The 51st Golden Delicious Festival is now in the history books

By Allen Hamrick

The 2024 Clay County Golden Delicious Festival is now a part of our history to be remembered. It all got started with some awesome festival weather for the entire event. On Thursday night, people were given the opportunity to watch as the new queens went through their coronation. Afterward, music filled the air as Clay's finest singers went head to head in the open mic night. Smoke from barbecue pits filled the air and made a person's stomach swell just from the awesome smell of pulled pork sandwiches and chicken along with some new food trucks that brought in the culture. If your taste buds weren't satisfied, you better get your tongue checked. Color sprang into action at the Clay Health Department as the quilt show opened to display some of the best talent in stitchery.

Friday was a great time to get reacquainted with friends, enjoy a cup of coffee and chase it with whatever your taste buds desired. Students from the two remaining elementary schools, Big Otter and Clay, and CCMS took the stage with some of the finest young voices in the county as it was time for the battle of the choirs. It was a great day to just settle down, get with friends and neighbors and enjoy classic festival entertainment. The new Apple Belle was crowned as Linda Love Williams accepted the crown as the 2024 Golden Delicious Belle. Music hit the stage around 4:00 and didn't stop until late in the night when Jebediah, Michael Rucker, Marissa Truman and Josh Pantry performed right up to the closing of the doors on the festival for Friday night.

Then came Saturday; a wonderful day to have a festival. A few clouds threatened late in the day, but all was well. Pies and cakes filled the tables as judging began in earnest - each pie hand made with a touch of love and the baker's special ingredients. People came from all over to fill the streets, and music once again sounded throughout town. The parade commenced about 1:30, and the streets were lined with hundreds of people, young and old, as the sirens began to blow. Candy was flung on streets like confetti, and both kids and adults enjoyed the challenge of getting it first. Queens and princesses were dressed in their finest, rode on the finest carriages money could buy and went through town waving to the subjects. The CCHS band marched in the parade playing some cool band tunes as smiles touched ear lobes. It wouldn't be a parade without the music of the drums.

From politicians and tractors to tow trucks and fire engines, the parade was a good one. Once the parade was over, it was time for skillet flinging and corn hole. The Hall of Fame induction was held as some of the finest athletes and coaches to come out of CCHS were remembered. Local talent hit the stage before the much acclaimed group Diamond Rio brought thousands of ears the sweet harmony of their award winning tunes that they have been known for over 30 years. There weren't any parking spaces to be had unless you could turn your car on its end. They are one of the best groups to ever visit our festival - they didn't just come and play and want spoon fed on their pedestal. Instead, they interacted with the crowd throughout the day and became part of the festival as fans became friends.

Sunday was the final day as the Elk River Rail Trail 5K and Marathon and gospel music messages sponsored by Fairview Baptist Church were the last events until next year. The Elk River Rail Trail 5K and Marathon started off at the Dundon trailhead. With the limited parking space due to the new rail car business, buses were provided as shuttles from CCHS to Dundon. Approximately 250 entrants from 19 states participated in the event, and it went off without a hitch. The lack of parking and necessary shuttling did cause a delay of approximately 30 minutes, but Clay County folks know how to adapt, improvise and overcome the obstacles from outside that threaten to hold us back. Nathan McKee won the half marathon with a time of 1:32:12.91. The female winner was Laura King with a time 1:33:02:11. Joshua Lapetoda took home the trophy in the 5K run and walk with a time of 19:11:81. Local running legend Marissa Atha took home first place in the female division with a time of 22:06:36.

The end of the festival brings in the idea that snow is just around the corner. It has been a good festival, and it absolutely could not go on if not for those behind the scenes getting it ready, setting it up and tearing it down long after the people have gone. Many, many thanks go out to all those that sponsored the events; without them, their love of home and their generosity, the quality of entertainment and all that goes on could not be achieved. Clay County owes you many thanks because so much of our culture is dying, and you take the time to make sure that good times will roll on in Clay County. The continuation of the Clay County Golden Delicious Festival ensures the opportunity to get together with friends, enjoy music, and eat great food - definitely something to look forward to.

