Candidates Sit Down with Constituents in Parsons

Tom Dabney, a representative for Rachel Fetty Anderson talks to a group of Tucker County residents September 16th at the Tucker County Senior Citizens Center in Parsons about the candidate during a candidate conversation hosted by Tucker County candidates Deborah Stiles and Jon Bush.

Two dozen Tucker County residents sat down with candidates Deborah Stiles and Jon Bush September 16th at the Tucker County Senior Center in Parsons to talk over the issues facing the County this election season.

Both Stiles and Bush took questions from the audience throughout the time allotted on a range of subjects. Many questions throughout the evening centered on the controversy surrounding the current Tucker County Commissioners and their legal woes with the misdemeanor charges of Unauthorized Expenditure by Local Official.

Most of the questioning in the beginning centered on how the process of appointment by Governor Patrick Morrisey would proceed should one or all three current Commissioners be convicted of the charges. Bush explained how he was contacted by the former Governor in 2019 and asked if he would be willing to complete the term of Commissioner Patrick Darlington, who resigned due to relocation to Martinsburg for employment. Bush said he was asked because he was a Republican and he said he felt it may follow the same pattern, should a conviction occur.

"We'll just have to let that play out," Bush said.

Following questions on the court case, the subject of the Governor removing the Commissioners from office was also raised and whether the Governor would need to follow party lines for appointments. Bush said he thought the Governor would likely follow party lines for appointments, but was not entirely sure.

The issue of the HOPE Scholarship and Education was raised by Tucker County Board of Education member Cathy Hebb. Both Bush and Stiles answered on this question. Stiles was the first to comment on the subject.

"Charleston has, the State government has, become a major collection entity but its not giving the money, but we're not getting good value for the tax dollars," Stiles said.

Stiles said that the funding formula for education in the State needed changed, first and foremost, and find a funding level for the system that does work and is frugal for the State, as well.

Siles commented on the HOPE Scholarship program.

Fallout From Commissioner Scandal Causes Elkins, Others to Pause Programs

By: Lydia Crawley

Following one count each of the Misdemeanor charge of Unauthorized Expenditure by a Local Official against all three members of the Tucker County Commission, the City of Elkins and an unnamed amount of other municipalities across the State have suspend similar payroll deduction programs.

According to the Advocate's sister agency The Inter-Mountain, Elkins Mayor Jerry Marco confirmed to the news agency that the City of Elkins offered the program through which the City's First Responders could take a payroll deduction to pay for items that included for law enforcement: service weapons and personal weapons.

While no date for inception was given, Marco did confirm the program had been in place for some time. However following the arraignment of Tucker County Commissioners Michael Rosenau, Timothy Knotts and

New Study Supports 'Go North' Route, Friends of Blackwater Claim

By: Lydia Crawley
The Parsons Advocate

A new study by a University of Virginia and Vanderbilt University consultant supports a northern route for Corridor H, the Friends of Blackwater say. Nashville, TN Environmental Consultant Barry Sulkin, with more than 40 years of experience, conducted the study.

"In my opinion FOB northern route stays completely out of all land that contributes runoff or stream flows to the Thomas reservoir," the report states.

The report does disclose that Sulkin worked with the Friends of Blackwater "to evaluate impacts and alternatives for the West Virginia Department of Transportation's (WVDOT) Corridor H Parsons to Davis project in Tucker County, primarily with regard to antidegradation and other water quality issues."

Preserving History – One Cleanup at a Time...

Volunteers from The Friends of Blackwater gathered at the Cole Ovens near Thomas for a cleanup of the Blackwater Rail Trail the weekend of September 12th. The organization conducted mowing, weed eating and pruning of vegetation around the historic site and signage in the area.

"Together, we spent the afternoon clearing overgrown vegetation around our historic coke ovens and signage, helping make these important pieces of Blackwater's history more visible and accessible," a release from the organization stated. "...our volunteers rolled up their sleeves and got the job done! We're grateful to everyone who donated their time and energy to help care for and preserve this special part of our local heritage. We couldn't do this work without our incredible volunteer community—thank you for helping us keep Blackwater's history alive!"

Fred Davis on the misdemeanor charges, programs across the State have been called into question. Marco also said the State Auditor's Office was the entity that sent the hold order.

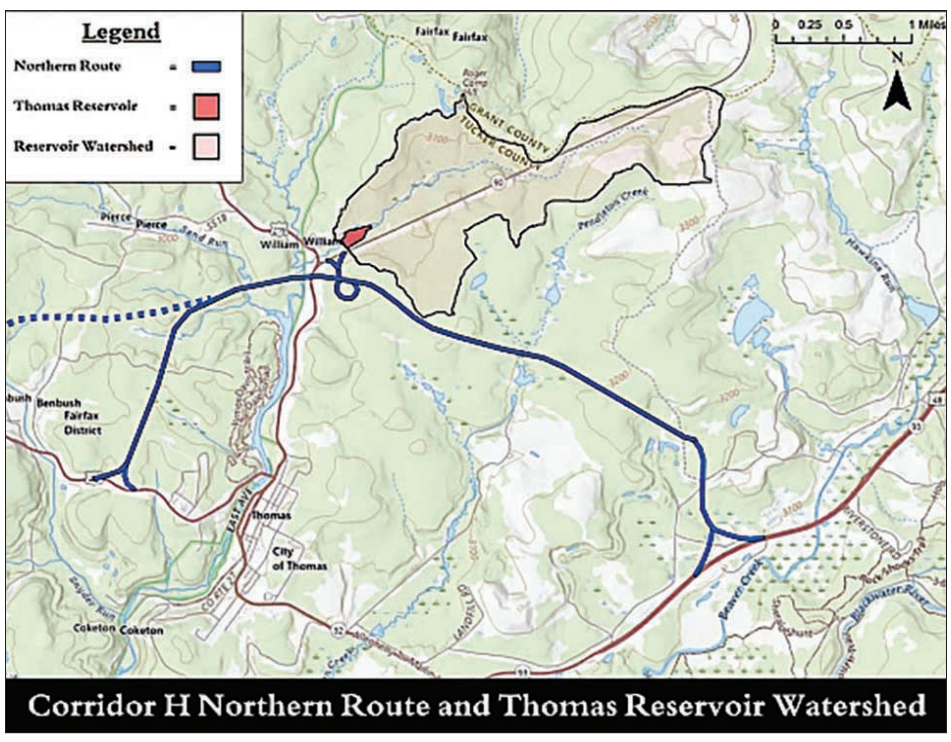

All other programs across the State have also been placed on hold, according to Marco. The State Auditor's Office is working to determine the future of the programs, with the possibility of revamping, according to the Inter-Mountain.

