

State University of New York
College of Environmental Science and Forestry

Office of the President

19 March 2016

AASHE
2401 Walnut Street Suite 102
Philadelphia, PA 19103

Dear AASHE Staff,

As the Principal Investigator of the ongoing applied research project “Shrub Willow Sustainable Remediation for the Solvay Settling Basins,” I certify that this project meets the stated criteria of AASHE STARS 2.0 Innovation Credits, and that the descriptions of the project provided here are accurate.

Sincerely,

Dr. Timothy A. Volk

Senior Research Associate
SUNY College of Environmental Science and Forestry
Department of Forest and Natural Resources Management
(315) 470-6774
tavolk@esf.edu