THE OPENING KICKOFF

• The 2024 season concludes on Friday afternoon for Stanford football as the Cardinal takes on the San Jose State Spartans. The game is televised on CBS and kicks off at 1:00 pm PT.

• Friday will be the Cardinal's third Friday game of the season, but the first time playing on a short week as the previous Friday games came to begin the season and following a bye week. Stanford has not played two games in a six-day span since 2021.

• Stanford concluded ACC play on Saturday with the 127th Big Game at California. The Golden Bears retained The Axe with a 24-21 win. Stanford finished its first season of ACC action with a 2-6 record.

• In the loss at California, Justin Lamson ran for two touchdowns in the first quarter. With seven touchdowns on the season, Lamson set the Stanford quarterback single-season rushing touchdown record, surpassing the previous record of six by Jim Plunkett and Kevin Hogan.

• Stanford's defense was able to smother California in a variety of ways during the 127th Big Game. The Cardinal sacked Fernando Mendoza six times, producing the first six-sack game of the year by Stanford's defense and the team's most since the season-opening win at Hawai'i in 2023. Stanford also got a special teams turnover, giving the Card a turnover forced in 13 straight games going back to last season.

• Conversely, Stanford's offense did not turn the ball over against California, snapping a streak of 14 straight games with a turnover.

• Micah Ford threw his second touchdown pass of the season in the 127th Big Game, a two-yard score to Emmett Mosley V. He became the first Stanford non-QB with multiple touchdown passes in a season since Christian McCaffrey in 2015.

• 16 different Cardinal have made their first collegiate starts in 2024. That is tied for the eighth most in FBS and leads the ACC. 19 players have also made their collegiate debuts this year, totaling 42 collegiate debuts in the first two years under Troy Taylor.

• Friday's game against SJSU is a revival of the Bill Walsh Legacy Game. The name was given to the once-annual rivalry following Walsh's death in 2007. Walsh graduated from San Jose State and coached at Stanford for five seasons across two stints.

CONTENT & WORKPLACE POLICIES

1. Video clips of in-game competition, live or otherwise, online or via social media networks are not permitted. Still photos may be shared online and across social platforms during the game.

2. Any non-editorial or commercial use of any picture, audio, film, tape, or digital image or drawing of the event is prohibited without prior, specific, written authorization from the host institution.

3. Internet usage in all media areas, including media work areas, stadium pressbox, digital work room and the field, is for work-related purposes only. Media members who do not follow the proper internet procedures may have their credentials and internet access revoked for the remainder of the event.

4. Media should respect the work environment of their colleagues by maintaining a quiet and professional atmosphere in all working media areas. The press box will close three hours after the conclusion of the game.

FIELD ACCESS & SIDELINE POLICY

Field access is limited to photographers, videographers and sideline reporters whose job function requires them to work from field level. Print media, and anyone working out of the press box, will only be permitted on the field for the final five minutes of games. No interviews should be conducted on the field.

1. Photo credentials will be issued only to accredited media outlets prior to the game and photo identification must be provided.

2. Photographers and videographers must check in at media will call located at Gate 8 of the stadium. Those photographers and videographers who will work on the sidelines will be issued a photo vest. This photo vest must be worn at all times to gain access to the sidelines. Vests must be returned after the game at the on-field dropoff location situated next to the south endzone tunnel.

3. Only working photographers and videographers with professional-grade cameras will be allowed on the field. Those without proper equipment or not shooting the game will be escorted from the sidelines regardless of credential.

4. Working photographers and videographers are permitted to shoot in the designated area (between the two marked dotted lines outside the 20-yard lines and behind the end zone).

5. Photographers are encouraged to use the photo work areas, located on Level 3 of Stanford Stadium and the media room on Level 2 of the fieldhouse. Wireless internet is available. While security in this area is provided, Stanford University is not responsible for the loss of any items.

6. According to NCAA policies, the presence of any type of photographer and videographer in the bench area for all sports is strictly prohibited with the exception of one (1) institutional videographer in the football bench area. According to the NCAA Football Rules and Interpretations Manual (Rule 1, Section 2, Article 4b): "the team area shall be limited to squad members in uniform and a maximum of 40 other individuals directly involved in the game. The 40 individuals not in uniform shall wear special identification." (Rule 1, Section 2, Article 4e): "No media personnel, including journalists, radio and television personnel, or their equipment, shall be in the team area or coaching box, and no media personnel shall communicate in any way with persons in the team area or coaching box." Stanford Athletics prohibits photographers and videographers from stopping and shooting from behind the bench area or into the bench area.

GAME NOTES

THE MATCHUP

- The Bill Walsh Legacy Game returns on Friday afternoon at CEFCU Stadium in San Jose.
- Named after San Jose State alum and former Stanford head coach Bill Walsh, these two Bay Area programs met on a near-annual basis from 1948-2013. Stanford owns a 52-14-1 record against the Spartans.
- The last meeting of these teams came in 2013 when Stanford opened its season with a 34-13 win over San Jose State. Tyler Gaffney scored twice on the ground and Kevin Hogan threw two touchdown passes.
- The last time Stanford played at San Jose State, the Spartans defeated the Cardinal 35-34 despite a four-touchdown performance from Stanford quarterback Trent Edwards. It remains the only win for San Jose State at home against Stanford in just four tries.
- The Stanford-San Jose State rivalry has five future dates on the calendar. These teams will play at Stanford in 2025, 2028 and 2034. San Jose State will host in 2026 and 2035.

THIS DATE IN STANFORD HISTORY...

