4 • For the fourth time under head coach David Shaw, Stanford can earn a spot in the Pac-12 Championship Game (Dec. 1), but needs help. The Cardinal can get there if Washington State loses to Washington in the Apple Cup (also played Nov. 25 at 5 p.m.). If the Cougars -- who beat Stanford, 24-21, on Nov. 4 -- beat the Huskies, they get the nod. USC will represent the Pac-12 South Division.

5 • Stanford has won five consecutive home games against AP top-10 opponents.

8 • Stanford has won at least eight games for a school-record nine straight years.

12 • Head coach David Shaw is 12-0 at home against nonconference opponents.

17 • The Cardinal has a 17-game home nonconference win streak dating to 2008 (does not include 2012 Pac-12 Championship Game win vs. UCLA at Stanford Stadium).

2008 • The Cardinal has not dropped a regular-season finale since 2008, and is 6-0 in such affairs under head coach David Shaw.

4 • Stanford has won four straight home games against Notre Dame, its longest streak in series history.

8 • The Cardinal has eight wins in 14 tries at home against the Irish. From 1989-93, the visiting team was victorious. From 1994-2002, the home team claimed wins in the series.

10 • Fifteen of 31 meetings between Stanford and Notre Dame have been decided by 10 points or fewer. The past five games have been decided by touchdown or less.

32 • Entering Saturday's 32nd all-time meeting, Stanford and Notre Dame will face each other with both teams ranked by the AP for the seventh time, including five straight contests from 2011-2015.

4 • This marks the fourth straight time both Stanford and Notre Dame have been ranked when meeting at Stanford Stadium.

1925 • The Legends Trophy is awarded to the winner of the Stanford-Notre Dame rivalry series, named in honor of the 1925 Rose Bowl meeting which was said by sportswriters to contain more legends on one field than had ever played in a single game. The trophy was created by the Notre Dame Club of the San Francisco Bay Area, appropriately from Northern California redwood with an Irish crystal bowl.

2016 • Making his first career start in place of Christian McCaffrey, Bryce Love dove into the end zone from seven yards out to start the fourth quarter and cap a Cardinal comeback in a 17-10 victory as Stanford rallied back from a 10-point deficit at Notre Dame Stadium. Notre Dame nearly mounted its own comeback, but was stuffed on the Stanford 14-yard line when time expired. Stanford, which started the season ranked No. 8, averted losing three straight for the first time since 2007. The Irish, ranked No. 10 in the preseason, lost a third straight home game for the first time since 2007.

2015 • Kevin Hogan threw four touchdown passes and drove the 13th-ranked Cardinal to the winning 45-yard field goal by Conrad Ukropina on the last play of a 38-36 victory over No. 4 Notre Dame. Hogan threw for 269 yards and calmly led the winning drive in the final 30 seconds for the Cardinal. DeShone Kizer had given the Irish a one-point lead on his 2-yard run with 30 seconds left only to see Hogan drive Stanford to the winning score. Hogan connected on a 27-yard pass to Devon Cajuste to get Stanford in field goal range. After a short run by Christian McCaffrey, Ukropina came on and drilled the field goal setting off a wild celebration with the fans rushing the field.

2012 • Before a 2012 defeat at Notre Dame, the Cardinal had won three straight meetings, its longest streak in the series. Prior to that, the Fighting Irish won seven consecutive games from 2002-08.

2011 • Andrew Luck set the school record for the most career touchdown passes and eclipsed his own single-season mark, throwing for 233 yards and four scores to lead fourth-ranked Stanford past No. 22 Notre Dame, 28-14, in his home finale. Luck topped John Elway's record of 77 touchdown passes and helped the Cardinal build a 21-0 halftime lead. The victory vaulted Stanford into an at-large BCS bowl bid for the second straight year.

2010 • Nate Whitaker kicked five field goals to tie a Stanford single-game record and the Cardinal defense limited the Irish to just 44 yards rushing and one offensive touchdown to break a seven-game losing streak at Notre Dame, 37-14. It was Stanford's largest margin of victory in the series. Owen Marecic scored a pair of touchdowns within 13 seconds of one another (first as a fullback on a short dive play, then later making an interception for a score from his inside linebacker position).

1988 • Stanford and Notre Dame have met every year since 1988, with the exception of the 1995 and 1996 seasons.

