WHEN: Wednesday, October 4th at 3:00 pm

WHERE: Colusa Hall, Room 100B

Filmmakers dive into the issue of waste from farm, through retail, all the way to the back of their own fridge. In a nation where one in 10 people are food insecure, the images captured in this film of squandered groceries are both shocking and strangely compelling.

WHEN: Tuesday, October 10th at 3:00 pm

WHERE: Colusa Hall, Room 100A

Oceans are a sonic symphony. Sound is essential to the survival and prosperity of marine life. But man-made ocean noise is threatening this fragile world. Sonic Sea is a powerful, visually stunning documentary about the impact of industrial and military ocean noise on whales and other marine life.

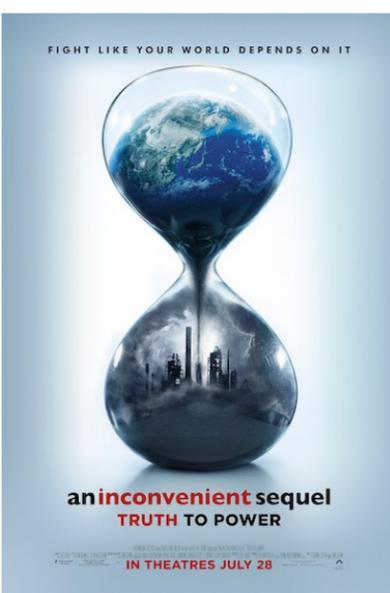

WHEN: Thursday, October 19th at 4:30 pm

WHERE: Colusa Hall, Room 100B

In an investigation that spans the globe, award-winning filmmaker Sue Williams investigates the underbelly of the international electronics industry and reveals how even the tiniest devices have deadly environmental and health costs.
