Thirteen seniors in six sports at William Byrd High School signed letters of intent on May 5, committing them to further their educations and their athletic careers at the college level.

The signing ceremony was held in the school gymnasium. Principal Tammy Newcomb congratulated the students on furthering their athletic and academic careers. "You are being recognized for your effort and hard work in becoming student athletes at William Byrd," she said.

"I have watched you all play," said Newcomb. "You deserve this; you worked hard for this."

Newcomb also thanked the coaches for their dedication to the athletes and the parents who supported their children.

She praised Athletic Director Jason Taylor for the hundreds of hours of time and effort he dedicated to the athletes and the athletic program at William Byrd, "even more this past year, going above and beyond, more than any athletic director I know."

The seniors were introduced by their individual coaches and accompanied by their families to the table for the signing ceremony.

Signees are baseball players Tyler Dean, Isaac Fix, Dylan Hatfield, Hayden Lyle, and Luke Taylor, introduced by Coach Neil Zimmerman; softball player Hallie Cox, introduced by Coach Greg Barton; soccer player Hanna Chappell, introduced by Coach Molly Cox; girls basketball player Cabria Mutz, introduced by Coach Brad Greenway; and football players Bryson Lutz, Blake Sankbeil, El'amin Shareef, and Ethan Tinsley, introduced by Coach Brad Lutz; and soccer player Nic

Clements, introduced by Coach Russell Dishman.

Tyler Dean will be playing baseball at Virginia Tech. He was described by Coach Zimmerman as "wired; always ready to go all the time." He has been a four-year varsity starter in baseball and a multi-sport athlete. "He has tons of natural talent, a fire in his belly, and is such a competitor," the coach said. Dean also made First Team All District in football this year. His parents are Steve and Michelle Dean.

Isaac Fix will be playing baseball at Davidson College. Zimmerman described him as one of the "smartest kids I have ever been around." In fact, Zimmerman taught Fix in fifth grade at Herman L. Horn Elementary. "He is competitive, and his family has worked tirelessly in the program." His parents are Mark and Liz Fix.

Dylan Hatfield will be playing baseball at Virginia Tech. Zimmerman also taught Hatfield in fifth grade at HLH. He described Hatfield as a four-year starter and multi-sport athlete—"smart, a good student, so competitive, and a high-level catcher." He also commended Hatfield for being chosen as this year's Top Terrier and quarterback of the football team. His parents are Fred and Carla Hatfield.

Hayden Lyle will be playing baseball at Bluefield College. Zimmerman described Lyle as a multi-sport athlete, "a tough kid," always working hard and at top speed. "He will try anything I ask him to do." His parents are Jamie and Krista Lyle.

Luke Taylor will be playing baseball at Bluefield College. Zimmerman said Taylor "grabbed my attention in middle school" and is an "awesome player. He has been committed to making himself a better baseball player since the day he entered the program. He has worked hard in the weight room and in off-season conditioning and workouts to improve his game. He is an outstanding member of the Terrier community and respected by his peers and teammates," said Zimmerman. His parents are Jason and Margo Taylor.

Hallie Cox will play softball at Bluefield College. Coach Barton said Cox was a "big part of the state championship team in 2019. Last year should have been her big year, but COVID hit. Pitchers have to work daily to be competitive. She is a hard worker." She transferred to Byrd in her sophomore year, starting her pitching career at Patrick Henry. Her parents are Jan-Michael and Tracie Cox.

Hanna Chappell will play soccer at Converse College. Coach Cox explained that Chappell moved here this year from Florida and has had "a huge impact on the team—our leading scorer. I wish she could have been here all four years. She is a passionate player with extraordinary abilities. She has been playing soccer since she was 7 years old. Hanna is a vocal leader on the field and has a high soccer IQ." Her parents are John and Suzanne Chappell.

Cabria Mutz will continue her basketball career at Hollins University. Coach Greenway described her as a "fierce competitor" with 150 steals, 156 blocks, 456 rebounds and 359 points in her four-year career. She is "an incredible athlete" he said, "growing each year and becoming a leader on the floor by example." Her parents are Tyson and Sarah Scott.

Before introducing his players, Coach Lutz reminded those attending the signing ceremony of the huge part academics plays in athletics. "Only 6 percent of high school students go on to play collegiately," he said. He urged the athletes signing that day to "go to the next level and represent all of us."

