County Health Officials Receive 5% Raise

By Ammie Ruddle

The Pendleton County Board of Health met on May 12 at the Pendleton Community Building.

Pendleton County Health Department Administrator Amber Hedrick started the meeting by going over the county budget. She said even though, due to population decrease, the state Legislature decreased funding by $7,045, the health department was able to balance the budget with federal COVID-19 relief funding and include a five percent increase to salary across the board. This salary increase was allocated by state lawmakers during the 2022 legislative session.

Hedrick stated this will be the first regular salary increase provided by the state in many years.

In addition to the pay increase, Hedrick stated, all health officials that have worked throughout the pandemic and are currently still working recently received incentive pay of $5,800 before taxes. Hedrick went on to say this incentive pay is the first of its kind to the county for any emergency service, including COVID-19.

Hedrick ended the discussion of budgeting and finance stating that, aside from waiting on one grant, the county is on budget and may even have enough left over to expand Pendleton Community Care to have some "extra storage."

The next item on the agenda was COVID-19. Nurse Andrea Reel told the board that vaccines are still being regularly administered. She stated they are administering the second

Local Artists Display Talent at Trout Fest

By Ammie Ruddle

The 2022 Trout Fest in Pendleton County provided several opportunities for local artists to display their unique talents. Two of those opportunities included the decorative wooden trout displays and the Pen Co's Got Talent show.

For the decorative trout displays, there were two categories, the individual trout display and the overall window display. Both categories had a first place and a runnerup winner.

The first-place winner for the overall window display was the Pendleton County Public Library. The runnerup was the Senior Center.

the individual trout display was Pendleton County Out-

The runner-up was Pill Box Pharmacy.

Due to the lack of contestants for Pen Co's Got Talent, the talent show was restructured into three individual performances. The performers were Bryer Moyers, 5, who sang four Hank Williams songs. He has met Hank Williams IV and thoroughly enjoys performing Hank William songs, according to materials turned into the talent show by his parents. Elijah Ruddle, 10, created

The first-place winner for a fun beatbox number. Elijah has been performing a variety of different talents before a live audience since he was four years old.

> Audrie Simmons, 10, performed a creative dance number. Audrie enjoys dancing and performing.

> Even though the contest was restructured at the last moment, all three were awarded first place in their talent category (singing, beatboxing, and dancing).

Following the talent show, Kaden Robertson performed live for the audience, singing and picking his guitar.

Rockslide in Riverton Interrupts Traffic and Phone Service

By Walter Hojka

Early in the morning of May 7, a portion of U.S. 33 was blocked by large boulders. The rockslide occurred in a stretch of the road between the intersection of Germany Valley Road and the building known as Raines' store in Riverton.

Bill Sites, 84, who lives near the location, said that it was the largest slide he has ever

Phone service to the area, which was interrupted by the slide, was restored within 24 hours, according to Robert Butler of Spruce Knob Seneca Rocks Telephone (SKSRT).

"It was an all-hands-on-deck situation," said Butler.

The 911 service to the SKSRT service area was interrupted for a few hours, according to Rick Gillespie, emergency services coordinator for Pendleton County. Gillespie reported that the dispatcher at the 911 center in Pendleton County requested fire departments in Circleville and Seneca Rocks staff their stations to handle any potential emergencies. Radio stations then broadcasted this information to the public. Gillespie also reported that the 911 trunk line, which travels on the same poles, was fortunately uninterrupted.

Justin Johnson of the Department of Highways said cleanup of the slide took three days and required the use of an excavator equipped with a hammer drill.

By Shawn Stinson

Former Pendleton County softball standout Taylor Townsend helped lead Potomac State College to the National Junior College Athletic Association Division II softball championship.

Potomac State downed Hagerstown Community College 15-6 on May 14 at Anne Arundel Community College in Arnold, Maryland. The Catamounts earned the NJCAA Region 20 crown for the second consecutive season. It was the 35th-straight victory for Potomac State. The Catamounts are now 41-2 on the season. The national tournament is slated to begin on May 24 in Oxford, Alabama.