WV poverty rate for children among highest in nation

By Nadia Ramlagan

The number of West Virginia children living in poverty remains among the highest in the nation, and more children are living in households struggling with hunger, according to the latest federal data.

The end of pandemic supports combined with rising inflation, rent, and the cost of living, are to blame experts say.

The expanded Child Tax Credit cut child poverty in half, said Salaam Bhatti, SNAP Director with Food Research & Action Center.

When it ended, he said more families dipped back into poverty. Now, the child poverty rate has hit nearly 14%.

"Had we added a few more dollars to that program, it could have cut child poverty entirely," said Bhatti. "But it was a deliberate policy choice that the government made to not do that, and then another deliberate choice to remove that expansion."

According to the West Virginia Center on Budget and Policy, child poverty in the Mountain State dipped from 25% in 2022 to around 20% in 2023.

But despite the reduced numbers, the number of kids living in poverty remains among the highest in the nation.

Nearly 14 million children live in households currently experiencing food insecurity, up by more than 3% from 2022.

Bhatti noted that nearly 35% of single parent households headed by women struggle to pay for groceries.

He said his organization wants Congress to protect the Thrifty Food Plan, which sets the standard for the maximum amount of SNAP benefits households receive.

"Some lawmakers want to cut that Thrifty Food Plan adjustment," said Bhatti, "and as a result, that would cut $30 billion from SNAP benefits over the next 10 years."

Experts say kids who eat healthy meals are less likely to develop high blood pressure, diabetes, dental cavities, and other health problems.

But as more kids go hungry or lack access to quality food, they're also more likely to be uninsured.

According to data from the Center on Budget and Policy Priorities, the number of children without health coverage rose to nearly 6% in 2023.

Our Unseen Acts Of Kindness

By Joe Mazzella

When I was a young boy we lived just down the road from a public swimming pool. During the summer months I would be there almost every day swimming and playing for hours. The best thing of all was they had a concession stand there. You could buy a cup of coca cola for 15 cents and a bag of chips was only a dime. Often my Mom or Nana would give me a quarter before I left so I could have a snack there. Sometimes, though, they weren't home or were busy working. That is when I would try the couch cushions.

I would pull them out and stretch my little arms deep into the crevices of the couch or my Dad's recliner hoping to find some spare change that had fallen out of someone's pockets. Often to my delight I would find a dime or a dime and a nickel and sometimes even a quarter. Then I would run off to the swimming pool with change in my hand and happiness in my heart.

It is only recently, however, that I realized I found change there an awful lot during the summertime. I remember looking between the cushions in the winter a few times and not even finding a penny. Although I never saw them I think that Mom, Nana, Dad, or all three of them would drop change down there for me to find. They did so knowing it would make my day and bring a smile to my face. Of course, they never said a word about it even after I had grown up. I guess some secrets are too good to share.

I think that maybe an unseen act of kindness has a special joy to it. You get no appreciation or thanks for it, at least not to your face. Yet, it fills your heart with happiness. You know that you are helping another. You know that you are making someone's life better. And you know that you are making this world a more loving and joyful place. But, no act of kindness is ever truly unseen. God sees them all. God loves them all. And God smiles down upon them all.

Oh, For the Life of an Old Geezer

Dr. James L. Snyder

I am not given to complaining, except when I'm awake. That's according to The Gracious Mistress of the Parsonage.

Lately, I've been leaning towards a complaining attitude. I've reached the point of being an old geezer. I'm older than both of my grandfathers, and in three years, I'll be up to where my father was when he passed away. I don't think of myself as old, just older.

There are some benefits to getting older, but I've discovered just as many negative aspects. I'm not as energetic as I used to be. I can't walk as fast as I used to. When someone talks to me, I have to think a bit about their name.

Don't let me get on about my health issues. When I was young, I didn't have all of these health issues, but now, I'm at that point in life where I do have health issues.

