Stanford Football Game Notes

LOUISVILLE CARDINALS 52 (5-3, 4-2 ACC)
STANFORD CARDINAL 24 (4-5, 2-4 ACC)

L&N FEDERAL CREDIT UNION STADIUM (44,308) • OCT. 31, 2026

TEAM

• Stanford football lost 52-24 to Louisville on Saturday at L&N Federal Credit Union Stadium. Stanford dropped to 4-5 (2-4) while Louisville improved to 5-3 (4-2).
• Saturday was a Scorigami. It is the 731st unique result in Stanford football history.
• Stanford is now 13-7 when playing on Halloween.
• Emmet Kenney made a 48-yard field goal with 13:35 remaining in the second quarter, representing the earliest score in a road game this season for the Cardinal.
• After a Nico Brown 41-yard touchdown reception in the second quarter, Stanford took its first road lead of the season (10-7).
• Stanford's 24 points are its most in a road game this season, more than its previous three outputs combined (17)...the team's 351 yards of total offense is also its most on the road in 2026.
• By recovering a fumble in the first quarter, Stanford snapped a streak of three consecutive games without forcing a turnover.
• Louisville ran for 296 yards on Saturday, the most allowed by Stanford in an ACC game and the most allowed in a conference game by the Cardinal since Nov. 5, 2022, against Washington State.
• Stanford's eight fourth-down attempts and four fourth-down conversions are both the most in a single game in Stanford history...Micah Ford's fourth-down touchdown was Stanford's third touchdown of the season on fourth down.
• Stanford has had a running back catch a touchdown pass in three consecutive games, the first time Stanford has done so since the final four games of the 2015 season (including the 2016 Rose Bowl Game).
• With Davis Warren at the helm, Stanford's offense averaged 11.3 yards per completion, the second game in a row in which Stanford has met that mark. That is a first this season.
• Aiden Black's touchdown reception was the fifth pass play of at least 50 yards this season for Stanford. Entering the week, Stanford was tied for fourth in the ACC in that statistic.

INDIVIDUAL

QB DAVIS WARREN

• Finished the game completing 23 of 37 passes for 270 yards with three touchdowns and one interception.
• The last Stanford quarterback to have at least 270 passing yards and three or more touchdowns in consecutive games was K.J. Costello in 2018...the last Cardinal quarterback to do so in consecutive games without a bye week in between was Andrew Luck in 2011.
• His 75-yard touchdown pass to Aiden Black was the longest pass completed in his collegiate career.

RB MICAH FORD

• Carried the ball 20 times for 72 rushing yards on Saturday.
• Snapped a streak of consecutive games with at least 150 rushing yards.
• Caught six passes for 48 yards, setting a new career-high in receptions.
• Scored on a 40-yard fourth-down completion, his first career receiving touchdown and ninth overall touchdown this year.
• First Stanford running back with at least eight rushing touchdowns and a receiving touchdown in his career since Cameron Scarlett in 2018.

WR NICO BROWN

• Led Stanford receivers with six receptions for 109 yards and a touchdown.
• Scored on a 41-yard touchdown pass in the second quarter, his fourth touchdown of the season and 15th of his career.
• Recorded his eighth career 100-yard game and first as a member of the Cardinal.

TE AIDEN BLACK

• Caught the first pass of his career and took it the distance for a 75-yard touchdown in the second quarter.
• Longest passing play of the season for Stanford.
• He is the first Cardinal since at least 1996 to score a touchdown of 75 yards or longer for his first career reception, per Stats Perform.

DL ERNEST COOPER

• Recovered a fumble in the first quarter, the second turnover Stanford has forced on the road this season and its first defensive fumble recovery away from home.
• Was the second fumble recovery of his career.

LB ZACH JOHNSON

• Finished the game with two tackles and one tackle for loss.
• His tackle-for-loss was his first full TFL for him this year.
