2019 NOTABLES

- Stanford returns its entire singles and doubles lineups from last year's NCAA title team.
- Head coach Lele Forood is 452-44 in her tenure, guiding the Cardinal to nine NCAA titles.
- Since 2016, Stanford has won 17 of its last 22 matches in which it loses the doubles point.
- Stanford has won 32 straight regular-season conference matches dating back to March 5, 2016, when it lost 4-3 at Arizona State.
- For the eighth consecutive week, Stanford leads the country with eight players ranked in singles. Georgia is the next-closest school with five.
- Caroline Lampl has not lost since Jan. 18 and is riding a career-high 15-match win streak.
- The Cardinal has won 57 of its last 60 matches at Taube Family Tennis Stadium.

PROGRAM NOTABLES

- The most storied program in college tennis, Stanford owns a 1,021-104 overall program record over 45 seasons and has captured 20 national championships (19 NCAA, 1 AIAW).
- Only two four-year classes (1992-95, 1993-96) did not win at least one championship during their time on The Farm.
- Stanford has captured three straight conference crowns for the first time since 2010-12.
