Renovations at William Byrd nearly complete

Debbie Adams

dadams@ourvalley.org

The William Byrd High School Renovation and Expansion Project is nearly complete. Construction crews are adding the finishing touches in the science and art wings of the building with a plan for all students to return to classrooms in the building after Spring Break.

The $30 million project was expected to be complete in August 2023, but the discovery of asbestos in sections of the building delayed renovations. The expected completion date is now March 20.

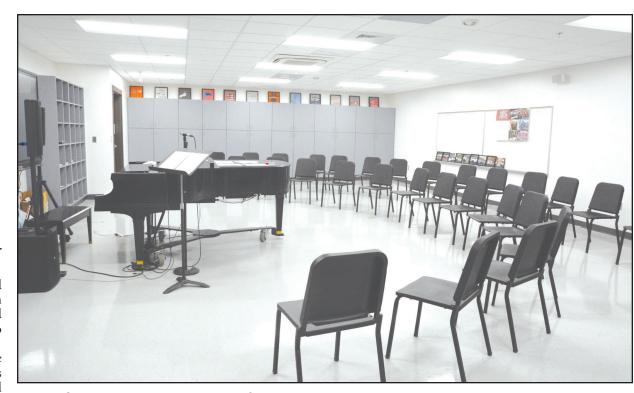

The project involved over 100,000 square feet of renovations and roughly 13,500 square feet of additions. Renovations included science labs, the band room, weight room, media center, guidance offices, library, the main gym, and front lobby. Additions included choir and art rooms, a wrestling room, a new front entrance portico, and major renovations throughout the classrooms and hallways.

The Family and Consumer Sciences Department now has a large kitchen within the classroom. The main office has a connecting hallway to the guidance suite. There are tons of added storage. The auditorium has a new sound system, new curtains, and new lighting. There are no more cords dangling from the ceiling or running across the floor to accommodate computers and technology. Electrical receptacles are abundant.

Hallways are lined with display cases for student work. The front portico is covered to make a special place for seniors, along with their front lobby. Desks have been replaced in the art and science rooms by tables, which allows students to stand or sit on stools to work brought to mind the words bright, clean, spacious, aesthetically pleasing, and state-of-the-art.

Many of the new furnishings are on wheels to eliminate heavy lifting when floors need to be cleaned and waxed.

Greenway says the renovations more than met his expectations for the project— "they are amazing."

He credited Anderson for his leadership in overseeing the project "going over and above what was" required. Greenway also commended Principal Tammy Newcomb for her enthusiasm for the project from the beginning,

For instance, Choir Director Matt Bartley was encouraged to offer his suggestions for the new Choir Room, previously non-existent at WBHS.

The Vinton Breakfast Lions Club hosted its ninth annual Bland Foundation Music Scholarship Competition on February 11 at Thrasher Memorial United Methodist Church. The Bland competition was established by the Lions Clubs of Virginia in 1948 to "assist and promote cultural and educational opportunities for the musically talented youth of Virginia."

The competition honors James Bland, who is considered "the greatest black writer of American Folk Music," composing over 700 songs throughout his career, which started out with building a banjo at age 12. He wrote "Carry Me Back to Old Virginny," the state song from 1940 to 1997.

Twelve students, ranging in age from 8 to 18, performed in this year's local Bland competition.

Baritone Paul Sealey won first place in vocals, performing "Cara sposa" from Handel's Rinaldo. He is 18 years old and a senior in high school. He was also last year's first place winner.

Violinist Pam Kampanya won first place in instrumentals, performing "Praeludium Bonsack Elementary fifth grader Lylah Parker has won first place – statewide) – in the SERCAP "Water is Life" art contest. SERCAP (Southeast Rural Community Assistance Project) is a non-profit organization which focuses on "improved quality of life for low-income individuals by promoting affordable water and wastewater facilities, community development, environmental health, and economic self-sufficiency."

This year the organization invited students in grades 3-5 to submit original artwork representing the topic "Water is Life!" SERCAP's hope is that the art involved in environmental issues. One winner was selected from each of the seven states participating in the program, Virginia, Delaware, Maryland, North and South Carolina, Georgia, and Florida.

Art teacher Joe Carnes shared information he had received on the contest with his students at Bonsack in case they wanted to participate. Lylah thought it "sounded like fun."

She worked on the project independently at home and her family mailed her entry to SERCAP. She created a beautiful painting of a lake and its inhabitants surrounded by mountains, using acrylics, glitter paint, ink, and some paper elements on canyas. She sketched

Section of Pollard Street to be closed six weeks for waterline project

A portion of South Pollard Street in downtown Vinton will be closing for about six weeks beginning on February 20 for a proactive waterline project. The waterline is being moved and improved for a planned hotel site development.

