

Buchanan voters make history on Election Day

For the first time in the town's history, Town Hall will have a female majority in leadership

The Town of Buchanan residents made history during the November 5 elections making their choice for Sue Way as the town's next mayor. The former educator received 62% of the vote with Marine veteran and former Town Council member Chris Witt receiving 36%. Way will become the first-ever female mayor of Buchanan.

That isn't all in terms of Buchanan's historic Election Day. Edith "Sissy" Austin (27%) and James Manspile (27%) were voted onto Town Council after receiving half the votes over candidates Brenda Noszek (19%), Daniel Bratcher (18%), and Brent Witt (7%). This is a re-election for Manspile, while Austin will serve on council for the first time.

Why is this historic? Now, the town has a female majority of leadership with Way and Austin joining current council member Rose Jeter and Buchanan Town Manager Angela Lawrence, along with returning councilmen Marty Rickman and Manspile. Way's and Austin's professional experience and familiarity with Buchanan, along with Jeter and Lawrence's collective leadership experience, have the town's future looking bright.

Jeter joined Buchanan Town Council in 2023.

Botetourt County celebrates its proud, local veterans

Matt de Simone

Botetourt County veterans were honored during programs over the last week. Members of the community expressed their thanks and gratitude celebrating veterans and active military in assemblies at local elementary schools, churches, and municipalities.

Buchanan Elementary School presented a Veterans Day assembly last Friday where music teacher Beth Radford conducted students from each grade level performing patriotic songs. A "wall of honor" in the school's cafeteria commemorated the names of local veterans, some of whom were in attendance for the program.

Buchanan Elementary students helped in providing the list of names for the wall that included "Thank You" cards to each veteran. Radford read off the list of names prior to the musical performances.

"Our goal is to teach our students to love our country and the value of service to it," Radford said when asked about last Friday's assembly. "We should be thankful to the men and women who have sacrificed so much to help ensure our freedom and future growth. We hope our program will express our love and gratitude to all who have served the United States of America."

Additionally, a "field of flags" was installed outside of the elementary school for the local veterans honored during last Friday's ceremony.

On Veterans Day, the Troutville Sunshine Girls hosted their 15th annual

Buchanan Lions Notes

Buchanan Lions donate to ‘Bobcat Challenge’ fundraiser

The Buchanan Elementary School PTA has recently been collecting money with their “Bobcat Challenge” fundraising event. The Buchanan Lions Club heard about it, and voted to support this local event. The Lions’ motto, “We Serve,” went right along with honoring those who have served the country, so the donation of $1,000 was presented in front of the student body, staff, and guests at the school’s Veterans Day Assembly on November 8.

Club holds an English Tea fundraiser

The Buchanan Lions Club held its Second Annual English Tea and Silent Auction fundraiser on Sunday, October 20. The event was a huge success and was attended by a bevy of beauties from 4 to 92.

The four-course tea consisted of Lion Pride Chicken Pot Pie, a variety of tea sandwiches, scones and desserts including Black Forest Trifle cups. Two special teas, Earl Grey from Taylors of Harrogate in London and Blackberry Sage from the Republic of Tea were served.

The event was held at the Buchanan Community House which provided the perfect atmosphere to enjoy a special afternoon. This event could not have been put on without hours of preparation and donations from both Lions Club members and community members. Tea organizers thank all of them for their dedication and belief in the idea of “community service” and the Buchanan Lions.

Lions support JRHS Band

The Buchanan Lions heard a local whisper that said the James River High School Band might need some financial assistance. Some instruments to be replaced, or repaired, possible uniform needs—“it didn’t make a difference to us. That’s what we’re for. ‘We Serve’ is, after all, our motto,” said a Buchanan Lion.

“After successfully running Bingo at the Buchanan Carnival this last summer, we were able to devote some profits to the band. We met Band Director Robert Chaplin on the football field at the James River half-time at the October 25 game and presented him with a check for $1,000.”

Murray Cider Company had been in the apple juice business since 1938. That is the same year the United States began commemorating Veterans Day as “Armistice Day.”