Seeing my doctors is second only to seeing The Gracious Mistress of the Parsonage. All the nurses in the various medical places I go know me by my first name. I don't know if that's good or if it's bad. I'm going to lean in the direction of good. After all, at my age I'm leaning in some direction.

When I was younger, I never thought about getting old. Every time I celebrated a birthday, it never occurred to me that this would continue until I became an old geezer. At the time, I used to make fun of my old grandfathers. Now, much to my disgust, I have become my old grandfathers.

I'm glad they're not alive to see that I have become just like them. They would've died laughing.

My father passed away when he was five years older than I am right now. So, in five years, I will be at my father's level. I'm unsure what level that is, and I do not even want to know.

I remember that, as kids, my siblings and I would sit around and laugh at our grandparents. I'm wondering if my grandchildren are sitting around laughing at me! I wouldn't blame them if they were.

The Gracious Mistress of the Parsonage and I recently ate lunch together. I suppose we were celebrating something, but for the life of me, I can't remember what it was. We were at a restaurant enjoying ourselves.

When the waitress came to our table to take our order, she asked how we were, and I responded, "Well, for an old geezer, we were doing fine."

She smiled at me and said, "Does that mean that you both are senior citizens?"

I usually take offense at that classification. But under the circumstances I nodded my head and said, "Yes, we are senior citizens but I prefer old geezers."

Looking at me, the waitress smiled and said, "You are in luck today. We have a senior citizen discount on everything on the menu."

I looked up at her and said, "Why, yes. We're both senior citizens."

"In that case, you can get a 20% discount on everything you order today."

She took our coffee order and then went to get it for us. As she was gone, The Gracious Mistress of the Parsonage said, "Are we old geezers or senior citizens?"

I smiled and said, "Today we are senior citizens and tomorrow will go back to being old geezers."

"I guess it's only about the money for you," she smiled.

After thinking for a moment, I finally responded, "I've never heard of an old geezer discount. Have you?"

She shook her head and said, "I'll let you be a senior citizen today and will see what tomorrow might bring."

That next week, whenever we went out to a restaurant and, the waitress would say, "How are you doing today?" I would always respond by saying, "Do you have any senior citizen's discounts today?"

If they said "no," I would always respond by saying, "I'm just an old geezer today."

If they said "yes," I would respond by saying, "I'm a senior citizen today."

I'm trying to determine the differences between an old geezer and a senior citizen. Apart from the discount, I can't find any difference between the two. I'm an old geezer one day, and the next day, I have a senior citizen. Maybe I have the case of dementia.

At one restaurant this past week, the waiter came up and greeted me. I was having a rather crazy day, to put it mildly, so I told him, "I'm just an old geezer today."

"Well," said the waiter, "this is my last day here at this restaurant and so I'm going to give you an old geezer discount. You sorta remind me of my grandfather."

I was so sorry that The Gracious Mistress of the Parsonage wasn't with me. We could have enjoyed a two-way ticket for the old geezer discount. She would have been happy, I think. If I keep from calling her an old geezer, my day is happy.

In thinking about this I remembered a verse in the Bible that addresses old age. "They shall still bring forth fruit in old age; they shall be fat and flourishing" (Psalm 92:14).

God still has work for me even as an old geezer. Finding that work is the joy of my life each day. This is not based on what I use to do, but what God has for me today.

SBA to Help West Virginia Businesses Affected by Drought

The U.S. Small Business Administration (SBA) announced that federal Economic Injury Disaster Loans (EIDLs) are available in West Virginia for small businesses, small agricultural cooperatives, small businesses engaged in aquaculture, and most private nonprofit organizations with economic losses due to drought that began on Aug. 20.

The declaration includes the primary counties of Barbour, Braxton, Cabell, Clay, Doddridge, Harrison, Lewis, Lincoln, Nicholas, Ritchie, Upshur, Webster and Wood in West Virginia, and the adjacent counties of Boone, Calhoun, Fayette, Gilmer, Greenbrier, Jackson, Kanawha, Logan, Marion, Mason, Mingo, Pleasants, Pocahontas, Preston, Putnam, Randolph, Roane, Taylor, Tucker, Tyler, Wayne, Wetzel and Wirt, in West Virginia, and Athens, Gallia, Lawrence, Meigs and Washington in Ohio.

