

How important is it for SSU to be a national model for Student Success and Academic Excellence?

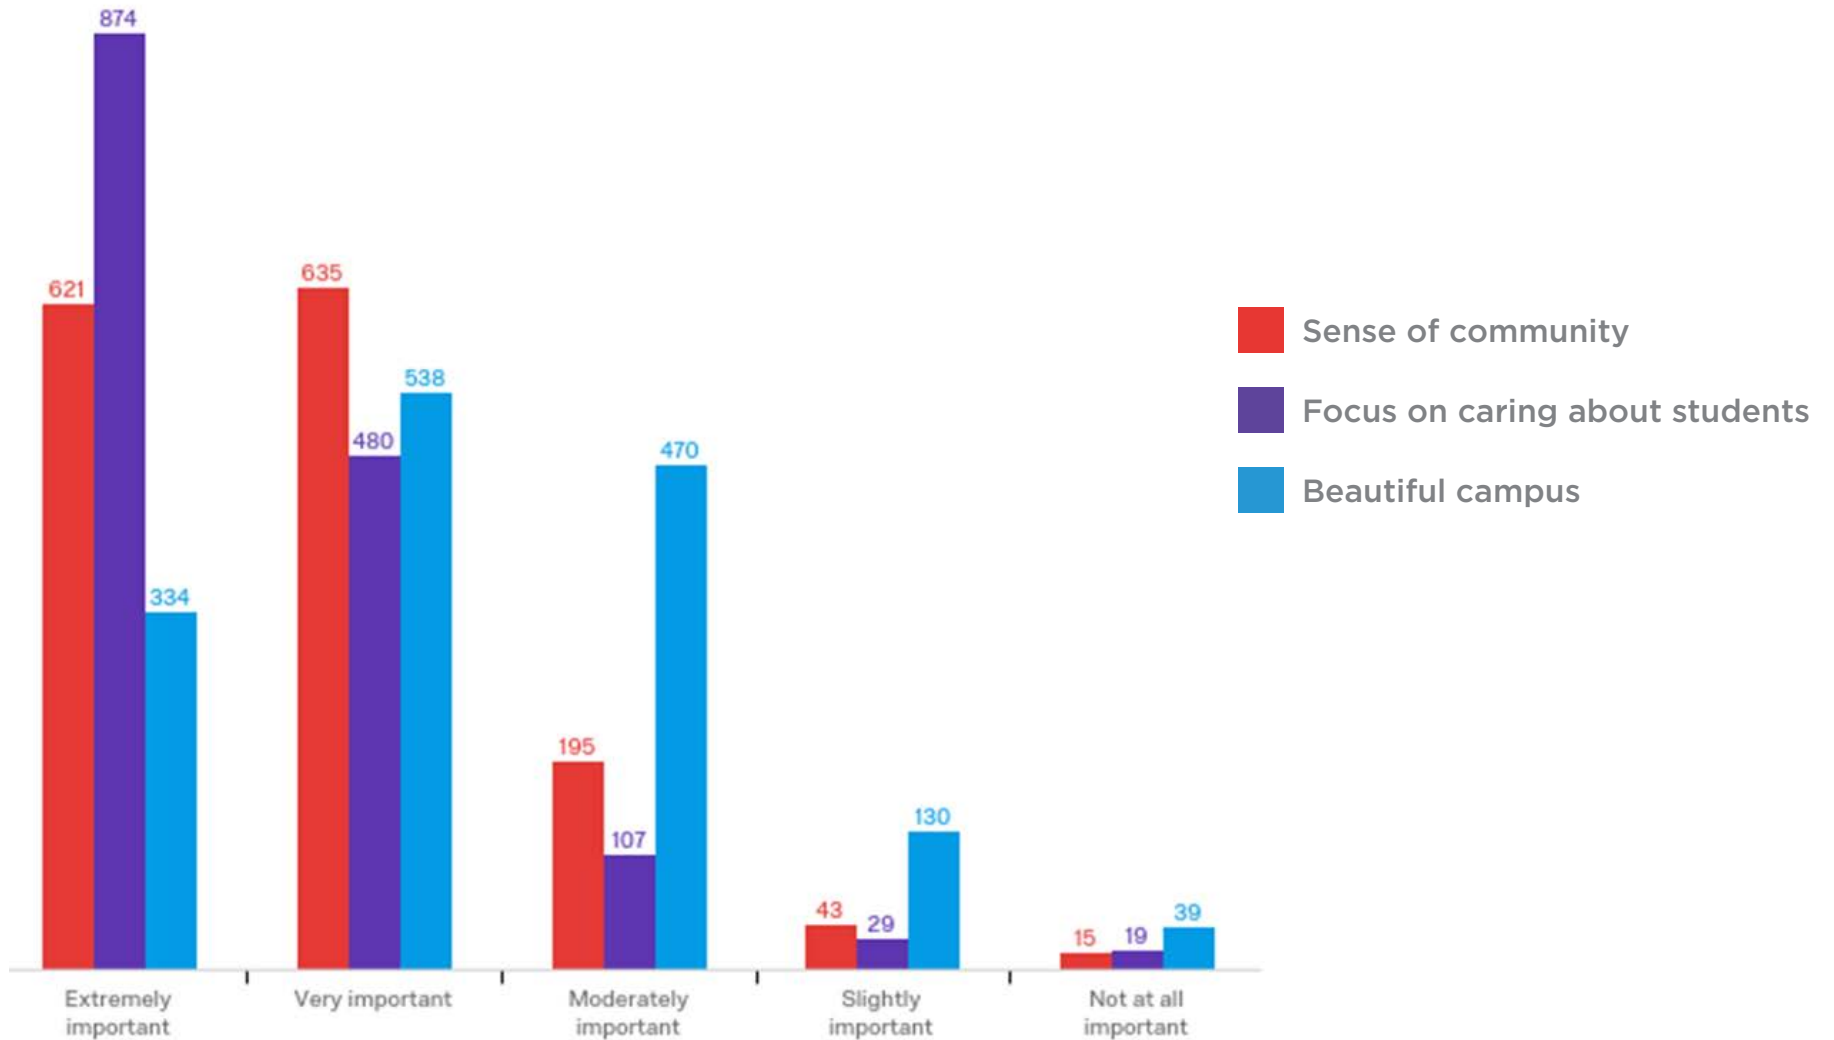

■ Absolutely essential    ■ Very important    ■ Of average importance    ■ Of little importance

■ Of no importance at all

SSU Core Values

SSU Points of Pride

A Vision For The Future

Stronger relationships and leadership with the surrounding community

Improved classrooms and technology infrastructure

Stronger support for student, faculty and staff success

■ Extremely important ■ Very important ■ Moderately important ■ Slightly important ■ Not at all important

World Café: Emergent Themes on Diversity and Inclusivity and their Connections

This graphic is a visual representation of the discussion on Diversity and Inclusive Excellence at the World Café. The size and shape of the points around the circle represent number of respondents who mentioned the word in question as a part of their response. The width of the line represents the number of times that word was mentioned in same response as the word it is linked to.

Business Community: Emergent Themes on Diversity and Inclusivity and their Connections

This graphic is a visual representation of the discussion on Diversity and Inclusive Excellence at the Business Community breakfast. The size and shape of the points around the circle represent number of respondents who mentioned the word in question as a part of their response. The width of the line represents the number of times that word was mentioned in same response as the word it is linked to.