COGNITIVE DECLINE RISK AWARENESS & HEARING HEALTH DECISIONS

A 25-year study shows hearing aid use can reduce the progression of cognitive decline in older adults.

did
YOU?
know

Using your hearing, just like exercising a muscle, makes it stronger and more effective. Reduced hearing stimulation due to untreated hearing loss can lead to atrophy of functional brain pathways. This can negatively impact hearing ability and speech comprehension and may increase the risk of dementia.

SOME FAQs ABOUT THE West Virginia State Fair

WHY IS THE FAIR AN AGRICULTURAL EVENT?

The State Fair began as an agricultural event and its mission statement opens with the primary goal being, "Honoring our heritage through programs that promote the traditions of agriculture, education and family entertainment." The importance of agriculture in daily life, society and international markets is a very important educational focus of the Fair's programming.

IS ALCOHOL ALLOWED AT THE STATE FAIR?

With the exception of beer sales at a select number of concert events and the beer garden, alcoholic beverages may not be consumed, sold or distributed on the fairgrounds.

DOES THE STATE FAIR HAVE A PET POLICY?

Seeing-eye and other service animals for the disabled are permitted. No other pets are allowed on the Fairgrounds. Pets are allowed in off-grounds parking/camping areas, but MUST be on leashes or otherwise confined at all times.

DOES THE STATE FAIR HAVE A NO SMOKING POLICY?

By order of the Greenbrier County Health Department, the fairgrounds are a non-smoking facility. Smoking is only permitted in the designated locations which are marked with a sign, bench, and cigarette butt holders.

DOES THE STATE FAIR HAVE A NO WEAPONS POLICY?

The State Fair is located on private property and does have a NO weapons policy in-place. We ask that you leave all firearms, knives, and live ammunition at home or in the vehicle.

IS THE STATE FAIR HANDICAPPED ACCESSIBLE?

The fairgrounds is accessible with paved walkways, wheelchair accessibility to buildings, wheelchair and electric stroller rentals, handicapped parking, drop off area for disabled guests, special seating in the Grandstand and interpreters for Grandstand shows. To reserve a scooter, please call Scootaround at 888-441-7575.

WHAT TYPES OF ENTERTAINMENT CAN I EXPECT AT THE FAIR?

Each year the Fair offers various FREE entertainment acts along with concerts and shows performing in the Grandstand (additional ticket purchase may be required). Sign up for our email newsletter online at statefairfwwv.com to get the latest information on entertainment for the upcoming State Fair.

TOP 10 THINGS TO DO...

Fair Food

The 'West Virginia Fried Food Capital'. We have everything you can imagine, battered and tossed in the deep fryer. A handful of our vendors have been about since the 1950's – Ben Ellen donuts started in a tent in 1952. Their cinnamon-sugar cider donuts pair perfectly with a Grandstand concert or your morning cup of coffee. Trudy's Dairy World ice cream is homemade by the Hlay family and has been since the 1950's.

2.

Carnival Rides

Reithoffer Shows has partnered with the State Fair of WV for decades! Enjoy family focused fun with kiddie rides for our mini fair goers. Teens can have their fill of thrill with rides like Tornado, Zipper and Ring of Fire.

3.

Concerts

Our Grandstand Concerts are a guaranteed good time! The greats have graced our stage including Johnny Cash, John Denver and Dolly Parton. Today's greats continue to perform LIVE every night. Each concert starts right before sunset at around 7:30 or 8:00pm.

Free Fun & Entertainment

Our fairgrounds are covered in free entertainment for all ages. You can find shade and a free seat under the Center Stage with shows throughout the day. All free with paid gate admission.

5.

Livestock Shows

Each day our Livestock barns are full of pigs, sheep, cattle, horses and rabbits! Each animal will compete to win the blue ribbon in the Tractor Supply Small Stock Arena or the Large Stock Arena.

6.

Dairy Birthing Center

Farm Credit Dairy Birthing Center brings 20 pregnant cows each fair. Your chances of catching a live birth are great! Listen to our PA announcer and he will keep the fairgrounds updated. The new calves will be available for pictures and petting being just days old!

7.

New Fair Food Contest

At our fair, we will have our 5th Annual New Fair Food Contest. Vendors will compete for the title of 'Best New Fair Food.' Try them all and give your vote in our office or online! The winner will be announced Saturday, August 16th!

Heritage Corner

Farm to Food Pavilion – Teach your children the basics of agriculture in a fun way! Find shade and unique activities for children Preschool – fifth grade, to teach and promote agriculture.

