Dear Jeff:

On behalf of the Professional Grounds Management Society, I am pleased to inform you that the University of Nebraska – Lincoln has received reaccreditation for a period of three years for its Landscape Services operation.

By pursuing and achieving reaccreditation, the Landscape Services unit has demonstrated that it continues to meet the PGMS Landscape Management and Operations Accreditation Program's grounds management best practices requirements as a condition of accreditation and that it remains committed to striving for excellence.

In addition to this notification, you will receive a certificate of reaccreditation and you will retain access to available indicia of accreditation. Also, recognition of this accomplishment will be given in the PGMS official publication, Grounds Management Forum and other industry publications. The University of Nebraska - Lincoln will continue to be listed as an accredited organization on the PGMS website and in appropriate professional journals selected by the PGMS.

Congratulations to you and the University of Nebraska - Lincoln Landscape Services unit for obtaining reaccreditation and asserting its commitment to the continuous improvement of grounds management practices instrumental in producing exceptional grounds organizations.

Sincerely,