Bryson Lutz will play football at Emory and Henry College. Coach Lutz noted that his son—a four-year starter—had been his "side-kick" on every field where he had coached. He's a versatile "Swiss Army Knife" type of kid who never missed a day of weightlifting in the gym in his high school years. He made First Team All District this year in Defense and Second Team All District in offense. His parents are Brad and Christy Lutz.

Blake Sankbeil will play football at Emory and Henry College. Lutz praised Sankbeil as a "program kid" who buys into the vision of the program and what the coach wants him to do. "His dream started long ago. I coached him hard; football is a tough game for tough people." His parents are Bill and Karen Sankbeil.

El'amin Shareef will be playing football at Randolph Macon College. Lutz praised his "high character, unmatched work ethic, and his humility" and described him as a powerful player, an "unforgettable kid," and "total package kid." Shareef made First Team All District on offense and defense and was named a WDBJ Player of the Week. Lutz commented on the game against Patrick County this year in which Shareef had 250 yards rushing and six touchdowns, while wearing No. 33, the number of Coach Lutz' high school friend Army Specialist Clarence Adams, who was killed in Iraq in 2004. El'amin's mother is Talethia Shareef.

Ethan Tinsley will be playing football at Randolph Macon College. Lutz said that Tinsley "defines a multi-sports kid; he's a three-sport athlete; I found him on a baseball field." His numbers speak for themselves with 58 catches and 787 yards receiving. Tinsley made Second Team All District on both offense and defense. The coach also said Tinsley is a great role model while being "explosive and super competitive." His parents are Mitzi and Tony Thornton and Eric and Candice Tinsley.

Nic Clements will be playing soccer at Seton Hill University. Coach Dishman said that Clements "puts it all on the line and works hard when no one is watching. He has a passion and love for the game," and "will play anywhere he is needed. We have been fortunate to have him." His parents are Chris Clements and Stephanie Darienzo.

Athletic Director Jason Taylor commended the 13 Byrd athletes for their character and resilience in accomplishing so much and keeping their dreams alive against all odds in this challenging year.

Roanoke County approves MOU on Gish Mill Redevelopment Project

The Roanoke County Board of Supervisors has approved an MOU with the Town of Vinton to financially support the Gish Mill Redevelopment Project. Gish Mill, in operation since the 1770s, is of historical significance to the town, even appearing on the Town Seal.

The Roanoke County Board of Supervisors has passed a resolution authorizing the county to enter into a Memorandum of Understanding (MOU) with the Town of Vinton to support the Gish Mill Redevelopment Project. The Town of Vinton requested financial assistance for the project, which is similar to the MOU agreement for the Vinyard Station property in downtown Vinton.

Roanoke County Economic Development Director Jill Loope presented the proposal to the Board of Supervisors at its meeting on May 11.

The historic Gish Mill, in operation since the 1770s, is located on Gus Nicks Boulevard at a gateway entrance to the town. The mill—by then known as Holdren's Country Store—closed in 2015, leaving the property vacant for seven years. In 2018 the town issued a Request for Proposal (RFP) to attract a developer to redevelop the property for retail, commercial, or office uses. A series of public meetings was held to solicit public input.

The town received and accepted a development proposal from Gish Mill Davii, LLC, in April 2020 to purchase and redevelop the property into a multi-tenant facility. (Gish Mill Davii, LLC, was formed by David Hill of Hill Studio and David Trinkle.)

The Gish Mill property occupies 1.5 acres within the town's commercial business district. The property involves three parcels—two in Roanoke County and one in Roanoke City—which will be improved with an estimated investment of $2.8 million.

Proposed uses for the property include a full-service restaurant with indoor and outdoor seating, seven Vrbo lodging rentals, and a locally sourced market. A special event space is also being planned for the 1,296-square-foot basement area.

Town Council approved rezoning the property to Mixed Use Development (MUD) on April 6, 2021.

The project is expected to generate up to 42 new jobs, $1.85 million in anticipated gross revenues, and $165,000 in annual tax revenues for Vinton and Roanoke County. Revenues are expected from meals, personal property, sales, bed, real estate, and business licence taxes.

According to Loope, to make the project viable, financial assistance is required to offset extensive redevelopment costs and to improve public infrastructure.

