

Course Number	Course Overview	Certificate Name
	To accomplish objectives, the certificate program exposes students to current issues, policies, and practices in integrated water resources management, leadership, environmental and regulatory policies, water law, finance, professional relations and core concepts in water science and engineering. This curriculum was designed by water experts, leaders in regional water industry, board members, and former certificate graduates as well as a special advisory committee.	Water Management
WTRM 401 Survey of California Water Management Fundamentals and Practice
WTRM 411 Leadership For Water Managers
WTRM 421 Environmental Issues, Policies, & Regulations for Water Managers
WTRM 423 Finance & Professional Relations for Water Managers
WTRM 425 Core Concepts of Water Science, Engineers, & Technology for Water Managers
Environmental Leadership Academy	The objective of the Environmental Leadership Academy is to heighten awareness and engage individuals in critical thinking around environmental issues affecting our quality of life; such as climate change, air and water quality, land use change, endangered species, energy, and waste. Learn to lead others in a better understanding of the complexities of serious environmental issues that touch on all areas of life. Upon completion you will recognize the need for developing sensible and farsighted policies to make Southern California region a national model for balancing long-term sustainability with economic vitality and environmental stewardship.	Environmental Leadership Academy