played at Sunken Diamond and has advanced to the College World Series in all six seasons it has hosted a super regional ... is the only D1 program to host a regional in each of the last five tournaments.
- Putting together one of the best runs of baseball in program history, Stanford strung together a 17-game win streak from May 3 to June 3 - the longest unbeaten streak since beginning the 1998 season 16-0-1 and the longest win streak since winning a program-best 18 straight from April 16 - May 24, 1996.
- Over the 17-game win streak, the Cardinal batted .348 while outscoring opponents 185-69 ... Stanford collected 35 doubles, six triples and 50 home runs (allowed only four home runs).
- Cardinal pitchers compiled a 3.76 ERA with 128 strikeouts in 153 innings while holding opponents to a .241 average against over the streak.
- As part of the 17-game win streak, Stanford's pitching staff allowed a home run to UC Davis with one out in the fifth inning on May 3 ... the Cardinal did not allow another home run until two outs in the first inning of the final game of the regular season on May 21 – a span of 10 full games and 95 1/3 innings without allowing a home run.
- The Cardinal finished the year having won 22 of the last 26, 25 of 31, 28 of 35, 33 of 41, and 38 of 48 overall.
- Stanford set a program record with 118 home runs and finished second in the nation in shutouts (9) ... the nine shutouts were fifth-most in Stanford history.
- The Cardinal ranked second in the Pac-12 in average (.309) last year and led the Conference in slugging (.536) and home runs (118) while hitting 71 in the last 27 games overall.
- For the second consecutive season, the Cardinal led all teams in postseason homers (23) ... Stanford also led the field in hits (128) and doubles (24).
- Stanford starters went 26-6 with a 3.94 ERA while pitching 278 2/3 innings ... the Cardinal pitched to a 4.23 ERA (third in Pac-12 & 26th nationally) and recorded a 1.38 WHIP ... Stanford also managed 9.22 strikeouts per nine innings while striking out 595 - second-most in Stanford history.
- Stanford captured four of the five major Pac-12 yearly awards last season - with David Esquer named Coach of the Year, Alex Williams winning Pitcher of the Year, Adam Crampton earning Defensive Player of the Year and Braden Montgomery taking home Freshman of the Year.
- Eight Cardinal players earned All-Pac-12 honors, with Brett Barrera, Carter Graham, Kody Huff, Brock Jones and Williams earning a spot on the first team ... Quinn Mathews and Braden Montgomery earned honorable mention selections ... Crampton, Jones and Williams also found themselves on the Pac-12 All-Defensive team.
- Stanford has now won consecutive Pac-12 Pitcher of the Year awards after Brendan Beck earned the honor in 2021 ... the Cardinal has claimed nine Pitcher of the Year selections in program history.
- Montgomery was the fifth Pac-12 Freshman of the Year in program history, including the first since Cal Quantrill in 2014.
- Crampton was the third Defensive Player of the Year, including the second under Esquer after Maverick Handley won the award in 2019.
- 2022 marked the second Coach of the Year selection for Esquer while at Stanford (2018) ... it is the 11th time in program history (Mark Marquess - nine times) ... Esquer had previously captured Pac-10 Coach of the Year while at California in 2001.

DAVID ESQUER
CLARKE AND ELIZABETH NELSON DIRECTOR OF BASEBALL
SIXTH SEASON AT STANFORD / 24TH OVERALL

Alma Mater: Stanford '87
 Stanford Overall Record: 219-86
 Stanford Pac-12 Record: 105-41
 Career Record: 744-553-2
 Career Pac-12 Record: 323-299

David Esquer '87 was named Stanford's Clarke and Elizabeth Nelson Director of Baseball on June 16, 2017, becoming the 21st head coach in program history.

Esquer succeeded Mark Marquess, who retired after 41 years at the helm of the program. Esquer played under Marquess on Stanford's 1987 national championship team, and served as an assistant on The Farm from 1991-96. Prior to taking over the reins at Stanford, Esquer spent the previous 18 seasons as the head coach at California, where he was the 2011 National Coach of the Year and led the Bears to five NCAA Regionals and the 2011 College World Series.