The details of this project are:

The outbound lane of S. Pollard Street (From Cleveland Avenue to Virginia Avenue) will be closed beginning February 20 and is expected to last approximately six weeks for a waterline upgrade and relocation project.

The inbound lane of S. Pollard from Virginia Avenue will remain open. The detour for traffic leaving downtown will use West Cleveland Avenue to 2nd Street to access Virginia Avenue for westbound traffic (to Roanoke), and E. Cleveland Avenue to Vinyard Road for eastbound traffic (to Hardy Road).

The 1st Street waterline improvement project is a long-anticipated upgrade and is designed to enhance water service along Cedar Avenue and Cleveland Avenue and provide a necessary interconnection with Walnut Avenue water service.

The waterline along the 100 block of 1st Street is being re-routed to interconnect with S. Pollard Street due to site improvements for the planned hotel and will also enhance the interconnection with water service along S. Pollard Street and the Downtown Business District.

Spelling Bee winners from Vinton area schools advanced to participate in the 2024 Roanoke County District Spelling Bee on Feb. 13.

Grant is the son of Jeffrey and Emily Grant; Sayan Seib is the son of Thomas and Nivedita Seib; Derrick Edward's parents are David and Tina Edwards; Emmalyn Redden is the daughter of Jessica and Bud

After 12 rounds, Hidden Valley Middle School student Kevin Morsink won the district bee, with the correct spelling of the championship word "notabilia."

Morsink will represent Roanoke County Schools facilitated once again by Joe in the upcoming Regional LeGault, Supervisor of English Spelling Bee, with runner-up and the RCPSOnline Academy. Aadhya Routh as alternate. The winner of the Regional Bee will advance to the Nationals in Washington, D. C., quite a prestigious honor.

Judges for the District Spelling Bee were RCPS Superintendent of Schools Dr. Ken Nicely, Executive Director of Elementary Instruction Stephanie Hogan, Executive Director of Secondary

Science Supervisor Tammy Sauls. Social Studies Supervisor Krissy Schleicher-Maloney had the challenging task of serving as "Pronouncer."

The District Spelling Bee was held at the RCPS Administrative offices, The event was sponsored by Radford University and the Scripps National Spelling Bee organization.

LeGault told students before the competition began that they were already champions because they had won the bees at their individual schools.

Twenty-one students from across the district competed in the Spelling Bee including Asher Stober (Back Creek), Jaxon McMillian (Burlington), Syed Ahmad (Cave Spring Elementary), Lex Kidd (Clearbrook), Jacob Nichols (Fort Lewis), Catherine Bach (Glen Cove), Cameron Cromer (Glenvar Elementary), Chelsea Compton (Green Valley), Faith Garner (Masons Cove), Jamison Smith (Mountain View), Bao Nguyen (Oak Grove), Aadhya Routh (Penn Forest), Emily Blankenship (Glenvar Middle), Smarth Lalwani (Cave Spring Middle), and Ayden Schemm (Northside Middle).

LeGault explained to the audience, mostly made up of parents, that the spelling bee words called come from the Scripps word list. Students are allowed to use strategies to improve their chances of spelling the words correctly by asking for the words to be repeated, for their definition, for the word to be used in a sentence, and/or for the word's language of origin.

This spelling bee featured a double elimination formatstudents had to spell two words incorrectly before being eliminated from the competition, not just one. The word list progressed from easier words to most difficult.

The purpose of this format is so that "the best speller, not the luckiest speller, advances to regional competition," LeGault explained.

To win the spelling bee, the final student standing had to spell a championship word.

With Peyton being a flight attendant, Mom gets to fly free, as long as there is a seat available.

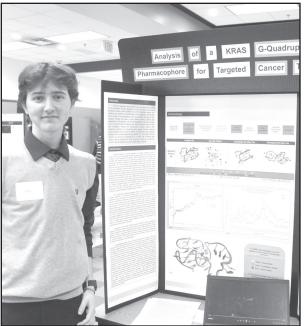

Originally, they were thinking of going to Paris to see Disneyland, but then a bunch of first-class seats opened up to Tokyo, Japan, and who doesn't want to go there? So, it was a very last-minute decision and a good one.

Mom and daughter stayed three nights in downtown Tokyo and took the train to the two Disney parks they have there. The last day they toured the Hie Jinja shrine. It was really cold—but beautiful. After a 14-hour flight, they are happy to be home and will always have the memories!