As of now, Elkins is the only municipality, other than Tucker County, to be named publicly as having a payroll deduction program. To date, the Tucker County Commissioners are the only officials to have been charged for misappropriation of funds for such a program.

The basis of the charges stems from purchases in the amount of $3,990.75 made by Tucker County. In August of 2025, purchases were voted on and approved by the Commission. All funds for expenditures were recorded to have been paid in full through payroll deductions. Previous purchases were made by Davis in 202, 2022, 2023 and 2024 through the program and repaid in full, according to court records.

Corridor H Northern Route and Thomas Reservoir Watershed

The Friends of Blackwater Route has been in development for around a year. This map shows the route overlaid with the Thomas Reservoir. The WVDOh has been developing an alternative northern route called the Blackwater Avoidance Alternative 2 or BAA2 since 2024. This map shows the route overlaid with the Thomas Reservoir. Courtesy Environmental Consultant Barry Sulkin.

The report's aim was to encourage a route between Parsons and Davis that would avoid impacts to the sensitive areas of the Blackwater Canyon and the Towns of Thomas and Davis, especially the watershed of Thomas.

"This analysis shows that the proposed Northern Route for Corridor H does not go through resource that must be protected, but it is not an obstacle to a northern route."

In the report, Sulkin states that he examined both the unpublished WVDOT northern alternative route in the design phase since 2024 called the Blackwater Avoidance Alternative 2 (BAA2), as well as the Friends of Blackwater's design that has been developed over the past year. The WVDOT's version is slated to be publicly released in a draft Environmental Impact Statement on October 5th.

"Recently I took a closer look at FOB's northern route, specifically with regard to protection of the reservoir used by the town of Thomas for its water supply," the report states.

The report said that Sulkin used an analytical tool from the U.S, Geological Survey called StreamStats and generated a map of the watershed of the Thomas reservoir north of town. The proposed routes were then overlaid on the watershed.

Tucker Wins OT Thriller in Blacksville Over Clay Batelle 22-14

By: Adam Freeman

The Tucker County Mt. Lions football team made the trip north last Friday night to Blacksville, WV, to take on the 1-1 Clay Batelle Cee Bees. CB got off to an early lead as they scored early on the opening drive, connecting on a 65-yard touchdown pass, with the XP no good. The Cee Bees jumped out to an early 6-0 lead. Tucker would mount several drives in the half but finally put a scoring one together as quarterback Branson Hyre would dive into the end zone from one yard out, with a successful two-point try. Tucker took the lead into halftime 8-6.

Tucker got the ball to start the second half and scored a crucial touchdown as Cade Rapp pummeled his way across the goal line for a one-yard score. The two-point try was no good, but Tucker extended the lead to 14-6. However, Clay Batelle would answer on a 30-yard catch and score. Tucker managed to halt the two-point try to maintain their two-point advantage at 14-12.

The next score came late in the fourth quarter, with Tucker backed up into their own red zone. A blocked punt went through the back of the end zone for a safety that would tie the game at 14 apiece. The Cee Bees would mount a drive as time expired, but the Mt. Lions defense stood tall, forcing overtime in Blacksville.

Clay Batelle would win the OT coin toss and elect to go on defense first. In high school football, each team gets a chance with the ball starting on the 20-yard line going into the end zone.

Tucker would get a first down, then score on a one-yard run by Rapp. Hyre would then deliver a beautifully thrown ball on the two-point try as Rapp made possibly the most acrobatic play of the game, diving to catch the ball as he crossed the front pylon of the end zone. The play was critical and put the pressure on the Cee Bees at 22-14.

Clay Batelle would go on the offensive, garnering a first down, but the Tucker defense would put them behind the sticks and force a fourth-and-goal situation. Senior defensive end Gunnar Carroll would then show out big for his team, sacking the Clay Batelle QB and putting the game away for the Mt. Lions victory, 22-14.

Tucker's offense put together over 300 total yards of offense on the night. Branson Hyre finished 16 of 23 for 176 yards, with 16 carries for 37 yards and a touchdown. Cade Rapp put together 91 yards on 26 carries and two touchdowns, along with three catches for 17 yards. Receiver Brayden Bennett finished with 6 catches for 72 yards alongside Evan Hexom, with four catches for 59 yards. Tucker's defense produced four turnovers via two fumble recoveries from Carroll and Jonathan Tuttle, and two interceptions, one from young freshman Rylan Sexton, and the other from junior Evan Hexom.

With the win, Tucker's record improves to .500 at 2-2 as they are set to return home this week as they play host to the Cameron Dragons Friday, September 25, at 7:00 p.m.

Tucker Valley Football Wins Home Opener, 22-6

Leland Nelson read it, picked it, caught it.

Luke Lantz drives the Bulldog to open the running lane.

By: Adam Freeman

For the first time this season, the Wildcat football team played a game inside their own zip code, welcoming the Bulldogs of Tygarts Valley last Thursday. A heavy rainstorm hit the area just before kickoff, saturating R.H. Armstrong Memorial Field and making conditions less than ideal for the ball game.

Tucker would get the opening kickoff and mount a short, three-play drive when Braxton White would bust loose down the home sideline for a 39-yard touchdown run. Brother Noah White would complete the two-point play, and Tucker had an early 8-0 lead. Neither team would find pay dirt again in the first period, but just before the break, QB Bentley Haddix would throw a 51-yard touchdown bomb to Braxton White. Braxton would also catch the two-point attempt to give the Wildcats a 16-0 advantage at the break.

Neither squad would score in the third period, but Tucker struck early in the fourth as Noah White had a powerful 56-yard run to give the Wildcats 22 points on the evening. The Bulldogs would score late in the fourth when the game was already decided, as they found the end zone from four yards out to make the final score 22-6 in favor of the home-standing Wildcats.

Noah White paced the ground attack with 15 carries for 139 yards and a touchdown. Braxton White had three carries for 46 yards and a touchdown, along with two catches for 88 yards and another touchdown. Quarterback Bentley Haddix tossed for 88 yards, one touchdown, and one interception.

Tucker's defense produced several turnovers in the game, with Tristan Pitzer forcing a fumble and recovering another. Easton Wolford also collected a fumble recovery, and Leland Nelson intercepted a Bulldogs pass.

The Wildcats have quite the tall task waiting on them next week as they travel to AAA powerhouse Bridgeport to take on the Indians at Liberty Harrison's Field. Tucker improves to 3-0 on the season and looks forward to the challenge lying ahead.

