

Susquehanna University
Smoke-Free Workplace

Purpose: To ensure that all University buildings shall be smoke-free.

Policy: All Susquehanna University buildings are designated as no-smoking. Employees wishing to smoke are limited to doing so during official break times such as lunch. Anyone smoking on campus must be at least 25 feet away from any building.

Smoking Cessation Programs: The University Health Center has information available about smoking cessation programs for all interested employees.