The Town of Vinton has committed to provide a Local Economic Incentive Grant in the amount of $690,000 to Gish Mill Davii, LLC, for historic preservation, open space and gateway improvements, and public infrastructure costs associated with the development, including sidewalk, lighting, and greenway connectivity.

The incentive will be provided in the form of a Public Private Partnership and Performance Agreement with the town, the developer, and the Economic Development Authority.

The improvements are expected to generate additional tax revenue, support creation of new employment opportunities, and provide much-needed commercial uses to enhance the downtown business district.

The town has asked the county to participate in the project by reimbursing up to $200,000 of the net tax revenues generated by the project and permit fees up to $20,000.

The MOU allows for the county to provide for the reimbursement of permit fees in an amount not to exceed $20,000, and an economic development grant in an amount equal to five years of new local tax revenue generated by the project to be reimbursed to the Town of Vinton. Those annual grant payments will not exceed $40,000 per year.

The total amount will not exceed $220,000 over five years and may be lower if less than the estimated new local tax revenue is generated. The five-year period is expected to begin January 1, 2023, with the first payment to the town expected to be made in January 2024.

Board of Supervisors Chairman Jason Peters, who represents Vinton, thanked Loope and the town's staff including Town Manager Pete Peters, former Town Manager Barry Thompson, town staff, and Vinton Town Council for their efforts in "stepping outside the box" to renovate historic properties in Vinton. He suggested that this is just the "tip of the iceberg" as far as revitalization of the town is concerned and touted the "amazing transformation" of Vinton in the past few years, vowing to continue to push forward.

"The importance of the support provided by Roanoke County cannot be overstated," said Town Manager Pete Peters. "It takes everyone pulling towards a common goal to make it all work, particularly when you are working on complex projects such as Gish Mill. The town has been on a positive streak of redevelopment, although without the Board of Supervisors' support or the assistance of county staff, these projects wouldn't be possible."

Opening of the new facility is expected during the summer of 2022.

"I certainly want to thank the Roanoke County Board of Supervisors for their decision to support the Gish's Mill project," said Vinton Mayor Brad Grose. "I also want to thank the staff at the Town of Vinton and Roanoke County for their incredible effort in putting together the working plan for this exciting project. The continuing partnership of Roanoke County and Vinton, along with a private developer, is a wonderful example of modern-day economic development."

"Although Gish's Mill is a very important economic development project, its value cannot be completely measured in dollars," Grose said. "Gish's Mill is located at one of the main entrances to Vinton. So obviously, it's appearance and success serve as a critical first impression. In addition, much of the historic inside structure of the building will be preserved. I am very thankful that we have a facility that will represent the pride we have in our past as well as the excitement we have about the future of Vinton. It is truly exciting to be 'In Vinton!'"

William Byrd bands perform Spring Concert

dadams@ourvalley.org

Members of the William Byrd High School Concert and Symphonic Bands presented their Spring Concert on May 6 in the main gymnasium of the school.

Band Director Daniel Plybon commended the musicians for their excellent performance despite having less than nine weeks working together fully in classes due to COVID restrictions.

“It was a challenging first semester,” Plybon said.

Secondary students were only attending two days a week for most of the first three nine weeks and some were taking band classes virtually. Even at the time of the concert, eight students were still working online. Students have spent the year working on music fundamentals every day despite not being able to perform altogether as a group.

Plybon told the parents in attendance that May 6 was the first rehearsal for the percussion section. The other musicians had not been able to rehearse or play in the gymnasium as a group prior to the day of the concert.

“We really have missed having someone to perform for,” Plybon said.

The Concert Band and Symphonic Band each played three pieces. The audience was limited to the parents of the seniors performing.

Concert Band musical selections included: “Dark Lands March” by Randall Standridge, “Fire Dance” by David Shaffer, and “Highlights from West Side Story” arranged by Michael Sweeney.

Concert Band students include:

Flute: Alice Crowder, Isaac Fedor, Hanna Paul

Clarinet: Dillon Colgan, Callie Lusk

Bass Clarinet: Elijah Dillon

Bassoon: Nathaniel Bowles

Alto Sax: Ashton Kanode, Aidan Williams

Tenor Sax: Devin Colgan

Baritone Sax: Gage Carter

Trumpet: Jack Hinkle, Matthew Kalb, Travis Nute, Hunter Muddiman

Baritone: Kaylynn Wilson, Cayden Litchford, Logan Brown

Tuba: Annika Hoagland, Sam Ferris

Percussion: Aidan Eline, Noah Shelor, Tyler Morrison, Erin Kirtley, Dillon Peters, Dylan Price, Kaiden Schuder, Tyler Oliver, Jack Powell, Jonathan Farmer, Nich Colvin

Members of the Symphonic Band performed “Kinetic Dances” by Randall Standridge, “Blue Ridge Reel” by Brian Balmages, and “Highlights from Jersey Boys” arranged by Michael Brown.

