Mark Marquess, one of college baseball's legendary head coaches and a man whose name is synonymous with Stanford baseball, passed away on Friday, January 30. Affectionately known as "9" for the jersey number he wore that was retired following his final game in 2017, Marquess led the Cardinal to back-to-back NCAA titles in 1987-88 as part of a 41-season tenure overseeing the program that began in 1977.

"This man was Stanford baseball," said David Esquer, Stanford's Clarke and Elizabeth Nelson Director of Baseball. "He was my coach, and like a father to me. I wouldn't be where I am today without him. This is a great loss for the Stanford community, the Stanford baseball family and myself. I love that man."

Since arriving on The Farm as a two-sport athlete in baseball and football in the fall of 1965, Marquess' impact on Stanford baseball - and as a Team USA Olympic gold medal winning coach - was beyond measure, even by the benchmark of his long list of on-field accomplishments.

"We are deeply saddened and mourn the passing of Mark Marquess," said John Donahoe, Stanford's Jaquish & Kenninger Director and Chair of Athletics. "9 was a true icon in every sense and an ambassador for Stanford University. His contributions to developing young men both on and off the field was always at the forefront. 9 impacted countless lives in so many ways and we express our sincerest condolences to his family."

Perhaps more important than any of the wins or championships his club produced was the nature of the program he developed, both on and off the field. In his four decades associated with the school, Marquess was the architect of a Stanford program that became nationally recognized as one of winning baseball and producing quality student-athletes.

Inducted into the National College Baseball Hall of Fame in 2021, Marquess finished as the fourth-winningest coach in Division I history with a career record of 1,627-878-7 (.649). A member of the Stanford Athletics Hall of Fame, Marquess was also enshrined in the American Baseball Coaches' Association Hall of Fame in 1997 and the San Jose Sports Hall of Fame in 2017.

A three-time NCAA Coach of the Year recipient (1985, 1987-88) and nine-time Pac-10 Coach of the Year honoree (1983, 1985, 1987, 1990, 1994, 1997-99, 2003), Marquess guided his Stanford clubs to a pair of NCAA College World Series championships, 30 NCAA Tournament appearances, six NCAA Super Regional titles, 18 NCAA Regional crowns and 11 conference regular-season championships.

Stanford reached the College World Series a total of 14 times under Marquess, and advanced to the final on five occasions - including a stretch where the Cardinal finished as national runner-up three times during a school-record string of five consecutive trips to Rosenblatt Stadium from 1999-2003. The visits to Omaha were just two shy of Oklahoma State's NCAA-record run of seven in a row from 1981-87. Even more impressive, each of the 14 teams Marquess skippered to the College World Series won at least one game.

Marquess finished with a career 133-66 record in postseason play, including an 84-29 mark in the NCAA Regionals, a 13-10 ledger in the NCAA Super Regionals and a 36-25 record at the College World Series.

Over 200 Cardinal players were chosen in the MLB draft during his tenure, including 26 first-round or compensation picks since Jack McDowell became the first in 1987.

Marquess was also a well-known coach on the international level. In 1988, he won International Coach of the Year honors after leading the United States Olympic team to a gold medal at the Olympic Games in Seoul, South Korea. Marquess guided his club to a 4-1 record, defeating Japan 5-3, to capture the first gold medal in baseball for the United States.

Prior to arriving in Seoul, Marquess led the national team to the silver medal at the World Amateur Baseball Championships in Italy. As head coach of the USA National Team, Marquess skippered the club to a silver medal at the 1987 Intercontinental Cup Tournament in Cuba. Serving as head coach of USA Baseball in 1981, Marquess guided the U.S. collegiate team to a gold medal at the World Games in Santa Clara.

From 1989-98, Marquess served as president of USA Baseball, an organization that handles all aspects of amateur baseball - from the youth level through the college-aged player and the Olympic squad.

Marquess' success as a coach can be traced to his days as a player. A three-year starter at first base for Stanford (1967-69), he earned first-team All-America honors in 1967 and garnered second-team All-America recognition in 1968. He was also named first-team All-Pac-8 and All-District-8 in 1967-68. Marquess' name is still etched in the school's record book, as his .404 batting average in 1967 ranks fifth all-time on the school's single-season list and his 15 career triples are tied for fifth.