...the Cardinal made history by beating No. 12 Arizona 29-24 in 1986. The game was played as the Coca-Cola Bowl in Tokyo, Japan, the first time Stanford played a game in Asia. Held at Memorial Stadium, home of the 1964 Olympic Games, Brad Muster rushed for 108 yards and a touchdown. He became just the second Cardinal to eclipse 1,000 yards on the ground, joining Darrin Nelson. Greg Ennis, taking over for John Paye at quarterback, had two touchdowns and Kevin Scott returned a kickoff for a touchdown in the fourth quarter.

HEAD COACH TROY TAYLOR

Troy Taylor is in his second season as the Bradford M. Freeman Director of Football, Andrew Luck Director of Offense and Kevin M. Hogan Quarterbacks Coach in 2024.

During his first season, the program improved in several key areas. The Stanford offense held onto the ball at a far greater rate, ranking top-40 in the NCAA in time of possession (31:17) while cutting down its turnover margin by nine. Explosive plays were much more common as well, with twice as many 40+-yard passing plays as 2022, the most for the team since 2019. The Cardinal went 3-2 on the road, posting its first winning record away from The Farm in a non-COVID season since 2018.

In his Stanford debut, Taylor became the 23rd head coach in program history to win his coaching debut, as the Cardinal defeated Hawai'i on the road 37-24. In the victory, the Stanford defense recorded six sacks for the first time since 2018.

The Cardinal also produced the largest comeback win in program history during his first season on The Farm, beating Colorado 46-43 in double overtime after trailing 29-0 at halftime. It is the fourth-largest comeback win in Pac-12 history, the second-largest road comeback in Pac-12 history, and featured the most points (46) scored in a half in Stanford history. Elic Ayomanor set the Stanford single-game receiving record with 294 receiving yards in the victory. Two weeks later against No. 5 Washington, Ashton Daniels produced the second most yards in a single game by a Stanford quarterback (448) in program history.

Taylor, the 35th head coach in program history, was hired on Dec. 10, 2022, by Jaquish & Kenninger Director of Athletics Bernard Muir. At Sacramento State, Taylor guided the Hornets to a 30-8 mark in four seasons and a berth in the FCS quarterfinals for the first time in school history. Prior to the 2022 season, Sacramento State had never won an FCS Playoff game in its program history.

Taylor led a high-powered Sacramento State team to a 12-1 record in 2022, with the Hornets ranking fourth nationally in scoring offense (42.9 ppg), fourth in total offense (499.8 ypg) and seventh in rushing offense (243.3 ypg). Sacramento State is the only FCS program that averaged at least 240 yards passing and 240 yards rushing per game, averaging 256.5 yards per game through the air and 243.3 on the ground.

Taylor was hired as head coach at Sacramento State on Dec. 17, 2018, inheriting a program that had compiled three two-win seasons in the prior four-year stretch. Taylor immediately turned the Hornets into nine-game winners in his first season, guiding the program to its first three Big Sky championships (the program opted out of the 2021 spring season) and its first FCS Playoff appearances in school history, despite competing at the FCS level since 1994 and in the Big Sky Conference since 1996.

In 2022, Taylor's Hornets set the school record for victories in a season. Running back Cameron Skattebo was named Big Sky Offensive MVP, nickelback Marte Mapu was the Defensive MVP and Taylor was Co-Coach of the Year. Overall, 17 players were honored by the Big Sky, as Taylor was also named AFCA Regional Coach of the Year. Sacramento State's season came to a close with a 66-63 defeat in the FCS Quarterfinals.

As a player, Taylor guided Cordova High School to a 14-0 record and a section championship while being named the Northern California Player of the Year in 1985. Taylor continued his career at Cal, where he was the starting quarterback for the Golden Bears from 1986-89. Taylor led the Pac-10 in total offense as a senior and left Cal as the all-time leading passer with 8,126 yards. He was drafted by the New York Jets in the fourth round of the 1990 NFL Draft.

OFF THE COACHING CAROUSEL

It's rare to find collegiate staffs with complete continuity, but that is what Stanford achieved heading into the 2024 season. With Bradford M. Freeman Director of Football Troy Taylor returning for his second season, the entire coaching staff is back for year two on The Farm. Stanford is one of seven programs in the country to return its entire staff, joining Utah, Liberty, Louisville, NC State, Wake Forest, and Florida State.

FIRST CAREER SCORES

Stanford has had nine players record a career-first touchdown this season:

- Jackson Harris - Aug. 30 vs. TCU
- Ismael Cisse - Aug. 30 vs. TCU
- Justin Lamson (first passing TD) - Aug. 30 vs. TCU
- Sam Roush - Sept. 7 vs. Cal Poly

- Mitch Leigber (first defensive TD) - Sept. 20 at Syracuse
- Emmett Mosley V - Sept. 28 at No. 17 Clemson
- Micah Ford (first passing TD) - Oct. 5 vs. Virginia Tech
- Tevarua Tafiti (first defensive TD) - Oct. 26 vs. Wake Forest

DASHIN' ASHTON

It's no secret that Ashton Daniels has the ability to create on the run and use his legs for big plays. That was on full display at NC State as Daniels etched his name in the Stanford record book with one of the best single-game rushing performances by a Cardinal quarterback.

It started in the first quarter when Daniels broke loose for a 67-yard touchdown run. That run was the longest Stanford run since 2022 and the longest run by a Stanford quarterback in at least the last 20 years. The only other 60-yard run by a Cardinal QB was by Keller Chryst in 2016 (62 yards).