Symphonic Band musicians include:

Flute: Emily Jones, Maggie Parkhurst, Caroline Dullaghan

Clarinet: Charles Johnson, Jaylen Rosser, Mya Rosser, Jacob Schult

Alto Sax: Emiliano Gonzalez, Ashlyn Harris, Alex Coffey, Ashland Harris

Tenor Sax: Latriva Pierce

Trumpet: Treveon Cossaboon, Johnathan Ham, Katie Wheeler

French Horn: Taylor Davis, Elizabeth Recktenwald, Andrea Gonzalez

Trombone: Sarah Kushman, Holly Mills, Conner Colgan, Caley Drewery, Daniel Letz, Robert Miller, Charles Trogdon, Joseph Sandzimier

Baritone: Thomas McGregor, Claire Wray, David Smith

Tuba: Jonah Bowser, Kyle Colvin, Jacob Blevins

Percussion: Aidan Eline, Tyler Morrison, Erin Kirtley, Dillon Peters, Dylan Price, Kaiden Schuder, Tyler Oliver, Jack Powell, Jonathan Farmer, Nich Colvin

Eleven band members are graduating this year in the Class of 2021—Tyler Oliver, David Smith, Nich Colvin, Dillon Peters, Katie Wheeler, Andrea Gonzalez, Ashland Harris, Elizabeth Recktenwald, Caroline Dullaghan, Joey Sandzimier, and Erin Kirtley.

Plybon commented that the graduating seniors are “great people” who would be missed. He has taught many of them for seven years—since middle school days. He joked as they posed for a senior concert photograph that he would frame the picture and hang it in the new band room after renovations and entitle it “COVID Seniors.”

In speaking to the parents of band members during the concert, Plybon said that wearing masks and face shields, social distancing at six feet, and all the other restrictions were at times “a drag” but better than not having band at all. “It is what it is” and students made the best of it.

“Support music education!” was his final comment to the parents and students, as it is every year.

Vinton notifies residents/businesses of automated meter reading system conversion

The Town of Vinton recently notified residents and businesses by letter of a comprehensive water meter replacement program to replace approximately 5,000 meters to an automatic meter infrastructure (AMI) system.

The town has hired Bitter Creek Construction (BCC) of Daleville to perform this change-out as the company is experienced in this type of conversion. There is no charge to customers for the new meter.

The purpose of this effort is to upgrade the town’s water distribution system with an electronic reading capability and to replace meters that have served beyond their expected useful lives.

The target meter population includes all commercial and residential meters. The upgrade project is expected to take approximately nine months. The project was scheduled to begin on May 1, but the town has been notified that there will be an anticipated delay of five months due to materials shortages.

“The chip shortage that’s impacting multiple industries has also impacted our water meter supplier, and our project has been delayed an anticipated five months,” said Vinton Finance Director Anne Cantrell.

Once the conversion is made, the AMI system will allow meters to be read from radio receivers via fixed locations throughout the town. Water meters are the devices used to measure the amount of water delivered to customers. Replacing old meters will ensure that the town can accurately track both individual usage for billing purposes and also monitor and assess community water demands.

Once the project gets underway, contract workers will perform a courtesy “knock-on-the-door” notification at the time of installation and a door hanger with frequently asked questions.

All impacted commercial accounts will be contacted personally by a representative from the contractor—BCC—who will schedule a convenient time to complete the meter replacement.

“We are sensitive to your business water needs and we will do everything possible to minimize any potential service disruptions,” is the message from the town.

Work crews will be wearing yellow shirts with “Bitter Creek” and vehicles with the same logo.

There will be a temporary service interruption typically about 15-30 minutes while the meter is replaced. Customers will be notified prior to the installation of the new meter.

You do not need to be at home for the replacement work. Work will be performed between 8 a.m. and 5 p.m. Monday through Friday and from 9 a.m. to 4 p.m. on Saturdays.