Bears Soccer Claims First-Ever Win at Braxton, 3-0

By: Adam Freeman

The Davis Thomas Bears soccer team embarked on a journey south on I-79 last week to Braxton County to bring home their first-ever win. In the fifth minute of the match, Kyree Dillard scored the first goal. In the ninth minute, the Knights committed a handling foul inside their own 18-yard box, resulting in a penalty kick opportunity for Karac Snider, who was unable to convert.

Throughout the match, the Bears maintained possession on a damp, slightly muddy pitch. Just two minutes into the second half, Karac Snider executed a breakaway and delivered a through ball to Walker Litzau, who skillfully scored to give the Bears a commanding 2-0 lead.

Maverick Drenning showcased his agility and skill in the 49th minute, weaving through Braxton County defenders to extend the Bears' lead to three. This was his second goal of the season.

The Knights, coached by Lindsay Harman, displayed commendable discipline throughout the match. However, they were unable to match the Bears' comprehensive passing game.

With ten minutes remaining, Ellis Sherald was relieved as goalkeeper by Alex Kerr. In the 55th minute, Sherald was fouled in the box but narrowly missed the subsequent penalty kick.

The match concluded with a convincing victory for the Bears, who secured a 3-0 win. Sherald's performance was commendable, as he maintained a clean sheet for three consecutive quarters of play.

Davis Thomas will hit the field next on the road against Webster County on September 23 and then return home to face Notre Dame on September 25.

Lady Mountain Lions Battle Through Busy Week of Volleyball

Everley Evans sets to Ada Bonner for the kill.

By: Adam Freeman

The Tucker County Lady Mountain Lions volleyball team faced a demanding schedule this past week, competing in multiple matches and a tournament while continuing to build momentum as the season progresses.

The week opened with the Tucker County varsity squad traveling to Pocahontas County for a tri-match against Pocahontas County and Webster County. The Lady Mountain Lions turned in a solid show, earning victories over both opponents.

On Tuesday, both the junior varsity and varsity teams traveled to Pendleton County. The JV squad came up short, while the varsity Lady Mountain Lions jumped out to a strong start, winning the opening two sets.

Pendleton County answered back, however, taking the next three sets to complete the comeback and hand Tucker County a hard-fought five-set loss.

The Lady Mountain Lions returned home later in the week to host Southern, where the Tucker County JV squad continued to show improvement. The young team battled throughout the match, narrowly falling 22-25 and 19-25.

The varsity contest provided plenty of excitement as Tucker County and Southern battled through five competitive sets. When the final point was played, the Lady Mountain Lions had earned the victory.

While the action on the court provided plenty of excitement, the atmosphere in the gym was just as memorable.

Tucker County fans turned out in force, packing the gym and creating an electric environment for the players. The support made the evening feel more like a basketball game, with the crowd providing energy from start to finish.

The Lady Mountain Lions expressed their appreciation to the Tucker County community for helping make the night special.

"Thank you" was the message to everyone who came out to support the team and fill the gym. The players and coaches recognized that the enthusiasm from the fans added something special to an already exciting night of volleyball.

Tucker County wrapped up the week Saturday at the Forest Festival Tournament in Elkins. The Lady Mountain Lions fell to St. Marys but bounced back to defeat Pocahontas County twice during tournament play.

Tucker County also faced Trinity, a familiar opponent from earlier in the season. The Lady Mountain Lions held the lead for much of the opening set before Trinity rallied and ultimately took the match.

It was a busy and demanding week for Tucker County volleyball, but it also provided the Lady Mountain Lions with valuable opportunities to compete against a variety of opponents, gain experience and continue improving together.

The Lady Mountain Lions will return to their home court Wednesday when they host Tygarts Valley at 6 p.m. Tucker County will then travel to Union on Thursday.

With another home match on the schedule, the Lady Mountain Lions are hoping to once again see a strong turnout from the Tucker County community.

The varsity contest was competitive, especially in the second set. DT lost the opening set 17-25, with Harper Wilt tallying two points. In a thrilling second set, DT pushed the Vikings to the limit before falling 23-25. Elizabeth DelSignore led with five points, while Stella Johnson chipped in three points.

Mt. Lions Golf Finishes Third in PVC Championship

By: Adam Freeman

Tucker County's golf team had a packed week last week. On Monday, they traveled to Moorefield to participate in the Valley View Invitational, an 18-hole match with 15 other teams. Despite being the only Class A team, Tucker had a robust showing, finishing in ninth place and just nine shots behind sixth place. Four of their golfers shot in the 80s, with Nate Davis posting the team's best round with an 84.

The next day, Tucker returned to The Raven Golf Course at Snowshoe Mountain for the 18-hole PVC Conference Championship. The team faced a challenging course and struggled mentally to find their rhythm. However, they managed to finish third in the event. Senior Nate Davis also had a standout individual performance, finishing second and earning All-Conference honors for the third consecutive season.

To cap off the week, Tucker hosted a home match on Thursday at Canaan Valley Resort. They faced PVC Champion Tygarts Valley, Trinity Christian, and Preston High School. After a tough outing on Tuesday, the team responded with a stellar performance, winning the match by six shots over Tygarts Valley.

Three of their golfers finished in the top 10: Nate Davis shot a low round of 37, Cayden Arnold finished fourth with a 40, and Drew Simmons secured a sixth-place finish with a 44.

The team has another busy week ahead. They'll travel to Tygart Lake Golf Course on Monday for a nine-hole match. Back at Canaan on Tuesday, they'll host the inaugural 18-hole Tucker County Invitational. The week will conclude on Thursday at Fisher Mountain in Pendleton County with a head-to-head match-play event.

Tucker XC Competes in No Excuses Braxton Invitational

By: Adam Freeman

The Tucker County Cross Country team traveled to Flatwoods last week for the No Excuses Braxton County Invitational. Competing against a stacked field of eight teams, including Morgantown, George Washington, Ritchie County, North Marion, Braxton County, Robert C. Byrd, and Gilmer County, the Tucker boys secured a commendable 6th-place finish.

Leading the charge for Tucker County was Liam Gilligan, who crossed the finish line in 21st place out of 90 competitors with a time of 21:50. Close behind was Draven Bunnell, who finished 26th with a time of 22:11. Landon Wilfong followed in 50th place, clocking in at 24:58. Riley Coffman and Evan Spencer completed the team's scoring, finishing 84th and 85th, respectively, with times of 34:10 and 34:19.

In a notable performance, Juniper Judy was the sole female representative for Tucker County. She put forth a respectable outing, finishing 18th out of 64 female runners with a time of 26:32.

The runners will return to the track on October 3 as they head to Keyser for the Charlie Kuh Invitational.

Septmeber Yard of the Month

The Mountaineer Garden Club selected their Yard-of-the-Month recipients for September.

First notable homeowner is Kim Sprout whose home is located in the 300 block of Walnut Street. Many floral delights attract one's attention throughout her yard.