"Night to Shine" is an annual event that celebrates individuals living with disabilities by providing a "prom experience" for those ages 14 and older from throughout the valley. There is dinner, dancing, crowning of Prom Queens and Kings, limousine rides, prom photos, games, and more. Each special guest is encouraged to bring a "buddy" for the evening- a friend, parent, caregiver, or an approved volunteer.

The Tim Tebow Foundation sponsored the first 'Night to Shine' event in 2015. The event has now expanded to include 115,000 guests in 46 countries around the world with events hosted by 623 churches, assisted by thousands of volunteers. February 9 was chosen as "Night to Shine" for 2024, internationally.

'It's an effort to make the world a place where all people are valued and honored for their 'God-given worth," Christian athlete and Foundation founder Tebow has said.

The Roanoke Valley "Night to Shine" was sponsored this year by Vinton's Thrasher Memorial United Methodist Church, Bonsack Baptist, and Fellowship Community Church in Salem where the festivities were Once again, Thrasher's role was to cook and serve dinner for the 750+ guests, and also their "buddies" attending the event.

Bonnie Jones and Carrie Pence of Thrasher led a team of volunteers in preparing, delivering, and serving the meal of chicken breasts, mashed potatoes, green beans, desserts, and more. The food prep began at 7:30 a.m. on Friday morning at Thrasher, with marinating, seasoning, and baking all those pieces of chicken.

About 30 members and former members of Thrasher Memorial volunteered to assist with "Night to Shine" in one way or another.

The annual event is completely free for all guests, funded by donations, fundraisers, grants, and businesses donating time and resources.

According to Tebow, "Night to Shine' is dedicated to giving individuals with disabilities a night where they can shine and know that God loves them for who they

PLACE OF REFUGE

Read Numbers 32:1 through 36:13

Select some towns to be your cities of refuge, to which a person who has killed someone accidentally may flee. They will be places of refuge from the avenger, so that a person accused of murder may not die before he stands trial before the assembly. (Numbers 35:11,12).

God commanded that if anyone died because of violence, and murder was assumed, the murder suspect was not automatically to be considered guilty. Instead, he was allowed to flee to a city of refuge (one of six to be chosen in the Promised Land) that would assure the accused would be treated justly and justice would be done. In this way God provided justice in a culture where protecting the innocent was not a typical response.

When we hear accusations of guilt against others, our first response should be to provide them with a place of refuge in our hearts. That is, we should not rush to judgment, assume their guilt, and be careless in our speech about them. We should treat them fairly, as God intended.

Prayer for Today: Ask the Lord to make your heart and mouth a place of refuge rather than a fount of accusation for others.

From the Pulpit A Study of Ephesians

"You Have Been Chosen"

By Lead Pastor Bryan Crouch, Lynn Haven Baptist Church Our focus at Lynn Haven Baptist Church for 2024 is on Discipleship. Discipleship is the process of becoming more like Christ tomorrow than you were today.

Biblical theology is a tricky thing. People can read the same passage of Scripture and get totally different meanings based on previous teachings, life experiences or tradition. The first chapter of Ephesians includes the words "chosen" and "predestined" as Paul writes to his Gentile brothers and sisters in Ephesus. It is important that we focus on the main idea in this chapter and build unity (v.10) around it.

It is God's love that is the focus of this chapter. It is God's love for His creation that prompted Him to provide a way of reconciliation for "all who believe" and are sealed by the Holy Spirit (v.13-14). It is the love of an all-

County Schools to supplement the School Resource Officers at W.E. Cundiff and Herman L. Horn Elementary Schools. In 2023, 310 security checks were conducted at the schools (an increase of 42.85%).

The Vinton Police continued their policy of community involvement and communication in 2023 with special events including Pancakes with Police, Arbor Day at Herman L. Carnes was notified last week that Lylah was the statewide winner. On February 13, SERCAP Virginia State Lead Joey Hiner surprised her at Bonsack with a certificate and a $100 gift card for her accomplishments.

Carnes teaches Lylah after school in the Roanoke County Schools Gifted Art program at Bonsack in addition to regular art classes during the school day. He says she is a "shining star" artist among a host of talented youngsters.

Lylah says she has always loved art and has "tons of art supplies." She was inspired by her aunt, who is also an artist.

The elements of her painting were motivated by the water paintings created by her aunt and by the time her family spends at the lake and camping.

Her painting will be on display at the Hotel Roanoke during the annual SERCAP "Water is Life!" Reception and Banquet event on April 4.

Lylah's parents are Johnathan Parker and Mary Arnold.

Cyndi Wood of SERCAP facilitated the art contest. For more information on SERCAP, visit the website at https://sercap.

"I immediately began published by a prominent music equipment supply company.

