teaching sustainability in a changing world

Agenda

Intentions of the Workshop: Create a community of peers who have a firm understanding of the challenges of sustainability and are inspired to take action across the University, within and among all offices, departments, programs, and divisions. Sustainability is one of the five Priority Areas of the University's Strategic Plan. Ultimately, we hope WCU students will see faculty and staff "walking the talk" of sustainability and the Brandywine Project Staff Sustainability Workshop is one important step toward that goal.
