

Environmental Justice Community Education Programs

This Fall 23 semester:

CREW for Environmental Justice –

- Student leaders Ben Kinkor and Marie Amelse. There are two groups weekly, and total number of participants (including the leaders) is 18.
- CREW runs 6-7 weeks each semester. Leaders are planning for about 11-12 weeks since we start planning/ training before the program launches.
- SCSJ student leaders work an average of 8-10 hours a week

City Sprouts-

- Student leaders are Maggie Brosnahan and Brock Barthol. Each week a max of 12 participants (including leaders) can go, but the participants vary each week. I won't have a total number until the end of the semester. (you could use last year's data as a proxy).
- City Sprouts runs 10 weeks each semester. Leaders are planning for about 15 weeks since we start planning/ training before the program launches.
- SCSJ student leaders work an average of 8-10 hours a week

22-23 school year:

CREW for Environmental Justice –

- Student leaders Ben Kinkor and Hannah Frazer. In the Spring semester there were two groups weekly, and total number of participants (including the leaders) was 20.
- CREW runs 6-7 weeks each semester. Leaders are planning for about 11-12 weeks since we start planning/ training before the program launches.
- SCSJ student leaders work an average of 8-10 hours a week

City Sprouts-

- Student leaders were Ben Kinkor, Odette Bonilla, Maggie Brosnahan and Cali Rawhouser-Mylet. Fall semester we had 47 participants. Spring semester we had 31 participants.
- City Sprouts runs 10-11 weeks each semester. Leaders are planning for about 15 weeks since we start planning/ training before the program launches.
- SCSJ student leaders work an average of 8-10 hours a week

Fall and Spring Break Service & Justice Trips

- We have two student leaders per trip, we estimate 60 hours of volunteering across the pre-planning and the one week long trip
- Fall Break
 - Wheeling WV, 2 coordinators, 10 total participants (counting coordinators)

21-22 School year:

CREW for Environmental Justice hadn't started yet

City Sprouts

- Student leaders were Lydia Delkamiller, Josh Fernandes, and Maggie Brosnahan. Fall semester we had 45 participants. Spring semester we had 71 participants.
- City Sprouts runs 10-11 weeks each semester. Leaders are planning for about 15 weeks since we start planning/ training before the program launches.
- SCSJ student leaders work an average of 8-10 hours a week

Fall and Spring Break Service & Justice Trips

- We have two student leaders per trip, we estimate 60 hours of volunteering across the pre-planning and the one week long trip
- Fall Break
 - Wheeling WV, 2 coordinators, 12 total participants (counting coordinators)
- Spring Break
 - St. Mary of the Woods, White Violet Eco Center- 2 coordinators, 7 total participants (counting coordinators)
 - Wheeling WV, 2 coordinators, 9 total participants (counting coordinators)