Around the exterior of her yard are many Rose- of-Sharon's with pink/purple/blooms that create a nice privacy border.

Bordering her garage is quite a lush display of 6-to-8-foot dahlias surrounding the exterior wall along with morning glories in surrounding locations that grabs your attention.

Additionally beautiful red cannas brighten the alley along 2 other exterior walls and within their vegetable/floral and berry garden which is well tended to and inviting.

The next beautiful home is located along the Blackman Flats River Road and goes to Rhonda and Mike Adkins.

Lush green ferns line their front porch with cascading baskets of purple/fuchsia petunias. While planters along the front porch are filled with multiple colors of yellow, orange and rust/red begonias, the colors all brightly hued.

The last recognition for the Month of September goes to the St. John's Church.

Their fall display is filled with colorful yellow and orange mums, bright orange pumpkins and lovely fall wreaths with cascading orange gauzy ribbons.

Congratulations again to this month's recipients.

If interested in joining the Mountaineer Garden Club, please plan to attend our next monthly meeting at 6 pm on Tuesday October 6, 2026 at the Five River Library in Parsons.

Momma Said

This column is about tips, helpful hints, recipes and words of wisdom. I dedicate this column to my mother.

By Teri Cayton
The Parsons Advocate

Fall Fairs and Festivals are beginning in West Virginia and it is a time I remember well as a child. The Mountain State Forest Festival is an annual event in the county that I live in. It is one of the largest and oldest festivals in West Virginia and this is the 88th consecutive year with only two breaks in the tradition. During World War II it was suspended for seven years and during Covid 19 the event was canceled for two years due to public health concerns.

I remember saving my allowance and anticipating the one day that we got to go "to town" and see the sights. You have to understand that where I grew up there wasn't much to see. Mabie, my hometown, and don't laugh" was 12 miles from Elkins and we didn't get to go there very often. Momma Said, "It was like someone visiting New York City, it was a grand day."

There were many more businesses then than there are now and it was a sight to behold, especially during the festival. The store front windows were and still are decorated with past Queen's gowns and beautiful displays of artwork. The gowns are pieces of majestic artwork themselves. I don't know how many hours of work are in each one but they are masterfully done in beautiful fall colors along with the Princess gowns.

I don't go much anymore because I have to work on the day of the coronation and I just don't do well in crowds anymore. The atmosphere in town changes greatly. We have an influx of around 75,000 people converge in the space of a week and it is a dramatic change to a town with a population of less than 7,000. Momma Said, "When the carnies come to town you know there will be a party."

Fair Kettle Corn

INGREDIENTS:

- ¼ cup corn oil
- ¼ cup unpopped popcorn kernels
- 2 tablespoons white sugar
- 1 ½ teaspoons brown sugar
- salt to taste

DIRECTIONS:

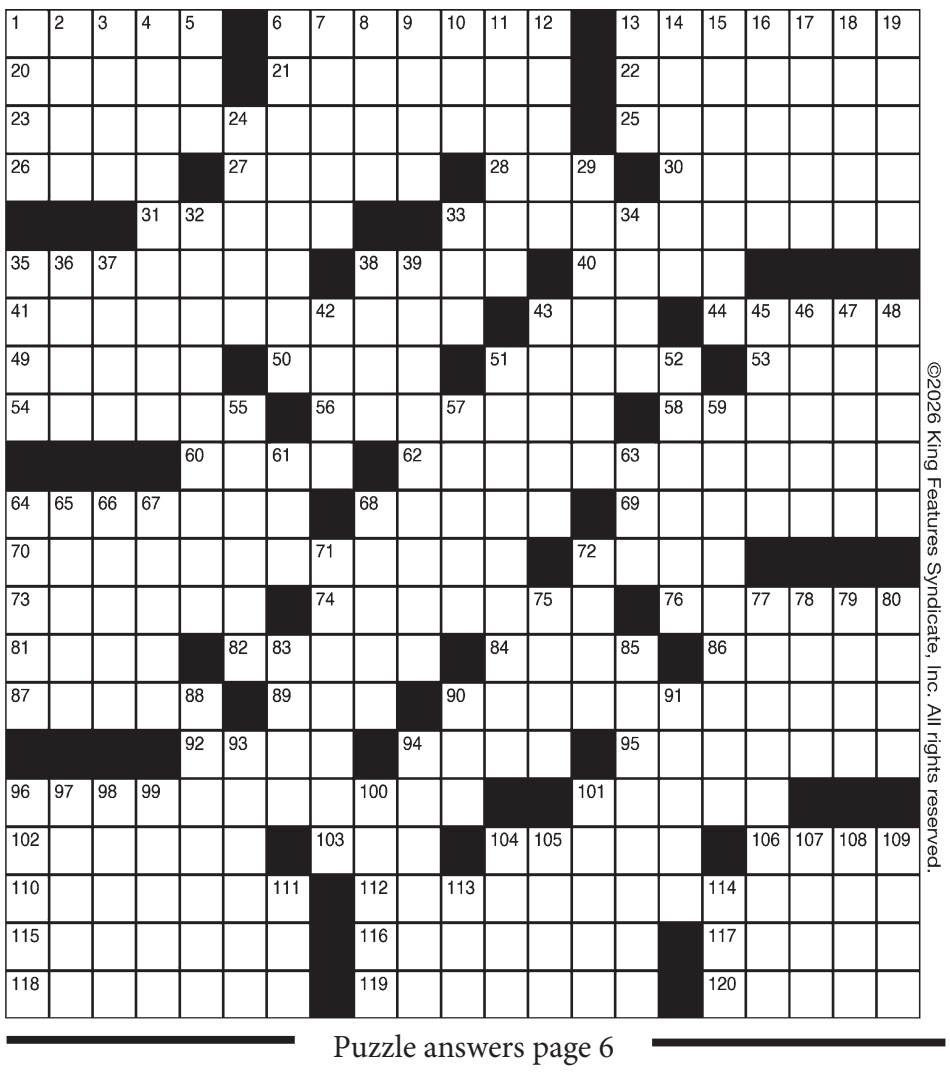

Heat oil in a large pot over medium heat until hot. Add corn kernels until 2 to 3 pop; stir in white and brown sugars. Cover pot with a lid; agitate pot in a circular motion on the stove. Allow corn to pop, agitating pot constantly, until popping rate slows down to 1 pop every 2 to 3 seconds. Remove pot from the stove; shake pot until popping stops. Transfer popcorn to a large bowl; cool to room temperature. Break apart large popcorn clumps by hand; season with salt.