Townsend slugged a home run in the bottom of the fourth of the regional championship clash against HCC. She finished $1\,\mathrm{for}\,3$ with three runs batted in and scored two runs. Townsend pitched two scoreless innings, walking one.

"I'm excited for the girls that they have an opportunity to experience playing in the national championship tournament," Potomac State coach Craig Rotruck said. "Everyone worked hard all year long for this win today ... for this trip to Alabama. I couldn't be prouder of these women. All 16 players played a part, everyone earned this."

HCC jumped out to a 2-0 lead in the top of the first inning before Potomac State rallied to scored eight runs in the bottom of the frame. The Hawks cut into the deficit by plating three runs in the top of the fourth. Once again, the Catamounts quickly responded by scoring four runs in the bottom of the inning. HCC scored a single run in the fifth. Potomac State had an answer again, responding a hit in the loss. with three runs in the bottom of the fifth.

Townsend hurled Potomac State into the championship clash by blanking HCC the day before in a semifinal contest. She pitched five innings, allowed four hits and struck out five in a 11-0 victory.

Townsend helped her own cause at the plate, recording two hits in three at bats. She slugged a two-run home run in the bottom of third inning and added a run-scoring single in the bottom of the first.

It was Townsend's 18th victory in the pitcher's circle this season. She has reeled off 18 consecutive victories since dropping a season-opening decision to Cleveland Community College in late February.

Townsend was the offensive star in Potomac State's tournament-opening 3-0 victory against Anne Arundel Community College. She was 2 for 2 with two RBIs in eron Beachler and Colaw.

She had a run-scoring double in the bottom of the first and a run-scoring single in the bottom of the third.

The Pendleton County baseball team had its season conclude with a loss in the Class A Regional II Section 2 playoffs.

Following the playoff-opening loss to Tucker County on May 9, Pendleton stayed alive by gaining revenge against Tucker three days later in Franklin. The Wildcats eliminated the Mountain Lions from the postseason with a 7-1 victory. Tucker edged Pendleton 6-5 in the initial contest of the postseason in Franklin.

Clayton Kisamore led the way for the Wildcats on the mound and at the plate. Kisamore hurled a complete game, allowing two hits, no earned runs and recorded 10 strikeouts. Kisamore went 2 for 3 with two doubles and three runs bat-

Cameron Beachler was 4 for 4 in the victory. Caleb Armentrout, Brayden Beachler, Landon Colaw, Allden Rexrode, Jayden Roberson and James Vincell all recorded a hit for the Wildcats. Roberson and Vincell both notched an RBI. Rexrode scored two runs.

Pendleton jumped out to a 2-0 lead after the first inning and extended its margin to 3-0 at the end of the third. Tucker sliced into the deficit with a single run in the top of the fourth, but Pendleton added a run in the bottom of the frame and three more in the bottom of the fifth.

The victory against Tucker County kept Pendleton's season alive. Pendleton faced East Hardy on May 13 in an elimination game in Baker. The Cougars swept the season series with the Wildcats by claiming a 12-6 victory.

Pendleton coach Sam Yokum said his team played well but was undone by miscues.

"Too many errors," Yokum said.

Kisamore went 2 for 4 to lead the Wildcats' offense. Brayden Beachler, Cameron Beachler, Colaw, Rexrode, Roberson and Vincell all had Pendleton scored a single run in the top of the third to take the lead, but East Hardy responded with two runs in the bottom of the frame. The Cougars tacked on five runs in the bottom of the fourth. The Wildcats rallied with five runs of their own in the top of the fifth to trim the margin to 7-6. East Hardy answered with five runs in the bottom of the fifth to pull away for the victory.

Rexrode started the game on the mound for Pendleton before being relieved by Cam-Yokum said the trio pitched well in the loss.