Heisman Trophy candidate Bryce Love

1 • Love ranks first nationally among Power 5 conference running backs in the following categories:

Rushing yards - 1,723

Rushing yards/game - 172.3

Rushing yards/attempt - 8.8

Rushing touchdowns (t-1st) - 16

Consecutive games with a touchdown - 12

Consecutive games with a rushing touchdown - 11

100-yard rushing games - 9

20-yard rushes - 26

30-yard rushes - 21 (in the previous two seasons, no player nationally had more than 13 such runs)

40-yard rushes - 13

50-yard rushes - 11

60-yard rushes - 6

135 • Love is averaging over 135 rushing yards/game in four contests against ranked opponents, including 166 against No. 9 Washington's top-ranked defense. Washington had allowed only three rushing touchdowns all season -- Love scored three against the Huskies.

8.16 • Through 36 career games, Love is averaging 8.16 yards/rush. The FBS career record is 8.26 by Glenn Davis of Army (1943-46).

50 • Love has recorded a rushing touchdown of 50 or more yards 10 times in 2017. Over the past five seasons, only one team had that many 50-yard rushing touchdowns in a season (New Mexico had 11 in 2016).

50 • Love's 11 rushes of 50 or more yards is the FBS record for most 50-yard rushes in a single season.

929 • Love is among the nation's best at breaking tackles, as 929 of his 1,723 rushing yards have been earned after contact.

4.8 • Loves leads the nation with 4.8 yards after contact per rushing attempt (min. 1,700 yards rushing), per Pro Football Focus.

2,732 • Love's 2,732 career rushing yards rank sixth all-time at Stanford. Brad Muster's 3,010 (1984-87) ranks fifth.

1,723 • Love's 1,723 rushing yards rank second nationally among all running backs, and is the third-best single-season mark at Stanford. Toby Gerhart's 1,871 (2009) ranks second, and Christian McCaffrey's 2,019 (2015) rank first.

155.6 • Love's 155.6 elusive rating ranks first nationally, according to Pro Football Focus. Second place? Iowa State's David Montgomery at 134.6.

904 • Love's 17 longest runs in 2017 total 904 yards. Only 43 players nationally -- including Love -- have more than 904 yards rushing.

2 • Love has two games with 250 or more rushing yards on the season. The rest of FBS players? Only 12 such games combined.

175.6 • Love ranks first among Pac-12 players -- and third nationally -- with 175.6 all-purpose yards/game.

45.3 • Love is averaging 45.3 yards/scoring play during his career: 93-yard catch, 47-yard run, 48-yard run, 7-yard run, 56-yard run, 50-yard run, 49-yard catch, 10-yard run, 75-yard run, 51-yard run, 53-yard run, 69-yard run, 61-yard run, 43-yard run, 59-yard run, 68-yard run, 5-yard run, 67-yard run, 52-yard run, 1-yard run, 13-yard run, 9-yard run, 57-yard run.

16 • With 16 rushing touchdowns, Love ranks seventh nationally among all players and first among Pac-12 players.

12 • Dating to 2016, Love has record at least one touchdown in a nation-best 12 consecutive games.

11 • Love's 11 consecutive games with a rushing touchdown is the longest active FBS streak.

35 • Love has a rush of at least 35 yards in each game this season: 62 vs. Rice, 75 vs. USC, 53 vs. San Diego State, 69 vs. UCLA, 61 vs. Arizona State, 68 vs. Utah, 67 vs. Oregon, 52 vs. Washington State, 35 vs. Washington, 57 vs. Cal.

100 • Love has gained at least 100 yards rushing five times this season ... in the first quarter.

50 • Dating to 2016, Love recorded a rush of 50 or more yards in 10 straight games (streak snapped Nov. 10 vs. Washington), the only player to do so in the past 20 years. By comparison, Alabama's Mark Ingram had two such rushes in 14 games in 2009, and Derrick Henry had five such rushes in 15 games in 2015 for the Crimson Tide.

10 • Saturday Night Love? A number of Love's big runs have happened after 10 p.m. ET. Here's a sample: 67-yard run vs. Oregon (11:25 p.m. ET), 68-yard run at Utah (12:57 a.m. ET), 53-yard run at San Diego State (1:12 a.m. ET), 69-yard run vs. UCLA (2:05 a.m. ET), 35-yard run vs. Washington (1:53 a.m. ET). The 35-yarder against Washington was the longest rush allowed by the Huskies on the season.

9 • Love is the first Cardinal with 100 yards rushing in each of his first nine career starts. His nine consecutive games with 100 or more yards rushing, which ended at Washington State (Nov. 4), is tied for first in Stanford history with Christian McCaffrey.

301 • Love's 301 yards rushing against Arizona State (Sept. 30) were the most by any Cardinal, eclipsing Christian McCaffrey's school-record 284 at Cal in 2016. Love broke 12 tackles and notched 175 yards after contact against the Sun Devils. The 301 yards is the eighth-best single-game total in Pac-12 history.

- 200 • Stanford has rushed for 200 or more yards in nine of its past 17 games (9-0 in those games).
- 200 • Stanford has allowed 200 or more rushing yards only 14 times under head coach David Shaw.