Horse Fun

Draft Horse Pull – Our one of a kind Draft Horse Pull will be on Friday, August 16th at 9am. Teams of horses will pull a minimum of 3,000lbs. Watch true horse power and enjoy your favorite fair breakfast.

10.

Make Memories

Enjoy logging off and putting the phone down. Cherish time with your family that is distraction, text and Wi-Fi FREE! Trust us – the memories made are priceless!

FUN FOR ALL AGES!

Buckin' B Bull Ride

BOX $30

GRANDSTAND/ADA $24.70

The Buckin' B Bull Ride opens the 2026 Grandstand schedule with an evening of fast-paced rodeo action. Riders test their balance, timing and nerve against powerful bucking bulls, with each competitor trying to stay aboard for the required eight seconds while judges score both the rider's control and the animal's athleticism. The event combines competition, showmanship and the unpredictable energy that makes live bull riding a crowd favorite. With hard-charging rides, close calls and plenty of arena excitement, it offers fairgoers a high-energy start to the State Fair's headline entertainment lineup.

Vincent Mason

Georgia-raised singer-songwriter Vincent Mason has quickly emerged as one of contemporary country music's most promising new voices. His breakout song, "Hell Is a Dance Floor," introduced listeners to a style built around conversational lyrics, emotional detail and modern country pro Avery Anna is an Arizona-born singer-songwriter known for candid lyrics that blend country, acoustic pop and rock influences. She first drew a large online audience by posting performances from her bathtub, where the natural acoustics helped showcase her striking voice, and soon broke through with the platinum-certified "Narcissist." Her full-length projects Breakup Over Breakfast and Let Go Letters explore heartbreak, healing and the complicated emotions of growing up, while her collaboration with Sam Barber, "Indigo," brought her music to an even wider audience. Anna's songs are deeply personal but highly relatable, giving her live performances an intimate, confessional quality even on a large stage. duction. Mason expanded that sound on his 2025 debut album, There I Go, a 14-song collection that follows the changes, heart-break and unexpected momentum of life on the road. Influenced by artists ranging from Parker McCollum and Turnpike Troubadours to John Mayer, he approaches country music first as a storyteller, pairing an acoustic songwriter's instincts with a polished, current sound.

GRANPA CRATCHET

NEAR ARTISAN'S BARN

Granpa Cratchet is a larger-than-life comic character whose live-action show mixes old-fashioned silliness with fast-paced audience participation. Billed as an off-the-wall, high-energy old timer, Granpa greets children, trades jokes with the crowd and turns every performance into a playful trip down memory lane. The act is built to feel spontaneous and personal, with broad physical humor and plenty of opportunities for young fairgoers to respond, laugh and join the fun. Between scheduled shows, the character's approachable personality makes him a memorable meet-and-greet attraction as well. It is simple, cheerful fair entertainment created for children while giving parents and grandparents plenty to smile about.

Trace Adkins

Trace Adkins brings three decades of country music to the State Fair on his 30th Anniversary Tour. Since releasing his debut album Dreamin' Out Loud in 1996, the Louisiana native has become one of the genre's most recognizable voices, known for a deep baritone and a catalog that moves easily between heartfelt ballads, rowdy anthems and songs about everyday life. His best-known recordings include "Every Light in the House," "You're Gonna Miss This," "Ladies Love Country Boys" and "Honky Tonk Badonkadonk." Beyond music, Adkins has appeared in film and television, but his enduring reputation rests on a commanding stage presence and songs that have connected with country audiences for generations.

Aaron Tippin

Aaron Tippin built his career on honest, working-class country music delivered with a distinctive Southern voice. After working as a commercial pilot, truck driver and pipe fitter, he moved to Nashville and began writing songs before signing with RCA in 1990. His debut single, "You've Got to Stand for Something," established him as a plainspoken new-traditionalist with a strong independent streak. Tippin went on to score No. 1 country hits with "There Ain't Nothin' Wrong with the Radio," "That's as Close as I'll Get to Loving You" and "Kiss This," along with the patriotic favorite "Where the Stars and Stripes and the Eagle Fly." His music remains rooted in perseverance, pride and everyday American life.

Caden Glover

Thursday, August 13
3:00 p.m. and 5:00 p.m.

West Virginia artist Caden Glover blends bluegrass, rock and Americana with deep Appalachian roots. A returning State Fair performer, he brings strong musicianship, an engaging stage presence and a genre-crossing sound that appeals to a wide audience while proudly representing his home state.