Daniels finished the game with 129 rushing yards, which ties the Stanford record for rushing yards in a game by a quarterback. Don Bunce held the record outright since his 1969 performance against Washington State. His 578 rushing yards on the season are the most by a Stanford quarterback in a single season.

MORE QB RUSHING RECORDS

Not only has Ashton Daniels been using his legs all season long, but so too has backup quarterback Justin Lamson. Used primarily in short-yardage situations, Lamson has proven to be one of the best running quarterbacks in the NCAA.

Lamson scored twice in the first quarter against California, his sixth and seventh rushing touchdowns of the season. He now holds the Stanford record for most rushing touchdowns in a season by a quarterback. The previous record of six was held by Jim Plunkett (1968) and Kevin Hogan (2015).

Nationally, Lamson is tied for 13th at the quarterback position in rushing touchdowns. Only Hayes King of Georgia Tech has more rushing touchdowns among ACC quarterbacks.

SACKS COME BACK

After the pass rush vanished for a few games, Stanford's defense returned with ferocity against California.

The Cardinal piled up six sacks of Fernando Mendoza in the 127th Big Game, a season-high for Stanford's defense. It is the second time under Willie Shaw Director of Defense Bobby April that the defense has recorded six sacks in a game after not having done so since 2018.

Zach Buckey was the star of the defensive line for the Cardinal, with a three-sack performance. He entered the game with only one-half sack in his entire career. The most recent three-sack game by a Cardinal was David Bailey against Hawai'i on Sept. 1, 2023.

Tobin Phillips, Tristan Sinclair, and Gaethan Bernadel all added sacks against the Golden Bears. For Phillips, it established a new career-best with 3.5 sacks on the season.

THIS FORD GETS IT DONE IN THE AIR

Freshman running back Micah Ford leads the running back room with 304 rushing yards, but his two touchdowns this season have come throwing the football. The former high school quarterback has passing touchdowns against Virginia Tech and California, his only two collegiate passing attempts.

With his two-yard touchdown to Emmett Mosley V against the Golden Bears, he became the first Stanford non-quarterback with multiple passing touchdowns in a season since Christian McCaffrey did so in 2015.

CARDINAL > CARDINALS

Stanford picked up a massive ranked win at home on Nov. 16, defeating No. 22 Louisville 38-35 on a game-winning field goal by Emmet Kenney. The win was the first ranked win under Troy Taylor.

It was the first ranked win for Stanford since Oct. 3, 2021 against No. 3 Oregon, snapping a streak of 16 straight losses to ranked opponents.

Stanford had not won at home against an FBS team since Oct. 22, 2022 against Arizona State. The team's 38 points scored were its most against an FBS team at home since 2019 when Stanford scored 41 points against Arizona.

MOSLEY V BREAKS OUT

The star of the show against No. 22 Louisville was true freshman wide receiver Emmett Mosley V, who set Stanford records with the best individual performance by a Cardinal receiver this season.

Mosley V finished the game with 13 receptions for 168 yards and three touchdowns. The 13 catches are the most by a true freshman in Stanford history and tied for the sixth-most in a single game by any receiver. He became the first true freshman receiver with three touchdowns in a game and his 168 yards are the third-most in a single game. He trails only Mark Harris (189 in 1993) and Richard Sherman (177 in 2006).

Mosley scored on a 62-yard catch-and-run in the first quarter for his first touchdown of the day, the longest pass play by the Cardinal in 2024. His third score came on a fourth-and-one pass from Justin Lamson, resulting in a 25-yard touchdown to tie the game at 35-35.

GAME NOTES

KEEP CALM, KENNEY

Emmet Kenney has excelled in his first season as Stanford's starting placekicker. He is 13-for-16 on field goal attempts and has kicked a pair of game-winning field goals as time expired. Both of Stanford's ACC wins have come with Kenney nailing the game-winning field goal.

His 52-yard field goal that downed No. 22 Louisville was the longest of his career and the second-longest walk-off field in the history of Stanford Stadium. Only Ken Naber made a longer walk-off winner, a 56-yarder on Oct. 6, 1979 against UCLA. Stanford Stadium had not seen a walk-off field goal since Conrad Ukropina's 45-yard field goal that beat No. 6 Notre Dame in 2015.

ACC AWARDS

In Stanford's first season in the Atlantic Coast Conference, seven weekly awards have been won by five different Cardinal players:

- David Bailey - Linebacker of the Week (Week 4)
- Ashton Daniels - Quarterback of the Week (Week 12)
- Micah Ford - Rookie of the Week (Week 5)
- Emmett Kenney - Specialist of the Week (Week 4, 12)
- Emmett Mosley V - Receiver of the Week, Rookie of the Week (Week 12)

ALWAYS AGGRESSIVE

It's well known that Troy Taylor likes to make aggressive calls and that is on full display this season. Stanford ranks second in the country in fourth-down attempts, having gone for it on fourth down 36 times in 11 games, tied for third-most in the country.

With 20 fourth-down conversions, Stanford is tied for fifth in the NCAA. Four times in the Troy Taylor era, the Cardinal has converted three fourth downs in a game, which is tied for the most fourth-down conversions in a single game in Stanford history.

FRESHMAN FLAVOR

2023 was a season of development for the Cardinal. 20 players made their collegiate debuts in 2023 and 18 made their first career starts.

Stanford had 2,112 snaps taken by freshmen in Coach Taylor's first season on The Farm, the seventh most freshmen snaps in the FBS. Four ACC teams were included on the list, including the top three teams: Clemson, South Carolina, and Miami.