- .826 • Sophomore kicker Jet Toner's .826 field goal pct. ranks 30th nationally and second among Pac-12 players.
- 134 • Stanford held USC (Sept. 9) without a single punt or kickoff return yard, a first for the Cardinal special teams units in 134 games, dating to the 2006 regular season finale against Cal. Stanford special teams coordinator Pete Alamar was the Golden Bears' special teams coordinator for that 2006 affair.

- 72 • Head coach David Shaw has 72 career wins, the most in Stanford history. Against Cal (Nov. 18), Shaw eclipsed the previous record set by Glenn “Pop” Warner (71 from 1924-32).
 - .768 • Stanford is 22-6 (.768) under head coach David Shaw in November.
 - 84 • Stanford’s 84 wins this decade rank fourth nationally and the most of any private school, ahead of TCU (73), USC (72), Notre Dame (68), Baylor (65) and Navy (65).
 - 82 • Stanford’s 82 wins against FBS opponents this decade ranks second nationally. Only Alabama (89) has more.
 - 49 • Stanford’s 49 regular-season conference wins are third-most nationally since David Shaw became head coach in 2011, behind Alabama (50) and Oklahoma (50).
 - 6 • Stanford and Alabama lead the nation as the only programs with six seasons of 10 or more wins against FBS opponents since 2010.
 - 6 • Stanford has advanced to six bowl games in as many seasons under head coach David Shaw. Only Alabama’s Nick Saban (10), Clemson’s Dabo Swinney (9) and Florida State’s Jimbo Fisher (7) have longer consecutive streaks dating to the tenure’s start with their current team.
 - 3 • Since the start of the 2012 season, Stanford is one of six FBS programs with at least three conference titles.
 - 8 • Stanford advanced to a school-record eighth straight bowl game in 2016, a streak that leads the Pac-12.
 - 35 • During the 2016 season, 35 former Cardinal received an NFL paycheck.
 - 33 • Stanford has produced 33 NFL draft picks since 2010, 12th-most by any program over that span.
 - 30 • No Pac-12 Conference team has had more NFL draftees over the past five years than Stanford’s 30.
 - 28 • Stanford had 28 former players make NFL opening day rosters in 2017, third-most of any Pac-12 team.
 - 30 • Stanford’s 2017 roster includes student-athletes from 30 states, and Austria.
 - 25 • Stanford’s 25 fifth- and fourth-year seniors are the most of any Pac-12 program.
 - 9 • Coaching continuity remains a hallmark of the program. Nine of 10 full-time coaches returned for 2017, the only change coming at running back, where Ron Gould replaced Lance Taylor, who became the Carolina Panthers’ wide receivers coach.
 - 6 • At least six foreign languages are spoken by the Cardinal -- French (Sean Barton, Peter Kalambayi and Osiris St. Brown), Samoan (Gabe Reid), Japanese (Jesse Burkett), German (Devery Hamilton and Osiris St. Brown) and Austrian German (Thomas Schaffer). Multiple student-athletes are fluent in Spanish.
 - 5 • Stanford (Asia, Australia and North America) is one of five programs to play a college football game on three different continents, joining Boston College, BYU, Cal and Notre Dame.
 - 3 • Stanford signed three of the nation’s top-10 recruits in the 2017 class. The Cardinal had corralled two such signees in the 15 previous years. Stanford is the first school in the modern era of college football recruiting services to sign the No. 1 quarterback, No. 1 offensive tackle and No. 1 tight end in the same class, earning the trifecta from both Scout and 247Sports.
 - 2 • Former Cardinal John Elway (Denver Broncos) and John Lynch (San Francisco 49ers) are NFL general managers. The other two schools with two NFL general managers? Connecticut and John Carroll.
- 19,940 • As the crow flies, Stanford will have traveled 19,940 miles before kicking off against Notre Dame on Nov. 25. The trip from Stanford’s campus to Sydney’s Allianz Stadium, where the Cardinal opened the season against Rice (Aug. 26), spanned 14,866 miles. A mere 642 round-trip miles separated Stanford Stadium from the Los Angeles Coliseum (at USC on Sept. 9), 858 from San Diego Stadium (at San Diego State on Sept. 16) and 1,198 from Rice-Eccles Stadium (at Utah on Oct. 7). Nearly 992 miles separated Stanford Stadium from Reser Stadium (at Oregon State on Oct. 26), and Washington State’s (Nov. 4) Martin Stadium is 692 miles away from The Farm.

2,085 • Of the 44,073 applicants -- the largest application pool in school history -- for Stanford's class of 2021, only 2,085 were admitted. The admitted students came from all 50 states and 82 countries.