Good Old Days Weren't So Good

The "good old days" seemed to have life moving slower, neighbors helping neighbors, and everyone had a snug home and lived comfortably off the land. But perhaps the good old days weren't always like that. There was no daycare for children, no food stamps or welfare stamps and no nursing homes. Families were a close unit; values were highly regarded, and regular Sunday worship was a high priority. Neighbors did help neighbors in times of trouble and want. For instance, if a neighbor became sick, one would tend his garden and farm his crops until he recovered. That custom also made one's neighbor's business one's own business. because if even he or she made bad lifestyle decisions, one was still obligated to help out the family. If the neighbor wasn't walking the straight and narrow path, it was up to one to push them back onto the path. Also, a man's word was as good as a handshake!

SUGAR GROVE

Life Cycle of Hummingbird Proves Complex And Interesting

The hummingirds are here! If one hasn't put up a feeder, it's not too late. One can make their own nectar by mixing one part table sugar with four parts boiling water, cooled and stored in the refrigerator. The red dye is unnecessary. Nectar is purely a source of energy, enabling hummers to beat their wings 55 to 75 times per second. The first hummers to arrive each spring are males. They quickly set up protective territories around food sources, chasing competitors away. The name of the game is when the food attracts females. The courtship begins with the male performing aerial dance displays. The female is completely burdened with family life. She builds a tiny walnut-sized nest by using sticky spider silk to fasten bits of leaves, lichens and soft plant fibers to a small horizontal branch. Two tiny eggs are then incubated for about 16 days. Young hummingbirds leave the nest about three weeks after hatching. An array of predators watch from various levels of nature, namely: climbing snakes, squirrels, chipmunks, deer mice, hawks, bullfrogs and preying mantis. Hummingbirds live a tough life. The least one can do is provide a little nectar.

Read Between the Lines To Get the Real Meaning of Writing

Being able to "read between the lines" is an admirable trait to be able to spot the real meaning of something even when it is disguised, purposely. In early America, this phrase had a notably different meaning. Paper was of poor quality, costing a day's wages, so annual letters to friends and family usually started at the top of the page. When the page was full, the writer couldn't turn it over and write on the backside since only the front side was smooth, so the sheet of paper was turned top-to-bottom. This way the letter continued between the lines of what had already been written. Thus, the receiver of the letter who had good eyesight could "read between the lines" and could decipher everything that was written on the paper.

Irishmen Marked Hogs By Cutting Tails

How the Irishman marked his hogs as told by the old folks: first he cut off the end of the pig's tail, then another piece of the end and still another, until he had three pieces. Another tale was when a farm animal was seen going about alone, it was like the Irishman hog going in a drove by itself. An Irishman is said to tell a man who was digging a hole in the ground—don't go to deep or you will have the Chinese yelling at you. Just recently a minister added a new tale—it appears a minister was traveling in his car and came to a stop sign. A bishop following struck the rear end of the first car. When an Irish policeman came to the scene, the two men were fighting. The policeman said, "Father, how far back were you when the minister backed into you?"

100 YEARS AGO

Morgan, Belle Boyd Capture South's Eye

By LON K. SAVAGE

Editor's Note-The following is one of a series of articles on the Civil War. Each weekly installment covers events which occurred exactly 100 years ago.

While the South was fighting on a dozen fronts against seemingly overwhelming odds, 100 years ago this week, stories began circulating about little-known men and women who were becoming heroes and heroines of the common struggle.

Two of these persons—a man and a woman—came particularly to the public attention in mid-May, one in the western theatre of operations, the other in Virginia. They were John H. Morgan, hard-riding young man of 35 whose raids and guerrilla warfare were taking a toll in Tennessee and Miss Bell Boyd of Martinsburg (now West Virginia), a spirited young girl who had just turned 19 and whose loyalty to the South was beginning to have some little effect on the war.

John Morgan, Alabamaborn and Kentucky-bred, appeared out of nowhere in early May on a road near Nashville at the head of some 600 men, and he immediately began a pestering job that would plague the Yankees for much of the rest of the war.

