OBITUARIES

"Grief is not a disorder, a disease or a sign of weakness. It is an emotional, physical and spiritual necessity, the price you pay for love. The only cure for grief is to grieve." - Earl Grollman

The Calhoun Chronicle did not receive any obituaries prior to printing deadline

There is a sacredness in tears. They are not the mark of weakness, but of power. They speak more eloquently than ten thousand tongues. They are the messengers of overwhelming grief, of deep contrition, and of unspeakable love."

County Commission held Special Meeting Oct. 23rd

By Melissa West

Calhoun County Commissioners met on Monday, October 23rd for a Special Meeting in an attempt to select a replacement for the vacant seat of Matt Walker. The two current Commissioners, President Craig Arthur and Kevin Helmick were both present. After the Pledge of Allegiance, Arthur explained the process once again on how the Commission has to fill the vacant seat and that they since the two commissioners could not agree on an applicant that it went to the Republican Executive Committee for three names to choose from. Arthur went on to report the letter received from the Committee included the following individuals for consideration were Eric Lupardus, Roger Propst and Dennis Spaur.

Commission President Craig Arthur made a motion to appoint Eric Lupardus, but the motion died for lack of a second. After a long pause, Kevin Helmick told those in attendance that he had promised to speak with someone prior to making a selection and had not had the opportunity to do so. He was confident he would have a nominee to strike during the final process on November 3rd, 2023.

At that time, the 15 days will have expired at which time Kevin Helmick will have the first strike being the senior commissioner and Craig Arthur will have the second strike. The last man standing will be the next Calhoun County Commissioner to fill that role until a new Commissioner is elected during the 2024 election process.

The only other item of business was the acceptance of a resignation by Water Board member Eric Cain for the Pleasant Hill Public Service District which passed affirmatively by both Commissioners. The next Calhoun County Commission meeting will be 9:00 a.m. on the 3rd of November, 2023.

Creston News

Rev. Kevin Gillespie filled his regular appointment at the Burning Springs M. E. Church.

The social event of the season, the Creston Community Halloween Party, will be starting at 5:30 P. M. on Saturday, October 28 at the building. Bring "finger foods" for the meal after the judging or consult with Linda Buchanan, Linda deVries or Donna Sue Ferrell. This is the event where anyone can dress up and "be somebody". There will be two hayrides, one for the little ones and the other for those who have nerves of steel. Some have said that one must be careful around the witches that might show up for they could get mad and cast a terrible spell on one. It was noted that one had better not mess with Donna Sue for she could whap you with her cast and really hurt one. Children of all ages (even those in their second childhood) are urged to enjoy the ghastly event. Of course there will be beautiful damsels, folks from space, celebrities and some old grumps that refuse to dress up. At prior events there were folks there that no one was able to ascertain who they really were.

Fall is in full force in Creston with leaves at their peak. Some folks drove to Welch, Princeton, Fayetteville and Webster Springs to see the colors but the best is the road from Creston to Spencer up over Ground Hog. Others went to Spruce Knob, Dolly Sods and Snowshoe where white stuff was seen. For those who keep track, Jacques Frost called in Creston on October 11 although flowers were not killed.

Some folks came down from Amish country to help with the apple butter making event with Donna and Carl Ferrell at the camp.

Janet McIntyre, age 81, Jim McIntyre's wife, passed away. Burial was at the Bryner Chapel at Joker.

There was a big birthday celebration for Barb Wright.

Suellen Arthur reports that the cute kitten she obtained from Alvin Engelke is a wonderful companion. Alvin has some more who need loving homes including two black ones that in the dark have eyes that glow, ideal for the Halloween season.

Charles Russell who now lives at Minnie Hamilton had a big birthday party on the event of his 85th event.

Marshall University came out with an announcement of a new cyber security program involving $$ millions. Turns out Gov. Jim Justice has a $300,000 parking lot in the middle of the plans that "no one knew about". One might wonder if he has clear title or whether the Russian oligarch has a lien on it. There is a major mystery as to how the coal baron was able to get Trump's approval. If Trump has friends like that he does not need enemies.

The dedicated antler hunters have game cameras out to try to get a feel for the wily bucks but, it seems, there is more bear activity. One big old bear lays down in the deer corn and takes both paws to shove the corn into his mouth.

