The Vinton Dogwood Festival celebrates its 66th anniversary this year. Many prominent business and community leaders have served as president of the Dogwood Festival through the years, some more than once—a "who's who" of names familiar to those native to Vinton or longtime residents.

This year's president, Beth Abbott, might not be as familiar a name, but she has been a familiar face in Vinton for several years as an enthusiastic volunteer with the Dogwood Festival and other local organizations and events.

Abbott grew up in Lancaster County, Va., where she met her husband, Todd. They moved to Roanoke County in 2000. She is currently the Business Development Manager at Elwood Staffing. She is a member of Thrasher Memorial United Methodist Church where she plays and sings with the Humble Praise group.

Abbott says she loves going to Vinton's festivals and parades with her husband and their son, Jeremy. At one event, there weren't enough volunteers; she got involved; and she has stayed active in Vinton ever since. "I love being a volunteer." She has served on the board of the Dogwood Festival for several years in several posi-

With only three home football games scheduled in this pandemic year, the March 27 game against Northside was packed with activities: it was Senior Night (in the afternoon), Homecoming/Senior Court, and the Fallen Soldier Tribute Game all in one—"a lot going on and a lot to celebrate.' Prior to the game, William Byrd honored students in the Class of 2021 who are members of the football team, cheerleading squad, and Marching Terriers band. Students were intro-duced and escorted on the track by family or friends as their names were called.

Members of the football team graduating this year included El'Amin Shareef (#1) who was escorted by his mother Talethia Shareef and his grandmother Denise Stanley. Shareef began his varsity football career as a freshman at Byrd. He plans to play college football next year.

first president of the Dogwood Festival, held in 1956. He was chairman of the Band Boosters instrument committee and band uniforms were the reason for the first Dogwood event. Profits from the festival went towards buying new uniforms for the William Byrd Band. Virginia Governor Thomas Stanley attended the first festival. Nineteen bands marched the parade route.

Goode served as president until 1959, when Dr. Herman L. Horn took on the job and welcomed actor Steve McQueen as Grand Marshal that year. Horn was followed in 1960 by Nelson Thurman, who had served as Vinton's mayor and in the Virlegislature. The 1960 festival included a pageant with 800 participants, including 600 school children.

W.E. Cundiff president of the festival in 1961. Twenty-eight bands participated with Bob Denver (of Gilligan's Island fame) as the parade marshal. He was followed in 1962 by Charles Jennings. The 1962 festival was remembered for the extreme heat which left 125 band members and parade goers needing rescue squad attention. There were 28 bands in the parade that year and 13,000 in attendance.

S. Wallace Cundiff was named president in 1963 with singer Bobby Vinton as the guest celebrity. Cundiff was followed by Armand Sanderson in 1964 for the parade featuring 33 bands and Minnie Pearl. The 10th annual Dogwood Festival in 1965 was led by World War II veteran Hildrey Pollard with Vinton visited by 15,000 spectators. Dr. Herbert Keaton took the reins as president in 1966. That year some 20,000 dogwood trees were planted before the festival began. James Sims was Dogwood president in 1967. The 1968 parade was cancelled due to heavy rains and thunderstorms when Francis Holdren was president. Beloved William Byrd High School Principal Bob Patterson served as president in 1969 when the festival lasted an entire week and featured 37 marching bands in the parade. Dr. W.W. Joness was festival president in 1970 with Virginia Governor Linwood Holton as the parade marshal; then Robert Saunders in In 1972, Dick Cranwell was president for the 17th annual Dogwood Festival. In the following years, Roger Smith, Stephen Brown, Musselwhite, and Roanoke County Treasurer Fred Anderson headed up the festival. In 1977, when Steve Musselwhite was president, the spectators numbered 25,000.

The list continues: Deal Tompkins, Sidney Johnson, Ed Reynolds (Miss America Kylene Barker was the Grand Marshal), Thomas Hard, Mayor Charles Hill, Nita Echols (30,000 came out that year in 1983), James Reynolds, John Hartsock (the Dogwood Queen that year rode on a Vinton Messenger float, not the traditional Woman's Club float), Larry Musselwhite, Bill Cundiff, Sam Cundiff, and Anthony Amos.

Dogwood presidents in the '90s included Anthony Conner, Gary Janney, Don Davis, Chris Keaton, Joe Bush, Bryce Mayer, Michael Gilmore, Jim Echols, Todd Bailey, and Andy Nicely.