So far in 2024, 3,304 snaps have been taken by Stanford freshmen, far more than a season ago. 19 true freshmen have made their collegiate debuts in 2024.

This puts Stanford among one of the youngest teams in 2024. 16 different players have made their first collegiate starts this season for the Cardinal, which is tied for sixth in the country among first-time starters and is the most in the ACC.

THE KIDS ARE MAKING PLAYS

One of the youngest positions the Cardinal fields on a weekly basis is the wide receiver group, but that has not stopped them from making plays. Stanford has had a plethora of young pass catchers during the season, proving that this position can be a strength for years to come.

Only three upperclassmen (Sam Roush, Mudia Reuben, Ryan Butler) have caught passes this season. 83.0% of Stanford's receiving yards have come from either sophomores or freshmen, by far the highest percentage in the country.

MIND YOUR (AYO)MANOR

Continuing to build on a breakout 2023 season, Elic Ayomanor is one of the most dangerous receivers in the ACC and has shown his big-play ability throughout his redshirt sophomore season.

Ayomanor scored a touchdown in three consecutive games to begin ACC play, the longest such streak of his career. He became the first Cardinal with touchdown receptions in three-or-more games in a row since Brycen Tremayne did so in the first five games of 2021. His six touchdowns are tied for a career-best, matching his total from 2023.

Last season, Ayomanor became the first Cardinal since J.J. Arcega-Whiteside in 2018 to pile up over 1,000 receiving yards in a season. He also recorded the most receiving yards in a game in Stanford history with 294 at Colorado, surpassing the previous record of 278 yards by Troy Walters on September 25, 1999.

GIVE ME THAT!

Stanford has shown a knack for taking the ball away from the opposition in 2024. With one more turnover forced against California, Stanford's defense has 15 turnovers in 11 games after producing just 11 during the entire 2023 season. Tied for 57th in the country in turnovers forced, Stanford is also tied for 35th in fumbles recovered with seven.

Not only have they forced turnovers, but Stanford has scored two defensive touchdowns this season. It is the first time Stanford has had multiple defensive touchdowns since 2019 and the first time with both a fumble and interception return for a touchdown in the same season since 2016.

STRENGTH OF SCHEDULE

In its first season in the ACC, the Cardinal has had a brutal schedule that has been one of the toughest in the country. Despite only having faced three ranked teams, Stanford's strength of schedule is the 14th-hardest in college football. Nine of the teams ahead of Stanford are SEC teams. Florida State is the only ACC team with a more challenging schedule. Stanford has played five teams in the top 35 of ESPN's FPI Power Rankings.

SCOOP 'N SCORE

An early momentum-changer against Wake Forest came from Tevarua Tafiti. The edge rusher recorded a strip-sack of Hank Bachmeier, picked up the loose ball and ran it back 44 yards for a Stanford touchdown, tying the game 14-14 in the second quarter.

Tafiti's defensive touchdown is the first of his career and the second of the season for Stanford's defense. It is the first fumble recovery for a touchdown by the Cardinal since Jonathan McGill did so at No. 17 UCF on Sept. 14, 2019.

LEAVE IT TO LEIGBER

One of the biggest plays in Stanford's thrilling win over Syracuse was the interception return for a touchdown by Mitch Leigber. At the time putting Stanford up 20-10, Leigber made Stanford history in the process.

Taking the interception 71 yards to the house, Leigber scored the first defensive touchdown for the Cardinal in over three years, with Kyu Blu Kelly's pick-six against USC on Sept. 11, 2021 as the last defensive score. It goes in the books as the longest interception return for Stanford since Wopamo Osaisai in 2006, and is tied for the sixth-longest in Stanford history. Leigber is tied for the team lead with two interceptions this season.

Not only did Leigber provide a huge spark, but he also made Stanford history by scoring a defensive touchdown. Leigber was forced to play running back in 2022 due to injuries to the running back room and wound up scoring twice. Now with a defensive touchdown on his résumé, he becomes the first Cardinal since Owen Marecic (2007-10) to score an offensive and defensive touchdown in his career.

ACC HISTORY

The Cardinal went on the road in its ACC debut and took down Syracuse 26-24. It was the first time since 1919 that Stanford played a conference game as a new member.

Stanford joined seven other full-time schools - Duke, North Carolina, Maryland, Florida State, Miami, Louisville and Virginia Tech, as well as Notre Dame (2020) - in winning its first conference game as a member of the ACC. SMU became the ninth team to do so when it won its first ACC game on Sept. 28. Only Duke's and Maryland's wins also came on the road, both in 1953.

RECENT DRAFT SUCCESS

The Cardinal has had 56 draft picks since 2010, second-most by a West Coast school behind only USC. Stanford is tied for 14th nationally with nine consensus All-Americans since 2010, and its 21 Academic All-Americans in that span is the most among FBS schools.

Since 2000, the number of draft picks to come out of Stanford is fourth among current ACC schools with 86, trailing only Miami, Florida State, and Clemson. In the 2024 NFL Draft, the Cardinal saw Joshua Karty get drafted by the Los Angeles Rams in the sixth round. He became the 281st all-time player to be drafted out of Stanford, and the first specialist since Jake Bailey in 2019.

Since 2010, Stanford has appeared in nine bowl games, including three Rose Bowl Games, an Orange Bowl and a Fiesta Bowl.

STANFORD IN THE NFL

There is a rich tradition of Stanford success in the NFL, and that tradition is still alive in the 2024 NFL season. There is actively 29 former Cardinal signed with NFL organizations.

