SHERRY POSTHUMUS CLUB SPORTS TEAM OF THE YEAR AWARD

Presented to the club sports team that attains the highest standard of athletic performance or that demonstrated a special commitment to participation in local community outreach programs.

EQUESTRIAN

The equestrian team has demonstrated competitive success at the highest level, and continues to proudly represent Stanford Club Sports in all they do. The students, coaching staff, and maintenance personnel of the Stanford Red Barn all contribute to a shared goal of proudly representing the University in competition, and providing environments where students can thrive as individuals and teammates. This year, both the Dressage and Hunt Seat teams qualified a combined 15 athletes for national finals – the most in the program’s historic 30 years of existence. Eleven athletes scored 13 top-10 finishes for a school record, and Stanford, as a team, finished top 3 at the IHSA National Finals for the third year in a row. The equestrian team continues to provide a home for students with a passion for the sport, along with continuing a legacy that has come before, and paying it forward for future generations.

SHIRLEY SCHOOF CLUB SPORTS ATHLETE OF THE YEAR AWARD

Presented to the student-athlete on a club team who demonstrates outstanding leadership, exemplifies fair play/sportsmanship, achieves excellence within the sport and is committed to community service.

VINCENT BUSQUE SWIMMING – HUMAN BIOLOGY

Two-year team president ... leadership and commitment has helped the club swimming team succeed, both in and out of the pool ... competitive success rivaled his commitment to the team ... won all four of his individual races at the winter meet ... at nationals, placed second, second and fifth overall in his individual events, playing an important role in helping the Stanford men to a seventh-place overall finish out of over 100 teams in the country ... recently elected President of the Club Sports Student Executive Council.

SARAH DOBBINS HORSE POLO – BIOMEDICAL COMPUTATION

Integral member of the club horse polo team and the club sports program ... picked up the sport quickly, helping her team win the Western Preliminaries ... elected president of her club (2018-19) ... coordinated the team’s budget, scheduled competitions, fundraised for equipment, and cared for over 20 horses ... showcased her dedication, sportsmanship, and leadership throughout the year ... selected to travel to the U.S. Polo Association headquarters in 2017 for their intercollegiate development program ... achieved an arena handicap of 1, which in non-polo terms, means she’s very, very good at the sport ... invested in the future student leadership of club sports by providing a model for transitional items to help incoming student leaders manage their club teams more effectively.

ARTHUR F. DAUER MEMORIAL SPORTS PERFORMANCE AWARD

Administered by the Director of Sports Performance, this award honors the student-athlete who not only displays maximum effort on and off the field of competition, but also brings out the best in his/her teammates through positive attitude, relentless work ethic and consistent commitment to performance enhancement. The award is given in memory of Arthur F. Dauer '59.

JAYE BOISSIERE SOCCER – POLITICAL SCIENCE The Buck/Cardinal Club

“Jaye is one of the hardest working athletes I have met thus far at Stanford. She has overcome adversity again and again with a positive attitude. She continues to strive for excellence day in and day out with consistent hard work and a dialed-in mental focus.”

- Bri Kanz, Sports Performance Coach

HAYDN MALEY WRESTLING – COMMUNICATIONS The Ralph “Jim” Reynolds Memorial Scholarship

“Haydn is the epitome of hard work. He is consistently among the top performers in the weight room and provides energy to the team. He is always looking for additional ways to improve, leads by example through his actions, and competes and trains with maximum effort year round.”

- Anthony Tran, Sports Performance Coach

BOB MURPHY AWARD

ANDREW DASCHBACH BASEBALL – SCIENCE, TECHNOLOGY AND SOCIETY The Abe Lewis, Jr. Scholarship

Andrew Daschbach became the first player in program history to hit four home runs in a game on May 14 when Stanford defeated Cal Poly, 7-1. Daschbach hit home runs in all four of his at-bats against four different pitchers to four different parts of Sunken Diamond. Daschbach is just the second player in Pac-12 history to hit four homers in a game.

ALSO CONSIDERED:

Abraham DeVine, swimming: Abraham DeVine swam 3:36.41 to capture his second straight NCAA championship in the 400 IM, becoming just the third Stanford swimmer in history to successfully defend a 400 IM title and first since Tom Wilkens (1997-98).

Grant Fisher, track and field: Grant Fisher broke Galen Rupp’s 2009 American collegiate record in the indoor 3,000 meters while winning the Millrose Games, the country’s most famous indoor meet, against an elite field of pros at The Armory in Manhattan.

Brody Malone, gymnastics: Brody Malone capped a historic freshman campaign, capturing the all-around crown with a career-best 85.832 at the NCAA Championships to guide Stanford to the title. He also claimed the national title on floor and high bar to become the first Cardinal in program history to win three titles in one season. Malone is just the third freshman in NCAA history to win the all-around title.

Football's "Set The Expectation" initiative in the fight against sexual assault ... two-time team captain ... head coach David Shaw: "Alameen is very serious about everything he does. He's very serious about what he believes, about how hard he works, but he's also approachable. The guys love him and they respond to him. Even with guys his own age, he just seems older and more mature. The example that Alameen puts out there is a guy who does everything right, works extremely hard, says what he means and means what he says. He's just a great example to follow."