LEGAL

IN THE CIRCUIT COURT OF TUCKER COUNTY,
WEST VIRGINIA

STATE OF WEST VIRGINIA ON BEHALF OF THE MOUNTAIN REGION DRUG TASK FORCE, Petitioner,

v. // CASE NO. 26-C-21
Hon. Hilary M. Bright

PERSONAL PROPERTY, INCLUDING
$1,180.00 U.S. CURRENCY,
Respondent.

Notice of Petition for Forfeiture

Any claimant of the property described below has the right to file a claim in the Office of the Circuit Clerk of Tucker County not more than 30 days after the first publication of this Notice on September 16, 2026. Any such claim must clearly state the identity of the claimant and an address where legal process can be served upon that claimant.

Now comes the Petitioner, State of West Virginia, by Savannah Hull Wilkins. Prosecuting Attorney of Tucker County, on behalf of the Mountain Region Drug Task Force and petitions the Court for forfeiture of certain seized property pursuant to West Virginia Code §60A-7-701, et seq. In support thereof, the Petitioner avers as follows:

1. Petitioner is State of West Virginia on behalf of the Mountain Region Drug Task Force.
2. Respondent is One Thousand One Hundred Eighty Dollars ($1,180.00) in U.S. Currency; which was seized from the possession of Kadeem R. Santiful aka "Big Baby" (hereinafter "Accused"). Kadeem R. Santifurs last known address is 3704 Brice Run Road, Randallstown, Maryland, 21133. The Accused is being investigated for one (1) count of "Possession of a Controlled Substance with Intent to Deliver" in violation of West Virginia Code §60A-4-401 (a)(i), in Tucker County, West Virginia, after he was found in possession of approximately 112 grams of suspected fentanyl.
3. Petitioner seeks the forfeiture of the following seized property:
   a. One Thousand One Hundred Eighty Dollars ($1,180.00) in U.S. Currency.
4. The property sought to be forfeited, $1,180.00 in U.S. Currency, was seized on August 10, 2026, when law enforcement personnel of the West Virginia State Police-Parsons Detachment and members of the Mountain Region Drug Task Force located contraband within the vehicle being driven by the Accused named herein during a lawful search while conducting a traffic stop in Tucker County, West Virginia and the U.S. Currency sought to be forfeited herein was located on the Accused's person during said traffic stop.
5. Upon information and belief, the above-described property is subject to forfeiture pursuant to West Virginia Code §60A-7-703. More particularly, the U.S. Currency is moneys furnished for or intended to be furnished in violation of West Virginia Code Chapter 60A making it subject to forfeiture pursuant to West Virginia Code §60A-7-703(a)(7). The contraband was located within the vehicle being driven by the Accused named herein during a lawful search while conducting a traffic stop in Parsons, West Virginia and the U.S. Currency sought to be forfeited herein was located on the Accused's person. The circumstances of the seizures tend to prove that the seized property was intended to be used to facilitate a violation of Chapter 60A of the West Virginia Code.
6. Upon information and belief, the owner of the $1,180.00 U.S. Currency seized from the Accused August 10, 2026, is the Accused. The Petitioner does not know of any other person with any ownership interest in the property sought to be forfeited.
7. There are no known persons or corporations having a protected security interest or lien in the subject property, nor are there any known persons or corporations who may be holding a possessory or statutory lien against such property.

Wherefore, your Petitioner prays for an Order directing the forfeiture of the seized property to the Petitioner and vesting ownership of said property with the Petitioner and such other and further relief as the Court finds just.

These investments are identified in the Application, which is on file and available for public inspection at the Commission's offices at 201 Brooks Street, Charleston, West Virginia and which may be viewed on the Commission's website, www.psc.state.wv.us.

Mountaineer proposes to increase IREP revenues by approximately $8,611,000 for IREP investments made from 2025 to 2027 through an increased IREP rate component to be effective on January 1, 2027, within the fixed or volumetric base rate component of its rates, depending on the applicable rate schedule under which service is rendered. Mountaineer projects that if the program and IREP rate increase are approved as requested, the average monthly bill for its various classes of customers will be changed on January 1, 2027 as shown below:

Mountaineer Gas Company - Proposed
Type of Customer	$ Increase	% Increase
Residential	$ 2.40	2.79%
Commercial	$ 6.56	1.96%
Large Commercial (*)	$ 359.07	0.62%
Large Commercial	$ 454.84	0.22%
Industrial	$ 488.33	2.29%
Wholesale	$ 78.66	0.84%
(*) Percentage increases for Large Commercial and Industrial customers assume transport customers purchase their natural gas at the same price as the Company's Purchased Gas Adjustment rate.

The increases shown above are compared to the rates currently in place and are based on averages of all customers in the indicated class. Each class may receive an increase greater or less than stated here. Individual customers may receive an increase that is greater or less than average. Furthermore, the requested rates and charges are only a proposal and are subject to change (increase or decrease) by the Commission in its review of the filing. Any change in rates and charges will not become effective until authorized and approved by the Commission.

The Commission set a procedural schedule, including a hearing date on the Application that will begin at 9:30 a.m. on November 6, 2026, in the Howard M. Cunningham Hearing Room at the Commission's offices at 201 Brooks Street, Charleston, West Virginia. If no opposition to the Application is received by the Commission prior to the hearing date, the hearing may be waived and the Commission may issue a final order within 150 days of the Application filing date.

Anyone desiring to intervene should file a written petition to intervene within 10 days following the date of publication unless otherwise modified by Commission order. All requests to intervene should briefly state the reason for the request to intervene and comply with the rules on intervention set forth in the Commission's Rules of Practice and Procedure. GC to induct seven into Athletic Hall of Fame

Clark will be first wrestler inducted; three baseball players among inductees

McHenry, MD – Seven Lakers – including the first-ever wrestler – will be inducted into the Garrett College Hall of Fame on Friday, October 2nd at 6 p.m. in the Performing Arts Center at Garrett College.

Tanner Clark, who wrestled for Garrett College's first two wrestling squads from 2018 to 2020, is the first member of that program to be inducted into the Hall of Fame. He qualified for the national tournament both seasons, winning the district title at 285 pounds and finishing ninth in the nation as a sophomore.

"It was exciting being part of something brand new," said Clark, who went on to wrestle at NCAA Division I Kent State University. "It was also kind of nerve-wracking, not knowing your fate [in a first-year program] while you were doing everything you could to make a name for yourself."

Baseball players Mike Mathews (1983-84), Mike Leshok (1991-92), and Michael Dobre (2007) will also be inducted along with men's basketball player Charles Somerville (1998-2000) and women's basketball player Ashley Liller Fadley (2003-04).

Eric Hallenbeck, who notched his 500th victory as Garrett College's baseball coach this past spring, is this year's seventh inductee.