Walter Kent Murray Sr., Walter Kent Murray Jr., and Max A. Murray started the family business. They and their descendants took pride in the consistent quality of their pasteurized cider. It was well respected and sold in stores throughout Virginia and at their farm. Botetourt County Historical Society board member Anne Murray Reid donated this two-quart jug to the Botetourt Museum of History and Culture. Although Murray Cider Company is no longer in business, there are many stories and fond memories that go along with this Botetourt agricultural business. The 93 acres have been sold and will become a Traditional Neighborhood Development along Alt. 220, Cloverdale Road in Bonsack.

DAR: Our Patriot Ancestors

Enduring Inspiration

In recognition of the upcoming 250th celebration of the adoption of the Declaration of Independence, the DAR America 250! Committee of the Botetourt County Chapter of the Daughters of the American Revolution is placing a spotlight on memners Patriot ancestors who helped the country achieve American Independence. Captain David McNabb is the Patriot ancestor of member Joy McNabb.

Captain David McNabb, a Revolutionary War officer, was born February 22, 1757. The Rev. John Craig married David and Elizabeth Taylor in 1778 in the Augusta Stone Church which, at that time, was a “pole” or log building located on land east of what is now Route 11. The building came to be known as Fort Defiance and offered protection during raids by Indians. This church has been Presbyterian from the inception in 1740 and exists today as the Old Stone Meeting House in Staunton.

In 1742, the inhabitants west of the Blue Ridge were organized into militia companies. This is an example of how the revolutionary armies were developed.

David McNabb had an 11-year war record, the first being against the Indians and then against the British which lasted from 1770 until 1781. David McNabb raised his own Company against Major Patrick Ferguson, a Scottish officer in the British Army; Captain McNabb and his company helped defeat Ferguson in the Battle of King’s Mountain on October 7, 1780. He served the state of North Carolina with General McDowell and General Marion and led a company in the Battle of Moncks Corner. Captain McNabb served under Brigadier General James Robertson, who was a companion of Daniel Boone and was a co-founder of Nashville, Tenn.

David McNabb and Landon Carter were members of a committee appointed by the Tennessee General Assembly in 1796 to locate and name the site for the county seat of Carter County, Tenn. The committee named the county seat Elizabethton, as David McNabb’s wife and Landon Carter’s wife were both named Elizabeth. David McNabb died May 13, 1826 in Carter County, Tenn.

Elizabeth McNabb was born in 1757. She had two brothers, Andrew Taylor, who married Isabella McNabb, sister of David McNabb and Nathaniel Taylor, who became a Brigadier General in the Revolutionary Army. In 1838 she applied for and received a Revolutionary War Pension for her husband’s service; Elizabeth died June 20, 1849.

The Daughters of the American Revolution is a non-profit, non-political organization open to any woman who has lineage to a Patriot who contributed to the success of the American Revolution. Founded over 125 years ago, it is focused on service to the community and fosters Patriotism, Education and Historic Preservation.

Historical ‘Ginger Gungus’ event will offer a tasty treat

Buchanan will be the site of both a historical story-telling and dessert tasting to kick-off the holiday season Saturday, November 16, 10:30 a.m.-12:30 p.m. at the Wilson Warehouse, 421 Lowe Street. The event is a joint effort of the Botetourt County Libraries and the Buchanan Town Improvement Society, owner of the Wilson Warehouse.

In 19th century Buchanan, next to the historic 1839 Wilson Warehouse, was a small log cabin in which a local woman baked and sold a ginger dessert, referred to as “Ginger Gungus.” The dessert was sold to locals and to people who arrived on James River &

Kanawha Canal boats that docked in Buchanan. The cabin was still standing in the 1950s.

Rena Worthen, library historian, will share her discovery of the identity of the woman behind the Ginger Gungus dessert.

The popularity of Ginger Gungus was so great, that the recipe has endured into the 21st century. The recipe was part of the “Ginger Gungus Cookbook,” now out of print, and later became part of the “Simply Love Buchanan” cookbook. At the November 16 event, attendees may taste this old-time recipe and enjoy other desserts from the cookbook (bring your own dessert treats to share, if you like).

Special guest is artist Bonnie Williams from Cape Charles, Va., who illustrated the line drawings in the original “Ginger Gungus Cookbook.” She will be available to sign the “Simply Love Buchanan” cookbook, whether you bring your own or acquire one at the event. If you own a “Ginger Gungus Cookbook,” bring it to be signed.