Abbott notes that the Dogwood Festival is an independent organization, not officially affiliated with the Town of Vinton or the Vinton Area Chamber of Commerce, "but we all work together to bring family fun to Vinton. We also have a common goal to drive revenue to our local businesses during the Dogwood Festival event."

It was heartbreaking for the members of the Dogwood Festival Board and the community when last year's festival was cancelled due to the pandemic.

"It was extremely difficult to make the decision to cancel the festival last year," she says. "It was Dogwood's 65th year, and we had a lot of special surprises planned for the community. niosacral therapy," Stoops says. "I worked in a chiropractor's office for over seven years, allowing me to not only hone my craft but also get a more indepth understanding of what the body needs.

The services they offer - customized for each client – include Deep Tissue Massage, Swedish Massage, Focused Massage, Myofascial Therapeutic Massage, Stretching and Sports Massage, Pre-natal Massage, and Trigger Point Therapies. They have worked with clients of all ages from infants to a 92-year-old. The sisters describe massage therapy "the oldest form of medicine," and a type of "natural healing." Deep Tissue Massage involves realigning deeper layers of muscle and connective tissue. It is especially helpful for chronically tense and contracted areas such as stiff necks, low back tightness, and sore neck and shoulders. Swedish Massage uses gentle to medium pressure with long flowing strokes to promote relaxation and circulation, reduce stress and relieve muscle tension. The Mayo Clinic reports a 60-minute massage can lower cortisol, the stress hormone, by up to 30 percent after just one session.

Focused Massage, also known as targeted massage, pinpoints one to two areas of the body with deeper pressure to target trouble areas most commonly on the neck, shoulders, glutes, and forearms.

Myofascial Therapeutic Massage is a soft tissue therapy used to treat deep muscular tension, somatic dysfunction, and pain by relaxing the fascia, those fibrous bands around muscles, ligaments, and tendons. This technique requires firm pressure that stretches and elongates deep muscle tissue, increasing the range of motion and circulation. Stretching and Sports

Massage work to reduce potential injury, increase overall flexibility, and relieve muscle fatigue. Different techniques can be used from stretching to the break down of scar tissue to increase range of motion. Pre-natal Massage is specifically tailored for expectant mothers. Their bodies are properly positioned and supported with pillows and padding during massage. This type of massage reduces stress, decreases swelling, and relieves the aches and pains caused "by a growing belly."

Trigger Point Therapy targets trigger points or muscle knots – the sensitive spots in soft tissue. This therapy mostly consists of rubbing and pressing on trigger points and "provides amazing relief."

Pagans says that most commonly their clients have pain issues, injuries, fibromyalgia, or are experiencing stress. Some are referred by chiropractors. Some massages involve welcomes new clients. Hours of operation (subject to change) are generally on Mondays from 10 to 6; on Tuesdays and Wednesdays from 10 to 5; on Fridays from 10 to 4; and one Saturday a month from 10-2. They are closed on Thursdays. Therapeutic Elements,

30-minute sessions, some 60, some 90. Therapeutic Elements

Filling in for Bootie

It's so good to finally see family! On Sunday, a Chewning family gather-ing was held at the home of Mark and Karen Chewning (our cousins from California that made the move recently to Virginia). Their daughter Maren and husband Tyler Johnson were in town, so what a perfect time for a visit! It's never a small group when we all get together but there were some missing. We shared old pictures and stories, ate some amazing food (we are all pretty good cooks) and, of course, missed those that could not be with us!

Those joining in the fun and laughs were Julie (Chewning) and Roger Creasy, Melvin Chewning, Keith and Patty Thompson and Nancy (Chewning) Thompson, Karen (Chewning) Wood and Bill Chewning, Kelley (Chewning) and Todd Hambrick, Alvin Chewning and Alice Meador, Tim Chewning, and me (Angie), Bootie and Greg Chewning. Thanks again, Mark and Karen, for a great day!

Doubting Thomas

Don't let your mistakes define you – God doesn't! We all know the story of "doubting Thomas." He wanted proof that the other disciples really did see Jesus. Thomas doubted that one time and still today he is remembered mainly as "doubting Thomas."

