

Certificate

Through tests on our test rig we confirm for our filter elements of the MFK series and under defined conditions*

a residual oil mist content in the clean air of < 5 mg/m³

With this result our FRANKE-Filter Oil Mist Separators fulfill the requirements for keeping the air clean.

The mass concentration of the particles from size 0.1 µm was measured by using a laser photometer.

Carsten Schmieding
General Manager

* Volume flow, temperature, vacuum, turbine oil, etc.