Zoe Jean Fowler

Friday, August 14
3:00 p.m. and 5:00 p.m.

Nashville-based country artist Zoe Jean Fowler writes emotionally direct songs with a storyteller's eye and a voice made for the genre's quieter, more personal moments. Her debut record, We All Change, earned more than 200,000 streams and helped open doors at prominent Nashville venues. Fowler's return to the State Fair carries a special family connection: relatives in Lewisburg operated a fair stand for nearly 40 years.

CENTER STAGE PERFORMERS

The Gospel Harmony Boys

For more than seven decades, the Gospel Harmony Boys have carried the traditions of Southern Gospel music to churches, concert halls and special events throughout the United States and Canada. The group is known for close male harmonies, faith-centered songs and a polished presentation rooted in classic quartet singing. Their long history and enduring audience make them one of the region's most respected gospel groups and a familiar favorite at the fair.

Monday, August 17
3:00 p.m. and 5:00 p.m.

Glen Shelton

National recording artist Glen Shelton brings a polished, traditional-minded country sound to the Google Center Stage. He has placed multiple singles in the Top 50 of the MusicRow CountryBreakout chart, performed at hundreds of venues and events, and shared stages with more than 50 nationally known acts. Shelton's experience as both an entertainer and recording artist gives his live shows an easy professionalism, with songs and stories shaped for country audiences.

Tuesday, August 18
3:00 p.m. and 5:00 p.m.

Philip Bowen is an Appalachian-born singer-songwriter and multi-instrumentalist whose music is rooted in folk tradition, regional storytelling, and lived experience. Raised in West Virginia, Bowen began playing fiddle at age four and developed a distinctive sound that blends Appalachian textures with modern Americana songwriting. He has built a substantial and engaged audience through touring and online performance, reaching over 1.5 million followers across platforms.

Philip Bowen
Saturday, August 15
3:00 p.m. and 5:00 p.m.

The Goodson Boys
Sunday, August 16
3:00 p.m. and 5:00 p.m.

The SFWV proudly presents The Goodson Boys! Hailing from a musical family in southern WV, Mike Goodson (Bass and Vocals), Willie Goodson, (Rhythm and Vocals), Randy Goodson (Lead Guitar, Keys, and Vocals), and Mike "Z" Zimmerman (Drums) create unforgettable performances that captivate audiences of all kinds.

CENTER STAGE PERFORMERS

Corduroy Brown

Wed., August 19

3:00 p.m. and 5:00 p.m.

Huntington, West Virginia performer Corduroy Brown describes his music as feel-good Appalachian rock—a sound meant to leave listeners a little better than it found them. After surviving a life-threatening battle with COVID and being revived from life support, he returned to music with a sharpened sense of gratitude and purpose. His songs emphasize self-worth, resilience and hope, delivered through an upbeat rock performance with deep Mountain State roots.

Caleb Carpenter

Thurs., August 20

3:00 p.m. and 5:00 p.m.

Virginia singer-songwriter Caleb Carpenter launched his solo career in 2022 after nearly a decade of touring with a nationally known rock band. Working with producer Mitch Parks, he began developing a sound that moves beyond his earlier work and incorporates pop, alternative and soul influences. Songs such as "Déjà Vu" and "Change" highlight Carpenter's melodic approach and willingness to cross genres, giving his Center Stage set broad appeal.

Chad Nickell & The Loose Change

Friday, August 21
3:00 p.m. and 5:00 p.m.

From Alleghany County, Virginia, Chad Nickell & The Loose Change describe their sound as "Appalachian jam." Singer-songwriter Chad Nickell and guitarist Daniel Jackson formed the band in 2015, later joined by drummer Brandon "BT" Ross and bassist Daniel Kuder. Their music blends Americana, folk, honky-tonk, rock and psychedelic influences, while their unscripted live shows leave room for improvisation and musical conversation. The result is roots music with a restless, adventurous edge.

Southern West Virginia country artist Brett Mahon is a young performer with a voice and stage presence that reflect years of early dedication. He first picked up a guitar at age six and has continued singing and playing ever since, building experience through acoustic shows and regional appearances. Mahon brings a straightforward country style, seasoned vocals and the energy of an emerging home-state artist to the final day of Google Center Stage performances.