The town lists the benefits of the AMI technology as:

- Improving the efficiency of meter reading and water billing
- Saving staff time and fuel
- Preventing reading and recording errors
- Minimizing the need for personnel to go on the property
- Providing the ability to detect whether a leak or backflow is occurring in a plumbing system
- Increasing the quality of customer service by eliminating the need for estimated bills

A typical question from customers is whether their water bills will increase when the automated meters are installed. The answer from the town is, “Not necessarily;

however, as meters age, they tend to run slower and lose accuracy over time. Depending on the age and accuracy of your water meter, your bill could change based on the consumption associated with the new meter. The new meters simply record consumption more accurately.”

Visit www.vintonva.gov for more information.

Pastor Tim lived his faith daily

Pastor Tim Dayton (far left, standing) facilitated the youth-oriented REACH volunteer program and brought countless groups of students to Roanoke to work on a variety of projects in the community.

Pastor Tim Dayton, founder of the non-profit REACH program and pastor of First Christian Church in Roanoke, passed away on May 3.

Dayton was well-known and beloved throughout the Roanoke Valley for changing the face of the local community through REACH, which stands for Real Experiences Affecting Change. He embodied his faith daily through the maxim: "Here are my hands; how may I serve?"

Dayton founded REACH—a youth-oriented volunteer program—in 2010 and spent over a decade facilitating service projects in the Southeast Roanoke and Vinton communities by fixing up houses, feeding the hungry, and cleaning up the community. He was diagnosed a little over a year ago with stage 4 pancreatic cancer.

In 2018, REACH dedicated a home in Southeast Roanoke which volunteers had spent two years renovating—the REACH program's "first ever reclaimed abandoned house," according to Dayton.

At the dedication ceremony, Dayton thanked the countless volunteers and supporters who made the renovations possible—"people from across the street and across the country," who worked to "save a house and save a neighborhood."

"I believe this is an opportunity for us to shine, to show what is good about ourselves, our community, and our city," Dayton continued. "We are changing the world, not waiting for someone else to do it for us."

"What you see here today is the product of a very simple belief," continued Dayton. "The belief that everyone receives great joy when performing selfless acts of generosity. That everyone wants to go to bed at night knowing that somewhere, somehow, they made a positive difference in the world we all live in."

In its early years, REACH repaired and renovated homes, sometimes just a band-aid solution. Then they decided to tackle the root of the problem, considering what it would look like to the community and individuals moving into a home to reclaim a home, restore it, and sell it back to the community.

The many neighborhood, non-profit, church, university, and governmental groups and individual volunteers who got involved discovered "a way to bring people together, to improve safety, to augment aesthetics, to increase property values, to lighten the burden on local governments, to teach skills, and to provide affordable housing" and in essence transform the community.

Dayton for years coordinated youth groups from all over the East Coast and beyond to complete mission projects in the valley. Dayton estimated that volunteers have devoted over 200,000 hours to service to the community through REACH thus far.

In that time, he noticed that many programs were only treating symptoms of substandard housing, homelessness, hunger, environmental impact, at-risk youth and children, older adult care, volunteerism, and assimilation of immigrants, not bringing permanent solutions.

"People caught in the middle of these situations tend to suffer from a loss of hope, a feeling that no one else cares, or an overwhelming helplessness that is self-perpetuating," Dayton believed.

"But people who often give of themselves seldom suffer from these issues for very long, if at all. Turns out, doing for others without any thought of getting something in return generates a type of happiness (fulfillment, purpose, direction, self-esteem, contentment, excitement) for the doer 100 percent of the time."

Dayton did not like the attention to be on him, but on the mission at hand. In that spirit, he asked that no remembrance service be held at his passing. Instead, he asked for a day of community service on October 23, to be organized by REACH.

"As I reflect back on my life, I see this current phase as both a continuation of that wisdom and a recognition that it will be others who go on making that difference. This has led me to plan a celebration of life, not my life, but a celebration of all life and more importantly a celebration of what we're collectively doing to make life the best it can be for as many beings as possible," he said.

