

Charms Office Assistant Information

The Texas A&M University-Commerce Music Department consolidates student information in a cloud-based database called Charms Office Assistant. As a student in the department, Charms allows you to personally update your contact information to be certain that you receive routine correspondence from the Department Head, administrative staff and ensemble directors.

Logging into Charms is easy. Find the file labeled Charms Office Instructions. This step-by-step sheet will guide you through the process of logging in, updating your contact information, etc.

You can access Charms using the following link: www.charmsoffice.com