"We are incredibly proud to announce this exceptional class," said GC Operations Athletic Director Elizabeth Show. "Each member of this group brought unforgettable moments to Garrett College and left an indelible mark on Laker Nation."

Fadley – who came back to the area to serve as head coach at Southern Garrett High, where she played her high school basketball – said Garrett College provided her with an opportunity to prepare for Division I competition.

"My whole life my goal growing up was to play D-1 basketball," said Fadley, who played three years at NCAA Division I Mount St. Mary's University after helping the Lady Lakers win state and region championships during the 2003-04 women's basketball season.

"It was amazing – I really think of it as a catalyst," said Fadley of her Garrett College experience. "I had to play at a different speed than I was used to in high school. Coach [Ed] Wildesen and Coach Thea [Garland] both pushed me. They said conditioning was critical because the game was played at a different speed in college."

Somerville, who played at Leonardtown High School, said he came to Garrett College as part of the "Family Plan".

"I was playing in the 1998 SMAC [Southern Maryland Athletic Conference] All-Star game and Coach [Dennis] Gibson offered me a scholarship on the spot," recalled Somerville, who went on to play two years at NAIA Division I Bluefield College. "I wanted to play with my cousin [Thomas Somerville] and he [Coach Gibson] accepted me and my cousin together."

Somerville credited sophomores Michael Fields and Lionel Sewell with helping him transition from high school to college athletics.

"They took me under their wings," recalled Somerville. "They gave me guidelines on how to be a college athlete. They really instilled in me that anything you do in the offseason will benefit you during the season."

Mathews called his selection "quite an honor" and noted he was "very humbled" to be part of the Class of 2026. Ironically, Mathews said a "southern" trip by the Lakers' baseball team during his tenure nearly got cancelled due to snow before common sense broke out.

"The first thing I learned was that Garrett County weather could be really bad," Mathews said with a laugh.

"We were scheduled to play at Bridgewater [in Virginia] and it snowed overnight," recalled Mathews, who went on to play two years at NCAA Division I James Madison (VA) University. "Bridgewater said, 'It snowed overnight, so we can't play.' We said, 'We'll drag it off the field' – and we played those games."

Leshok said he had been prepared to play at Allegany College of Maryland (then Allegany Community College) before GC head coach Lawrence Nesselrodt recruited him for the Lakers.

"It was a good call. I had a lot of good times," Leshok said of his two years with the Lakers, which included selection to the all-Region 20 team as a sophomore shortstop. "I was able to play with a lot of good guys and good players."

Leshok went on to play two years at the University of South Carolina-Aiken, which was an NCAA Division II powerhouse. USC-Aiken, guided by legendary coach Gary Gilmore, went 46-18 in Leshok's junior season, winning the Peach Belt Conference and advancing to the NCAA Division II World Series.

"It sure is an honor," Leshok said of his election to the Hall of Fame. "I always considered myself an average ballplayer who got lucky playing with a lot of good guys."

Dobre was first team all-state, all-Region 20, and all-district in 2007. He hit .389, scored 56 times and drove in 42 runs while playing catcher for the Lakers.

Dobre went 25-for-26 in stolen-base attempts on offense and threw out 23 of 32 would-be base stealers on defense.

Hallenbeck, who has coached the Lakers for 22 years, has won 515 games. The last two seasons have been among his program's most successful as the Lakers won 69 games and reached the NJCAA Division II Region 20 finals this past season.

""When I look at the incredible depth of talent and character in this 2026 induction class, I am reminded of why Garrett College is such a special place," said Hallenbeck, who also serves as GC's administrative athletic director. "I am truly honored and humbled to be alongside this outstanding class."

The Athletic Hall of Fame, which was founded in 2015, now includes 39 student athletes, eight coaches and administrators, and the 1993-94 men's basketball team, which became the first Laker squad to win state and region titles and qualify for the national tournament.

"The Garrett College Athletics Hall of Fame represents the absolute pinnacle of our sports history, and the Class of 2026 is a powerhouse class of Laker legends," said Show.

Meet Tygarts Valley Conservation District's Newest Supervisors

Tygarts Valley Conservation District (TVCD) is pleased to highlight two recently appointed supervisors, Marsha Waybright and Sarah Cunningham. Both bring strong experience, deep community commitment, and a passion for conservation to the district. Their service and continued leadership will support TVCD's mission across Tucker and Randolph counties.

Marsha Waybright, Tygarts Valley Conservation District Supervisor, Tucker County, WV

Marsha Waybright serves as a Conservation District Supervisor for Tucker County. She was appointed in June 2026 and serves alongside Jim Nester, who has served on the board since 2012. Marsha is a member of the Education, Publicity and Exhibit Committee; the Work Crew, Equipment and Safety Committee; and the Nominations and Awards Committee.

A native of Randolph County, Marsha grew up on Middle Mountain and now lives in Jenningston with her husband, Kendall. She owns and operates several businesses in Appalachia, including Laurel Fork Farm, Mama Bear Protection, Laurel River Club Bed & Breakfast, and the West Virginia School of Traditional Skills, a nonprofit she founded.

Marsha has spent her life teaching, speaking, and passing on traditional Appalachian knowledge. Laurel Fork Farm, a 400-acre property, serves as a living classroom for many of her programs on land stewardship, natural resources, and heritage skills.

She is a Master Artisan in soap making, a Master Gardener, a certified animal trainer, and an instructor for hunter safety, firearms, CPR/First Aid/AED, and herbal practices. She is also a homeschooling mother of three.

Her family's additional ventures, including Laurel Fork Falconry, It's Kendra Paige, and Redhead'n Mudboots, help support hands-on workshops and educational programs at the B&B. Marsha is deeply committed to preserving the cultural and environmental legacy of Jenningston, once a thriving lumber town, and works with many partners to support conservation, historic preservation, and agricultural literacy.

Marsha's work has received wide recognition. Laurel Fork Farm was named Tucker County Conservation Farm of the Year in 2023 for its leadership in agritourism. She has been featured in Goldenseal, WV Living, Countryside Magazine, and other regional publications. She has also represented rural entrepreneurship in national conversations with Meta Platforms and has spoken at major conferences across the state.

In 2024, Marsha joined the inaugural Goldman Sachs 10,000 Small Businesses West Virginia cohort and later served on its national advocacy advisory board. She has spoken in Washington, D.C., at several high-profile events and continues to advocate for small farms and rural communities. Most recently, she won $19,000 in the IgniteWV Pitch Contest to begin construction on a new educational facility and commercial kitchen at Laurel Fork Farm.

Marsha maintains an active digital presence across several platforms, where she shares educational content, farm life, and Appalachian traditions with a wide audience.