For questions, email Botetourt County Libraries at bocolibraries@botetourtva.gov or call the Buchanan Library at 540-928-3005.

program honoring county veterans. Each veteran in attendance received a medal and some shared a few words when receiving the honor. Students from Lord Botetourt High School wrote “Thank You” cards to the veterans. Lee Henry of the Sunshine Girls read one of the letters from Michael Bennett, a 10th grader from Lord Botetourt. In it, Bennett said, “I’m so thank for you and the service to our nation. I’m grateful to live in this country and to have the best opportunities in the world. I will live my life with a purpose. I will work hard and have pride in my country to honor you and all of those who have served. Thank you for everything you have done– me and every American owe it to you.”

In Fincastle, Central Academy Middle School held the annual Veterans Day program where students heard from guest speaker Marine veteran and BCPS school counselor Ashley Albright.

Later that evening, Quilts of Valor presented 23 veterans with quilts during a presentation ceremony Monday night at The Church of the Transfiguration. Those who were honored are members of the church. Tom Coloton, a parishioner and Marine Corps veteran, organized Monday evening’s ceremony.

The veterans honored represented all branches of the United States Armed Forces. Quilts of Valor were given to the following veterans: Carter Allman, Michael Brennan, Bill Bushman, Steve Cook, Marty Devine, Bill Dillion, Dennis Giles, Scott Harlow, Forrest Hodge, Robert Hoffman, Paul Jesteadt, Alex Kamwell, Eric Klotz, Tracey Klotz, Mike Madonna, Luis Matos, Lenny McLean, Dave Mooty, Trevor Powers, Pat Ryan, Charles Vassar, Jr., Michael Whelan, and Richard Witherow.

I NEED HELP

Read Psalms 11:1 through 18:50

Many of the Psalms are full of praise to God. We sometimes visualize David as peacefully strumming a harp as he quietly watches a flock of sheep grazing on a grassy slope. Psalm 13 presents a different picture.

David apparently had doubts, troubling thoughts, and enemies. Things did not always go well for him. In the first part of this psalm, David, in authentic transparency, expressed some real concerns. He apparently had enemies who were getting a little too close for comfort. The amazing part is how, in spite of the chaos around him, David made a decision to trust God.

But I trust in your unfailing love; my heart rejoices in your salvation (Psalm 13:5).

Everything does not always go well for us either. We face challenges that seem overwhelming, and we do not always see a clear path through the jungle of everyday life. But God is our Source of help, and we can trust Him to get us through!

Prayer Suggestion: Father, I do not feel up to the task that is before me at times, but I have decided that I will trust You.

After high school, he worked at Auto Spring and Bearing in Roanoke during the '50s. His last job, Superintendent of the Vehicles and Transportation Department in Salem, entailed supervision and payroll of many workers, maintenance of the vehicles, snow and trash removal, among other duties.

After his retirement, he came home to be a farmer, where over the course of 40 some years, he took care of around 20 horses who came to live on his farm. His love of horses translated to his daughter, Rebekah, and they spent many weekends at horse shows, trail riding on the mountain nearby, and on the farm in Brugh's Mill. His granddaughter Rachel learned to enjoy riding as much as her grandfather, and now Bob's great-grandchildren, Cora and Wade Meadows, have begun their love of horses.

Before and during his retirement, he and Phyllis traveled the United States with family and friends and visited many states, relatives, and friends along the way. Travelling and hiking were some of his favorite things to do. In fact, he and his son, Mark, camped in and hiked the Grand Canyon in 1983. That adventure, he and Mark liked to revisit in their conversations.

One of his lifelong pastimes was reading. He learned to love reading in the sixth grade where he discovered The Hardy Boys detective series, and he read every one written. From there, he went on to make reading a daily habit, and it was hard to come to his house and not see him reading, especially in his later years.

His father was the minister of the Troutville Church of the Brethren in the 1930s and '40s. Bob grew up in that church, and later as an adult, he would be active in church life that he loved. He handled the maintenance of the church and many other duties.

One of his fondest accomplishments was working as a carpenter for the Church of the Brethren's Disaster Relief program. He loved the support his work gave to the families who had lost their homes in a weather disaster. He traveled to many towns on the East Coast of the United States. From sleeping on a cot in a Church of the Brethren sanctuary after work to perching on a roof to repair torn shingles, he loved being together with the other workers to help these families in need.