Some years back when the Arkansas grifters were running things, FOB (Friends of Bill) Tyson Foods almost succeeded in shutting down the W. Va. Poultry industry. Now the politically connected firm is working with the WEF (World Economic Forum) to make insect food for people to eat. The WEF and others, like Bill Gates say that the people do not deserve to eat real meat -- global warming, don't you know?

It was reported that Chesapeake Energy and Southwestern (SWN) are talking merging. Chesapeake did have wells in W. Va. and SWN is active in the state. Both are active in the Marcellus/Utica. Both take the profits and invest in the Haynesville (Louisiana) shale play.

The hoopla continues over the "awarding" of the $1 billion hydrogen hub to W. Va. The Plan is to use our cheap natural gas to make hydrogen with the carbon dioxide either being used or pumped back in the ground. Since it is a government program the laws of physics are suspended and this would be better than using the natural gas directly. The had firm is "Prof. Grant Swinger's" "Battelle Institute, a firm that exists to get taxpayer money. TRC Companies, a firm that sates they know how to give ESG "advice". It was noted that before anything happens the tax law in the Green New Deal law (Inflation Reduction Act) will have to be changed so that the connected ones can get the "needed" tax breaks.

It was noted that oil & gas leasing has picked up both in Ohio and in West Virginia. Thanks to our legislators the new oil and gas leases are not bad but very, very bad and they should never be signed unless one wants to be robbed.

The US EIA (Energy Information Agency) recently came out with the amounts of taxpayer $$ that was spent on alternative energy. From 2016 -2022 the total was $121.17 billion. The subsidy for kilowatt hour of energy is as follows, hydro power 44 cents, fossil fuels $1.03, nuclear $1.21, wind $16.79, biomass $17.79, geothermal $17.93 and solar $68.67. The solar $ helps fund Chairman Xi's war machine against us.

Several Creston folks ate at the Wirt County Fireman's steak dinner while others motored to Ripley to see trees and dine there.

The price of local Pennsylvania grade crude oil is $87.75/bbl. with condensate [super mountain high test] fetching $69.75/bbl. with Marcellus & Utica light bringing $78.75 and medium $87.75/bbl. Henry Hub (Louisiana) natural gas was $2.90/dekatherm. Some gasoline in Parkersburg is now less than $2.95/gallon or about $126/bbl., tax included.

This Week In Calhoun History

Miss Perrie Jackson was unable to meet her classes Wednesday on account of a severe attack of indigestion. Miss Jackson teaches the third and fourth grades and her work deserves much praise. Master Ronzel Francis and Miss Grace Hamilton were both out of school most of the week on account of illness.

Center district teacher's institute will meet Wednesday, October 31 at the Grantsville graded school building. Senator T.P. Hill, who is assistant supervisor of rural schools in West Virginia is to present to represent his department.

Rev. N. B. Hamric visited the grades Friday afternoon and extended an invitation to the pupils to attend church in a body. Wednesday at 2:30 p.m. Rev Hamric remarked during his visit. The following pupils made perfect scores in the Schorling and Clark standard tests in arithmetic: Eighth Grade – Lovie Reed, Gladys Marshall, Oma Harris, Jeneva Fleming, and Robert Offutt. Food For Thought: It is so easy, so very easy, to misunderstand, to misinterpret, to misjudge. Give everyone the benefit of a possible error and discount your own observation liberally. ---Corwin

If you are a high school graduate, choose before you enlist one of the 60 splendid technical school courses and assure yourself of the training you want. Choose service in Japan or Korea. Twenty percent extra overseas pay. Apply for Officer Candidate School if you are a high school graduate from 19 to 28 years old. If you are a Veteran, find out the special choices open. 1973, 50 YEARS: Magic Lantern Show Race Track, Brick Yard at Leafbank: A magic lantern show away back in the fall of 1889 is one thing that Oak Stafford remembers about living Leafbank. A man by the name of Pat Crowe brought the magic lantern show to the Leafbank school and, draped a sheet over the blackboard for a screen. All of this made a big impression on the young boy who was staying with his grandmother, Aunt Jane Freshour.

Stafford also recalls the race track which was located at the mouth of Leafbank, in the bottom behind what is now the RF, Inc. plant. Horse traders would pass his house, often with old "plug horses" they were planning to trade. He also remembered the brick yard which was located at Leafbank, where thousands of bricks were once made.

Food For Thought

By Judy Wolfram

Now we're going back to apples. I've got two really easy but really good recipes. One of them I found in a newspaper over thirty five years ago and everybody that I made it for really enjoyed it.