"Working capital loans from the SBA are essential to eligible small businesses when the Secretary of Agriculture declares a disaster due to farmers' crop losses," said Francisco Sánchez, Jr., associate administrator for the SBA's Office of Disaster Recovery and Resilience. "These loans help sustain rural economies when a disaster occurs."

Under this declaration, the SBA's Economic Injury Disaster Loan (EIDL) program is available to eligible farm-related and nonfarm-related entities that suffered financial losses as a direct result of this disaster. Apart from aquaculture enterprises, SBA cannot provide disaster loans to agricultural producers, farmers, and ranchers. Nurseries are eligible to apply for economic injury disaster loans for losses caused by drought conditions.

The loan amount can be up to $2 million with interest rates of 4% for small businesses and 3.25% for private nonprofit organizations, with terms up to 30 years. Interest does not accrue, and payments are not due, until 12 months from the date of the first loan disbursement. The SBA sets loan amounts and terms based on each applicant's financial condition. Eligibility is based on the size of the applicant, type of activity and its financial resources. These working capital loans may be used to pay fixed debts, payroll, accounts payable, and other bills that could have been paid had the disaster not occurred. The loans are not intended to replace lost sales or profits.

For information and to apply online visit SBA.gov/ disaster. Applicants may also call the SBA's Customer Service Center at (800) 659-2955 or email disastercustomerservice@sba.gov for more information on SBA disaster assistance. For people who are deaf, hard of hearing, or have a speech disability, please dial 7-1-1 to access telecommunications relay services.

Submit completed loan applications to SBA no later than April 28, 2025.

OBITUARY

John Henry Stone

John Henry Stone, passed away peacefully at home on September 14, 2024. John was born on January 3, 1939 to Henry and Ruby (Morton) Stone in Lizemores, WV and had 6 siblings. He attended Clay County High School where he met his sweetheart Sharon Lee Davis and the two graduated together in 1959, then married June 27th that same year. In their 65+ years together family was their pride, joy and passion. The family started with daughter Patti (Rich) Rohrer, then son William John Stone, their granddaughters Jennifer (Tracy) Townsend and Stefanie Stone, and grandsons Michael (Lexi) Stone and Billy (Tia) Stone, then great grandchildren Garrett and Makenna Stoller and Brayden and Johnathan Booker. Also survived by his mother-in-law, Agnes Davis. During the decades of employment John worked hard for O. D. Holk Construction, Reiter Dairy and dedicated over 25 years at UPS, from which he retired in 1994. At retirement they purchased over 90 acres in Carrollton and built a beautiful homestead. This is where he fenced pasture for adopted mustangs, had horses for grandkids, glorious gardens and even supported grandsons building their own dirt bike track. John enjoyed cars and kept them in pristine condition. He shared with his family the hobby of stock car racing and drove many miles following our #7 and #331 to any and all tracks they attended. He kept a meticulous appearance in his well shined cowboy boots, creased wranglers, and Stetson hat. John had the gift for gab and never met a stranger. He told great stories of ornery youth, listened with kindness, and would crack a joke when necessary. Keeping his family together was his main goal and he showered his love on us with trips and our times spent together. John supported our needs and interests with unconditional love. He instilled strong work ethic, showed perseverance, compassion and growth. He would tell us you have got to leave something better than the way you found it and that is just what he did. The greatest legacy left is his wisdom and the fierce love John had for his family. His love will carry on in us all, you can bet on that one ... just mark <er down.

INDEPENDENT TEAMS PLAY FOR HEART FUND

The Widen Women's Independent Basketball Team will play a game with the Dundon Independent Women's Team Saturday, March 1, 1958, at 7:30 p.m. The game will be in the New Community Building at Widen W. Va.