The 2023 season will be Esquer's sixth in charge of the program, having guided Stanford to the 2018 and 2022 Pac-12 Conference championships, the inaugural 2022 Pac-12 Conference Tournament championship, four NCAA Regional appearances, three NCAA Super Regional appearances, and back-to-back College World Series appearances in 2021 and 2022.

In five-plus seasons at the helm of Stanford, Esquer has amassed a 219-86 (.718) overall record - the highest winning percentage of any coach in Stanford baseball history. Esquer owns a career record of 744-553-2 through 23-plus seasons as a collegiate head coach. Included in the overall ledger is a 323-299 record in Pac-12 play, including an 105-41 mark while at Stanford.

Esquer has been named Pac-12 Coach of the Year four times in his career, earning the honor in 2018, 2022 and 2023 with Stanford, and in 2001 at California. The 2022 ABCA West Region Coach of the Year won his 100th game as Stanford's head coach on March 4, 2021 as the Cardinal walked off with a 7-6 victory over San Francisco in 10 innings. His 300th career Pac-12 win came against USC on May 21, 2022 to claim sole possession of 2022 Pac-12 title, while his 700th career win came in a 5-4 triumph vs. Arizona on May 28, 2022 at the Pac-12 Tournament. Esquer added his 100th Pac-12 win at Stanford on May 7, 2023 as the Cardinal defeated No. 20 Arizona State 9-4 to sweep a three-game road series. In total as a head coach, Esquer has guided his teams to nine postseason appearances and three College World Series berths.

Stanford made its second consecutive appearance in the College World Series in 2022, including its 18th in program history, finishing the year with a 47-18 overall record and a 21-9 mark in the Pac-12 to win both the Pac-12 regular season and inaugural Pac-12 Tournament championships. The 47 wins were tied for eighth-most in program history. Stanford, which entered the College World Series ranked No. 1 in the nation according to Collegiate Baseball, finished the year ranked No. 5 in the D1Baseball poll. Stanford hosted a regional for the 20th time in program history and won its bracket to advance to the super regionals where it defeated Connecticut - winning five elimination games during the regional and super regional rounds to advance to Omaha. Putting together one of the best runs of baseball in program history, Stanford posted a 17-game win streak from May 3 to June 3 - the longest unbeaten streak since beginning the 1998 season 16-0-1, and the longest win streak since winning a program-best 18 straight from April 16 - May 24, 1996. Just as it did in 2021, Stanford led all teams in postseason home runs, connecting for 23 of its program-record 118 long balls during the 10-game postseason run. The Cardinal ranked second in the Pac-12 in average (.309) and led the Conference in slugging (.536) and home runs (118) while hitting 71 in the last 27 games overall. On the pitching side, Stanford also led the Pac-12 in shutouts (9) - fifth-most in program history - and ranked third in ERA (4.23). Including Esquer's Pac-12 Coach of the Year selection, the Cardinal cleaned up in the Pac-12 postseason awards process, placing eight on All-Pac-12 teams and securing four of the five major Pac-12 yearly awards - with Alex Williams winning Pitcher of the Year, Adam Crampton winning Defensive Player of the Year and Braden Montgomery taking home Freshman of the Year. Williams was named a semifinalist for the 2022 College Baseball Hall of Fame National Pitcher of the Year Award and earned unanimous All-America honors, while Carter Graham and Brock Jones also earned All-America selections. Montgomery was a semifinalist for the 2022 John Olerud Two-Way Player of the Year and earned Freshman All-America honors after connecting for a Stanford freshman record 18 home runs. Standouts on the field and in the classroom, Williams and Jones were named CoSIDA Academic All-Americans. Williams was also named the 2022 Pac-12 Scholar-Athlete of the Year and was selected as Stanford's 2021-22 Pac-12 Tom Hansen Conference Medal recipient. The Cardinal saw six players drafted in the 2022 MLB Draft - headlined by Jones being selected 65th overall in the second round by the Rays. Kody Huff (seventh round, Rockies), Brett Barrera (eighth round, Yankees), Crampton (ninth round, Orioles), Williams (11th round, Marlins) and Quinn Mathews (19th round, Rays) were also selected.