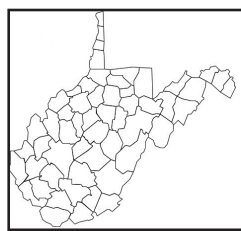

It's called Apple Upside Down Crisp

5 cups thinly sliced tart apples
1 cup sifted all-purpose flour
3/4 cup granulated sugar
1 teaspoon baking powder
1/2 teaspoon salt
1 unbeat egg
1/3 cup melted butter
Dash of ground cinnamon
In a buttered baking dish (a rectangle

16x10x2) arrange the apple slices over the bottom. Mix together the flour, sugar, baking powder, salt and unbeat egg with a fork. When it's mixed thoroughly it will be crumbly. Spread it evenly over the apple slices. Pour the warm melted butter over the whole top and then sprinkle lightly with cinnamon. Bake for at least 40 minutes at 325 uncovered. Serve it warm with milk or cream and cold with vanilla ice cream.

The next recipe is called "Lorries, apple cake." This is the same friend who gave me the zucchini bread recipes. 4 cups apples – peeled and cut small

2 cups granulated sugar – poured over the apples and set aside and let to set for awhile
2 cups flour
2 teaspoon baking soda
1/2 cup canola oil
2 eggs
2 teaspoon vanilla
2 teaspoon cinnamon
Mix all the ingredients well. When they are all mixed stir the apples and sugar in with a spoon.
Bake for 50 minutes in a greased and lightly floured rectangle cake pan at 325. Check for doneness with a toothpick.
Serve warm. Use icing if you want too.
Next month – cookie recipes.

My Home Among the Hills

by Mellody Walburn

October is flying by so fast I can hardly keep up with everything. By the time the weekends roll around, I am literally dragging myself home and falling on the couch. While I love this month, it is also one of those months

I count the days of until it is over. One of the reasons is because it is a long haul between Labor Day Weekend and Veteran's Day. I usually take a day off during this month just to catch my breath, but this year there just didn't seem a good day to do so.

Another reason I count down the days of October is all of the events that occur in the month. Now that I have switched from high school to elementary school, those events are a little different, but they are just as numerous. For instance, this week alone contains parent-teacher conferences, a fall fest, Red Ribbon Week, and a field trip to town for the homecoming parade. Can you understand now why I am dragging by the weekend?

In addition to all of these school events, I also have pickle ball, Bible study, and this week a haircut. I'm not complaining, but I will be honest and say I am counting down the days until November, which has a much slower pace and both Veteran's Day and Thanksgiving Break. We are under 10 days until November 1st, so my time off is right around the corner. I just need to keep my eyes on the prize and keep taking one day at a time.

As weeks go, this past one wasn't so bad. I actually spent a few evenings at home, which doesn't happen often these days. I'm not complaining, but being busy does make me appreciate my home among the hills even more. I look forward to coming home at the end of a long day to the candles in my windows, a fire in the fireplace, and my favorite blanket. This might mean I am getting old, but I'm okay with that too.

I did manage to get most of my schoolwork finished before I left the building on Friday. This meant staying late a few evenings, but it was worth it to have free time on the weekend. I had planned to spend Friday evening reading a new book, but my magic blanket and leather couch soon lulled me off to sleep after only a few chapters.

My Grandma Haught always said people need more sleep in the fall, so I am going to go with that as my excuse.

Saturday morning, I decided it was time to rearrange my bedroom. When the air-conditioner is on in the summer months, I have to move my bed to the opposite wall.

Now that the AC days are over, it is time to put my bedroom back to its original arrangement. While I am doing this, it is a good time to sweep, dust and clean the ceiling fan. I can now turn on the heater in my bedroom when it gets cold enough.

While I was doing all of these tasks, I got the laundry going. This way the sheets would be ready to put back on my bed when I was finished.

Once my bedroom was complete and the laundry put away, I turned my attention to making dinner. I had seen a recipe online for a burrito bowl that looked really good and easy to make. I had purchased all of the ingredients earlier in the week but just hadn't had the time to make it. I invited the Mlyneks to join me and then set to work.

The recipe is all made in one big pan on the stovetop. I started with some olive oil, diced onion and green peppers, and some garlic. Then I added ground beef and drained the extra fat off when the meat was cooked.