"My first draft of ideas the first was based off the original renovation study drawing which was, to be second drawing was the choir suite that many colleges would be jealous set-up that accounted for the essentials."

He shared that 14-page Bartley said that in the packet with Newcomb and the architects.

> "When planning a choir room there is a lot to consider," Bartley says. "Most people look at square footage when buying a house, but since a performing ensemble relies on how sound works in the room (acoustics), cubic footage (length x width x ceiling height) is a more vital figure. The choir program has demonstrated consistent growth in my tenure at the school so we also must plan for the future of the program while considering the present needs."

Bartley asked sufficient storage options that would allow the WBHS materials (then stored at WBMS) to have an immediate home in the new space. The WBMS choir room housed the only grand piano on campus, so building a new room for the choir at the high school necessitate moving the best instrument the WB choir owned to the rehearsal room where the best music was taking place- and accommodate for the piano to be moved to the stage for performances in the most effective way possible.

"The architects responded to the renovation study and provided a first draft schematic, Bartley said. "The architects had already reviewed my requests (the 14-page packet) and we were able to discuss ways to include many of those requests within their vision. Cubic footage and appropriate storage were the cornerstones of this conversation. A few weeks later we were given the second draft schematic drawings, and I was pleased to see nearly everything needed to have an effective choir room was included in the draft. My ensuing requests from the second schematic went from the fourteenpage packet to three small bullet points."

Bartley was enthusiastic about the plans from the architects which included ample storage space; the primary rehearsal space with built-in cabinetry to house choir uniforms as well as a host of other rehearsal materials; a choir director's office for storing sensitive documents and information in a more secure location; a music library room for storage of over 1,000 different octavos, as well as a practice room for individual and small group rehearsals.

The choir room plans included a direct stage access door- not only handy for the choir but useful as a staging area when the auditorium is being used for drama productions. Many choir rooms have concretepoured risers. The new WBHS choir room has a flat floor allowing for a host of different rehearsal seating arrangements as well as an opportunity for the newly rebranded Vocal Ensemble practice choreography as a show choir.

"The choir continuing to grow and establish itself as an important way for students to express themselves through music and performance. A room dedicated solely for the use of choir rehearsal well help to reward and recognize the many singers (past and present) who have represented William Byrd in our community, in our state, and beyond, as well as serve the singers of the future as we continue to represent the county through vocal performance," Bartley

William Byrd administrators plan a grand opening when school starts in the fall but will be hosting a series of soft openings sooner. For instance, the choir program will be holding a special concert and open house on Feb. 29 for the community to see the new Choir Room and dedicate a new grand

Bartley says the choir program received the donation of a piano worth about $17,000. "All we had to do was pay the moving cost. It belonged to a gentleman who was a college professor at the University of Illinois

State wrestling is at the Salem Civic Center this weekend

Big Orange is runnerup in Region 3D tournament

The Salem Civic Center will be the site of the "Big Dance" for Class 1, 2 and 3 state wrestling tournaments once again this weekend. William Byrd will send seven wrestlers to the state Class 3 mats, including four Region 3D champion, after finishing second in the region tournament in Abingdon last

The three state tournaments begin in Salem at 10 am Friday with first round bouts. At 1 pm Friday Class 1-3 quarterfinals will be held along with first round consolation matches for Class 3. Consolation matches for all three classes will be from 4:30 to 8

Semifinals for all three classes will begin at 9:30 am Saturday, followed by semi-final consolations at 11:30 am and consolation finals at 1 pm to determine places third through sixth in all three classes. Championship finals are scheduled to begin at 4:30

The Big Orange is optimistic for a big weekend after a strong performance in a Region 3D tournament that was dominated by Blue Ridge District teams. The top three teams in Abingdon came from the BRD as Staunton River won the region with 286 points, Byrd was second with 180.5 and Lord Botetourt took third with 165.5. Cave Spring broke the string with a fourth place finish by Northside, from the BRD, was fifth.

"The regional tournament went well for us," said Byrd coach Thomas Kessler. "For the most part, all season due to people getting down to weight or being sick or injured, we haven't had our full lineup in. It was fun to see how we did with our entire lineup entered. We walked away with the runner up trophy and its' something our kids can be proud of."

Byrd had one region champion and it was the first match of the final round. Sophomore Darin Witcher pinned his way through the bracket, spending less than two minutes total on the mat. He had pins in 16 and 17 seconds to reach the final, then pinned Chloe Simmons of Tunstall in the championship match in all of 23 seconds. Darin goes to Salem with a 28-2 record and he hasn't lost to a Class 3 wrestler all season after finishing second in the state as a freshman.