TVCD appreciates Marsha's energy, creativity, and her strong commitment to conservation and education in Tucker County.

Sarah Cunningham, Tygarts Valley Conservation District Supervisor, Randolph County, WV

Sarah Cunningham serves as a Conservation District Supervisor for Randolph County. She was appointed in June 2026 and serves alongside James Dean, who has served on the board since 2016. Sarah is a member of the Building, Budget and Finance Committee; the Grassland/AgEP Committee; and the Personnel Committee. She also serves as chair of the Nominations and Awards Committee.

Sarah and her family operate a livestock farm in Randolph County, where they are committed to responsible land stewardship and conservation.

Over the past several years, they have added two ponds to provide reliable water sources for livestock, including a tire-trough watering system to help during drought conditions. This year, they installed a concrete watering trough to reduce cattle access to streams and protect streambanks.

They also built a waste-management barn to reduce rutting, erosion, and runoff during wet weather. This project has helped improve manure handling and livestock management while protecting soil and water resources.

Their farm experience includes livestock production, pasture management, hay production, fencing, equipment operation, and daily farm maintenance. Sarah and her family work hard to conserve natural resources while maintaining a productive and sustainable farming operation.

TVCD values Sarah's dedication to land stewardship and her service to the residents of Randolph County.

CANDIDATES

Candidates Deborah Stiles (D)West Virginia House of Delegates for District 85 and Jon Bush (R) Tucker County Commission, host a candidate conversation September 16th at the Tucker County Senior Citizens Center in Parsons.

Candidates Deborah Stiles, a Democrat, who is running for the West Virginia House of Delegates for District 85 which represents Tucker and Grant Counties and Jon Bush, a Republican who is running for Tucker County Commission, talk to residents of Tucker County about the issues facing Tucker County this election season September 16th at the Parsons Senior Citizens Center in Parsons. Two dozen residents of Tucker County assembled at the Tucker County Senior Citizens Center in Parsons to discuss the issues that mattered to them with candidates Deborah Stiles and Jon Bush September 16th.

She called the program "Hollowing Out Public Education."

"We are hollowing out a sacred trust that has been part of this country since the mid nineteenth century," Stiles said.

Stiles said the public education system is being drained of funds by the HOPE Scholarship program. She said the program has "no guardrails," which has led to teachers and administrators concerns about the quality of HOPE Scholarship funded activities. Her goal in Charleston, should she be elected, would be to seek guardrails on the program to ensure accountability and standards for excellence in homeschooling education.

"My job in Charleston would be to work with as many of my colleagues as possible to get some guardrails on that, academic guardrails, making sure that somebody doesn't take the money and homeschool for a year and put their child back into the school system ill prepared for the next grade. We have to have guardrails on that program." - Deborah Stiles

Bush said that his children were homeschooled in Nashville four decades ago, well. However, that is not always the case, he said. He said he felt the HOPE Scholarship was something was "loosely put together to pander to taxpayers" and "bash the public school system." Like Stiles, he said the system needed accountability. The program was designed to make it easy to homeschool kids, he said.

"Is it (HOPE Scholarship) totally wrong, no. Is homeschooling totally wrong, no. There is a place for homeschooling and there are great curriculums out there, but those people have to answer for that, too...I'm not a big fan of the HOPE Scholarship, I don't think it is doing what it was intended to do and you're right it is pulling away from the public school system where our emphasis needs to be reinforced." -Jon Bush

Where Bush expanded was on the subject of the need for more expansive trade programs in the Tucker County School system. Bush said there was a real need for more trades in the workforce and he said the public school system could be of great help in filling that need.

"We need to diversify. Now the State is not going to put a lot of money into that. But there are certain agencies that have said that just recently such as Eastern College that they are willing to put money into Tucker County. They want to bring in equipment, they want to help teachers. They want to make this a college charter trade school. Not just a secondary education school." - Jon Bush

Bush said that many students today believe that college is the only path. That has led to an increasing number of college dropouts. Bush sees a High School trades program as the answer to these trends and a way for Tucker County students to not only stay in the area after high school, but find high paying, rewarding careers immediately following graduation.

Bush also spoke about economic growth. He spoke about the interest of a New Jersey business in the area, as well as reiterated his position on the need for tradesmen in the area. But, he also spoke about the subject of Zoning.

"I'm sitting in my restaurant and one of the great thing about the restaurant is that I entertain a lot of the major people involved in what's going on. Its been a microcosm of who's who from the Department of Highways, with the Federal Government at the Federal level of highways, the bridge builders, the data center issues, the power plant issues. In all of that, though, a gentleman comes to me and he's at the highest point with the issue of roads and he says, 'Jon, here's what I can do for you,' - and this is how important this is – 'We have to see this HB 2014 and data centers as a gift horse here. We're not seeing it for what it really is. What we have a chance with being insulted like we've been insulted and being called stupid and being told we don't have a dog in the fight, what we have a chance to do, he said, 'I'll give you a half a million dollars to go to Thomas, to Davis, to Parsons, whether you can make it happen or not,' he said, 'if you can get them to go along with some sort of zoning. To make sure that this never happens to them again.' This is someone that you think is your enemy. It is someone within that government saying, let's make sure this doesn't happen again." -Jon Bush

When asked if changes should be made to current immunity laws, Stiles said that she preferred to instead look into increasing the penalties for the misdemeanor charges of Unauthorized Expenditure by Local Official, the charges the current Tucker County Commissioners are facing. She said she felt the current penalties are too light, given the heavy burden the public office holds and the trust the public gives its officials.

The subject of how the Commission's agenda's are posted was raised. Bush said that the matter was the symptom of a larger issue of lack of transparency by the Commission. It was brought up by the audience that some community members have complained that the agenda's are only posted on the courthouse doors and not on the website or facebook and that those on the mountain have to travel to Parsons to physically see what matters will be taken up by the Commissioners. Bush said that he had noticed the trend, himself and it was a matter he sought to remedy should he be elected.

Bush also said that he did not feel that the meeting schedule was fairly distributed between the top and bottom of the mountain or that the time of the meetings were convenient for most citizens of the County. He proposed changes in the time, as well as finding a location on the mountain where meetings could be held to alternate between the mountain and Parsons. He also felt the Courthouse closed too early for those who worked and proposed later hours.

Stiles said that she had been "door knocking" since February to find out what the voters of Tucker and Grant County needed most. She felt while Tucker County currently had tourism and hospitality, diversity was needed if the economy was to truly grow and sustain in the future. She said she was hosting a series of "brainstorming sessions" in Tucker and Grant Counties on the subject.

