Sustainability Manager
Eastern Iowa Community College District

Dear Julie:

The purchase of the Wacky Waters Water Park and re-purposing of the facility into the EICCD Midwest Center for Safety and Rescue Training certainly deserves recognition as an innovative sustainability project.

EICCD's creation of an exemplary training center from this closed facility prevented the land-disturbance and resource use associated with construction of a brand new facility, and the efforts that I led to re-use and recycle much of the equipment from the water park showcase EICCD's commitment to shine as an example of sustainable education and operations within our community.

Sincerely,

Rich Horst