The two-time defending Super Bowl champion Kansas City Chiefs are led in the secondary by Justin Reid. The Chiefs have the best record in the NFL at 10-1 and Reid has contributed with 62 tackles, three pass breakups, and an interception.

The reigning Offensive Player of the Year, Christian McCaffrey, returned from injured reserve prior to Week 10. He scored 21 touchdowns last year and led the league in rushing yards with 1,459.

Multiple Arizona Cardinals who are former Cardinal have found the end zone early in 2024. Michael Wilson scored the first touchdown of the year for Arizona and has tied a career-best with three on the season. His teammate Elijah Higgins has a pair of touchdowns and drew his first start earlier in the season.

Sticking on the tight end theme, five tight ends have started games this season. Zach Ertz is on the upstart Washington Commanders and ranks sixth in the league among tight ends in receptions (49) and ninth in receiving yards (466). He has three touchdowns, including two in the last two games.

The most recent member of #StanfordNFL is Joshua Karty, selected by the Los Angeles Rams in the sixth round of the 2024 NFL Draft. Karty has been solid for the Rams through ten games, going 16-21 on field goals and 21-23 on extra points. He nailed a game-winning 37-yard field goal against the 49ers in Week 3, his first professional game-winning field goal.

WHERE THEY'RE FROM

Stanford student-athletes on this year's roster hail from 28 states, plus Canada.

There are a total of 14 student-athletes from Texas, the largest representation of student-athletes from outside of California (31) on the team. Behind Texas is Georgia (8), Florida (7), and New Jersey (6). Three student-athletes are from Canada (Elic Ayomanor, Brendan Delaney, Benedict Umeh).

Total: California (31), Texas (14), Georgia (8), Florida (7), New Jersey (6), Colorado (4), Massachusetts (4), Tennessee (4), Arizona (2), Louisiana (2), Michigan (2), Mississippi (2), Utah (2), Virginia (2), Wisconsin (2),

GERHART'S GREATNESS

On January 8, the National Football Foundation and College Hall of Fame announced Toby Gerhart as a member of the 2024 College Football Hall of Fame Class, becoming the 20th Cardinal to join the College Hall of Fame.

Arriving to The Farm in 2006, Gerhart burst onto the national scene in 2008 by setting the Stanford single-season rushing record with 1,136 yards, becoming the fifth running back in school history to eclipse 1,000 yards in a season. He also added 15 touchdowns, which were the second most in program history.

That was just a drop in the bucket for what the 2009 season had in store for Gerhart, as he rewrote the Stanford rushing records completely. He compiled 1,871 rushing yards and 28 rushing touchdowns, both of which led the FBS and became new Stanford single-season records.

His historic 2009 season came with a whole host of awards and accolades, including a runner-up finish in the 2009 Heisman Trophy voting. He was named the Pac-10 Offensive Player of the Year, a unanimous First Team All-American, and won the Archie Griffin Award, Jim Brown Trophy, Doak Walker Award, and the Tom Hansen Medal.

In his four seasons on The Farm, Gerhart amassed 3,522 rushing yards as a Cardinal, the second most by a Stanford rusher in program history at the time of his graduation (now ranks fifth). He ran in 44 touchdowns, all but one of which came in his final two seasons, which are still the most in Stanford history. He also remains the Stanford all-time leader in 100-yard rushing games with 20, 11 of which came during the 2009 season.

A 2010 graduate of Stanford with a bachelor's degree in management science and engineering, Gerhart came back to the Farm to earn his Master of Business Administration degree in 2020. He was twice named to the All-Pac-10 Academic Team and was awarded by the Stanford football program with the Al Masters Award, given annually to the player who attains the highest standards of performance, academics, and leadership.

Gerhart will be the second Cardinal in the last three seasons inducted into the College Football Hall of Fame, with Andrew Luck being inducted in 2022. Gerhart becomes the seventh back in Stanford history to earn an induction into the College Football Hall of Fame, joining Ernie Nevers, Bobby Grayson, Bones Hamilton, Hugh Gallarneau, Monk Moscrip, and Darrin Nelson.

STEPFÁN JOINS STANFORD HOF

The Stanford Athletics Hall of Fame welcomed 10 former student-athletes Oct. 19, including the leading rusher in Stanford history, Stepfán Taylor.

The Class of 2024 included Nick Amuchastegui (wrestling), Maya DiRado Andrews (women's swimming and diving), Annika Dries (women's water polo), Matt Fuerbringer (men's volleyball), Teresa Noyola (women's soccer), Chinenye Ogwumike (women's basketball), Carlos Quentin (baseball), Patrick Rodgers (men's golf), Katerina Stefanidi (women's track and field) and Stepfán Taylor (football).

Taylor was a member of four bowl teams, highlighted by victories in the 2010 Orange Bowl and 2012 Rose Bowl Game. He is the school record holder in career rushing yards (4,300), rushing attempts (843) and total touchdowns (45). He was selected in the fifth round of the 2013 NFL Draft by the Arizona Cardinals and spent four seasons in the league.

HISTORIC 2024 OLYMPICS

Stanford concluded the 2024 Paris Olympic Games with a school-record 39 medals, shattering its previous best while cementing its reputation on the world's biggest stage as the nation's top collegiate program.

Boasting a school-record 59 Olympians with Cardinal ties, Stanford surpassed its all-time medals benchmark (27 overall at the 2016 Rio de Janeiro Games) while winning at least 20 medals for the sixth time in school history (2020, 2016, 2008, 1996, 1924). Additionally, Stanford has won 128 medals combined over the last five Summer Games.

