Dear Ms. Zahniser,

I am pleased to submit Mount Holyoke College's Sustainability Tracking, Assessment, and Rating System (STARS) Reporter information for use by the Princeton Review, and verify that, to the best of my knowledge, it is complete and accurate.

Mount Holyoke's commitment to sustainability education and practice is a long held value and strategic goal of the College. We look forward to continuing to work with the Association for the Advancement of Sustainability in Higher Education (AASHE) and recognize the importance of educational institutions as sustainability leaders.

Sincerely,

Shannon Gurek
Vice President for Finance and Administration