After that it was simply a matter of adding a can of drained black beans, a can of drained corn, a can of diced tomatoes with chilis, and a cup of brown rice. Next, I added some taco seasoning, red pepper flakes, and two cups of chicken broth. The lid went on the pan, and I left it to simmer for 20 minutes. The final step was to add some sharp cheddar cheese before serving it over a bed of lettuce with sour cream, salsa, and chips for toppings. I was not disappointed; it was delicious.

Saturday evening was spent watching a Hallmark movie until I fell asleep once again under my favorite blanket.

Sunday was church in the morning and a church picnic and bonfire in the afternoon complete with a hayride.

A great time was had by all, and I was once again thankful for my church family. It is now time to go pack my lunch and start getting ready for the upcoming week.

Every day this week has a theme. Monday is Pajama Day, and I am really looking forward to that one.

Thank heavens the weather is supposed to be warmer this week.

CURIOSITY CORNER

by Dr. Jerry D. Wilson, Emeritus Professor of Physics, Lander University

Often, I'm asked about the meanings of words and phrases. The questions are genuine, and the definitions and origins are interesting. Yet, on their own, they're too short to make up a full column.

A few weeks ago, I began a series called "Miscellaneous Meanings." This is the third and final installment.

"Mayday!" This is a verbal distress call that has nothing to do with spring or a day in May. It comes from the French m'aidez, meaning "help me." It was adopted as an international distress call, similar to the telegraphy "S.O.S.," because it is brief, clear and generally unmistakable.

May Day. (See what I did there?) Unlike the entry above, this one DOES have something to do with a day in May. It is a European festival that originated in ancient times and celebrates the coming of summer on May 1.

Ouija (as in Ouija board). This was a popular game in the 1950s. The word is a combination of the French oui, meaning "yes," and the German ja, also meaning "yes." A "yes, yes" to cheer for the desired answer, I guess. The meaning was obscured by a bad pronunciation of the German part. As a result, we have "wee-jee," instead of "wee-yah."

"Stung to the quick." In this case, "quick" doesn't mean "speedy" or "fast," but is an older word meaning "living." In religious contexts, you may have heard something like "judge the quick and the dead," (1 Peter 4:5). Quicksilver, the old name for mercury, was applied because the liquid moves and seems to be alive. Quicksand will swallow you as if it's alive. And, we refer to the sensitive area under the fingernail as the quick. So, when we are "stung to the quick," we are stung deeply, or hurt to the living tissue.

Biweekly. Does it mean twice a week or every two weeks? My dictionary tells me that it can mean both. The same goes with bimonthly. However, the preferred terms for twice a week and twice a month are "semiweekly" and "semimonthly" respectively.

There you have it! Three weeks' worth of miscellaneous meanings to satisfy your curiosity. Time to start building a new list!

C.P.S. (Curious Postscript): "Life is like riding a bicycle. To keep your balance, you must keep moving." -Albert Einstein

Let's Talk Turkey

by Linda Crawford

Ben Franklin thought the turkey should have been the national symbol rather than the eagle, "For in truth the turkey is in comparison a much more respectable bird and withal a true original native of America." Indeed it is! They are native to Mexico. Explorers took wild turkeys home to Europe where they were domesticated. However the bird was incorrectly classified as a type of guinea fowl called a turkey fowl which Turkish traders brought from Africa to European markets. There are no turkeys native to Turkey. Our turkeys were brought back to North America by English colonists. West Virginians know full well how different wild and domesticated turkeys are. I've heard many references to driving turkeys to market in Calhoun. That's amazing to me. Someone will have to tell us how anyone managed that.

For those who do not know, the redskin that is attached to the underside of a turkey's beak is called a wattle. The fleshy flap that hangs over the gobblers beak is called a snood. Both turn bright red when the turkey chest is excited. The wobbly little thing on the turkey's chest is called his beard and is made of stuff - keratin - found in hair and horns on other animals. For all the turkeys that passed through our barn lot and up our drive way to the road, none were tom's. Vehicles stopped to let the hen's cross the road with their broods. A variety of gobbler calls could be heard on either side of the creek at various times. I enjoyed playing the call boxes from my brothers' collection. One of our family fiends who has been hunting for years had the best turkey hunt and shot the biggest tom ever just this past year.

Turkeys can "fly." It looks more like gliding to me. One of the old, old pine trees that looked somewhat like a ladder by the road was frequently loaded with perched turkeys. Me? I thought every feather was a treat from God.