First a wagon train with about 400 federal troops disappeared, and it soon became known that Morgan was responsible.

A few days later, a band of federals charged into Lebanon, Tenn., where Morgan and his men were staying. Morgan quickly led his men away; the Yanks pursued, and a running gun and saber fight on horseback lasted for nearly 20 miles. A Pennsylvanian watched during the chase. Morgan, spotting a riderless and fleetfooted Yankee horse galloping near him, leaped from his black pacer into the saddle of the riderless horse and galloped off, outdistancing the pursuing federals, and made his escape.

A few days later, a 48-car freight train was burned on the Louisville and Nashville Railroad at Cave City, and a passenger train with several federal officers aboard was captured. Morgan was at work again.

While Morgan waged his guerrilla warfare in Tennessee, young Belle Boyd began waging a different kind of warfare in Virginia.

Miss Boyd (who already had killed a Union soldier and had been imprisoned in Baltimore on suspicion of spying) arrived in Front Royal, Va., in the middle of May, and she immediately found important work to do.

On the night of May 14-15, she hid in a closet on the second floor of a building and listened through a hole to a federal council of war taking place in the room below her. Late that night, she coded the information she had learned and rode 15 miles through the darkness to give it to an officer of "Stonewall" Jackson's army.

Within the following week, the girl carried another message through federal lines to Jackson's army, was placed under arrest by federal authorities and talked her way out of it.

And on May 23, she made one of her most famous exploits. She was in Front Royal when Jackson attacked the town. Quickly gathering information about the federal strength there, she ran from the town, white bonnet flying, through weeds and over fences, with gunfire and artillery popping around her, to Jackson's army with the word that the federals were outnumbered—that Jackson could win an important victory if he attacked immediately.

Next week: Jackson on the warpath: Front Royal and Winchester.

Rubbish Being Removed Today By Town Truck

This is clean-up day in Franklin, and if the town's truck has not already passed your door, you may still have time to pack up your trash and place it on the curb in front of your home, where it will be picked up and taken away free of charge. Now is the time to get rid of that pile of tin cans, discarded glass containers and other accumulation of winter rubbish if you get busy and clean up your premises. The truck will not pick up quantities of ashes or tree trimmings. If it is raining hard enough to present the problem of cardboard containers bursting from getting wet, these containers may be placed on front porches but should be left in plain sight where the truckers will not fail to see

Two More Bike Clubs Formed By Cunningham

Two more chapters of the Pendleton Pedal-Pushers, bicycle organization for kids who ride bikes, have been organized, according to Trooper Bill Cunningham of the local detachment of the West Virginia State Police. Clubs have been formed at Brandywine and Mouth of Seneca. Objective of the clubs, which are meeting with endorsement of everyone in the county, is to teach the young cyclists the laws of the road and to preclude any accidents that might occur. "A kid on a bicycle has no chance against a moving vehicle," the trooper said. "A bike-rider has his rights and a motorist has his. We hope to keep these two interests from 'clashing' with serious or fatal results."

A meeting was held at Circleville Saturday and efforts will be made to form a club there, Trooper Cunningham said.

COST OF NEWSPRINT HITS ALL-TIME HIGH

WASHINGTON, May 21.-U. S. newspaper publishers were in effect handed a bill for 50 million dollars a year last week when it was announced that exported Canadian newsprint will go up by $10 a ton on June 15.

The Truman Administration immediately asked the Canadian government to reconsider and rescind its approval of the price hike, which would be the second $10 boost in less than a year and which would raise the price of the paper on which newspapers are printed to an all-time high of $126 a ton.

Newspaper consumption runs at the rate of about 80 pounds a year for everyone in this country. About nine-tenths of all the U.S. newsprint comes from Canada.

"This additional cost increase will drive many small American newspapers out of business," Ellis Arnall, price director, told the Canadian government in protest.