In 2019, under Coach Brad Lutz, the William Byrd football team established a tradition of honoring fallen soldiers who gave their lives while protecting our country and serving in Iraq and Afghanistan. They are continuing the tradition this year as they play to honor those who made the ultimate sacrifice. Each game this season has been dedicated to those heroes.

On June 12, 2010, Army Spc. Brian "Bucky" Anderson was killed in Afghanistan when insurgents attacked his vehicle using an improved explosive device. Anderson was assigned to the 1st Battalion, 87th Infantry Regiment, 1st Brigade Combat Team, 10th Mountain Division, Fort Drum, New York. His Gold Star mother, Margaret Anderson joined the team on the field before the game and was thanked for "the sacrifice your family has

On February 26, 1991, William Byrd graduate Army Lieutenant Terry Plunk was killed while clearing land mines in Al-Salman Airfield, Iraq. Plunk served with the 27th Engineering Battalion, 20th Engineering Brigade. He was also a graduate of VMI.

The Terriers' uniforms this season bear the names on the back of Anderson, Plunk, or Army Specialist Clarence Adams, a teammate of Coach Lutz, who died serving in Iraq in 2004.

The Terriers were able to play the first quarter of the game until it was postponed due to lightning. The Senior Court ceremony planned for half time was then moved to March 29.

Town to amend General Fund Reserve Policy

dadams@ourvalley.org

The Town of Vinton has a wellearned reputation for fiscal conservatism, not spending above its means, and being prepared to deal with economic challenges.

Town Council will soon take action to fortify their guiding financial principles by amending the town's General Fund Reserve Policy (Unrestricted Fund Balance), which insures against disasters, emergencies, and unforeseen expenditures by maintaining adequate levels of fund balance to mitigate current and future risks (revenue shortfalls and unanticipated expenditures) and ensure stable tax rates.

As we have discovered in this pandemic year, disasters can emerge out of nowhere and the town must be prepared to deal with the financial challenges that arise.

As a part of the budget process in 2021, town staff reviewed the General Fund Reserve Policy and proposed updates to bring the policy in line to the current financial climate.

Council members were briefed on the proposed revisions to the policy at the council meeting on March 16 by Finance Director/ Cantrell. Under the amended policy, "the Town shall strive to maintain a General Fund Unassigned Fund Balance not to fall below two months of budgeted General Fund Revenue--the policy floor; and the Town will target to maintain an Unassigned Fund Balance equal to four months of budgeted General Fund Revenues-the policy target." These funds are set-aside to address potential identified risks:

Economic Uncertainty - A high percentage of town revenues are based on consumer driven spending versus assessed property taxes. Adequate Unassigned Fund Balance will allow the town to be prepared for rises and falls in the local economy and will help mitigate the need for tax increases to offset Emergency Reserve - Unplanned natural disasters and unforeseeable emergencies can create a difficult situation without appropriate Unassigned Fund Balance or cash reserves to pay unplanned costs. The town strives to maintain an adequate level of Unassigned Fund Balance to allow quick recovery from an extreme event.

Working Capital - The town revenue sources are lower during the first six months of the year although budgeted expenditures are planned on a more consistent basis. Maintaining an adequate level of Unassigned Fund provides the town with appropriate reserves for cash flow to keep consistent spending and decrease the occurrence of spending freezes.

The appropriate level of General Fund reserves shall be reviewed annually during the budget preparation.

Sincere Remorse

Read Hosea 8:1 through 14:9

"Though they offer sacrifices as gifts to me, and though they eat the meat, the Lord is not pleased with them. Now he will remember their wickedness and punish their sins: They will return to Egypt" (Hosea 8:13).

Hosea declared the futility of Israel offering insincere sacrifices. The Lord was not pleased with rituals performed without remorse for wrongdoing. Instead of receiving forgiveness from heartfelt confession, the nation suffered punishment for their accumulated sins.

Hebrews 9:22 teaches that 'without the shedding of blood there is no forgiveness." The blood from animal sacrifice pointed to the time when Christ's blood would secure forgiveness for all who receive Him. His death paid the penalty for sin once and for all.

Israel had treated the Lord as one of many gods, sacrificing only to gain favor. Doing good things to gain God's favor will not cover our sin. Nothing can substitute for the blood Christ shed. God sees each heart. He knows if there is true remorse that brings about change.

Prayer Suggestion: Lord Jesus, my forgiveness is only possible through You. I owe You everything.