In Mexico, my son engineered a traditional American Thanksgiving for his co-workers some years back. A number of people there do the turkey thing but as many here, many serve a different menu but they do celebrate Thanksgiving. When cooking for family and friends, I always did the largest turkey for Thanksgiving then Christmas. They were always roasted breast down to keep breast moist. It might be my favorite meal but wild turkey which is scarce as turkey teeth has more flavor. "They are what they eat."

RED DEVILS HOST HAWKS IN DOWNPOUR

By Robert Bonar

Last Friday night in Mount Zion, the Calhoun County Red Devils hosted the South Harrison Hawks in the eighth game of the 2023 season. The game was part of the National Guard Gridiron Series, and a recruiter was an honored guest on the home sideline. Unfortunately, there was also an unwelcome guest at the game: Mother Nature.

Friday had been a chilly, rainy day, and the night brought a cold downpour by game time. The contest was close through most of the first half, but the visiting Hawks pulled away in the second half to claim a 30-8 win.

The game started in a moderate rain that ceased midway through the first quarter. Calhoun received the opening kickoff, but netted only two yards in three plays and had to punt the ball away. After taking possession, the Hawks began a sustained drive – all rushing plays – that culminated in the first touchdown of the evening on a four-yard run.

Neither team was able to score again until halfway through the second quarter, when South Harrison picked off a Calhoun pass and returned it 59 yards to put the Hawks up 16-0.

Following the score, Joe Nelson took the Hawks' kickoff and returned it to the Calhoun 40-yard line. Facing a third and ten, Jayton Gibson took a handoff and completed a halfback pass to Logan Tingler, good for 48 yards and a first down. This was the first pass completed by either team, and would end up being the longest play from scrimmage during the game. Two plays later, Tyler Nelson scampered around the left end into the end zone for a Red Devil touchdown. Jayton Gibson hauled in a pass from Owen Taylor for the extra points, cutting South Harrison's lead to 16-8.

Following the score, South Harrison mishandled Gabe Waldron's kickoff. Jayton Gibson pounced on the loose ball and gave Calhoun possession at its own 46-yard line.

The Red Devils moved the ball to the Hawks' 19-yard line – thanks in large part to a 20-yard run by Owen Taylor and a 12-yard pass from Gibson to Brennan Carpenter – but were forced to turn the ball over on downs there. The half ended two plays later, but Calhoun County faced only a 16-8 deficit and had all the momentum on its side.

Unfortunately, that momentum disappeared along with the clear skies in an ugly third quarter. The Hawks took the second half kickoff and embarked on a scoring drive.

As the rains returned, the Hawks covered 47 yards in five plays to make it a 24-8 game. On its following possession, Calhoun turned the ball over on downs when a fourth down pass fell incomplete. The Red Devil defense held and forced a Hawk punt, but the ball bounced off a Calhoun player and South Harrison recovered to regain possession.

With the visitors nearing Calhoun's goal line, Owen Taylor intercepted a South Harrison pass at the 14-yard line to snuff the Hawks' scoring threat.

A mere three plays later, South Harrison returned the favor and intercepted a Calhoun pass, returning it 22 yards for another touchdown. The run for extra points failed, but the Hawks held a 30-8 advantage.

Calhoun County had time to run only one play before the third quarter ended at midfield. By this time the rain had become a downpour, and most everyone at the field was miserable. Players on both sides – frustrated by the weather, bad field conditions, multiple holding penalties and turnovers – had been venting those frustrations during the quarter. As the clock expired on the period of play, the head official warned everyone on the line of scrimmage that if the pushing, shoving and jawing didn't stop, he'd kick both teams off the field.

Both teams backed off in the fourth quarter, even though the precipitation did not. Calhoun County moved the ball to the South Harrison 19-yard line, but lost the ball there on a fumble. The Hawks ran 13 plays to eat up the remaining 8:40 of the game, putting an end to a very wet, sloppy game.

Unsurprisingly on such a slippery night, the game was filled with frequent fumbles, holding calls and the lack of a passing game. The two teams combined for eight fumbles – losing three – and committed a total of 16 penalties for 138 yards, many of which derailed promising drives. Neither starting quarterback completed a single pass; halfback Jayton Gibson had the only two completions of the night for either team. Sadly, the slick turf also claimed a victim during the game, as one of South Harrison's ball carriers had to be carted off the field to the ambulance after their third play of the game.

