

Fall 2018 - Summer 2019

PART 1

Total # of CE courses offered

F18 - Bulletin: 24, Non-bulletin: 13, OLLI: 65 = 102

S19 – Bulletin: 22, Non-bulletin: 13 OLLI: 93 = 128

Su19 – Bulletin: 9, Non-bulletin: 8, OLLI: 29 = 46

TOTAL: 276

Notes: included ONLY courses publicly offered by CEEGE, including Osher Lifelong Learning Institute. Included in the overall course count were courses in Leadership Studies, Certificate in Faculty Preparation, and New Designs for Fundraising Certificate. Not included in the overall course count were classes offered through other departments on campus or as contract credit courses through outside organizations.

Did not include contract credit, MSW, MA ANTH, POST, summer session, study abroad.

CE courses offered that address sustainability

F18 – EE: 3 + OLLI: 6 = 9

S19 – EE: 5 + OLLI: 8 = 13

Su19 – EE: 0 + OLLI: 8 = 8

TOTAL: 30

Percentage of CE courses that address sustainability: 10.9%

Copy of the list and brief description of sustainability courses (see excel doc)

PART 2

Does the institution have at least one sustainability-themed certificate program through its continuing education or extension department?

No

Notes

Data source(s) and notes about the submission (public):

Notes: included ONLY courses publicly offered by the College of Extended Education & Global Engagement, including Osher Lifelong Learning Institute. Included in the overall course count were courses in Leadership Studies, Certificate in Faculty Preparation, and New Designs for Fundraising Certificate. Included in the total course count are courses that are offered twice in the same term, at different times and dates. Included in the sustainability course count are courses that are offered twice in the same term, at different times. Not included in the overall course count were classes offered through other departments on campus or as contract credit courses through outside organizations.