HEAVY PETAL TOUR

TRACK SRO: $59.68 BOX: $54.38 GRANDSTAND: $49.08

Sierra Ferrell

West Virginia native Sierra Ferrell has become one of roots music's most distinctive and celebrated performers. Her sound draws from country, folk, bluegrass, jazz and old-time music, shaped by years spent traveling, busking and performing far beyond traditional venues. Her album Trail of Flowers earned four Grammy Awards in 2025, including Best Americana Album, while "American Dreaming" and "Lighthouse" received honors across Americana and American roots categories. Ferrell pairs an unmistakable voice with vivid songwriting, imaginative arrangements and a theatrical live presence that feels both timeless and entirely her own. Her Heavy Petal Tour brings a nationally acclaimed artist back to her home state for one of the fair's most anticipated evenings.

The Brudi Brothers

The Brudi Brothers are a Seattle-based Americana trio made up of brothers Johann, Conrad and George Brudi. Multi-instrumentalists who have played together since childhood, they combine old-school folk, country, blues and rock-and-roll with close family harmonies and a lively street-performer spirit. The brothers became local favorites as buskers and built a wider following through energetic live clips and songs such as "Me More Cowboy

Than You." Their touring résumé includes performances with Sierra Ferrell, The Head and the Heart and Charley Crockett. Equal parts polished musicians and playful showmen, the Brudi Brothers bring an earthy, spirited opening set well matched to Ferrell's eclectic roots sound.

CAIN

CAIN is a contemporary Christian trio formed by Alabama siblings Taylor Cain Matz, Madison Cain Johnson and Logan Cain. Raised as pastors' children, the three grew up singing together and developed the bright family harmonies that remain central to their sound. Their breakthrough single, "Rise Up (Lazarus)," reached No. 1 on Christian radio and helped establish the group as one of the genre's most uplifting live acts. Songs such as "I'm So Blessed" pair faith-centered messages with colorful pop-country arrangements and an energetic stage show. After headlining tours and sharing stages with artists including Chris Tomlin, TobyMac and Phil Wickham, CAIN continues to build concerts around encouragement, joy and a strong sense of family.

Leanna Crawford

Leanna Crawford is an award-winning contemporary Christian singer-songwriter whose music combines honest storytelling, warm pop melodies and a deeply personal expression of faith. Raised in Washington state, she studied music business before moving to Nashville and becoming the first female artist signed to Matthew West's Story House Collective. Crawford connected with listeners through songs including "Truth I'm Standing On," "Mean Girls" and "Still Waters (Psalm 23)," the latter reaching No. 1 on Billboard's Christian Airplay chart and earning gold certification. In 2025, she was named New Artist of the Year at the GMA Dove Awards and received the K-LOVE Fan Award for Breakout Single of the Year, marking her as a rising voice in Christian music.

THE MOOGICIAN

GOOGLE CENTER STAGE

Todd Charles, the Moogician, turns dairy farming into a playful mix of magic, comedy and juggling. After living on a dairy farm and learning the everyday details of milk production, Charles created a family show filled with cow-themed surprises—magic with milk, cheese juggling and plenty of “moo” humor. The result is an upbeat attraction that entertains children while sneaking in a little agricultural education along the way. His stage shows invite audience participation, while roaming appearances allow the character to meet fairgoers around the grounds. With broad physical comedy, quick tricks and an intentionally corny sense of fun, the Moogician is designed to be enjoyed by the whole family.

Shenandoah

TUESDAY ★ AUGUST 18 7 PM

TRACK SEATED: $35.30 BOX: $30.00 GRANDSTAND: $24.70

Formed in Muscle Shoals, Alabama, Shenandoah became one of country music's defining groups of the late 1980s and 1990s. Led by Marty Raybon's distinctive vocals and the band's polished harmonies, Shenandoah created a catalog filled with energetic radio favorites and heartfelt ballads. Hits include "The Church on Cumberland Road," "Sunday in the South," "Next to You, Next to Me," "Two Dozen Roses" and "I Want to Be Loved Like That." The group also earned a Grammy for "Somewhere in the Vicinity of the Heart," its duet with Alison Krauss. With original members Raybon and Mike McGuire again carrying the band's legacy forward, Shenandoah delivers a show built for longtime country fans and anyone who appreciates memorable songs and harmony-rich musicianship.