Proceeds from this game will go to the National Heart Association. Heart Disease is the No. 1 cause of death in the United States and in order to conquer this disease more and more dollars must be channelled into research.

Come out and see this benefit game March 1, 1958. Help your Heart Fund! Help Your Heart!

Ind. Women's Team Plays Widen Rotary For 'March of Dimes'

On February 1, 1958 the Widen Women's Independent Basketball Team played against the Widen Rotary Club in a very hilarious and entertaining game for the benefit of the "March of Dimes". Girls rules were used in the game and the Women edged out the men by 1 point. The final score was 63-62.

The men designed their own costumes for the game and some of them brought many laughs from the spectators. Tom Mullins played wearing a football uniform and Gene Taylor wore hip boots and a mining cap.

Cheerleaders for both teams were men dressed as girls — "Red" Truman and Carmel Ramsey led the cheering for the Rotary Club and Bernell Baughman, Calvin Gibson and Melvin Conner led the Women's Cheering section.

A large crowd attended this game and the proceeds boosted Clay County's Polio Quota considerably.

Much progress has been made toward conquering this dread disease but there is still more to be done. The local chairman extends her personal thanks to those who have contributed to the polio fund.

WIDEN BAND NEWS

Within the near future the Widen Band is planning concerts at Dille, Dundon, Swandale, and Widen.

The Widen Band wishes to thank the nice people at Dundon and Swandale for inviting us down to play for them again. It was a pleasure for us to accept these invitations.

A lot of people have done an excellent job of helping the band when help was needed. But we have one person in mind; Mrs. Jim Coen has brought five band students from Dille every day for about a month. So we wish to tip our hats in thanks to her.

Most bands are usually made up of Juniors and Seniors, but we couldn't say that for Widen Band. There are three Seniors, three Juniors, one Sophomore, seven Freshmen, seven Eighth graders, ten Seventh graders eight Sixth graders, and three Fifth graders. We now have the grand total of 43 members in the Widen Band.

HOSPITAL ENTERTAINS

January was a busy month for Charleston General Hospital with heads of departments of the Elk River Coal and Lumber Company. At one time, there were five men hospitalized for major surgery or X-Ray and treatment.

Master Mechanic John L. Henley; chief supply clerk, Levy D. Friend; chief Swandale Mill sawyer, Adam Roberts; chief car inspector (BC&G Railway) Homer Boggs; and YMCA secretary, Herb Johnson.

All have since been discharged from the hospital and are convalescing at their homes in Dundon, Swandale, Widen and Ivydale.

THANKS!

Among us walks a paragon of the "Do it yourself plan." Often a teacher or student needs something fixed so he calls upon this "fix-it-upper". She is often called on to do such jobs as sewing the new numbers on the basketball squad's uniforms; sewing the plastic typewriter covers; sewing on buttons that are torn off; fixing a special dish on request; and spending almost all of her free periods showing movies.

To have some one like this in our school is a break for all of us and we should be appreciative of such a "swell" person.

So we tip our hats to Mrs. Betty Sizemore, director of the Home Economics Department and General "handy woman."

Clay County football took the Sissonville Indians to the woodshed on homecoming night. The Panthers basically scored at will as the Collins air show began. He has some high speed juke and jivin' wide receivers in Joel Elliot and high flying Jacoby Nichols who are quickly becoming a terror for the other teams. With Noah Collins throwing tight enough threads to make a quilt, it plays havoc on the other teams. The Panther defense were assassins cruising around the field, and there was no where the Indians could go but to the pout house. The game was a rough one and tensions were running high as the Panthers scored time and time again, seemingly unstoppable. The Indians managed to get past the Panther defense a couple of times making a person think that the TD's were just teas the Panthers let them have. By the half the score was near out of each for the Indians as the Panthers racked 54 points on the board to their 19. Once the halftime was over, both teams added two more TD's to their score and made the final score 68-33. Football wasn't the only action on the field Friday night. It was time for football royalty to parade onto the field in their finest regalia. Yep, you guessed, it was queen's night and time to crown the new 2024 Football Homecoming Queen of CCHS. The CCHS band and the CCHS cheerleaders got the ball rolling as they lined up for the parade of queens. Queen Gracie Johnson, along with her escort Kain Osburn and crown bearers River Osburn and McKinzli Samples, graced the football field and with enthusiasm accepted the crown as CCHS principal Allen Tanner placed it on her head. She will no doubt be a queen that represents the school well. Freshman Princess Olivia Lanham was escorted by Kaiden Hersman, Sophomore Princess Camryn Williams was escorted by Elijah Tanner, Junior Princess Jolie Bevins was escorted by Dalton Griffin, and Senior Princess Hollie Conley was escorted by Trent Hinkle. Congratulations to Queen Johnson and therestofhercourt,theyallrepresentedwell. The Panthers, now 3-1, on the season will be on the road to take on the undefeated South Harrison next Friday. Go Panthers!