Stanford's haul of 39 medals (12 gold, 14 silver, 13 bronze) is the most by any school at one Olympics. Counting medals won as part of the same relay, boat or team as one collective medal, Cardinal athletes accounted for 27 event medals at the 2024 Paris Games. If Stanford was a country, it would have finished tied with Canada for 11th place.

For the third consecutive edition of the Games, Stanford also totaled more Team USA selections (37) than any other school, accumulating 36 Team USA medals.

Stanford's affiliates have captured 335 overall medals (162 gold, 93 silver, 80 bronze) from 196 medalists. The Cardinal has produced at least one medalist in every Olympics in which the U.S. has competed since 1912. The Cardinal's 59 Olympians (20 male, 39 female) represented 14 countries across 20 varsity sports. Included among Stanford's contingent were 14 current student-athletes, 44 former student-athletes and one other institutional affiliate.

THE HOME OF CHAMPIONS

Stanford has won at least one NCAA team title in each of the past 48 academic years (dating back to the 1976-77 campaign), the longest streak in NCAA history. Stanford leads the NCAA with 136 team titles, including two national team championships during the 2023-24 campaign - men's gymnastics and women's golf - increasing its overall total to 167.

Stanford is one of six programs with at least one national championship in football, baseball and men's basketball and the only school with at least one in football, baseball, men's and women's basketball.

From 1994-2021, Stanford won 25 straight Division I Learfield Sports Directors' Cups. The Cardinal enters the 2024-25 year with 26 of the 30 total Directors' Cups, most recently capturing the elusive award during the 2022-23 season.

STANFORD SCORIGAMI

Scorigami is a concept developed by Jon Bois at SB Nation that has taken over social media in recent years. Scorigami tracks final scores that have never happened before, initially in the NFL, and now for Stanford football. Through Week 13 of the 2024 season, there have been 720 unique results in Stanford football history. The following are the Stanford Scorigami results for the 2024 season:

- TCU 34, Stanford 27. No Scorigami. Cardinal lost to Boston College by this score in 2002.
- Stanford 41, Cal Poly 7. No Scorigami. Cardinal beat Oregon by this score in 1986.
- Stanford 26, Syracuse 24. That's a Scorigami! This is the 715th unique result in Stanford football history.
- No. 17 Clemson 40, Stanford 14. That's a Scorigami! This is the 716th unique result in Stanford football history.
- Virginia Tech 31, Stanford 7. No Scorigami. Cardinal lost to No. 9 Notre Dame by this score in 2002.

NERD NATION

Stanford has long been regarded as one of the premier institutions in both athletics and academics, and the football team's tight end room exemplifies this on a yearly basis. Every tight end on the roster took his headshot with white tape in the middle of large black-rimmed glasses to signify "Nerd Nation," a movement that was created over a decade ago in 2013.

Following a 2013 win at Oregon, Shane Skov, Tyler Gaffney, and A.J. Tarpley showed up to the team's post-game press conference with those very same bulky glasses with tape over the bridge. Naturally, they were asked about it, they described it as embracing what it means to be a Stanford student-athlete. Skov explained, "It's Nerd Nation. We take pride in what we do."

One of the most prominent women's basketball alumni, Chiney Ogwumike, helped start the movement during a basketball shoot-around. She heard the popular song Rack City, by Tyga, and thought, "What if we changed that to 'Nerd City'?" She wound up writing full lyrics for a Stanford version, and with the help of her sister Nneka, rapped it in front of her teammates in the locker room before a film session.

It caught on and a music video was eventually created, which brought "Nerd Nation" into a brand new light. According to Chiney, who now works at ESPN as a basketball analyst, the point of it all was "to show at Stanford you can be a student and an athlete and still be cool. You can redefine what 'nerd' means to you."

2024 ACC FOOTBALL NOTES

Week 13 ACC Players of the Week:

QUARTERBACK– Fernando Mendoza, California, QB, Miami, Florida

- Mendonza completed 25-of-36 passes for 299 yards in Cal's 24-21 come-from-behind win over Stanford in the Big Game. He also matched his career-high with three touchdown passes, including the game-winner on a 98-yard drive with 2:40 left in the contest.

RUNNING BACK– Jay Haynes, Clemson, RB, Roanoke, Alabama

- Haynes rushed for a career-high 118 yards on five carries with two touchdowns against The Citadel. Haynes' performance marked the fourth time in Clemson history in which a Tiger ran for 100 or more yards on five or fewer carries. The two rushing touchdowns are a career-high for the redshirt freshman, while his 70-yard rushing touchdown was Clemson's second-longest rush of the season. He finished with 143 all-purpose yards after also logging a 25-yard kickoff return.

RECEIVER – Eli Pancol, Duke, WR, Pendleton, Indiana

- Pancol caught five passes for 188 yards and three touchdowns as Duke beat Virginia Tech 31-28 on Saturday. He matched the Duke single-game record with two touchdown receptions of 50 or more yards, recording scores of 86 and 77 yards. Pancol's 188 receiving yards marked the 13th-highest single-game total in Duke history while the 86-yard touchdown catch was the sixth-longest pass play in Duke history.

OFFENSIVE LINEMAN– Ozzy Trapilo, Boston College, RT, Norwell, Massachusetts

- Trapilo and the Boston College offensive line paved the way for 228 rushing yards and 192 passing yards in a 420-yard day for the Eagles' offense in a 41-21 win over North Carolina. The BC right tackle graded out at a team-best 85.9 from Pro Football Focus in pass blocking with zero pressures on 33 quarterback dropbacks.