This Friday night, the Calhoun County Red Devils will host the Webster County Highlanders, who are celebrating their 50th season of football. This will be Homecoming for Calhoun County, so everyone is encouraged to come to the field to see old friends and to support the team. Kickoff is at 7:00.

 Petition and General Investigation to determine reasonable rates and charges on and after January 1, 2024.
NOTICE OF FILING AND HEARING
 On August 31, 2023, Monongahela Power Company and The Potomac Edison Company (collectively, Companies) requested that the Commission initiate its annual review of Expanded Net Energy Costs (ENEC), including a review of actual costs and recoveries for the review period of July 1, 2022 through June 30, 2023, and to establish new rates to go into effect on January 1, 2024. The Companies request that the Commission approve rates that will result in a projected total annual revenue of $167,465,330. This requested increase is less than the calculated increase of $243,032,313 which includes a deferred ENEC under-recovery balance of $267,004,039 as of June 30, 2023, and a projected $19,913,811 over-recovery for the 2024 forecasted effective rate period. The Companies derived the requested $167.47 million by taking the actual under-recovery balance of $267,465,330 and subtracting $91,898,347, the amount deferred from the last ENEC filing, Case No. 22-0793-E-ENEC and dividing the balance by half. In other words, the Companies propose to recover the $91.9 million deferred from the last ENEC case and half of the present under-recovery. The Companies request a four percent carrying charge for the remaining $75,566,983.

The proposed ENEC rates represent a 9.9% increase in total rates with an impact to the average residential customer using 1,000 kWhs per month being an increase in monthly bills from $120.20 to $129.39 or 7.8%. This matter is scheduled for an evidentiary hearing on Thursday November 30, 2023. The hearing will begin at 9:30 a.m. in the Howard M. Cunningham Hearing Room at the Public Service Commission, 201 Brooks Street, Charleston, West Virginia. The Commission may cancel the evidentiary hearing for good cause shown. Interested persons intending to attend the hearing should monitor the Commission web docket. Anyone desiring to intervene should file a written petition to intervene not later than November 9, 2023. All petitions to intervene should briefly state the reason for the request to intervene and comply with the rules on intervention set forth in the Commission's Rules of Practice and Procedure. The Commission will receive public comments until the beginning of the hearing. All written comments and petitions to intervene should state the case name and number and be addressed to Karen Buckley, Executive Secretary, P.O. Box 812, Charleston, West Virginia 25323. Public Comments may also be filed online at <http://www.psc.state.wv.us/scripts/onlinecomments/default.cfm> by clicking the "Formal Case" link.

NEWS FROM A RURAL WV DEMOCRATIC VIEWPOINT

By Deirdre Purdy

SCIENCE, POLITICS, LIFE & DEATH

I read this on page 2 of my local paper last week: "It was noted that the m-rna vaccines make the recipients GMO organisms, that is to say the folks who took the jab have had their DNA changed and there is no reversal. According to government figures there are now at least 600,000 vaccine related deaths in America."

Do you laugh? The first sentence sounds both scientific and dire. But it is meaningless gibberish. Or do you cry? The second sentence is not just false; it is an inflammatory lie that is preventing people from getting a simple shot that may keep them - and the rest of us - alive.

I can't believe I have to say this, but a Covid shot does not make you a GMO - a "genetically modified organism."

Genetic modification involves isolating a gene in a laboratory and inserting it into the DNA in the nucleus of a single cell.

When you get the Covid vaccine, you are not exposed to the virus. Instead, the mRNA vaccines consist of a small piece of a protein from the Covid virus. That piece of protein teaches our cells how to make a protein that triggers our immune response when we are exposed to the Covid virus.

The mRNA from Covid-19 vaccine never enters the nucleus of any cell, which is where our DNA is kept. The mRNA does not affect or interact with our DNA in any way. Getting the jab does not make you a GMO.

The more outrageous and totally insupportable claim is that 600,000 people have died after being vaccinated for Covid-19.

The CDC has a self-reporting system about adverse reactions and death after vaccination. Anyone can enter a report. This is a resource for researchers examining possible vaccine-related deaths. 18,533 deaths after vaccination have been reported.

Of those reports, the CDC has confirmed just 9 deaths being actually caused by Covid-19 vaccines, all due to rare blood clots caused by the Johnson & Johnson shot.

There have been 1,147,253 US deaths due to Covid-19 as of Oct 7, 2023. And nine deaths due to Covid vaccination.