★ THE STATE FAIR OF WEST VIRGINIA ★

Ying Yang Twins and Paul Wall

TRACK SRO: $35.30 BOX: $30.00 GRANDSTAND: $24.70

Ying Yang Twins

Atlanta hip-hop duo the Ying Yang Twins—Kaine and D-Roc—helped define the high-energy crunk and Southern party-rap sound of the early 2000s. They gained national attention with “Whistle While You Twurk” and their appearance on Lil Jon & The East Side Boyz’ club anthem “Get Low.” Known for hits including “Salt Shaker,” “Wait (The Whisper Song)” and “Shake,” the duo’s call-and-response hooks and playful vocal style became staples of clubs and sporting events. Their fair performance promises an energetic, nostalgia-filled party set.

Paul Wall

Houston rapper Paul Wall rose from the Swishahouse mixtape scene to national success with his No. 1 album The Peoples Champ. Known for “Sittin’ Sidewayz,” “They Don’t Know,” “Girl” and his Grammy-nominated appearance on “Grillz,” Wall brings his unmistakable Texas sound and crowd favorites to the Grandstand.

Every year, there are a few things you can count on seeing at the fair -- long lines at the Son's-Sational Cinnamon Rolls stand, a wide array of live music from both the Center Stage and the Main Stage, a sighting of Miss West Virginia Fairs and Festivals, and more.

With that in mind, we're providing you with a scavenger hunt for the 101st Annual State Fair of West Virginia, you don't want to miss this year!

Dierks Bentley has spent more than two decades balancing mainstream country success with a lasting love of bluegrass, traditional musicianship and adventurous songwriting. Since breaking onto the country music scene, the multi-platinum performer has earned eight No. 1 albums and more than 20 No. 1 songs, including "What Was I Thinkin'," "Free and Easy (Down the Road I Go)," "Somewhere on a Beach" and the crowd favorite "Drunk on a Plane."

His 11th studio album, Broken Branches, celebrates outsiders, dreamers and imperfect characters while drawing from country, bluegrass and alternative influences. Known for his energetic live shows, strong musicianship and easy rapport with audiences, Bentley continues to connect with longtime fans while reaching new listeners. His West Virginia Day performance will feature a deep catalog of radio hits, fan favorites and newer material.

After your State Fair fun, trade crowds and cotton candy for crisp mountain air, cozy cabins, and a ride through peak fall color at Cass Scenic Railroad State Park.

Whether you're chasing foliage, planning a peaceful retreat, or bringing the whole family for leaf-peeping fun, now's the time to book your fall getaway to Pocahontas County, West Virginia.

Gavin
Adcock

TRACK SRO $77.70 BOX $72.40 GRANDSTAND $67.10

Georgia native Gavin Adcock brings a hard-edged, high-energy approach to modern country music. Raised on his family's cattle farm in Watkinsville, Adcock played football at Georgia Southern University before a serious knee injury in 2021 gave him time to record and release his first original song. He soon shifted his full attention to music, building a rapidly expanding audience through streaming and relentless touring. His debut major-label album, Actin' Up Again, became one of 2024's most-streamed country debuts, while "A Cigarette" earned platinum certification. Adcock's songs mix rural life, restless independence and rowdy country-rock attitude, creating a live show aimed squarely at fans who like their country loud and unapologetic.

Stone Temple Pilots

Stone Temple Pilots emerged in 1992 with Core, an explosive debut that produced rock-radio staples including "Sex Type Thing," "Wicked Garden," "Creep" and the Grammy-winning "Plush." The band continued to evolve across albums such as Purple and Tiny Music... Songs from the Vatican Gift Shop, moving beyond its early grunge label to explore alternative rock, psychedelia and classic pop influences. Guitarist Dean DeLeo, bassist Robert DeLeo and drummer Eric Kretz remain at the center of the group's distinctive sound, joined by lead singer Jeff Gutt. With tens of millions of albums sold and a catalog that defined 1990s rock, Stone Temple Pilots close the fair's concert schedule with muscular riffs, melodic hooks and enduring hits.

Velvet Chains

Las Vegas-based Velvet Chains delivers a modern hard-rock sound shaped by the heavy guitars and melodic edge of 1990s and 2000s alternative rock. Formed in 2018 by bassist Nils Goldschmidt, the independent band began on the Vegas club circuit before turning its focus to original music. Its releases include the album Icarus and the EP Morbid Dreams, along with collaborations involving musicians connected to Guns N' Roses and Duff McKagan's Loaded. The band's music combines driving rhythms, dark atmosphere and arena-sized hooks, making Velvet Chains a natural fit alongside Stone Temple Pilots. Their opening performance gives fairgoers a look at a newer act carrying hard rock's muscular sound into the present.