Stanford finished the historic 2021 season ranked No. 5 nationally according to Collegiate Baseball and in the NCBWA poll, No. 7 according to Baseball America and the USA Today Coaches poll, and No. 8 according to D1Baseball after going 39-17 and 17-10 in Pac-12 play to claim third place in the conference standings. Esquer's Cardinal dropped back-to-back games just once in 2021 and finished the year 12-1 in weekend series. Stanford won the Stanford Regional and swept a Super Regional at Texas Tech to earn the berth in Omaha. Brendan Beck was a unanimous All-American and was named 2021 Pac-12 Pitcher of the Year, while Brock Jones and Zach Grech also earned All-America honors. Eight Cardinal players claimed All-Conference recognition, while Grech also earned Pac-12 Scholar Athlete of the Year. The Cardinal's 85 home runs, including an NCAA-high 22 in the postseason, were the eighth-most in Stanford history, while the .979 fielding percentage was the third-best in program history. Three Cardinal were drafted following the 2021 season, headlined by Beck being selected 55th overall in the second round by the New York Yankees.

Stanford posted a 45-14 record in 2019 before registering a 5-11 mark in a 2020 season cut short by the COVID-19 global pandemic. The Cardinal's .763 win percentage in 2019 tied for the fifth-best in program history, while its 14 losses matched the third-fewest. Stanford finished 22-7 in Pac-12 play, claiming second place before earning its 11th Super Regional berth overall, and the first since 2014. Nine Cardinal were drafted following the 2019 season, and Maverick Handley was named Co-Defensive Player of the Year.

In 2018, his first season in charge of the program, Esquer guided Stanford to its first Pac-12 Conference title since 2004, matching a program record for fewest losses with 12 (minimum 50 games played) while picking up Pac-12 Coach of the Year honors. Stanford's 46 wins equaled the 10th-most in program history to that point, while the Cardinal's .793 winning percentage ranked second. Nine Cardinal were named All-Pac-12, and Stanford hosted an NCAA Regional for the 17th time.

Through 18 seasons at Cal, Esquer compiled a 525-467-2 (.529) overall record and mentored five MLB first-round selections. Conor Jackson was the first of the five first-round picks, selected by the Arizona Diamondbacks in 2003 before Brandon Morrow was selected fifth overall by the Seattle Mariners in 2006. David Cooper (Toronto Blue Jays, 2008) and Brett Jackson (Chicago Cubs, 2009) followed before right-hander Daulton Jefferies was drafted in 2016 by the Oakland A's.

During his time at the helm of the Cardinal program, Esquer has seen two more players selected in the first round of an MLB draft, running the total to seven in his career. Nico Hoerner was drafted 24th overall by the Chicago Cubs in 2018, while Kris Bubic was selected 40th overall by the Kansas City Royals in that same draft.

Through 23 seasons as a collegiate head coach in the Pac-12, Esquer has seen 14 of his players garner All-America honors, 16 named All-Region, and two claim Conference Player, Pitcher, Freshman and Defensive Player of the Year.

A shortstop at Stanford from 1984-87, Esquer was a starter on the Cardinal's 1987 College World Series championship team. He earned all-tournament honors after hitting .350 with six RBIs in Omaha. He also earned All-Pac-10 Southern Division honors as a senior, batting .318 with 41 RBIs and 16 stolen bases. Esquer went on to play professional baseball for four seasons with the Baltimore Orioles, California Angels and Milwaukee Brewers.

Following his playing career, Esquer spent six seasons as an assistant under Coach Marquess. His time as an assistant with the Cardinal included five NCAA Regional appearances and a fifth-place finish at the 1995 College World Series. In three seasons as the top assistant at Pepperdine from 1997-99, Esquer was the program's chief recruiting coordinator as well as hitting instructor, infield coach and handler of the third base coaching duties.

Esquer was a three-sport star and class valedictorian at Palma High School in Salinas, Calif. He was tabbed the "Athlete of the Year" at Palma High School after being named team captain and MVP in baseball, football and basketball. Esquer earned a bachelor's degree in economics and a master's degree in sociology from Stanford in 1987. He and his wife, Lynn, have a daughter, Gabrielle, and son, Xavier.