According to Cantrell, the two-month balance based on the current FY22 Revenue Forecast would be $1,326,433. The fourmonth balance based on current FY22 Revenue Forecast would be $2,652,866. The numbers change at least annually as the General Fund revenue budget changes.

"The policy revision raises the target from two months to four months, which is more in line with what I've seen as a safer amount for us to maintain," said Cantrell. "Our current policy only requires a two-month balance; however, we have been keeping closer to a four-month balance over the last couple years and we have seen a much-improved cash flow over the last couple of years.

"After the 2008-2010 recession, many governments did not have adequate fund balance and the recovery took a much slower path than anticipated," she added. "After that recession and recovery, the financial guidance start-ed to say to keep more on hand than two months, and I have seen some recommendations for some small local governments to consider as much as a six-months target of Fund Balance based on

The Government Finance Officers Association (GFOA) guidance provides that each individual government needs to consider their unique factors on setting an appropriate level, but under no circumstances would they recommend having less than two months.

As for the use of Reserve Funds under the amended policy:

Economic Uncertainty-

-Funds reserved under this category shall be used to mitigate annual revenue shortfalls (actual revenues less than projected revenues) due to slowdown in local economic conditions as well as reductions in revenues caused by actions by state/ federal governments. Should any unanticipated reductions in revenues be deemed to be recurring, adjustments will be made in the following budget to reflect revised revenue projections. Any reserve funds expended within this category that result in yearend reserves below the established policy floor level shall be restored in the subsequent budget year. However, if the reserve level falls to below 10% of budgeted General Fund Revenues, the Town Council may restore funds over a multi-year period.

Emergency Reserve--Funds reserved under this category shall be used to mitigate costs associated with unforeseen emergencies, including natural di-sasters. Should unforeseen and unavoidable events occur that require expenditure of Town resources beyond those provided for in the annual budget, the town manager shall have the authority to approve appropriation of Emergency Reserve Funds. Working Capital--The town uses a pooled cash method of accounting, which accounts for funds separately on the General Ledger, but allows cash balances to be combined in banking institutions for ease of use and/or higher interest earnings. The town treasurer may use the Unassigned Fund Balance during the year to provide adequate cash flow for expenditure needs during low periods of revenue collection or to account for reimbursable expenditures. If the Unassigned Fund Balance is not adequate to meet anticipated cash flow needs, the treasurer will work with the impacted departments to create a plan of action to avoid overspending of available cash reserves.

As for excess Fund Balance, after the end of each fiscal year, the Treasurer's Office/Finance Department will report on the audited year-end budgetary fiscal results. Should actual General Fund revenues exceed expenditures, a year-end operating surplus shall be reported. Any year-end operating surplus which results in the General Fund balance exceeding the policy target level shall be deemed available for allocation for the following, subject to council approval:

Transfer to the Capital Fund for appropriation within the Capital Improvement Program Budget and/ or Deferred Maintenance Program for nonrecurring needs or establishing a balance for future Capital Proj-

Re-evaluate items from the subsequent year's operating budget that were not funded because of concern of budget shortfalls and provide for one-time, nonrecurring

It is the intent of Town Council to limit use of fund balances in the General Fund to address unanticipated onetime needs. Fund Balances shall not be applied to recurring annual operating expenditures. Periodically, Cantrell presents to council a financial report which includes the town's cash and investments. The January 2021 Financial Report shows a cash balance of $4 million and investments of $3.3 million, for a total of approximately $7.3 million. Sounds very healthy—and it is—but cash and investments do not equal fund balance.

"Fund Balance is like taking a snapshot of available funding, of a town's financial position, at any certain point in time," explains Cantrell. "It doesn't necessarily equal cash on hand in the report because it includes shortterm liabilities and receivables in its calculation where the cash may not have been spent or received yet."

An article in the Port City Daily newspaper in Wilmington, N.C., explains in "A lesson in governmental bookkeeping: Fund Balance 101," that government finances are not the same thing as a personal checking account. You can't think of fund balances the same way as keeping cash in a regular checking account. A General Fund balance is a measure of equity between revenues and expenditures. It's the measure of the financial health of a governmental fund. It is also a driving factor behind maintaining tax rates. It is essential to keep a high level of fund balance (or as much as you can) to mitigate your current risk, future risk, and to ensure that you have a stable tax base."