"We believe the real empowerment will come as the people being served realize that they too have something to give back, a way to serve others, and they feel the happiness that comes with that service. I believe that once people fully grasp the happiness that comes from serving others, that attitudes, lives and entire communities will be transformed for the good. I believe that each and every individual has the ability to change the world for the better, right here, right now, with the resources at hand," he continued. "Our purpose is to facilitate that process, and in so doing help them to discover their passion for service. We were all born with that passion—the passion to serve one another. We see it every day in the small things—a smile, a hand, a kind word."

The REACH vision—Dayton's vision—is that "the world will become a place where, 'Here are my hands, how may I serve?' will become a way of living, rather than just a solitary action."

Mount Pleasant Lions celebrate 60th anniversary

The Mount Pleasant Lions Club made a stride toward getting back to "normal," whatever that may turn out to be, last Tuesday by having its first in-person meeting since March 3, 2020. Eighteen members signed up for the meeting and were treated to a box meal from the Roanoker Restaurant, while sizing up all the renovations made to the meeting hall, the "Lions' Den," located at 2432 Mayfield Drive in southeast Roanoke.

The improvements made included new heat and A/C units in the Lions space, as well as the two duplex rental apartments in the building, new dry wall, color coordinated paint and moldings, window treatments and chairs. In addition, a new food service table, beverage station, bulletin board and library table were in place and used.

Lion Warren Burger was recognized for his outstanding shepherding of all the progress made. He was named the club's Lion of the Year for 2020-21 and received an ovation from all the members.

An impromptu celebration of the 60th anniversary of the founding of the club ensued, with a brief history of the June 15, 1961, Charter Night dinner held by the sponsoring Vinton Host Lions Club at the War Memorial building and an acknowledgment of the foresight and dedication of the 25 charter members.

The Mount Pleasant club one of the few Lions clubs that are fortunate enough to have their own building. The meeting space is made available to community people and groups for baby showers, birthday parties, family reunions, etc., so there was concern and discussion about the current CDC, Covid guidelines and what might be required of those folks who may want to meet there. What about masks, temperature taking, spacing and occupancy numbers?

All these issues were broached, and it was determined that more current information was needed, so the club President Anne Ferguson appointed a committee to delve into those and such other matters as they deemed appropriate and report back at the next meeting on May 18.

Love like Jochebed

We celebrated Mother's Day on Sunday—a time for us to remember, honor, and show our love and appreciation to the mothers in our lives. For some, that comes with a mixture of gratitude and sadness, as they remember the love, comfort, and care of a mother who has passed on. For others, Mother's Day is a hard day filled with painful memories, unspoken disappointments, and silent grief. Wherever we are this Mother's Day, may we each take the opportunity to remember and acknowledge the women in our lives who have nurtured and shaped us.

Scripture offers examples of godly women who impacted so many people through their faithful devotion to God and selfless acts of love for others—Sarah, Ruth, Esther, Deborah, Tabitha, Lydia, Priscilla, Mary Magdalene, and, of course, Mary, the mother of Jesus. Some of these women were mothers, and some were not. Each one of them was most certainly a woman of faith who showed amazing courage and remarkable strength by remaining faithful to God and the people she loved, despite the dangerous circumstances and difficult decisions set before her.

There are many other women and mothers in scripture who exhibited the same faithfulness and selflessness as those listed above, yet somehow went unnoticed, receiving little, if any, recognition in the annals of history.

One of these mothers was Jochebed, the mother of Moses. Jochebed was an Israelite from the tribe of Levi, living in Egypt under the oppression of Pharaoh. After giving birth to Moses, she hid him for the first three months of his life because Pharaoh had ordered all of the Hebrew baby boys to be killed. Fearing that she could not hide Moses much longer, Jochebed made a basket, placed baby Moses in it, and hid him among the reeds on the bank of the river.

Soon after, Pharaoh's daughter found the baby and wanted him for herself; however, she needed a mother to nurse him. Not knowing that Jochebed was Moses' actual mother, Pharaoh's daughter allowed her to take Moses and nurse him. When Moses turned one year old, Jochebed was forced to return him to Pharaoh's daughter. As horribly painful as that must have been, Jochebed willingly gave Moses up and allowed Pharaoh's daughter to raise him as her own, in order to save his life. Through Jochebed's selfless act of love, Moses was able to grow up and fulfill God's call on his life to free the Israelites from slavery and deliver them to the Promised Land.

Like Jochebed, many of the sacrifices made by the women and mothers in our lives go unnoticed.