Marquess competed on the 1967 USA Pan American Games team that captured the gold medal. One of the greatest two-sport athletes ever on The Farm, he completed his collegiate baseball career with three seasons on the Stanford football squad as a quarterback, split end, defensive back and punt returner.

After graduation, Marquess signed with the Chicago White Sox organization in 1969 and spent four seasons as a professional baseball player before getting a taste of coaching as a player and coach with Des Moines' Triple-A team in 1973.

Prior to his appointment as head coach at Stanford in 1977, Marquess spent five seasons (1972-76) as an assistant under Ray Young on The Farm. Marquess was named the inaugural Clarke and Elizabeth Nelson Director of Baseball, when the Nelsons, through a large gift to the baseball program, endowed the position in 1987.

After winning the College World Series and Olympic gold medal in 1988, he was asked to throw out the first pitch before Game 4 of the 1988 World Series on Oct. 19 at the Oakland Coliseum. President Ronald Reagan later honored Marquess and the Olympic championship squad at a White House reception.

A relationship-builder in every aspect, Marquess believed in recognizing the efforts of those associated with his program and the broader athletics department. Marquess was a driving force behind the creation of the Kathy Wolff Award, named after the passing of his longtime administrative assistant and designed to annually recognize any department staff member who displays a passion for Stanford and ongoing desire to help and support their colleagues.

Following his Stanford tenure, Marquess had served as special assistant to the director of athletics at Santa Clara since October 2018.

Marquess earned his bachelor's degree in political science from Stanford in 1969. He completed his master's degree in political science at San Jose State in 1976.

Marquess is survived by his loving wife, Susan, and their three daughters, Bridget, Anne and Maureen.

David Esquer '87 was named Stanford's Clarke and Elizabeth Nelson Director of Baseball on June 16, 2017, becoming the 21st head coach in program history.

Esquer succeeded Mark Marquess, who retired after 41 years at the helm of the program. Esquer played under Marquess on Stanford's 1987 national championship team, and served as an assistant on The Farm from 1991-96. Prior to taking over the reins at Stanford, Esquer spent the previous 18 seasons as the head coach at California, where he was the 20th National Coach of the Year and led the Bears to five NCAA Regionals and the 2011 College World Series.

The 2026 season is Esquer's ninth in charge of the program, having guided Stanford to the 2018, 2022 and 2023 Pac-12 Conference championships, the inaugural 2022 Pac-12 Conference Tournament championship, five NCAA Regional appearances, four NCAA Super Regional appearances, and three consecutive College World Series appearances in 2021, 2022 and 2023.

Esquer has amassed a 281-160 (.637) overall record while at the helm of the Stanford program. He owns a career record of 806-627-2 while managing his 27th season as a collegiate head coach. Included in the overall ledger was a 334-318 record in Pac-12 play, including a 116-60 mark while at Stanford.

Esquer was named Pac-12 Coach of the Year four times in his career, earning the honor in 2018, 2022 and 2023 with Stanford, and in 2001 at California. The 2022 and 2023 ABCA West Region Coach of the Year won his 100th game as Stanford's head coach on March 4, 2021 as the Cardinal walked off with a 7-6 victory over San Francisco in 10 innings. His 300th career Pac-12 win came against USC on May 21, 2022 to claim sole possession of 2022 Pac-12 title, while his 700th career win came in a 5-4 triumph vs. Arizona on May 28, 2022 at the Pac-12 Tournament. Esquer reached the 800-win plateau with a 6-3 victory at NC State on May 17, 2025. In total as a head coach, Esquer has guided his teams to 10 postseason appearances and four College World Series berths.

Beginning its tenure in the Atlantic Coast Conference, Stanford finished the 2025 season with a 27-25 overall record and an 11-19 conference mark. The Cardinal began the season 9-0 for the first time since opening the 2018 campaign at 10-0, and the torrid start continued into ACC play as the Cardinal took two-of-three at No. 4 North Carolina before sweeping Duke to improve to 15-3 through 18 contests and earn a No. 14 national ranking according to D1Baseball. Offensively, the Cardinal hit .297 as a team with 329 runs scored, 90 doubles, 10 triples and 64 home runs while averaging 6.33 runs per game. Following a standout freshman campaign, Tatum Marsh was named a 2025 Freshman All-American.