Stiles is a Democratic candidate for the West Virginia House of Delegates for District 85 which represents Tucker and Grant Counties. She has a background in agriculture, as well as rural policy research and education. She is currently a farmer.

Jon Bush is a Republican candidate for County Commissioner. He previously served on the Commission in 2019 – 2020. Bush is a local small business owner who has been in the Tucker County community for almost four decades. He is the owner/operator of Piccolo Paula's in Parsons.

Also present at the gathering was Tom Dabney, a representative for Rachel Fetty Anderson. Anderson is running for U.S. Senator for the State of West Virginia. She grew up one of six children. She is currently an attorney in Morgantown. She served on the Morgantown City Council from 2017 – 2021.

Eastern WVCTC Alumnus, Merritt Purol, Donates Car to the Automotive Technology Program

Merritt Purol next to car he is donating to the EWVCTC Auto Tech Program.

MOOREFIELD, W.Va. — Merritt Purol, an Eastern West Virginia Community & Technical College alumnus, has donated the car he drove while attending Eastern in 2017 to the college's Automotive Technology Program.

Purol said he wanted to pay it forward to support future students because his time at Eastern was invaluable to launching his career. The Automotive Technology Program, located at Eastern's Technology Training Center in Petersburg, offers students hands-on coursework in mechanical systems.

Purol earned a certificate in accounting, and an Associate in Applied Science in business management. After, he transferred to Shepherd University where he earned a Bachelor of Science in business administration in 2019. Purol also had a student success story focusing on his educational journey, which can be read at: https://easternwv.edu/student-success/alumni-student-success-merritt-purol/.

"When I first started at Eastern, I was taking the bus to get up to the school. After my dad saw that I was serious about college, he purchased the car for me," said Purol. "I used it the entire time while at Eastern and later when I began attending Shepherd University. On the weekends, I would come back home to visit and drive back during the week.

During their first year, Automotive Technology students work directly on vehicle systems—including the car donated by Purol—gaining experience with engines, brakes, tires, and electronics. Students also train on state-of-the-art equipment, including an alignment machine and an Advanced Driver-Assistance System (ADAS) calibration machine. The tools were acquired in May 2025 through a grant from the West Virginia Community & Technical College System.

Second-year students can participate in a Learn and Earn program that provides paid internship opportunities at Weimer Automotive.

"Merritt's educational and career journey showcases the determination of our students, and his decision to give back is truly inspiring. Support through donations directly enhances student resources, programmatic equipment, and hands-on learning across our campuses," said Eastern WVCTC faculty member. "Contributions like these help drive our mission forward, and Eastern always appreciates the generosity of those who support our institutional growth."

Dear Recycle Lady,

I have a large collection of workbooks. They have a soft-cover and the pages appear to be made of paper similar to newspaper. Are these workbooks recyclable? Dedicated Recycler

Dear Dedicated Recycler,

Since workbooks are made of paper, and paper is the most commonly recycled material worldwide, chances are your notebooks will be recyclable with a few checkups. Most workbooks are made of sheets of paper bound with a magazine-type cover, a cardboard cover, or a plastic cover. This cover must be removed before recycling the pages. The magazine cover (your soft cover) recycles with magazines, the cardboard cover recycles with cardboard, and the plastic cover goes in the trash. Before recycling the pages, check for heavily marked pages or pages with stickers. These pages should be torn out and trashed. The remaining pages with their soft cover can be recycled with magazines. After removing the cardboard cover or the plastic cover, the pages also recycle with magazines. Recycling these notebooks instead of sending them to the landfill is good for the environment. Every piece paper of paper recycled saves forests and minimizes energy usage. It means less rubbish sent to landfills, which produce methane that creates climate change. Have you considered donating your workbooks to a school or a group that works with children? Used notebooks can often be reused, particularly if they have empty pages.

Dear Recycle Lady,

Has the number of people using plastic bottles decreased after all the information that has been published about the hazards of drinking bottled water? User of Steel Water Bottle

Dear User of Steel Water Bottle,

It appears that information about microplastics in plastic water bottles is finally having an effect. According to worldmetrics.org, 83% of U. S. households used plastic bottles regularly in 2023, whereas in 2026, this number decreased to 70%. However, the 40 billion plastic water bottles produced in the US indicates that the use of plastic bottles remains robust. Besides harmful microplastics found in bottled water, another concern is that BPA can leach from the plastics bottles during high temperatures leading to potential hormonal effects and hot water in plastic water bottles leach acetaldehyde molecules, a carcinogenic. Nano plastics that are smaller than micro plastics that leach from plastic water bottles can penetrate the blood-brain barrier causing inflammation in 93% of samples. Only 23% of plastic bottles in the U.S. are recycled and a single plastic water bottle takes 450 to 1,000 years to decompose in a landfill, releasing microplastics over time. The estimated 500 billion plastic water bottles used globally each year are a major contributor to the 60 million tons of plastic waste created globally every year. The cost to produce these plastic water bottles on the global market is projected to reach $78 billion dollars by 2028.

Dear Recycle Lady,

What are boxes like cereal boxes made of when it comes to recycling? I know that they aren't considered to be made of cardboard. Need to Know

Dear Need to Know,

Cereal boxes actually are made of cardboard. Check the inside of your cereal box. If it looks like cardboard, it recycles with cardboard. Some boxes are made of white board, rather than cardboard, but they still recycle with cardboard.

Good News! Hawaii is testing a clever way to give ocean plastic a second life. They have found a way to turn discarded fishing nets and other recycled plastic into pellets that can be mixed into asphalt for roads. Researchers are studying whether these plastic-enhanced roads are durable and environmentally safe. The idea could help tackle two problems at once—marine debris and limited landfill space. Talk about making the road less wasteful! (fto.com)

YOU CAN HELP...

WARM THE CHILDREN

Providing New Winter Clothing for Local Children in Need

No administrative fees. EVERY CENT received is used to buy winter clothing!

In Tucker County, local children will go cold this winter without your help.

Just what is The Parsons Advocate's WARM THE CHILDREN FUND?

The Parsons Advocate's WARM THE CHILDREN FUND is neighbors helping neighbors in Tucker County. The Parsons Advocate is asking readers to donate to the fund and the proceeds will be used to buy new warm winter clothing for local children. There are no administrative fees. All the money donated is used to buy new clothing.

How can I help?

Simply complete the coupon below and send it with your donation to the address on the coupon. Thanks for your generosity. All donations are tax deductible.

How will the children's clothing be purchased?

The Advocate's WARM THE CHILDREN coordinator has made arrangements with a local store and assigns volunteer shoppers to take the children and their parents shopping. Shoppers will be people like you, anyone in the community willing to help by donating a little of their time to this worthwhile cause.