These women may rarely, if ever, receive any public recognition or words of appreciation despite the profound impact their love and devotion have made on our lives. This Mother's Day, may we take a moment to consider the Jochebeds in our lives. Who are the women who have loved us selflessly and endlessly? Those who have made countless sacrifices to mold and shape us into who we are today; those who believed in us, challenged us, and remained a constant source of support and encouragement.

Whoever they may be—a mother, grandmother, spouse, sister, aunt, coach, teacher, or pastor—may we take time this Mother's Day to acknowledge them. May we be intentional with our expressions of gratitude and words of affirmation. If they are no longer with us, may we take a moment to remember them and give thanks for their life, being filled with the peace and promise of Christ that we will see them again.

Jochebed could have never known how far her sacrifice would go, how God would ultimately use her selfless love and devotion to Moses to save an entire nation. How might we choose to love like Jochebed as we celebrate Mother's Day? We never know how God will use our love to change a life and ultimately fulfill his purposes.

Anyanwu named BCAT Senior of the Year for WBHS

Urunna Anyanwu has been named BCAT Senior of the Year for 2021 representing her base school, William Byrd High School. She is enrolled in the Visual Arts program.

According to Christian Kish, principal of the Burton Center for Arts and Technology, "BCAT Seniors of the Year must be first nominated by a BCAT teacher, and only one senior per base school is selected. There were over 20 nominees this year, and all of them were deserving of their nomination. From there, a selection committee decides on which senior gets the award based on overall attendance, grades, accolades, accomplishments, and a few other factors.

"Urunna obviously has so much talent and passion for art," Kish said. "Combine that with the fact that she is also a fantastic person, which made her a winning candidate for Senior of the Year."

Other BCAT Seniors of the Year include:

Cave Spring High School: Skylar Perdue (Engineering)

Glenvar: Derrick Hall (Mechatronics)

Hidden Valley: Erin Cummings (Mass Communication)

Northside: Daniel Paz Tello (Welding)

Board of Supervisors formally names Glade Creek Park

The ball fields below the old William Byrd High School (now the Billy Byrd Apartments) have been formalized as a park and named Glade Creek Park by the Roanoke County Board of Supervisors.

The Roanoke County Board of Supervisors passed a resolution at its meeting on May 11 naming the open space and athletic fields at the old William Byrd High School, "Glade Creek Park."

The 11,335-acre parcel is located at 301 Gus Nicks Boulevard. It is a multi-purpose rectangular field which has been used over the years mainly to practice different sports—soccer, football, softball, and baseball. The field is lighted.

The open space and athletic fields are attached to the Billy Byrd Apartments parcel.

The parcel has been used for Dogwood Festival events and as the staging area for many Town of Vinton special events and parades, such as the Christmas Parade and Dogwood Festival Parade.

The Town of Vinton is currently constructing the Glade Creek Greenway Phase II through the parcel and a new trailhead parking lot adjacent to Gus Nicks Boulevard. This is the newest portion of the Roanoke Valley Greenway system.

The town and county will be celebrating the opening of the Glade Creek Greenway Phase II with a ribbon-cutting a 9 a.m. on May 25—and also celebrating Arbor Day.

With the new recreation amenities and the pedestrian connectivity with the Glade Creek Greenway to and through the Town of Vinton, a recommendation was made to formalize the area as a park and officially name it Glade Creek Park.

Presence Bread

Read 2 Chronicles 1:1 through 4:22

Solomon also made all the furnishings that were in God's temple: the golden altar; the tables on which was the bread of the Presence (2 Chronicles 4:19).

The bread of the Presence, also called showbread, was considered sacred. The literal Hebrew name (lechem hapanim) means "bread of the face." Some references make it plural, rendering it "bread of faces." Made with the finest flour, it was baked into twelve loaves. They were set out on a special table, called the table of the Presence, in two rows of six each. The table was made of acacia wood and overlaid with pure gold. Every Sabbath, the priests removed the loaves and replaced them with freshly baked ones. They would eat the old loaves in the holy sanctuary area.

The bread of the Presence, which sat on the table of the Presence, has divine significance for all believers. Besides the obvious connection to the twelve tribes of Israel, the showbread represents a deeper truth about the manifest presence of God: His face is always before His people—and we are always before Him. We can have no greater assurance in Him.

Prayer Suggestion: Thank You, Lord God, for always watching over me.

Quicklook: 2 Chronicles 4:19–22