Aidan Lucas made the final but settled for second at 190. After two pins put him in the final he lost to Landon Jobber-Spence of Staunton River in the championship. Lucas is now 27-13 on the season and he'll be headed to state for the third time.

Three Terriers battled back through the consolation bracket to win consolation finals and take third place. Zane Taylor is now 26-11 at 126, Gage Cockran is 32-8 at 138 and Bricen Lancaster is 29-8 at 157. Two other Terriers finished fourth to qualify for the state, Stephen Underwood(31-10) at 165 and Graylen Castleberry(21-13) at 175.

Several other Byrdmen didn't qualify for the state but scored points for the Big Orange. Sawyer Bolen was fifth at 150 and he'll be an alternate for the state.

Lane Brunk, at 113, and David Krawczyk, at 120, both placed sixth and Curtis Dillon was eighth at 144. "All our wrestlers have a shot to get on the podium this weekend, we just have to show up and do what we need to do Friday and Saturday," said Kessler. "I am looking forward to see where we finish up." Terriers sweep BRD indoor track, Region 3D meet at RC Saturday

The Kerr-Cregger Indoor Fieldhouse at Roanoke College in Salem will be the site of several region track meets this weekend, including the Region 3D meet with athletes from William Byrd High School. The Region 3D meet is scheduled to begin Saturday morning at 9 am and conclude late in the afternoon.

The Byrd indoor teams are coming off a strong performance in last week's Blue Ridge District meet, held at VMI in Lexington on February 6. Both the Byrd boys and girls won BRD team championships and reaped several individual honors as well. DeShawn Austin was named the Blue Ridge District male field event Athlete-of-the-Year, Emma Kageals was named the BRD co-female field event Athlete-of-the-Year and Grace Onwi was named the district female Runner-of-the-Year.

Onwi broke her own school record in the 300m dash with a winning time of 41.73 and she also took home first in the 500m dash. Liz Dixon took fourth in the 500.

in 1:08.83 and Shaun Gower took fourth. Donald Mullins was second in the Mile with a time of 4:55.08 and third in the 1000m in 2:40.86. Reagan Lilley took second in the two mile with a time of 11:29.59 and third in the 1600m.

Bonilla, Dixon, Whitenack and Riley Roth won the jump with a leap of 22'3.5" and the triple jump with a jump of 45'2.5". Bailey won the pole vault with a height of 13' and Kyle Holdaway finished third, clearing 9'6". Titus Beatty finished third in the shot put with a throw of 41'7.

> Byrd's 4x200m relay of Brady Reachy, Noah Thompson, Bailey and Cooper Minnix finished second with a time of 1:34.54 and the 4x800m relay of Josh Allen, Griffin Yakob, Vincent Liu and Riley Slusher also took second.

Terriers open Region 3D basketball at home Friday

The William Byrd boys' basketball team will open Region 3D play at home Friday night. The Terriers drew Magna Vista for a first round game beginning at 6 pm at William Byrd High School.

Byrd comes into the regional with a 12-12 record after splitting two games in the Blue Ridge District tournament in the past week. The Terriers opened BRD tournament play at home with a 78-69 win over Staunton River last Friday but lost in the semifinal round at top-seeded Northside Monday, 79-43.

Friday's win was another tough battle against the border rival Eagles. Byrd led 33-26 at the half but Staunton River wouldn't go away.

"Another fun game to be a part of," said Byrd coach Brad Greenway. "Both sides were very emotional and intense after what happened last Friday(a close Staunton River win) and with the close proximity and playing each other the second time in a week, there was just a lot of juice in this game. All the guys on both teams left it all on the floor and battled."

Isaiah Board led the Terriers with 23 points while Drew Lindsay hit six threes and finished with 20. Israel Hairston had 16, with 13 coming in a big second half.
"We moved the ball extremely well on offense and our shooters took over the game," said Greenway. "Drew Lindsay, Isaiah Board, those guys felt like they were on fire before they stepped on the floor, and then Izzy(Hairston) joined the party from outside. We played really efficiently on offense."

pion Vikings jumped on top early. Northside opened a 19-3 lead after the first quarter and then increased the margin to 44-14 at the half.

'Obviously they are extremely talented, and we struggled to score against their overall athleticism," said Greenway. "I thought we handled them better and didn't let their press get to us, but we just had a real tough time scoring the basketball." Hairston had nine points to lead

Byrd, all in the third period. Lindsay and Hayden Eads had six points each.

Byrd will put Monday's game behind them and concentrate on Magna Vista, who comes to town with a 7-16 record. The winner advances to a Region 3D game next Tuesday against an opponent to be determined.
