

International Student Statement of Finances Financial Support Information

Below are the estimated expenses for F-1 and J-1 international students (non-resident rate) based on a full 12-month term (fall, spring, and summer semesters). Please note this is an estimate of expenses for one full year of study (fall, spring, and summer semesters) and students may pay an amount other than what is listed below based on the number of hours enrolled, housing options, and academic major. Students are required to provide proof of funding for one year of study at A&M-Commerce prior to admission, before an I-20/DS-2019 can be issued, and at the visa interview with the U.S. Department of State.

REQUIRED DOCUMENTS FOR FUNDING:

- Bank account (checking, saving, CD's):
  - Should be dated within six (6) months from first day of semester admitted.
  - Should be official and clearly identify account holder's name, type of account, bank name and branch
  - Should contain the specific amount of money available (statements with non-liquid assets, property, credit card, bonds, stocks, retirement account are not acceptable)
  - Originals may be requested at A&M-Commerce's discretion
- University funds
  - The main types of funding that a student may receive will be assistantships, fellowships (graduate students) or scholarships. Please contact the graduate school, scholarships of graduate students or your academic department for more information.
  - The university always issues a written offer letter to students. If you have been offered an award by A&M-Commerce then you may use that award toward the funding requirement for your I-20 or DS-2019. If your award does not cover the required amount you will be required to show additional funding from another source to cover the balance.
- Government funds:
  - The I-20 cannot be issued until a financial guarantee with the student's name, university name, and academic major student is admitted has been provided.
- Sponsor living in the U.S.
  - Sponsors living in the U.S. will be REQUIRED to also submit the I-134 Affidavit of Support and any supporting documents required with this form.

Sponsor Statement of Support for International Student Texas A&M University-Commerce

The university reserves the right to change tuition, fees, requirements and regulations without notice as necessitated by university or legislative action. Before an I-20 (F-1) or DS-2019 (J-1) can be issued, the applicant must supply the university with a financial statement providing at least the minimum estimated amount required for one full year of study at A&M-Commerce: $28,109.90 for undergraduate and $26,024.82 for graduate.