Bobbie started life in Denton, Md., in 1930, where his father was the minister in the Denton Church of the Brethren. His dad worked in churches in West Virginia, Maryland, and North Carolina before landing in Troutville, where the family would reside and Bobbie would live for the rest of his life. He attended Troutville High School during WWII. His basketball team, coached by Jimmy Moore, played in the VHSL championship games two years consecutively. Bobbie was about 9 years old when his family came to Troutville, where he would meet a group of boys about his age. They would become lifelong friends and tramp all over the mountains in that area, fish in the streams, and bike on every road they could find. During their school years, they would catch the train in Troutville and ride to Roanoke. They would see a movie, play some pool, and eat a hot dog at the Roanoke Weenie stand all for much less than what we spend on soft drink today. He and his best friend, Rhudy Scaggs, would continue their love of the outdoors by hiking in the Grand Canyon, the Peaks of Otter in Bedford County, and other trails. Rhudy and Bob would travel to many places in the U.S. with their wives and enjoy the sites, scenes, and camaraderie of these trips.

One of Bob's early pastimes was Scouting. He attained Life Scout during his time as a Scout. His son, Mark, attained Eagle Scout, his grandson, Adam Woodie, achieved Eagle Scout, and his grandson, Keith Cook, reached Life Scout in the same childhood troop Bobbie had joined in the 1940s. In the 1990s, Mark would become the scoutmaster for the same troop his father had led as assistant scoutmaster in the 50's and '60s, which met in the Troutville Church of the Brethren for all those years. It is testament to him that his pastime has traveled so far down his lineage.

The family will receive friends on Saturday, November 16, 2024 at the Troutville Church of the Brethren, starting at 2 p.m. The memorial service will follow at the church and a reception for family and friends will follow the memorial service in the church fellowship hall. In lieu of flowers, memorials may be made to the Troutville Church of the Brethren, P.O. Box 156, Troutville, 24175.

Introducing Father Xavier Banasula

The Church of the Transfiguration Roman Catholic Church in Fincastle, welcomed its new resident pastor with the arrival of Father Zaverio (Xavier) Banasula on July 1, 2024. Bishop Barry Knestout, bishop of the Diocese of Richmond, named Father Xavier pastor of Transfiguration as well as pastor of St. John the Evangelist church in New Castle. The most recent parish administrator, Father Paul Lagc, was called back to the Philippines by his bishop in the late spring.

Father Xavier served at churches in Russell and Wise Counties prior to his move to Fincastle. He was born and raised a Catholic in central Uganda in the country area of the Mityana district. He lived on his family's farm with his nine brothers and four sisters. He knew he wanted to be a priest when he was in second grade.

"I was inspired by a priest who traveled by bicycle to visit my grandfather and other home-bound people in my village," he explained. "My family was poor and I feared I could not attain my dream of priesthood due to tuition issues, but two special benefactors, Reinhold Muller of Australia and Christin Kittumba of Uganda, helped me fulfill my dream."

He earned degrees in Theology and Philosophy in Uganda and a Master of Education from the

PHOTOCOURTESYOFKATHLEENMORRA-SLOAN

University of the People in the United States. He was ordained a priest in 2013 and came to the Diocese of Richmond in 2016.

Father Xavier is delighted to be in Botetourt and Craig, where he enjoys seeing nature every day.

"I love taking evening walks and hiking and seeing people connect in diverse ways as they get closer to God," he said.

Some of the new initiatives Father Xavier has instituted include more daily Masses for the people of the parish and the area. In addition to the weekend Masses on Saturday at 4:30 p.m. and Sunday at 8:30 a.m. and the Wednesday morning Mass at 10, Father Xavier has added Masses on Fridays at 10 a.m. and will continue Mass and Adoration every first Friday of the month. For those who work during the day, there will be also a 6 p.m. Mass on Thursdays.

In addition to his pastoral duties, Father Xavier is also actively involved in community outreach programs and welcomes those preparing for the sacraments of baptism and marriage to contact him. He visits sick members in the community as well.

"I welcome all people to the Church of the Transfiguration and Saint John the Evangelist at any time, including for Mass, adoration, silent prayer, and those seeking spiritual direction," he said. "I look forward to learning about the area and working together with our wonderful parishioners to make the Church of the Transfiguration even better."