DEFENSIVE LINEMAN – Donovan Ezeiruaku, Boston College, DE, Williamstown, New Jersey

- Ezeiruaku led the Boston College defense that compiled a season-high seven sacks in its 41-21 win over North Carolina with two sacks of his own. The Eagles' edge rusher pushed his season total to 13.0 sacks. Ezeiruaku also finished with six tackles and was credited with four quarterback hurries, which directly led to the Boston College secondary snagging three interceptions. Ezeiruaku and the Eagles' defensive line limited the Tar Heels to 36 total rushing yards and held Omarion Hampton, the second-leading rusher in FBS, to 53 rushing yards.

LINEBACKER – Stanquan Clark, Louisville, LB, Miami, Florida

- Clark recorded the first two interceptions of his career to go with seven total tackles, three of which were solo, in Louisville's 37-9 win over Pitt. With the help of Clark and the linebackers, the Cardinals held Pitt to 265 yards of total offense and just 75 yards on the ground. Clark is the first Louisville player with multiple interceptions in a game since Devin Neal logged two in the Cardinals' win over Notre Dame in 2023.

DEFENSIVE BACK – Mishael Powell, Miami, DB, Seattle, Washington

- Powell notched his career-best fifth interception of the season, running the pick back 76 yards for a touchdown. Powell's interception return is the longest by a Hurricane since Kam Kinchens went 99 yards to the house against Georgia Tech in 2022. The sixth-year safety also recorded a sack and broke up two passes in Miami's 42-14 win over Wake Forest. Led by Powell, Miami limited the Demon Deacons to 193 total yards, which marked the fewest the Hurricanes have allowed to an ACC opponent in nearly four years. The Hurricanes also shut out Wake Forest after the intermission, blanking a conference foe in the second half for the first time since November 27, 2021.

SPECIALIST – Aidan Birr, Georgia Tech, PK, Kennedale, Texas

- Birr made all three of his field goal attempts and all three extra-point attempts in Georgia Tech's 30-29 win over NC State. All 12 points from Birr proved to be critical as he became the first Yellow Jacket since 2010 to make three field goals from 40-yards or longer in a game. He also sent five of his six true kickoff attempts into the end zone for touchbacks.

ROOKIE – Aaron Philo, Georgia Tech, QB, Bogart, Georgia

- For the second straight week, Philo split time with starting quarterback Haynes King. In the Yellow Jackets' 30-29 win over NC State on Thursday, Philo logged career highs in passing yards (265), rushing yards (57) and total offense (322) to lift Georgia Tech to victory. Trailing by six with 90 seconds remaining in the game, he led Georgia Tech on a 7-play, 75-yard drive in just 1:08, capped by his 18-yard touchdown run with :22 left that lifted Tech to the win. His 265 passing yards and 322 yards of total offense were both the most by a Georgia Tech true freshman since 2020.

The 2024 ACC Football Championship Game will kick off in primetime at 8 p.m. ET on ABC on Saturday, Dec. 7, at Bank of America Stadium in Charlotte, North Carolina. Tickets for the 2024 Atlantic Coast Conference Football Championship Game are on sale now at Ticketmaster.com and through the ACC's official website at theACC.com.

COACHING STAFF

TROY TAYLOR

BRADFORD M. FREEMAN DIRECTOR OF FOOTBALL
ANDREW LUCK DIRECTOR OF OFFENSE
KEVIN M. HOGAN QUARTERBACKS COACH
2ND SEASON AT STANFORD | 23RD SEASON OVERALL

Troy Taylor enters his second season as the Bradford M. Freeman Director of Football, Andrew Luck Director of Offense and Kevin M. Hogan Quarterbacks Coach in 2023.

During his first season, the program improved in several key areas. The Stanford offense held onto the ball at a far greater rate, ranking top-40 in the NCAA in time of possession (31:17) while cutting down its turnover margin by nine. Explosive plays were much more common as well, with twice as many 40+-yard passing plays as 2022, the most for the team since 2019. The Cardinal went 3-2 on the road, posting its first winning record away from The Farm in a non-COVID season since 2018.

In his Stanford debut, Taylor became the 23rd head coach in program history to win his coaching debut, as the Cardinal defeated Hawai'i on the road 37-24. In the victory, the Stanford defense recorded six sacks for the first time since 2018. The Cardinal also produced the largest comeback win in program history during his first season on The Farm, beating Colorado 46-43 in double overtime after trailing 29-0 at halftime. It is the fourth-largest comeback win in Pac-12 history, the second-largest road comeback in conference history, and featured the most points (46) scored in a half in Stanford history. Elic Ayomanor set the Stanford single game receiving record with 294 receiving yards in the victory. Two weeks later against No. 5 Washington, Ashton Daniels produced the second most yards in a single game by a Stanford quarterback (448) in program history.

Taylor, the 35th head coach in program history, was hired on Dec. 10, 2022, by Jaquish & Kenninger Director of Athletics Bernard Muir. At Sacramento State, Taylor guided the Hornets to a 30-8 mark in four seasons and a berth in the FCS quarterfinals for the first time in school history. Prior to the 2022 season, Sacramento State had never won an FCS Playoff game in its program history.

Taylor led a high-powered Sacramento State team to a 12-1 record in 2022, with the Hornets ranking fourth nationally in scoring offense (42.9 ppg), fourth in total offense (499.8 ypg) and seventh in rushing offense (243.3 ypg). Sacramento State is the only FCS program that averaged at least 240 yards passing and 240 yards rushing per game, averaging 256.5 yards per game through the air and 243.3 on the ground.