By Allen Hamrick
The Lady Panthers were at home this past week against the Roane County Lady Raiders. This game, like several others, is a great rival game and is always full of action. The Lady Panthers are led by their new coach Danielle Champ. These Lady Panthers are a young team made up of mostly freshman and sophomore players. None the less, they are a good team with a lot of potential. If volleyball kill shots were a crime, Rylee Burkhamer would be up state for a thousand years. That girl has a gun arm like a cannon. They took the tough Lady Raiders to the 4th game before sending them packing. The Lady Panthers are tough to beat when all cylinders are working, and they have an arsenal of players who can get the job done. The Lady Panthers will be back in action on the road against South Harrison and then back home against Gilmer on Thursday. The Lady Mustangs played three games this week against Calhoun, Valley, and South Harrison. They played very well but just couldn't get in the groove against Calhoun and lost the set 1-2. Valley was up next, and Rylee Burkhamer brings in the kill.

Autumn Rapp keeps the ball in play.

Zoey Jones slams a kill shot.

the Lady Mustangs bounced back and beat them handily in two games. South Harrison proved to be a little tougher, and the Lady Mustangs did take one of the games but lost the set 1-2. They will be home Monday night to take on Ravenswood.

Mustangs hunt and skin the Bears 42-6

Truthfully ... where are you going to go?

Collin Elliot gets the great open field tackle.

Adam Canfield demonstrates the human crusher.

Caleb Robinson takes the pig to the house.

By Allen Hamrick
It was celebration night for the CCMS Mustangs as they butted heads with the Bears of Summersville. The Mustangs continued their dominating ground and pound style of football by smearing the gravy of the Bears. Every time these two teams meet, it is usually a really tough game. Not this year, however; this time it was all Mustang ground shaking defense and butter smooth offense. This game was like taking the peel off a banana. The Mustangs ground game, combined with superb blocking from the front line, took the game to the next level. The Bears just couldn't overcome the push of the Mustangs. The Mustangs got on the boards quick in the first quarter by scoring 14 points, and before the half was over, they racked up a 28 -0 lead over the Bears. It didn't slow them down either. When the dust settled, the Mustangs were on top by the score of 42-6. This win gives them some great momentum going into next week's game against South Harrison, and a win against them is like winning the Super Bowl.

Once again, the offensive line of the Mustangs controlled the defensive line of the Bears and opened up some big holes for runners Caleb Robinson and Collin Elliot. Robinson moved the ball down the field like a tank and kept the defense of the Bears guessing. John Paxton is at the helm as quarterback for the Mustangs. He makes very few mistakes and has a good arm in the pocket or on the run. Mustang offense has a good arsenal and can beat anybody. Their defense is tremendous against the run and any QB movement, and when they hit, they hit. There are still a lot of games left before the championship and nary a one will be taken lightly. This night wasn't just about the offense - the defense had game as well. The defense held the Bears offense to nothing until they scored early in the 3rd quarter as the Mustangs gave up an early Christmas present. Mustang defense proved once again that if you're going to run against them, be prepared to lose. The Mustangs go up against South Harrison this Thursday night on the road with game time at 6:00PM.