CENTER OF GROUNDS

The Fearless Flores family brings classic circus daring to the fair with a fast-moving show built around precision, courage and spectacle. The centerpiece is the Globe of Death, a steel sphere in which motorcycle riders race through tight loops, cross paths and perform carefully timed stunts at close range. The traveling troupe has presented its thrill show at fairs, festivals and events across the country, earning a reputation for family-friendly excitement and genuine edge-of-your-seat moments. With roaring engines, dramatic pacing and performers working only feet from one another, the Flores Circus Thrill Show offers the kind of live attraction that feels especially at home on a busy fairground.

DOCK DOGS

NEAR GATE #1

DockDogs turns a swimming pool and a dock into a high-flying arena for canine athletes. Dogs of many breeds and experience levels compete in events such as Big Air, which measures distance jumped; Extreme Vertical, which tests height; and Speed Retrieve, a timed dash to a target. The sport has been featured on major television outlets including ABC, ESPN and the Outdoor Channel, but its appeal is easy to understand in person: excited dogs sprint, leap and make spectacular splashes while handlers and spectators cheer them on. Practice sessions, qualifying waves and finals unfold throughout the fair, giving visitors repeated chances to see both seasoned competitors and enthusiastic newcomers.

REMEMBERING HARNESS RACING

By Jim Arbuckle

Harness racing at the State Fair of West Virginia was one of the most exciting attractions for nearly one hundred years.

Once you could hear the sound of thundering hooves, the call of the drivers, the roar of the crowd, the beauty of the horses, the vivid colors of the silks, and the shining spokes of the sulkies as an afternoon of harness racing began at the State Fair of West Virginia. (Portions taken from a 1998 State Fair of WV race program)

Some still remember going to an exciting afternoon of racing at the old wooden grandstand, where the judge's stand was under a big umbrella across the race track beside the old wooden stage. Before and in between each race, the large racing crowd was treated to jazzy tunes like Hello Dolly, Cabaret, and many others from the York Spring Garden Band from York, PA. Acrobats on stage and high wire acts beside the stage also entertained the harness racing crowd.

Dave Tuckwiller and Joe Black Hayes in their 1998 State Fair race video told the story of one particular old race horse barn on the fairgrounds, where the Arbuckle family boarded their race horses. And since these Arbuckle men were Presbyterians, it soon became known as the Presbyterian barn.

Many have sponsored races for this great event year after year. Some of late were the George Aid family, the Jack Arbuckle family, the Col. N.S. Arbuckle family, the Clemons family, the Joe Black Hayes family, the Frank McClung family, Simms Exxon, the Carl Smith family, the David E Tuckwiller family, and the Frank Wilson family. Those who sponsored racing programs during the 1990's were Food & Friends, Jack Arbuckle family, Reynolds Oil, Lewisburg Cash Register, Greenbrier Valley Farm Center, One Valley Bank, Greenbrier Motors and Greenway's Auction from Covington, VA.

I have kept racing programs the past forty years, and here are some results from past decades.

Forty years ago in 1985, Red Oak Rick from Ronceverte, WV won the most races with three. The fastest pacer was, Shenandoah Rocky, a 4 year old from Woodstock, VA who paced the mile in 206.2

Thirty year ago in 1995, Crysta's Exchange, a 5 year old from Laurelville, OH won the most races with five. The fastest pacer was Laker Hanover, a 3 yr old from Woodsboro, MD, who paced the mile in 200.1.

Twenty years ago in 2005, Flaming Saber, United Pan and Britling Saber won the most races with two. The fastest pacer that year was United Pan, a 6 yr old from Monroe, MI, who paced the mile in 201.1.

Ten years ago in 2015, Pathian, a 5 yr old from New Philadelphia, OH, won the most races with two. The fastest trotter was also Pathian, who trotted the mile in 201.2. The fastest pace of the State Fair that year was Bourbon Street Hanover also from New Philadelphia, OH, who paced the mile in 157.3.

Harness racing at the State Fair of West Virginia was one of the most exciting attractions for nearly 100 years, and there are currently 112 harness racing tracks in the USA. In 2025, MGM Northfield Park in Ohio will race year around. The Meadows in PA will race 166 days, the Meadowlands in NJ, 92 days, and Shenandoah Downs in VA, 28 days in 2025, plus many county fairs in twenty states still enjoy the sport. Fair goes at the State Fair of Illinois still enjoy harness racing.