RYAN SHEPPARD

GYMNASTICS - ENGINEERING PHYSICS/ SUSTAINABILITY SCIENCE AND PRACTICE

The Neil Papiano Scholarship
The Buck/Cardinal Club

NCAA champion (team) ... ranked eighth nationally on high bar (13.975), ninth on parallel bars (14.113) and 14th on high bar (14.213) ... won four event titles (2 FX, PB, HB) ... competes for Hungarian National Team ... two-time MPSF All-Academic ...

team captain ... head coach Thom Glielmi: "Ryan was slated to compete on all six events for us in the NCAA finals. On the day of the competition he felt ill. In the warm-ups he was depleting rapidly. He struggled to convey his physical status, wanting desperately to compete for the team. It was clear he was not strong enough to get through all six events. We asked if he could compete on horizontal bar and pommel horse. He said he would get it done. On horizontal bar he struggled, but gutted out the finish. After the event, he stated he had nothing in the tank, and with tears in his eyes, said he believed the replacement athlete would be able to execute a better routine on pommel horse. I cannot imagine how difficult it was for him to pull himself off the events in order to give the team the best chance to win. Although he wasn't able to contribute more as a competitor, his selfless evaluation of his abilities, and trust in his teammates allowed us to go on to win the NCAA title."

Volleyball is only a small part of what makes Kathryn special. She is a great student, she is heavily involved in the community and campus. She is also one of the humblest and hardest working athletes I have ever been around. She represents volleyball in the most respectful, classiest way possible. It is truly my honor to coach her!"

AWARD NAMES DEFINED

Thomas W. Ford Community Service Award – Thomas Ford had a profound impact on the Stanford community. He worked at Stanford for 11 years beginning in 1955 as a legal counsel in the business office, then advanced to the university's director of land development. He served on the Stanford Athletics Board and The Board of Trustees. In 1989, the Ford Center for Sports and Recreation was dedicated in his honor. Community service was important to him, and he funded many service initiatives in the athletics department. This award was established in memory of Tom in the late 1990s.

Sherry Posthumus Club Sports Team of the Year Award – Sherry Posthumus was an assistant athletics director at Stanford for nearly 25 years before her death in 2007. She was the manager of the men's and women's U.S. Olympic fencing teams in 1988, 1992, and 1996, and was instrumental in developing the Stanford fencing program. This award was established in her memory by her colleagues in the athletics department in 2008.

Shirley Schoof Club Sports Athlete of the Year Award – Shirley Schoof retired in 1999 after working for 35 years for the athletics department. She was a physical education instructor and coach, and served for 20 years as an assistant athletics director. This award was established in her name in 2004 to recognize the impact that Schoof made on the university in the areas of physical education, club sports, and wellness.

Arthur F. Dauer Memorial Sports Performance Award – Arthur Dauer, '59, was a dedicated volunteer who served on many local boards, including the Stanford Athletics Board. This award was established by the Dauer family in 2009.

Bob Murphy Award – Bob Murphy, '53, played baseball for Stanford and became the passionate voice of Cardinal sports from 1965 until his retirement in 2007. As an emcee, Murphy shared his "...unparalleled knowledge of Stanford sports history..." during Stanford competitions. This award was established in 2008 in honor of his service as a broadcaster for the Cardinal.

Jake Gimbel Award – Jacob "Jake" Gimbel was a well-known philanthropist in the 1930s who established this award to recognize a senior who, "Shall have shown the best mental attitude toward athletics."

Pam Strathairn Award – Pamela Strathairn, '45, MA '49, EDD '62, was the women's physical education director at Stanford during the enactment of Title IX. She worked, not only to comply with Title IX, but also to lay the foundation for women's athletics at Stanford. She was a leader in athletics administration when the men's and women's departments merged in 1975, creating a model program for universities across the nation. This award was established to honor and recognize Strathairn for her support of female student-athletes at Stanford.

Dick and Anne Gould Captain's Award – Dick Gould, '59, MA '60, played tennis for Stanford and was the Stanford head men's tennis coach for 38 years from 1966-2004. His Stanford teams won 17 NCAA Championships, and 50 of his players won All-America honors. He went on to serve as the John L. Hinds Director of Tennis until his retirement in 2018. Anne Gould, '72, MA '80, played tennis for Stanford and was the women's tennis coach for four years, coaching the Cardinal's first national championship women's team before retiring as head coach to become a tennis instructor on The Farm. This award was established by the Goulds in 2007.

Biff Hoffman Award – Clifford "Biff" Hoffman, '29, played football for Stanford. Under the legendary Coach Pop Warner, Hoffman helped Stanford secure its first Rose Bowl victory in 1928. As a track and field student-athlete, Hoffman set an NCAA discus record helping Stanford win the 1925 NCAA Track and Field Championship.

Spirit of Stanford Award – Frank "Frankie" Albert, '42, played quarterback for Stanford, where he led the 1940 team to an undefeated season and a win at the Rose Bowl. The Spirit of Stanford is a 1942 feature film about the 1940 Stanford "Wow Boys" football squad, featuring star quarterback Frankie Albert. This award was established in 2009.

Donald Kennedy Award – Dr. Donald Kennedy served as Stanford's eighth president from 1980-1992. This award was named in Kennedy's honor upon his retirement as president for his incredible support of Stanford's student-athletes.

Al Masters Award – Al Masters, '24, was the athletics director at Stanford from 1925-1963. He is remembered as one of the most distinguished sports administrators in college history. This award was first presented in 1963 by KCBBS Radio in memory of Masters' passing.

Stanford Athletics Board

The mission of the Stanford Athletics Board is to enhance and protect the core values of the Stanford athletics department and Stanford University. To do so, the athletics board supports and nourishes athletic, physical education, and recreation programs at the university and works to ensure that all such programs operate under the highest standards of ethical conduct, sportsmanship, and integrity.

The Stanford Athletics Board was established in 1964 by the Stanford University Board of Trustees.
