Stonebriar Community Church Essential Beliefs—Statement of Faith

- I affirm my confidence in the Bible as the inspired, the only infallible, authoritative Word of God.
- I acknowledge the Creator-God as my heavenly Father, infinitely perfect, and intimately acquainted with all my ways.
- I claim Jesus Christ as my Lord—very God who came in human flesh—the object of my worship and the subject of my praise.
- I recognize the Holy Spirit as the third member of the Godhead, incessantly at work convicting, convincing, and comforting.
- I confess that Adam’s fall into sin left humanity without the hope of heaven apart from a new birth, made possible by the Savior’s death and bodily resurrection.
- I believe the offer of salvation is God’s love-gift to all. Those who accept it by faith, apart from works, become new creatures in Christ.
- I believe that, having trusted in Christ by faith, I am a new creation in Him—clothed in His righteousness and fully loved and accepted by God.
- I believe God expects my life to reflect that I belong to Him and I am pursuing a holy life.
- I believe that Satan, under the sovereign permission of God, tries to destroy the faith of believers and that drawing near to God is the only way to resist him.
- I believe that as a new creation in Christ I will continue to wrestle with my sin nature. I will, however, continue to grow in grace and become more like Jesus. Ultimate perfection and freedom from sin, however, will only come when I finally stand in the presence of the Lord.
- I believe that, as a believer in Jesus Christ, I am a member of His universal church and that the local church is the place God has designed for His people to worship Him, observe the ordinances of baptism and the Lord’s Table, and loves other Christians.
- I believe that, having embraced Jesus Christ by faith, I am to make Him known to non-Christians in my sphere of influence.

I anticipate my Lord’s promised return in power and glory. I am convinced that all who have died will be brought back from beyond—believers to everlasting communion with God and unbelievers to ever-lasting separation from God.

I agree with the Stonebriar statement of faith as stated above.

The questions listed below are part of our screening process in order to help provide a safe and secure environment for our children. All information is held in strict confidence by Stonebriar. Answering "yes" to any of the questions may not necessarily preclude your involvement in His Kids. Thank you for your understanding.

- Have you been a victim of physical, emotional, or sexual abuse?
 Yes No
- Would you like to meet with someone regarding this circumstance?
 Yes No
- Have you ever been arrested for a criminal offense excluding minor traffic violations?
 Yes No
- Have you ever been accused, arrested, or convicted for any sexually related crimes?
 Yes No
- Have you ever been accused, arrested, or convicted for any abuse related crimes?
 Yes No
- Are there any circumstances involving your lifestyle and/or your background that would call into question your ability to work with children?
 Yes No

If you answered "yes" to any of the above questions, please explain on a separate page.

- I understand that we are teaching our children to live biblically correct lives, following the word of God and being obedient to it, and that my lifestyle and behavior should be an example to these children. I affirm that this lifestyle is true of me at this time. I agree to let the church know if this situation changes and to step down from my responsibilities with children until those issues are resolved.
 Yes No
- I authorize, at Stonebriar Community Church's discretion, the investigation of all statements made by me in this application, related papers, or oral interviews and the review of any civil or criminal records which may exist, concerning me, except for such records as are sealed according to state or federal law. I understand that as a volunteer, I will not receive payment for any services performed.