Prior to a 2024 season that saw Stanford finish 22-33 overall, Stanford made its third consecutive appearance in the College World Series in 2023 - including its 18th in program history. The Cardinal finished the year with a 44-20 overall record and a 23-7 mark in the Pac-12 to win the conference regular season championship for the second consecutive season. Esquer's squad entered the postseason ranked No. 6 in the nation according to D1Baseball and won a regional featuring No. 25 Texas A&M, Cal State Fullerton and San Jose State to advance and host a super regional. The Cardinal won three consecutive elimination games in the regional, including defeating No. 25 Texas A&M twice, before winning two more against Texas in the super regional to punch a ticket to Omaha. The Cardinal hit .316 as a team (first in Pac-12 and 10th nationally) and averaged 8.36 runs per game while also leading the conference in home runs (117) and finishing second in slugging percentage (.539). On the pitching side, Stanford hurlers paced the Pac-12 in strikeouts per game (10.47) while registering a program-record 671 strikeouts to lead the Pac-12 and rank sixth in the nation. For the second consecutive season, Stanford cleaned up in the Pac-12 yearly award voting, capturing four of the five major Pac-12 yearly awards in addition to the batting champion in Tommy Troy. Esquer was named Coach of the Year, Alberto Rios won Player of the Year, Quinn Mathews earned Pitcher of the Year and Malcolm Moore took home Freshman of the Year. In addition to the yearly award winners, 12 Cardinal players earned All-Pac-12 honors, with Ryan Bruno, Carter Graham, Mathews, Braden Montgomery, Rios and Troy earning a spot on the first team. Five different Cardinal players earned All-America honors, including Bruno, Rios, Montgomery, Mathews and Troy, while Owen Cobb, Carter Graham and Eddie Park were named College Sports Communicators Academic All-Americans. Drafting the stellar season, Esquer saw nine of his players drafted - headlined by Troy going 12th overall in the first round to the Arizona Diamondbacks.

Stanford went 47-18 overall and 21-9 in the Pac-12 to win both the Pac-12 regular season and inaugural Pac-12 Tournament championships en route to advancing to Omaha in 2022. The 47 wins were tied for eighth-most in program history. Stanford, which entered the College World Series ranked No. 1 in the nation according to Collegiate Baseball, finished the year ranked No. 5 in the D1Baseball poll. Stanford hosted a regional and won its bracket to advance to the super regionals where it defeated Connecticut - winning five elimination games during the regional and super regional rounds to advance to Omaha. Putting together one of the best runs of baseball in program history, Stanford posted a 17-game win streak from May 3 to June 3 - the longest unbeaten streak since beginning the 1998 season 16-0-1, and the longest win streak since winning a program-best 18 straight from April 16 - May 24, 1996. Just as it did in 2021, Stanford led all teams in postseason home runs, connecting for 23 of its program-record 118 long balls during the 10-game postseason run. The Cardinal ranked second in the Pac-12 in average (.309) and led the Conference in slugging (.536) and home runs (118) while hitting 71 in the last 27 games overall. On the pitching side, Stanford also led the Pac-

12 in shutouts (9) - fifth-most in program history - and ranked third in ERA (4.23). Including Esquer's Pac-12 Coach of the Year selection, the Cardinal cleaned up in the Pac-12 postseason awards process, placing eight on All-Pac-12 teams and securing four of the five major Pac-12 yearly awards - with Alex Williams winning Pitcher of the Year, Adam Crampton winning Defensive Player of the Year and Braden Montgomery taking home Freshman of the Year. Williams was named a semifinalist for the 2022 College Baseball Hall of Fame National Pitcher of the Year Award and earned unanimous All-America honors, while Carter Graham and Brock Jones also earned All-America selections. Montgomery was a semifinalist for the 2022 John Olerud Two-Way Player of the Year and earned Freshman All-America honors after connecting for a Stanford freshman record 18 home runs. Standouts on the field and in the classroom, Williams and Jones were named CoSIDA Academic All-Americans. Williams was also named the 2022 Pac-12 Scholar-Athlete of the Year and was selected as Stanford's 2021-22 Pac-12 Tom Hansen Conference Medal recipient. The Cardinal saw six players drafted in the 2022 MLB Draft - headlined by Jones being selected 65th overall in the second round by the Rays.

