

The background of the entire image is a bright blue sky with soft, white clouds. Scattered throughout the scene are several red graduation caps (mortarboards) and their tassels. Some caps are in sharp focus, while others are blurred, creating a sense of depth and movement. The tassels are white with red threads, and some are hanging down, while others are caught in mid-air.

WISHES YOU THE BEST OF LUCK IN YOUR FUTURE ENDEAVORS!

You DID IT!

Unique graduation gifts

Graduation season is on the horizon. This time of year is often a frenetic time for students and their families, with the promise of celebrations to come. Graduation is preceded by prom for high schoolers, and for those bidding farewell to the hallowed halls of higher education, it may mean last-minute interviews and pre-commencement résumé-building. This whirlwind of activity culminates in a degree or diploma to wrap up years spent in the classroom.

Graduates have many things to look forward to this time of year, not the least of which are gifts from close friends and family. Those tasked with coming up with graduation gifts can take inspiration from these ideas that break the mold.

- Retirement account funds: Helping a new graduate get started is a popular sentiment among gift givers, but it's also possible to give grads a leg up on the future. Helping them to fund an individual retirement account can be a thoughtful gift. Keep in mind that parameters for IRAs differ between a traditional and a Roth IRA, and it is best to speak with a financial advisor to determine the best fit. Starting a retirement account early on can provide solid footing for financial security later in life.

- Quality luggage: A good set of luggage can often last a person a lifetime if properly cared for. Whether the grad is taking a much-needed trip after graduation or will be traveling for his or her career, the luggage will serve well.

- Student loan interest payment: Many students must rely on federal or private loans to offset the costs of attending college or even trade schools. Although a loved one may not be able to pay off the loans in their entirety, a good gift can be to make payments toward the interest on the loans so that the bill is reduced come graduation.

- Roadside assistance service: The road may take graduates near and far. A membership to a roadside assistance service can be a practical gift that ensures grads get from point A to point B with fewer hiccups. These services offer towing, tire changing, gas delivery, and more. Plus, they often come with additional perks, such as discounts on travel services and lodging.

- Professional course or tickets to a conference: Help support a graduate's career growth and professional development with a subscription to a course, a book about their industry or tickets to a relevant conference or trade show.

- Travel: Grads can be treated to the gift of travel. An overseas adventure or an epic road trip across the country may be the perfect way to unwind after years of schooling.

Graduates are entering an exciting time in their lives when anything is possible. Gift givers can think outside the box when shopping for their favorite cap-and-gown-donning loved ones. TF254761

Congratulations, CLASS OF 2025!

A TOUCH OF LOVE

*You were six months old and full of fun.
With a blink of my eye, you were suddenly one!
There were so many things we were going to do,
But I turned my head and you were two.
At two you were still dependent on me,
but independence took over when you turned three.
Your third birthday, another year I wish to ignore.
But as I lit the candles, there weren't three but four.
Four was the year that you really strived.
Why look at you now, you are already five.
Now you are ready for books and rules.
This is the year that you go to school.
The big day came, you were anxious to go,
We walked to the bus going oh, so slow.
As the bus drove away and you waved goodbye,
I felt a lump in my throat as a tear stung my eye.
For when the bus brings you home and you jump to the ground
You will be wearing your cap and graduation gown.
Time goes by so fast, it is hard to believe.
Why just yesterday you were home with me.
So I treasure these moments while you're still at home,
the next time I look around you'll be grown up and gone.*