The manager of the show thought it not wise to let the huge elephant cross the bridge for it might collapse and cause trouble, so therefore, he had to wade the river. But the elephant had an idea in mind or the insult of having to wade. He marched into the river about midway, then he took a deadset, that is he would go no farther. He partially filled his trunk with water and made a thin spray over the people. The manager or keeper of the elephant talked to him but to no avail of leaving his post. Then he filled his trunk to full capacity. By this time quite a crowd had gathered on the bank. He raised his trunk into the air and caused a heavy rain to fall upon those on the bank. But still he would not leave his post. The manager went away and brought back a big basket of candy. The elephant could not resist the temptation of a handful and advanced a few steps from his post. So little by little the manager coaxed the elephant to the other side of the river, but the candy was all used up when

90-Year Milestone Celebrated by Former Resident

Sugar Grove

By Paula Mitchell

A former resident of Sugar Grove returned Saturday afternoon to be with many friends and relatives who had assembled at the VFW Pavilion to help him celebrate his 90 years of age. "Junior" Grogg had a grand time at his birthday party, despite the weather being rather rainy.

Junior was the youngest boy (Russell, Everett, Curtis, and Otis) born on May 15, 1932, to William Harry and Cadie Waggy Grogg who lived in Stony Run. It was here that he attended his grade school years, and where he still enjoys coming to stay at his trailer.

During the Korean War, he joined the service and served his country from 1951-1953. During that time, he was in the 101st Airborne and was stationed in Kentucky where he was in the military police. Following his service, he drove a truck, did mechanic work and did lot of a contract work in building houses. Junior always lived in Raleigh Springs, Virginia. Over the course of time, he found he needed to live with his daughter, Dana, and husband.

He married Maxine Joseph in 1954, and the two had six children, Keith, Dawn, Kevin, DeeDee, Dana, and Dorrie. Junior has 17 grandchildren, and 23 great-grandchildren with the 24th on the way.

The characteristics of Junior are quite enviable. He is a strong family man, very determined and a hard worker. Throughout the years, he enjoyed "setting out" a garden, which helped to support his family. An endearing quote he has is "Another beautiful day," which he has said every day when he comes in the door.

His pastimes are to restore old tractors, read The Pendleton Times every week, the Daily News-Record every day, watch the news and westerns, as well as hanging out with his buddies. He always feels so much better whenever he gets the chance to go to West Virginia. Whenever he reaches the top of the Shenandoah Mountain he says he feels so much better.

To make his 90 years a lasting memory, Evelyn Varner made him a quilt which everyone signed at his party. This "guest book" is a wonderful way to cherish each person who was there to celebrate with him. Ninety years is quite a milestone, and for someone who is enjoying good health, it is terrific! The writer hopes the next birthday brings him more of everything he wants. Junior is truly a role model and it's important for his children and family to learn from him. Happy birthday!

Life's instructions come from Roy Rogers' rules include their feathers with oil. the following:

- 1. Be neat and clean.
- 2. Be courteous and polite.
- 3. Always obey your parents.
- 4. Protect the weak and help them. 5. Be brave but never take chances.

The Sugar Grove community and surrounding areas have been enjoying showers and rains. The creeks and rivers are taking on a muddy look, swelling "at the seams." Hay making will soon be the topic of the farmers, with lawn mowing a continual chore.

Quotes for the week are as follows:

"Only people who aren't happy with themselves are mean to others." — Unknown

"Parents are the ultimate role models for children. Every word, movement, and action have an effect. No other person Hoover O'Donnell, Cheryl Paine, Sutton Parrack, Betty Lou or outside force has a greater influence on a child than the Propst, Kara Propst, Linda Propst, Nathan Propst, Sheldon parent." — Bob Keshan

"When you see the right thing to do, you'd better do it." — Paul Neuman

"If you can do more, you should." — Robert Redford

"My father instilled in me the attitude of prevailing. If there's a challenge, go for it. If there's a wall to break down, break it down." — Donnie Osmond

Life is so much better now that the front porch is available to hear the "Talk of the Grove."

