This particular line will then be cut over by the nbn network which will change any ADSL signal present to VDSL. Telstra will then transition the required voice services to VOIP over this single line.

Please note: You must have a VDSL compatible modem present prior to the nbn network cut over to avoid downtime on your broadband service.

Speed Level: If you need a speed level other than the default Speed, you can choose another Speed Level for an additional monthly cost. If you don't choose one of the below Speed Levels, you'll receive the default Speed.

Please note:

- On some nbn access types, not all Speed Levels will be available. We will aim to advise you what is available during the ordering process.
- Broadband speeds vary due to quite a number of factors, including; type of technology available at your address; any increased Speed Level you may have purchased; network capacity; set up at your premises (such as location of modem and how the internet is used in your premises).
- For FTTN/FTTC/FTTB customers, we cannot confirm your maximum speed until your service is installed and active on the nbn network. We will provide this to you once available, along with alternative options if your maximum line speed doesn't allow you to properly benefit from the Speed Level you are on.
- The Premium Plus speed and Dedicated Data L pack are available in FTTP areas only.
- Dedicated Data Packs are not available on Fixed Wireless or HFC access types.
- Dedicated Data Packs and Voice Priority Packs are only available to Telstra Small Business customers.