Stanford finished the historic 2021 season ranked No. 5 nationally according to Collegiate Baseball and in the NCBWA poll, No. 7 according to Baseball America and the USA Today Coaches poll, and No. 8 according to D1Baseball after going 39-17 and 17-10 in Pac-12 play to claim third place in the conference standings. Esquer's Cardinal dropped back-to-back games just once in 2021 and finished the year 12-1 in weekend series. Stanford won the Stanford Regional and swept a Super Regional at Texas Tech to earn the berth in Omaha. Brendan Beck was a unanimous All-American and was named 2021 Pac-12 Pitcher of the Year, while Brock Jones and Zach Grech also earned All-America honors. Eight Cardinal players claimed All-Conference recognition, while Grech also earned Pac-12 Scholar Athlete of the Year. The Cardinal's 85 home runs, including an NCAA-high 22 in the postseason, were the eighth-most in Stanford history, while the .979 fielding percentage was the third-best in program history. Three Cardinal were drafted following the 2021 season, headlined by Beck being selected 55th overall in the second round by the New York Yankees.

Stanford posted a 45-14 record in 2019 before registering a 5-11 mark in a 2020 season cut short by the COVID-19 global pandemic. The Cardinal's .763 win percentage in 2019 tied for the fifth-best in program history, while its 14 losses matched the third-fewest. Stanford finished 22-7 in Pac-12 play, claiming second place before earning its 11th Super Regional berth overall, and the first since 2014. Nine Cardinal were drafted following the 2019 season, and Maverick Handley was named Co-Defensive Player of the Year.

In 2018, his first season in charge of the program, Esquer guided Stanford to its first Pac-12 Conference title since 2004, matching a program record for fewest losses with 12 (minimum 50 games played) while picking up Pac-12 Coach of the Year honors. Stanford's 46 wins equaled the 10th-most in program history to that point, while the Cardinal's .793 winning percentage ranked second. Nine Cardinal were named All-Pac-12, and Stanford hosted an NCAA Regional for the 17th time.

Through 18 seasons at Cal, Esquer compiled a 525-467-2 (.529) overall record and mentored five MLB first-round selections. Conor Jackson was the first of the five first-round picks, selected by the Arizona Diamondbacks in 2003 before Brandon Morrow was selected fifth overall by the Seattle Mariners in 2006. David Cooper (Toronto Blue Jays, 2008) and Brett Jackson (Chicago Cubs, 2009) followed before right-hander Daulton Jefferies was drafted in 2016 by the Oakland A's.

During his time at the helm of the Cardinal program, Esquer has seen four more players selected in the first round of an MLB draft, running the total to nine in his career. Nico Hoerner was drafted 24th overall by the Chicago Cubs in 2018, while Kris Bubic was selected 40th overall by the Kansas City Royals in that same draft. Tommy Troy was selected 12th overall by the Arizona Diamondbacks in the 2023 MLB draft before Malcolm Moore was selected 30th overall by the Texas Rangers in 2024.

Through 26 seasons as a collegiate head coach, Esquer has seen 19 of his players garner All-America honors, 22 named All-Region, three claim Conference Player, Pitcher, and Freshman of the Year, and two more earn Conference Defensive Player of the Year.

A shortstop at Stanford from 1984-87, Esquer was a starter on the Cardinal's 1987 College World Series championship team. He earned all-tournament honors after hitting .350 with six RBIs in Omaha. He also earned All-Pac-10 Southern Division honors as a senior, batting .318 with 41 RBIs and 16 stolen bases. Esquer went on to play professional baseball for four seasons with the Baltimore Orioles, California Angels and Milwaukee Brewers.

Following his playing career, Esquer spent six seasons as an assistant under Coach Marquess. His time as an assistant with the Cardinal included five NCAA Regional appearances and a fifth-place finish at the 1995 College World Series. In three seasons as the top assistant at Pepperdine from 1997-99, Esquer was the program's chief recruiting coordinator as well as hitting instructor, infield coach and handler of the third base coaching duties.

Esquer was a three-sport star and class valedictorian at Palma High School in Salinas, Calif. He was tabbed the "Athlete of the Year" at Palma High School after being named team captain and MVP in baseball, football and basketball. Esquer earned a bachelor's degree in economics and a master's degree in sociology from Stanford in 1987. He and his wife, Lynn, have a daughter, Gabrielle, and son, Xavier.