The outrageous claim that 600,000 have died from Covid vaccination is a far right-wing invention that came from no government source ever. Sadly, the link between politics, health, and death is glaringly clear.

Democratic-leaning states were more likely to enact vaccine mandates. Republican-leaning states resisted these measures citing "freedom."

Live free & die became a serious choice.

The failure to get vaccinated has led many more Republicans than Democrats to die of Covid.

Throughout the pandemic, excess mortality has been at least 15% higher for Republican voters than Democratic voters after Covid-19 vaccines were available.

This is a place where Republican & Democrat really shouldn't matter.

Vaccination can keep you from getting Covid. If you do get it, your case is likely to be much lighter. It is the safest strategy for avoiding hospitalization, bad long-term health outcomes, and death.

There are no longer vaccine mandates. You want freedom? You are totally free to choose to take one shot, just like a flu shot, to protect yourself, your family, your church, your community.

Be a Good Moral Organism (GMO). Get the jab. No one at Walmart will ask how you voted.

WAG : HELP with FERAL CAT COLONIES

The Welfare of Animals Group (WAG) is asking Calhoun county residents to help us address a long-observed problem with our animal community - feral or community cats.

If you feed a feral cat colony in your neighborhood, or know someone who does, please call Linda at 304-354-7506 or notify us via our email calhounwag@yahoo.com.

Our humane and effective Trap-Neuter-Return (TNR) program's volunteers will live trap the cats, take them to the vet to be spayed or neutered, vaccinated for rabies, respiratory disease, worms, and fleas, and returned them to their outdoor home, at no cost to the colony's caretaker.

The colony will be healthier and no longer producing unwanted kittens. At 4 months old a female kitten can start breeding, and can have 2 or 3 litters per year. A mother cat nursing a litter of kittens goes back into heat when the kittens are only 3-4 weeks old.

Removing cats from an area (catching and killing) is useless. When cats are removed from an area, then new, unsterilized cats move in to take advantage of available resources - and begin reproducing. This well-documented natural trend is known as the "vacuum effect."

Trap-Neuter-Return stops the breeding cycle and eliminates mating behaviors, such as yowling, spraying, roaming, and fighting. Trap-Neuter-Return also benefits public health because community cats are vaccinated against rabies. We can only trap once a month, so please contact us so we can help with a colony.

Delta Kappa Gamma is looking for women educators

Submitted By: Deloris Lipps, Communications Chairman, muchapterdkg@gmail.com or 304-482-8132

Delta Kappa Gamma, an international society of women educators, has expanded its definition of educators to include women outside the school system.

Women who work as dance, gymnastics, and yoga instructors; give private music lessons; are personal trainers; do training for businesses and companies; were teachers but changed careers; are retired from teaching; are substitute teachers; etc. are now eligible for membership in the organization.

Female students in their last two years of college and who are planning to become teachers are also eligible.

If you fall into any of these categories and think you might be interested in becoming a member of the organization, Mu Chapter which takes its members from women living or working in Calhoun, Roane, and Wirt Counties would like to have you visit during one of its meetings.

Mu Chapter's next meeting is November 4 (email muchapterdkg@gmail.com for the time and location) and the program will be on scholarship and grant money available to members and educators. There will also be an auction to raise money for the annual recruitment grant.

Kendra Davis chosen to Attend FBI Teen Academy

The division of the FBI Charleston hosted a Teen Academy on October 18, 2023. Teen Academy was a one-day hands-on program for current High School Juniors and Seniors (2023-2024 school year) who live within the FBI Pittsburgh Division's area of responsibility in Western Pennsylvania and West Virginia. Teen Academy is a chance for youth to learn about the FBI and what a variety of career paths in the FBI would entail.

Selected students were offered insight into a number of topics and specialties, including the importance of making good choices when using online communication platforms, federal law violations the FBI investigates, requirements of all FBI applicants, and the FBI's domestic and international roles. Students also enjoyed various hands-on experiences involving specialized areas of the FBI, such as the Evidence Response Team. After completing the class, students are more aware of challenges their communities face, better understand how the FBI serves their region, and are prepared to mentor their peers.

This young lady was awarded the opportunity to participate and earned the certification of completion of this academy. The Lord blesses us with young adults who are willing to use their talents to expand their knowledge. To say we are proud is simply not enough. Kendra Davis, daughter of Jessie and Denise Davis of Grantsville.