Taylor took over a Stanford program that has won 108 games since the start of the 2010 season - a total that ranks among the nation's top-20 - with 31 of those wins coming against top-25 opponents, tied for the eighth-best mark in the country in that span.

The Cardinal is 14th nationally with 50 draft picks since 2010, second-most in the Pac-12. Stanford is tied for eighth nationally with 10 consensus All-Americans since 2010, and its 15 Academic All-Americans in that span is five more than any other school nationally.

Since 2010, Stanford has appeared in nine bowl games, including three Rose Bowl Games, an Orange Bowl and a Fiesta Bowl.

Taylor was hired as head coach at Sacramento State on Dec. 17, 2018, inheriting a program that had compiled three two-win seasons in the prior four-year stretch. Taylor immediately turned the Hornets into nine-game winners in his first season, guiding the program to its first three Big Sky championships (the program opted out of the 2021 spring season) and its first FCS Playoff appearances in school history, despite competing at the FCS level since 1994 and in the Big Sky Conference since 1996.

In 2022, Taylor's Hornets set the school record for victories in a season. Running back Cameron Skattebo was named Big Sky Offensive MVP, nickelback Marte Mapu was the Defensive MVP and Taylor was Co-Coach of the Year. Overall, 17 players were honored by the Big Sky, as Taylor was also named AFCA Regional Coach of the Year. Sacramento State's season came to a close with a 66-63 defeat in the FCS Quarterfinals.

After opting not to play in the spring of the 2020-21 season, Taylor guided the Hornets to their second Big Sky Conference title in as many seasons in the fall of 2021. That year, Sacramento State posted an undefeated record of 8-0 in league games and earned another trip to the FCS Playoffs. Taylor was named the Big Sky Coach of the Year and was one of 17 finalists for the Eddie Robinson Award. Sacramento State finished ninth in total offense (463.9 ypg) and 22nd in total defense (329.7), while its scoring offense was 33rd (30.3) and scoring defense 15th (19.1).

In his first season with the Hornets, Taylor guided the team to a 9-4 overall record and a 7-1 league mark, which gave Sacramento State a share of the Big Sky Conference title for the first time in school history, and its first NCAA FCS Playoff berth. For those efforts, he was named the conference Coach of the Year and was the recipient of the Eddie Robinson Award (FCS national coach of the year).

Taylor was Utah's offensive coordinator and quarterbacks coach for two seasons (2017-18), helping the Utes to their first Pac-12 South Division title in program history in 2018. Taylor's Utah offenses featured a balanced attack both seasons, with running back Zack Moss eclipsing the 1,000-yard mark on the ground in back-to-back seasons. At least 16 different players caught passes in both seasons.

Prior to joining the FBS ranks, Taylor was the co-offensive coordinator and quarterbacks coach at Eastern Washington in 2016. That season, he directed the top passing offense in the FCS and set numerous national and school records. The Eagles averaged an FCS-best 401.0 passing yards per game, ranked second nationally with 529.6 yards per game and were third in scoring offense (42.4 ppg). EWU posted a 12-2 overall record and advanced to the FCS semifinals.

Under Taylor, sophomore Gage Gubrud set an NCAA FCS single-season record by passing for 5,160 yards while throwing 48 touchdown passes. Gubrud, the 2016 FCS Player of the Year by the Touchdown Club of Columbus, averaged 368.6 passing yards per game, which also led the nation. One of Gubrud's favorite targets was All-American Cooper Kupp, who caught 117 passes for 1,700 yards and 17 touchdowns before being selected by the Los Angeles Rams in the third round of the NFL Draft.

Taylor's success at Eastern Washington followed an illustrious run at Folsom High School, where he was co-head coach from 2012-15. The Bulldogs set numerous California state records, including the most points scored in a season. Folsom posted a 58-3 overall record, won the Sac-Joaquin Section title each season and claimed the 2014 CIF Division I championship with a 68-7 win over Oceanside. The team also set the California record for passing yards in four consecutive years.

Taylor was instrumental in the development of Jake Browning, who would become the 2016 Pac-12 Offensive Player of the Year for Washington. Taylor coached Browning from fifth grade until he graduated as one of the most prolific passers in prep history. Browning set national records for touchdowns in a season (91 in 2014, tied) and career (229, in just three seasons), while establishing a number of California state high school records as well, including season (5,790) and career (16,775) passing yards.

As a player, Taylor guided Cordova High School to a 14-0 record and a section championship while being named the Northern California Player of the Year in 1985. Taylor continued his career at Cal, where he was the starting quarterback for the Golden Bears from 1986-89. Taylor led the Pac-10 in total offense as a senior and left Cal as the all-time leading passer with 8,126 yards. He was drafted by the New York Jets in the fourth round of the 1990 NFL Draft.

Taylor's first coaching job was at Casa Roble High School in Orangevale, Calif., in 1994. The following year, Taylor was a graduate assistant at Colorado, where he worked with the wide receivers. He returned to Cal in 1996 and remained at his alma mater through the 1999 season, where he had stints coaching receivers, quarterbacks and tight ends. Taylor also served as Cal's recruiting coordinator in 1999.

Taylor left Cal to become an assistant athletics director at Christian Brothers High School (2000-01) in Sacramento, where he also taught and was an assistant football coach for one season (2000). He spent 2003-04 at Folsom High School as the co-head coach. Taylor stepped away from coaching after the 2004 season but remained in football, serving as the radio analyst for Cal from 2005-11.

Taylor, 56, and his wife, Tracey, have three children: sons, Noah and Aaron, and daughter, Ella.