Nancy Hodges of Harrisonburg, Virginia, came to the Sugar Grove Maple Leaves 4-H Club meeting to teach the members how to cook over an outdoor fire. They made blackberry cobbler, bears, solar tea and bird poop (Oreo and whipped cream dessert) and cooked an egg.

Mike and Robin DelBiondo of Waynesboro, Virginia, were Sunday visitors in the home of Willard and Judy Rader.

Phil Downs enjoyed the visit of Gaye Stafford of Lorton, Virginia and Rose Smith of Mifflinburg, Pennsylvania, who was an overnight guest.

Elden and Mary Puffenbarger, Robert and Nancy Hodges spent Mother's Day at the home of Becky and Wes Puffenbarger. Wes grilled and made dinner for the mothers. Emma, Ben and Nathan helped cook. On Saturday, Wesley and Becky went to Hazy Mountain Winery and Valley Road

Visitors of Rosalee Grogg were Marleta Wimer, Steven Grogg, Hendrix Bogan and Leana Leap.

Tuesday's voter turnout was very low.

Chris Woods of Michigan paid a visit in the home of Evelyn Varner this past week. Spending Saturday night with her were Judy Costello and Geneva Varner.

In addition, Simon stated, he competed in four belt tournaments, winning each one, earning him a championship belt that he received during the opening of the state wrestling championship tournament.

"Croix began wrestling at age four," said Simon, "and fell in love with the sport." He currently wrestles for the Clarksburg Jr Wrestling Club. Croix said his goals include winning as many state championships as he can, and one day, going on to wrestle in college.

His family would like to congratulate Croix on his hard work and successful achievements.

State Representatives Call for Rejection Of AIR Recommendations

U.S. Senators Joe Manchin (D-WV) and Shelley Moore Capito (R-WV) and Representatives David McKinley (WV-1), Alex Mooney (WV2) and Carol Miller (WV-3), called on President Joe Biden to reject the U.S. Department of Veterans Affairs (VA) recommendations to the Asset and Infrastructure Review (AIR) Commission, which includes significant reductions in services at three of the four VA Medical Centers (VAMCs) in West Virginia. The lawmakers said in part,

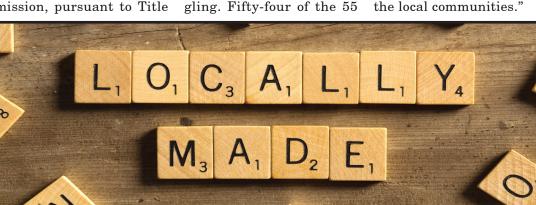

"We write to you today to express our grave concern with the recommendations the Department of Veterans Affairs (VA) submitted to the Asset and Infrastructure Review (AIR) Commission, pursuant to Title II, Subtitle A of the VA MISSION Act. These recommendations are the first step in a long process that will require the approval of both the White House and Congress before any VA facilities may be closed, relocated, or downsized. The VA's recommendations are based on faulty data and assumptions that fail to consider the actual needs of West Virginia Veterans and the capacity of West Virginia's healthcare network to meet those needs."

The VA has recommended that the Clarksburg, Beckley and Huntington VAMCs all discontinue inpatient medical and surgical services, which would push Veteran healthcare needs to civilian healthcare providers that are already struggling. Fifty-four of the 55 counties in West Virginia are designated partial or whole health professional shortage areas (HPSA), with only enough staff for 70 percent of the licensed hospitals beds.

"As illustrated in a recent Government Accountability Office titled "Incomplete Information Hinders Usefulness of Market Assessments for VA Facility Realignment," the VA used faulty data to make these harmful recommendations,"the lawmakers continued.

"We request that the AIR Commission hold public roundtables with VA leadership and local Veterans community leaders in West Virginia while assessing the recommendations to understand the concerns and impacts they would have in
